The Northern Irish Aid Community (NORAID) is the main Irish fund raising organization in the U. S. and is believed to be the major source of PIRA funding. It was founded in 1970 by MICHAEL FLANNERY and two Irish Republican Movement Veterans of the 1919-1921 period. In January, 1982, a U. S. court ruled that NORAID must comply with provisions of the Foreign Agents Registration Act (1938) and register as an Agent of the PIRA. NORAID is headquartered in New York City with Chapters located throughout the U. S.

[redacted] HAS LOST THE SUPPORT OF [redacted] THE PRESENCE OF [redacted] A KNOWN AND RESPECTED PIRA MEMBER, WAS SEEN TO SHOW SUPPORT FOR THE [redacted] /NORAID FACTION WITH THE BLESSINGS OF PSF. [redacted] VIEWED THIS VISIT WITH EXTREME DISENCHANTMENT AND HAS STATED THAT HE HAS "LOST HIS BEST FRIEND [redacted]".

[redacted] HAS VOICED EXTREME ANTI-PSF/PSF [redacted] SENTIMENT STATING THAT PSF [redacted] SHOULD NOT HAVE ANYTHING TO DO WITH THE LEADERSHIP OF NORAID IN THE UNITED STATES. [redacted] STATED THAT PSF [redacted] SHOULD ONLY BE RESPONSIBLE FOR PROVIDING THE FUNDS SENT BY NORAID TO THE FAMILIES OF INCARCERATED PIRA PRISONERS.

b7C

[redacted] HAS ALSO VOICED DISSATISFACTION WITH PIRA [redacted] [redacted] WHO ALLEGEDLY HAS CONTACTED NORAID [redacted] OF PHILADELPHIA, PENNSYLVANIA ATTEMPTING TO HAVE [redacted] SUPPORT THE MCDONALD/NORAID FACTION. THE NYO NOTES THAT [redacted] WAS KNOWN TO BE A CLOSE ASSOCIATE AND SUPPORTER OF [redacted]

SOURCE HAS ADVISED THAT A CONCERTED EFFORT HAS BEEN STAGED AGAINST [redacted] TO ATTEMPT TO FORCE [redacted] OUT OF THE NORAID ORGANIZATION WITHOUT TAKING THE [redacted] SUPPORTERS. THESE TACTICS HAVE INCLUDED A "SMEAR CAMPAIGN" WHICH HAS BEEN PRINTED IN THE ETHNIC IRISH NEWSPAPERS ALLEDGING THAT [redacted] HAS

OF THE NEW YORK OFFICE (NYO) OF THE FEDERAL BUREAU OF INVESTIGATION (FBI) ADVISED THE FOLLOWING INFORMATION CONCERNING THE IRISH NORTHERN AID COMMITTEE (INAC), ALSO KNOWN AS (AKA) NORAID.

THE ONGOING DISSENTION IN NORAID BETWEEN PROVISIONAL SINN FEIN (PSF) [redacted] OF NORAID [redacted] OF NORAID HAS INTENSIFIED. AS HAS BEEN PREVIOUSLY REPORTED THIS DISSENTION HAS PROGRESSED TO THE DEGREE WHEREIN [redacted] AND HIS SUPPORTERS PHYSICALLY MOVED THE CONTENTS OF THE NORAID OFFICE HEADQUARTERS TO A NEW LOCATION IN THE BRONX, NEW YORK AREA WITHOUT THE KNOWLEDGE OF THE [redacted] NORAID FACTION. ON SEPTEMBER 6, 1989 PIRA/NORAID SUPPORTER [redacted] AND [redacted] VISITED THE NEW NORAID OFFICE AND DEMANDED THAT [redacted] WHO SUPPORTS [redacted] RETURN ALL OF THE NORAID ITEMS THAT HAD BEEN TAKEN WITHOUT THE APPROVAL OF THE [redacted] NORAID FACTION. WHILE SOME OF THE NORAID ITEMS THAT WERE IN THE NEW OFFICE WERE RETURNED, [redacted] WAS IN POSSESSION OF THE MAJORITY OF THE NORAID ITEMS UTILIZED FOR SALE PURPOSES. UPON [redacted] LEARNING OF THE [redacted] VISIT WITH DEMANDS, IT APPEARS THAT

STOLEN NORAID FUNDS FOR HIS OWN PERSONAL GAIN. ADDITIONAL RUMORS HAVE BEEN STARTED THAT NORAID [redacted] OF BOSTON, MASSACHUSETTS IS CURRENTLY SUPPORTING [redacted] NORAID AND NOT SUPPORTING [redacted] NORAID. SOURCE REPORTED THAT THIS IS NOT FACTUAL IN THAT [redacted] STILL MAINTAINS SUPPORT OF [redacted]

SOURCE REPORTED THAT PSF LEADERS AS WELL AS [redacted] HAVE BEEN IN CONTACT WITH REGIONAL NORAID [redacted] OF SAN FRANCISO, CALIFORNIA [redacted] OF CONNECTICUT ATTEMPTING TO HAVE THEN SUPPORT THE [redacted] NORAID FACTION. SOURCE ADVISED THAT [redacted] STILL MAINTAIN SUPPORT OF [redacted] HOWEVER, MANY QUESTIONS ARE BEING RAISED BY NORAID SUPPORTERS CONCERNING THE ALLEGATIONS THAT [redacted] DID UTILIZE NORAID MONEY FOR HIS OWN PERSONAL GAIN. [redacted] HAS NOW RESIGNED HIMSELF TO THE FACT THAT HE IS NO LONGER IN CONTROL OF NORAID AND DOES NOT HAVE THE SUPPORT OF PSF/PIRA/SA EVIDENCED BY CAHILL'S CONTACTS WITH [redacted] NOTED ABOVE.

SOURCE REPORTED THAT CURRENTLY [redacted] OF ALBANY, NEW YORK IS [redacted] NORAID AND IN ALL LIKELIHOOD WILL MAINTAIN THIS POSITION. [redacted] HAS THE SUPPORT OF PIRA/PSF IN

IRELAND AND HAS BEEN SUCCESSFUL IN THE PAST IN FUND RAISING ACTIVITIES AND POLITICAL LOBBYING EFFORTS ON BEHALF OF NORAID. [redacted] IS ALSO SUPPORTIVE OF [redacted]

SOURCE REPORTED THAT NORAID [redacted] HAS STRONGLY ALIGNED HIMSELF WITH THE [redacted] NORAID FACTION AND CONTINUES TO UTILIZE HIS POSITION IN NORAID FOR PERSONAL PUBLICITY REASONS. [redacted] HAS BEEN INVOLVED IN A CONTINUING POWER STRUGGLE WITH [redacted] THAT IS OPENLY BELIEVED TO BE A PERSONAL DISLIKE. SOURCE REPORTED THAT THE RIFF BETWEEN [redacted] IN REALITY STEMS FROM [redacted] RELUCTANCE TO SPEND NORAID FUNDS FOR SALARIES AND WHAT [redacted] CONSIDERS UNNECESSARY EXPENSES. AS HAS BEEN REPORTED IN THE PAST, [redacted] HAS INCURRED SUBSTANTIAL BUSINESS EXPENSES IN CONDUCTING ACTIVITIES MORE ON HIS OWN PERSONAL BEHALF THAN ON BEHALF OF NORAID. [redacted] HAS CONTINUALLY PRESSED FOR NORAID TO PAY FOR THESE EXPENSES.

b7C
b7D

SOURCE ALSO REPORTED THAT PRIOR TO [redacted] ARREST IN DERRY, NORTHERN IRELAND [redacted] ADVISING [redacted] OF [redacted] PLANS [redacted]

OBTAINING A SUBSTANTIAL AMOUNT OF PUBLICITY WHICH WOULD HAVE BEEN PERCEIVED AS BENEFICIAL TO PIRA/NORAID. [redacted] AS WELL AS HIS SUPPORTERS ARE EXTREMELY IRATE AT [redacted] IN THAT IT WAS BELIEVED TO HAVE BEEN SIMPLY A PERSONAL PUBLICITY EVENT [redacted] SOURCE WAS NOT IN A POSITION TO ADVISE OF ANY ACTIONS REQUESTED OF [redacted] FOLLOWING [redacted] ARREST, HOWEVER, WAS OF THE OPINION THAT [redacted] DID NOT SANCTION [redacted] TRAVEL INTO THE NORTH OF IRELAND.

b6
b7C
b7D

SOURCE FURTHER REPORTED THAT [redacted]

SOURCE REPORTED THAT [redacted] NORAID ACTIVITIES HAVE CAUSED SUCH DISPUTE WITH PIRA/PSF, [redacted] NORAID THAT OVER THE SEPTEMBER 3-5, 1989 WEEKEND PIRA MEMBER [redacted] PHYSICALLY THREATENED [redacted] EVER TRAVELED TO BELFAST, NORTHERN IRELAND. [redacted] WAS ATTENDING THE IRISH FESTIVAL IN THE CATSKILL MOUNTAINS, LEADS, NEW YORK ATTEMPTING TO RAISE PIRA FUNDS. [redacted] COMMENTS TO [redacted] WERE TO THE POINT THAT [redacted] STATED IF [redacted] TRAVELED TO BELFAST HE "WOULD BE TAKEN CARE OF".

SOURCE HAS REPORTED THAT [redacted] HAS COMMENTED THAT THERE WOULD BE A "NEW GROUP" THAT WOULD BE UTILIZED TO SUPPORT [redacted] OF REPUBLICAN SINN FEIN (RSF). SOURCE DID NOT KNOW THE NAME OF THIS NEW ORGANIZATION, HOWEVER, [redacted] HAS BEEN KNOWN TO RECENTLY HAVE ESTABLISHED A RELATIONSHIP WITH NEW YORK CLAN NA GAEL [redacted] SOURCE WAS UNABLE TO COMMENT IF [redacted] WOULD JOIN [redacted] IN CLAN NA GAEL ACTIVITIES.

THE NYO OF THE FBI NOTES THAT NORAID FOUNDER MICHAEL FLANNERY RENOUNCED NORAID IN 1988 AND ESTABLISHED A RSF AMERICAN BASED SUPPORT GROUP SIMILAR TO NORAID WHICH GROUP IS CALLED AN CUMANN SAOIRSE, AKA THE IRISH FREEDOM COMMITTEE. WHILE THE IRISH FREEDOM COMMITTEE IS A RELATIVELY NEW ORGANIZATION SUPPORTIVE OF [redacted] AND RSF IT HAS INCREASED ITS SUPPORT BASE ON A LIMITED DEGREE. SHOULD [redacted] BECOME INVOLVED IN THE ORGANIZATION OF THE IRISH FREEDOM COMMITTEE THE NYO IS OF THE OPINION THAT MUCH OF [redacted] NORAID SUPPORTERS WILL ALSO SUPPORT THAT ORGANIZATION.

SOURCE REPORTED THAT THE ALLEGATIONS OVER [redacted] ALLEGED MISAPPROPRIATION OF NORAID FUNDS HAS CAUSED MANY

[redacted] NORAID SUPPORTERS TO QUESTION [redacted] MOTIVES. IN AN EFFORT TO COUNTER THESE ALLEGATIONS AGAINST [redacted] HE ANTICIPATES HOLDING A PRESS CONFERENCE WHEREIN [redacted] WILL VOICE HIS DENIAL OF THESE ALLEGATIONS [redacted] IS OF THE OPINION THAT THESE DENOUNCIATIONS WILL "CLEAR HIS NAME" AND RE-ESTABLISH TRUST IN HIM.

SOURCE FURTHER REPORTED THAT INFORMATION HAS BEEN RECEIVED THAT PSF NORAID [redacted] WILL RETURN TO IRELAND IN DECEMBER, 1989 PERMANENTLY. SOURCE REPORTED THAT [redacted] WAS ORIGINALLY SCHEDULED TO REMAIN IN THE U.S [redacted] NORAID UNTIL DECEMBER, 1990, HOWEVER, THE REASON IN [redacted] EARLY RETURN IS UNKNOWN.

The information is not to be disseminated outside of your agency without the express approval of the New York Office (NYO) of the Federal Bureau of Investigation (FBI). It is requested that all precautions be taken to prevent disclosure of this information which could compromise this confidential source of continuing value.

The 1989 Noraid Belfast Tour consisted of 62 participants from throughout the United States of which 11 were Irish Northern Aid Committee (INAC), also known as (aka) Noraid members/supporters. The 51 non-Noraid participants consisted of some United States (US) journalists and other US citizens with varied interest in the current political situation in Northern Ireland. The tour initiated at 12:00 noon on August 5, 1989 with participants meeting at Provisional Sinn Fein (PSF) headquarters, 44 Parnell Square, Dublin, ROI. During the afternoon of August 5, 1989 the tour proceeded, utilizing two rental buses obtained in Dublin, ROI to Armagh and Dundalk, ROI.

In Dundalk the tour met with PSF local [redacted] at the Ravensdale House in, Carrickcarnon, County Dundalk, ROI, telephone number 71-305-71828. Source was of the opinion that the owners of this establishment were pro-PIRA and had advance notice of the tour's arrival.

The tour remained in the South Armagh area until August 7, 1989 when it traveled to Newry, Northern Ireland (NI) traveling through a Royal Ulster Constabulary (RUC) checkpoint. [redacted] was heard to abuse the RUC and some members of the tour taunted the British soldiers who were also stationed at the checkpoint. Source reported that the RUC officer who boarded the tour buses was extremely polite and requested the tour participants not to photograph any British military installations or RUC installations. Source reported that this request was verbally assaulted and subsequently ignored by the tour participants. b6 b7C

The tour then continued from Newry returning to South Armagh, ROI and Crossmaglen, NI where half of the participants were dropped off at O'Donalds Bar in Crossmaglen. Source noted that PSF [redacted] read the names of the individuals dropped off at Crossmaglen where they were housed with local PIRA/PSF supporters as was done throughout the tour.

On August 8, 1989 the tour regrouped and traveled to Monaghan, ROI where it was met by PSF counsellor (first name unknown - FNU) [redacted] at a local hotel (unidentified). At this location the tour was met by PIRA leaders Joseph Cahill, [redacted] All of these individuals, with the exception of Cahill, gave speeches. [redacted] commented that PSF was "not a Catholic organization" and that "many loyalists voted for PSF". He further commented that many of the younger Irish individuals were extremely against the Fianna Fail political party.

Later that date, the tour left Monaghan and toured through Clogher, County Tyrone, NI where some tour participants were picked up at the Oakwood Bar. The tour then traveled to Carrickmore, County Tyrone where it stopped at Michaels Lounge. This location was [redacted] who were related to [redacted] of Yonkers, New York. The NYO of the FBI notes that [redacted] resides in the upper Bronx, New York area which is close to Yonkers, New York.

While in Michaels Lounge the source observed New York Clan Na Gael [redacted] in County Tryone, NI). [redacted] was observed to meet with three unknown white males in their early 20's. These unknown white males were observed to receive three Clan Na Gael t-shirts from [redacted] Source advised that [redacted] was staying with [redacted] and [redacted] Michaels Lounge having arrived there approximately August 4 or 5, 1989. b6 b7C [redacted] from Scotland at this location. It was unknown if [redacted] met with the [redacted] at this location.

The NYO of the FBI notes that photographs of the three unknown white males who met with [redacted] were obtained and will be forwarded.

The tour then traveled to Donagh, County Fermangh, NI to a meeting at the St. Patrick's Sports and Social Club. At this location [redacted] gave a presentation on how the "loyalists and Brits" were trying to "liquidate the nationalists". [redacted] advised that Fermangh was a "mirror or Northern Ireland". [redacted] also gave a presentation concerning job descrimination in Ireland.

The tour then proceeded to Clones, County Monaghan, ROI where a presentation was given at the Hotel Creighton (phonetic). At this hotel the "Larry Marley" funeral video was shown.

The tour then proceeded to Derrylin, County Fermangh, NI to the Hotel Mountview. At this location some of the tour participants received lodging.

The tour arrived in West Belfast, NI on August 12th where a large reception/demonstration was held at the Roddy McCorley Club. In addition to the Noraid tour participants there were numerous unidentified individuals from France, Germany, the Middle East, Chile, Spain, and Nicaragua. At this location numerous speeches were given by unidentified representatives from various organizations in addition to the PIRA. Source reported that these speeches consisted mainly of communist rhetoric, anti-capitalist and imperialist statements, and anti-United States and anti-British sentiment. Following the rally/demonstration at the Roddy McCorley Club a function was sponsored by the Prisoners Defense Fund in Andersontown, Belfast, Northern Ireland. This function at the Prisoners Defense Fund was only attended by Noraid personnel and local residents of West Belfast. The representatives from the other foreign countries/organizations were not in attendance.

Source reported that at the Roddy McCorley Club many of the participants were reluctant to have their photographs obtained.

On August 13th, a large parade was held in West Belfast wherein the participants included the Noraid tour and representatives from all of the foreign countries/organizations that were in attendance at the meeting held on August 12, 1989 at the Roddy McCorley Club.

THE FOLLOWING ARE GENERAL COMMENTS MADE BY THE SOURCE CONCERNING THE NORAID TOUR:

Source reported that the tour was extremely organized with the PSF maintaining a tight schedule of travel, speeches, demonstrations, and selective sight-seeing. Special emphasis was placed on showing the presence of British military forces throughout Northern Ireland along the ROI border. Source reported that on several occasions while touring various "forts (British military outposts along ROI border) the same forts were shown from different directions. The PSF tour guides present these times attempted to insinuate that these forts were different forts when in fact they were the same forts that were viewed from different sides.

Source stated that generally the local residents contacted spoke extremely sympathetic to the PIRA, however, were not generally supportive of PSF. Source commented that prior to any derrogatory or less than flattering comments being made concerning PSF the individuals initially spoke supportively. Source was of the opinion that those individuals who provided lodging to tour participants had been thoroughly "coached" in what to say to the tour participants/boarders. Source commented that on almost all occasions following the initial standardized pro-PIRA/PSF rhetoric by the residents during conversation the anti-PSF sentiments would arise. Source further commented that the residents who provided lodging to the tour participants received five pounds sterling payment from the PIRA/PSF per boarder which was to have been utilized for food for the boarders. Source commented that on several occasions the meal provided by the residents was extremely frugile and source was of the opinion that the five pounds sterling provided by PSF/PIRA was not utilized. b6 b7C

Source advised that the tour organizers did an effective job in establishing a "pro-PIRA, anti-Brit" attitude among the tour participants. Source advised that the large majority of the tour participants were uninformed about the political situation in Northern Ireland and participated in the Noraid tour more out of curiosity than in any desire to support the PIRA/PSF/Noraid.

Source was not aware of any members of the tour participating in any special "closed door" meetings with any PIRA or PSF members or leaders.

Source further advised that some members of the tour questioned unrecalled PSF leaders concerning a meeting with PSF [redacted] and these questions were responded to that [redacted] was "on vacation out of the country". Some members of the tour advised that they were of the impression that [redacted] was going to address the tour at some point during the tour. ADMINISTRATIVE

~~(S)~~ The source of the information set forth in the enclosed [redacted]

For the information of Albany, the enclosed LHM to the Director and Legat London provided information concerning the 1989 Irish Northern Aid Committee (INAC), aka Noraid sponsored tour to Northern Ireland which occurred 8/5-14/89. Noraid sponsors this annual tour through Northern Ireland and the border areas to the Republic of Ireland (ROI) annually. During this tour participants receive numerous propaganda style speeches by members of the PIRA/Provisional Sinn Fein (PSF) which is the political wing of the PIRA. This tour is open to interested individuals and not necessarily to those members of Noraid. The 1989 Belfast Tour had approximately 62 participants of which only approximately 11 were actual Noraid members. b1 b6 b7C

~~(S)~~ In addition to that information set forth in the LHM [redacted] identified one [redacted] (photograph enclosed) of Albany, New York as a participant. Source advised that [redacted] ~~(S)~~ was extremely pro-PIRA and vocal against British rule in Northern Ireland. [redacted] had several direct confrontations with not only British military soldiers but also Northern Irish police officials (Royal Ulster Constabulary - RUC). [redacted] made many comments of her desire to assist the PIRA in any manner possible. Source was not in a position to comment about any specific activities [redacted] might have been or is involved in but was of the opinion she would support the PIRA to any degree. Source described [redacted] as a white female, [redacted]

Source advised that [redacted] has attempted to become a member of the Albany Noraid Chapter by contacting Albany Noraid [redacted] Source commented that for unknown reasons apparently [redacted] does not want [redacted] to become involved in Noraid activities. Source opined that a possible reason for [redacted] reluctance to utilize [redacted] in Noraid activities is because of her extremely vocal pro-PIRA, anti-British attitude. Source based this opinion on the source's knowledge that [redacted] actions while on the Noraid tour were extremely antagonistic towards the British military and RUC. [redacted] continued her antagonistic attitudes even against the wishes of the PSF leadership. [redacted] during the Noraid tour, again against the wishes of the PSF leadership.

Noraid attempts to close ranks

By Ray O'Hanlon

Refuting newspaper reports of a split in the ranks of the Irish Northern Aid Committee (Noraid), the organization's National Executive this week was able to show concrete support from Sinn Fein headquarters in Belfast.

However two distinct Noraid offices were still operating in New York, one at the organization's long established headquarters in Manhattan and another in the Bronx.

Last weekend it was reported in a Dublin Sunday newspaper that a split had emerged in the ranks of Noraid, which raises funds for the families of Republican prisoners in the North, and it has been alleged, for the IRA.

The Sunday Tribune said that the split had occured in July when a founder member of Noraid, Pat O'Connell,moved office equipment from the Noraid premises in Inwood, Upper Manhattan to a new office at Mosholu Avenue in the Bronx.

After a meeting of the organization's National Executive,which ordered a return of the equipment, O'Connell resigned. The disagreement apparently stems from Sinn Fein's desire to see Noraid broaden its appeal in the United States and to extend its activities beyond fund raising.

O'Connell has been in Ireland in recent days and has been unavailable for comment. A call to the Mosholu Avenue office by the Irish Echo was referred to Noraid's National Director in Boston, Jim Maun-

ATTENTION ALL IRISH NORTHE

Irish Northern Aid was formed 20 years ago with the sole objective of raising money to support Irish Republican prisoners and their families through An Cumann Cabhrach and Green Cross as stated in our "Statement of Principles" at the formation of Irish Northern Aid. Said "Statement of Principles" is printed below.*

Over the years Irish Northern Aid has had growing success in accomplishing its objectives. During the 20 year period, due to the efforts of the organization, under the direction of its Executive Committee and through the efforts of the dedicated, loyal and untiring workers, the Irish Northern Aid Committee was able to surmount an initial skepticism on the part of the general public in respect to the true motives and purposes of this organization. As a consequence of these efforts, Irish Northern Aid has been able to achieve a high level of credibility, comparable to any other humanitarian organization.

As a result of a meeting held in Dublin in December 1988, between members of the Republican Movement in Ireland and members of the Irish Northern Aid Executive Committee, it appears to us that the organization is being steered in a direction towards politics and away from its original humanitarian objectives.

In view of this, it appears to us that the newly constituted and expanded National Executive of Irish Northern Aid is deviating from the ORIGINAL "Statement of Priniciples" on which Irish Northern Aid was founded.

Original Statement of Principles

Irish Northern Aid is an American based, humanitarian organization which together with An Cumann Cabhrach and Green Cross gives support to families of political prisoners and to prisoners' welfare. All monies raised by Irish Northern Aid are distributed in weekly support packets. The amount is determined in accordance with the needs of each family. Irish Northern Aid undertakes this activity recognizing that these prisoners are the most extreme victims of British occupation in Ireland.

Irish Northern Aid promotes an American awareness of the nature of British rule in Ireland. The British hold six counties in order to exploit Ireland as a colony. British rule is sustained by economic, political and social privilege conferred on one segment of Irish people in order to artificially divide them from fellow Irishmen and from their natural aspiration for an independent Irish nation.

Statement from Irish Northern Aid national executive committee

"Irish Northern Aid deeply regrets the decision by a small group of members and former members to engage in a public attack on the Irish Republican Movement and Irish Northern Aid by means of a paid advertisement.

"We are particularly saddened that these people have chosen to take such a course of action despite the specific written and verbal guarantees from Irish republican leaders that their complaints are wholly groundless. Furthermore, the concerns that have been expressed by these individuals have already been answered at an open meeting of members in the New York Metropolitan area which was held in September. Any remaining legitimate fears were to be discussed at an open meeting of the National Executive and the general membership which has been scheduled for this Saturday, Oct. 7.

"We are disappointed that people who had agreed to such a meeting decided to pre-empt discussion by placing such an advertisement in advance. Indeed, a request to postpone the advertisement until after the meeting had taken place was also refused. Irish Northern Aid was founded to perform fundamental tasks; one to raise money for the families of Irish political prisoners and, second, to advance the cause of Irish freedom by publicizing the injustices of British rule, thereby creating an American awareness and generating American political pressure upon the British to withdraw from Ireland.

"The Statement of Principles included in the advertisement (which were, in fact, drawn up in 1979 by Martin Galvin and not 20 years ago as claimed), fully incorporate the above tasks.

"The commitment of Irish Northern Aid to the families of Irish political prisoners remains undiminished. We are proud of our continued ability to fulfil our financial commitments and are equally proud of the pressure we have generated upon the British through our involvement in the MacBride Principles, the visa denial issue and other political campaigns, as well as our overall publicity campaign.

"As the struggle in Ireland has reached its 20th anniversary and as Irish republicans escalate the fight for freedom Irish Northern Aid is determined to escalate its support activities in America by continuing to build an open and democratic organization.

"The list of people in the advertisement includes a number of well-intentioned people who have been misled. The names on this list will undoubtedly be used by British propagandists to undermine support for the dependents of prisoners and is, in effect, an abandonment of the Irish Republican Movement, Irish Republican prisoners and Irish Northern Aid to which they had given allegiance and service.

"Our disappointment at their actions is matched by our resolution to ensure that financial support to An Cumann Cabhrach and our overall efforts on behalf of the Irish freedom struggle will increase in the months and years ahead."

The statement was made on behalf of the National Executive committee, by Paul Murray (chairman) and Martin Galvin (Public Relations Director.)

Republican Movement Response

A paid advertisement, consisting of a political statement and carrying the names of a number of current and ex-members of the Irish Northern Aid Committee who support the statement, has been placed with the Irish Voice and Irish Echo newspapers in New York.

We have been asked to issue the following statement commenting on the above.

"This advertisement has been placed against the expressed wishes of those directly involved in the struggle in Ireland. It is a grave disappointment. Paid advertisements are not the way to conduct an internal debate.

"This initiative, regardless of the motivation behind it, is, in effect, at best a diversion, at worst a provocation. It will be a source of confusion for the membership and supporters of the Irish Northern Aid Committee (INAC).

"Furthermore, it is inaccurate. No one in Ireland or in the United States has, at any time, suggested that the role of the INAC should be anything other than to support the dependents of Irish political prisoners-of-war and to promote freedom, justice and peace in Ireland—to promote Irish independence.

"In formulating a strategy for the United States aimed at furthering the objectives of Irish independence, the opinion of the INAC, through its National Executive, has always been sought and, through open discussion, mutual agreement arrived at.

"That was the case at the meeting in Dublin in December 1988 where agreement was unanimous.

"We have advocated the internal matters pertaining to the INAC, including the means by which the implementation of that strategy is arrived at, be decided through open and democratic internal debate in conjunction with those involved in the struggle in Ireland and the adherence to the decisions which that democratic debate produces. That debate is already underway and must be pursued in a structured and disciplined manner, if we are to realize the full potential of the solidarity movement in the United States, which is so necessary to the achievement of Irish independence.

"The alternative is to pursue diversions with their ever attendant factionalism and the rendering of a vital arm of this struggle into a useless form. To take that course is to lose sight entirely of the reasons for the existence of the struggle in Ireland, to the detriment of the struggle itself, as well as to the detriment of the welfare of the prisoners' dependents.

"We urge all supporters, including the signatories of the paid advertisements, to fully participate in the debate and decision-making processes in a prescribed, structured and disciplined manner."

NORAID AT THE CRO

"THE MOST successful in years," was how one Irish Northern Aid leader described the organization's annual Unity Dance at the Tower View Center in Queens on Friday, October 6. However, the title of this event was very much at odds with what has been happening in the Irish Republican support group over the last few months.

In an advertisement last week in Irish American newspapers 40 members and former members of Noraid, including its founder Michael Flannery, accused the leadership of Noraid of "deviating from the original 'Statement of Principles' on which Irish Northern Aid was founded."

The row has its origins in a meeting that was held between Noraid and Sinn Fein leaders in Dublin in December 1988. Prior to this meeting the Republican leadership had dispatched two men to the U.S. to compile a report on the state of Noraid. What they found did not overly impress the leadership in Ireland.

The report that was drawn up reportedly painted a picture of an organization that was ghettoized and lacking in professionalism. After 17 years of existence it still had no full-time worker. Similarly its fundraising potential was limited by its inability to reach outside a narrow layer of supporters.

For the Provos the United States was, next to Ireland, the most important battle field in the propaganda war with the British government. The development of the MacBride Principles into a major embarrassment to the British government was seen by the Provos as a classic example of how their supporters in the United States should operate.

Irish Northern Aid: For the Provos the United States was, next to Ireland, the most important battle field in the propaganda war with the British government.

They also saw the liberal wing of the Democratic Party, and Jesse Jackson's Rainbow Coalition as a natural constituency within which to raise the Irish issue. Similarly, the wave of new Irish emigrants who have come to the U.S. in the last seven years were seen as an important recruiting area.

Eventually a meeting was held in Dublin in December 1988 between the Provo leaders and the Noraid executive. At the meeting it was agreed unanimously that the executive would be expanded and the organization would work towards becoming national and democratic in structure. However, there were misgivings, even though they were not stated at the meeting. Chiefly New York's Pat O'Connell and Boston's Jim Maunsell were known to be unhappy with the proposed changes. They were used to the organization being run in a certain fashion. In Noraid's history, only two national conferences were ever held. The organization was in effect run by a unit in the Bronx, of which O'Connell was a member.

For the group around O'Connell, the proposed changes were fine on paper, as long as they remained that way. But when Sinn Fein sent an officer to New York to work full-time in the headquarters in the Inwood section of Manhattan, it was clear that the people in Ireland meant business.

In July of this year O'Connell made his move.

He and a group of his supporters removed the contents of the Noraid office to a new location in Riverdale. The Noraid phone was disconnected and the office files and checkbooks were also taken. According to O'Connell supporters, this move was meant to force the Provos in Ireland to rescind the changes. This was a miscalculation.

In the middle of the crisis Brendan Hughes, who led the first 1980 hunger strike in Long Kesh, arrived in the U.S. Hughes visited a number of Noraid units across the country explaining the Belfast position and allaying fears that many Noraid members had about the changes.

Veteran Belfast Republican Joe Cahill, who had been a primary link between Belfast and the U.S. for many years, made it clear to O'Connell that they were not backing down. He also demanded the immediate return of the office to Inwood. In the end O'Connell gave in. Both he and Maunsell resigned from the Noraid executive.

In all of this the "old man," Michael Flannery did not intervene. Flannery had broken with the Republican leadership at the end of 1986, when both the IRA and Sinn Fein decided that it was time for Sinn Fein to end its policy of refusing to take seats in the Dublin parliament.

Flannery sided with the group that split from Sinn Fein on that issue, Republican Sinn Fein. At that time Flannery also left Noraid, although he agreed not to publicly disclose the fact. However, when O'Connell and Maunsell decided to place an advert in the 'Irish Voice' and the 'Irish Echo' attacking the Noraid leadership, Flannery saw a chance for Republican Sinn Fein to take advantage of the discontentment.

Last week he told the 'Irish Voice' that he hoped that the signatories to the advertisement would "eventually result in a new organization — hopefully one that would support Republican Sinn Fein (RSF)." However, the chances of this were never very good.

Since its formation RSF has failed to gain ground. More importantly, the IRA has remained loyal to the Gerry Adams leadership of Sinn Fein. Without an armed wing in combat with the British Army, RSF would have little attraction for miltant Irish Americans.

The problem for RSF was that the group around O'Connell was not particularly sympathetic to them. Many of them were motivated by personal loyalty to O'Connell and Maunsell, rather than any coherent differences with Belfast.

The advertisement was set to appear a couple of days before the Noraid annual Unity Dance. The Unity Dance was to be followed by a day-long conference at the Tower View Center in Queens. With advance notice of the advert Adams and Cahill issued a statement strongly critical of it, describing it as "against the expressed wishes of those directly involved in the struggle in Ireland" and "at best a diversion, at worst a provocation."

When O'Connell and Flannery arrived at the day-long conference, another statement had been issued

SSROADS

by Belfast, specially prepared for the conference. The statement didn't mince its words. It strongly attacked the rumors that monies from Noraid were been used for anything other than traditional purposes. The statement called for unity and support for the Noraid leadership and affirmed that Noraid would continue to be the "sole official solidarity organization of the Republican movement."

The statement also added that Belfast had received more money from Noraid in the last four weeks than it had in the previous four months. It asked the membership to allow time for the new measures to take effect. The alternative they said was a descent into "factionalizm" and the disintegration of Noraid.

Any thoughts that there was a move towards RSF were dispelled when it became clear that no-one in the hall was, publicly at least, supporting Flannery's position.

The dissidents who attended the conference did not call for a debate about the contents of the advert. Instead they called for the removal of publicity director Martin Galvin and chairman Paul Murray. They also called for the return to Ireland of the full-time worker from Sinn Fein. Apart from the advert signatories who attended, there seemed to be little support for this proposal.

Murray made the executive's position very clear. He handed out a letter to all of the signatories of the advert. It called on them to publicly support the Noraid leadership and the Republican leadership in Ireland. It was made clear that failure to do so would result in their not being re-admitted to the organization. The letter restated the Belfast position. Anyone who did not support the Republican leadership had no place in Noraid.

After the conference it appeared that the Noraid leadership had the upper hand. Although O'Connell and his supporters had tried to cancel Noraid's annual banquet next January, that was a move that will probably serve to further isolate him and his close supporters. Whether they will now form a new organization and what political orientation it would have, is uncertain.

The next stage in the development of Noraid will come at a national conference which will take place after the annual banquet in January. The conference will, according to Noraid sources, "present a comprehensive financial report" and parts of the conference will be open to the press.

The next few months will probably tell whether the project hatched in Dublin in December 1988 will produce results. It will also be clear whether the opposition to these changes has any real support in the organization.

A special thanks to Pat Moloney and John Mahon of Fast Copy (Brookline), Tommy Lally of Crystal Travel, John Curran of the Sound of Erin Radio Show and to all the bands and staff, we would like to say.... Thanks

Noraid and Republican leaderships. It is understood that the signing of this declaration is a pre-condition for their re-entry into the organization.

Among the signatories of the controversial advert who attended the meeting was former Noraid president Pat O'Connell. The advert at the center of the row accused the Noraid leadership of "deviating from the original Statement of Principle on which the organization was founded." The opposition members reportedly circulated rumors in the organization that funds collected by Noraid were being diverted to Sinn Fein for political purposes and not to the dependants of political prisoners. To rebut this allegation, a statement of Noraid finances was read out at the conference.

The conference heard a statement from the leadership of the Republican movement in Belfast confirming its support for Noraid and its national executive. In the midst of reports of the setting-up of a new organization by the dissidents, the statement asserted that Noraid would continue to be the "sole official solidarity organization" of the Provos in the U.S.

Noraid Rebuff For Flannery

By PATRICK FARRELLY

A CALL by the founder of Irish Northern Aid, Michael Flannery, for the membership to withdraw support from the present IRA and Sinn Fein leadership, received no backing at a conference of the U.S. Republican support group last weekend in Queens, New York.

Flannery's call came after he and a group of Noraid dissidents had challenged the present leadership of Noraid in newspaper advertisements last week. Members of Noraid who attended the conference described the atmosphere as "hot and heavy."

A spokesman for the dissidents also demanded from the floor of the conference that Noraid's publicity director Martin Galvin and chairman Paul Murray be removed from their positions. The group was asked to submit this request to the executive, but there was no indication of support for the demand.

In addition, peace talks arranged between the dissident leaders and members of the Noraid executive, to take place the night before the conference, were cancelled when the dissidents failed to turn up.

In another development, an attempt was made by the former president of Noraid and leader of the dissidents, Pat O'Connell, to cancel the organization's annual banquet, the biggest event in the Noraid calendar, which for the last seventeen years has been held at the Astorian Manor in Queens.

According to reports, O'Connell went to the hotel and told the management that the dinner was being cancelled and that Martin Galvin had no authority to book the venue on behalf of Noraid. A Noraid spokesman said that he was "absolutely definite" that the banquet would go ahead as usual.

Flannery was asked at the conference of about 150 Noraid activists to confirm remarks he had made to the 'Irish Voice' last week that he hoped dissident Noraid members would support Republican Sinn Fein, a group that split from the Provisionals in November 1986. When the new chairman of Noraid, Paul Murray, asked the conference for an indication of support for Flannery's position, no-one raised their hand.

The conference was called to discuss the advertisement placed by 40 Noraid dissidents in the 'Irish Voice' and 'Irish Echo' last week. The signatories of the advert, about 20 of whom were present at the conference, were asked to sign a public declaration affirming confidence in both the Attorney Paddy Sweeney said his client made an error of judgement — "He was a young man working in England and was soon to be married." ## Slapped Nun on Face

MICHAEL Meehan, 38, appeared before Tipperary District Court for assaulting Sister Veronica Hickey. Meehan had gone to the convent looking for charity and when told by the nun to go around to another door, he lost his temper and slapped her on the face.

The defending attorney accepted that Meehan had committed an "appalling" act." His client felt a terrible desperation as he had gone blind in one eye and the other one was also threatened. He had walked 12 miles to the convent to seek help and had to wait an hour before the nun turned up in a car.

A letter of apology had been written to Sister Veronica, but Judge Sheridan sentenced Meehan to three months in jail and recommended that his eyesight be seen to immediately.

Final Word

This is an editorial which I have long waited to write. Since July 4, 1979, it has been at once my privilege and my curse to serve as editor of this publication. This week a new editor, Michael Shanley, will assume the position of editor. I will, while remaining in the capacity of a some-time columnist, be devoting more time to increased publicity and organizational responsibilities within Irish Northern Aid.

Thanks

Over the past decade, a long list of people come to mind who have earned my thanks and the thanks of Ireland. First and foremost is the volunteer staff whose time, energy, frustration and thankless sacrifices are really responsible for the Irish People's publication each week. Our readership and their financial and other support for the paper is deeply appreciated. I am also grateful to the Republican Press Center and Foreign Affairs Bureau in Ireland for the essential news items and political guidance.

Confidence

Over the past ten and a half-years, I hope that the Irish People has advanced, in terms of its political import, its role in organizing, political education and fundraising. It has been a momentous decade, encompassing the hunger strike, shoot-to-kill, MacBride Principles, Loughgall, Republican political advance, my own ban, and, most importantly, a dramatic escalation of the Irish Republican Army's struggle against British rule. I move on, confident that the new editor, with the continuing support of the dedicated staff and readership, will bring the Irish People further, and that this is the final phase of the Irish people's struggle for freedom.

Martin Galvin

1. PSF had sent [redacted] to the US to attempt to unify the [redacted] faction with the [redacted] Noraid faction. While to a limited extent [redacted] was able to sway some support of old line Noraid support [redacted] by and large it was much less of a success than was expected.

[redacted] b6 b7C b7D

2. The [redacted] faction now has the support of [redacted] who is well respected by New York PIRA sympathizers. PSF leadership has directed [redacted] to utilize his influence to attempt to bring [redacted] supporters back to [redacted] Noraid. [redacted] attempts have had limited success in bringing supporter back to [redacted] Noraid. [redacted] reluctance to accept PSF's new direction and control is the primary reason behind the Noraid split.

[redacted] has conducted limited travel in the Northeast part of the US [redacted] to contact [redacted] Noraid supporters [redacted] Additional inquiries are being made by the NYO concerning this meeting and pertinent information will be reported when received. b6 b7C b7D

[redacted] will not undertake any official position in Noraid and will be utilized to try to regain support from [redacted] for [redacted] Noraid.

[redacted]

As set forth above, [redacted] unify the various factions involved in the current Noraid split. Due to [redacted] position of respect in the PIRA sympathizers community PSF feels that [redacted] will be productive in his endeavors.

He has traveled extensively throughout the US having met with all of the regional Noraid leaders.

[redacted] currently at odds over the current dispute in Noraid. [redacted] does not want to accept control of Noraid by PSF [redacted] Following the [redacted] faction removing the contents of the Noraid office [redacted] visited the new [redacted] Noraid office. [redacted] attempted to have the Noraid office furniture, records, and merchandise returned to the [redacted] Noraid office. [redacted] presence [redacted] was an effort to show the [redacted] Noraid office staff that [redacted] was supporting PSF [redacted] Noraid. [redacted] did not make any verbal threats to the office staff his presence there was an attempt by PSF, [redacted] to show strength.

[redacted] there has been in the past misappropriation of Noraid funds by unidentified individuals. [redacted]

*The NYO comments that independent source information has corroborated the above. Numerous opportunities would/have been available to PIRA support structure in the United States wherein NYO FBI Agents' photographs could have been obtained. The NYO of the FBI is of the opinion that these photographs do exist. The NYO concurs with that information that US law enforcement authorities in the US would not be approved PIRA targets. NYO FBI Agents involved in Irish terrorism investigations that are known to PIRA could be in jeopardy if detected in Belfast, Northern Ireland in vulnerable circumstances.

Flannery Dollars

IN A reference to the 1982 Brooklyn Arms Trial in a 'New York Newsday' article about Noraid's current problems, Michael Flannery commented on $17,000 that at the trial he stated had been a "loan" given to one of the other defendants to buy arms.

Asked by 'Newsday's' Paul Colford whether, in fact, the money had come from Noraid funds, Flannery replied, "Well, of course, at the time we swore that it wasn't but actually it was INA (Irish Northern Aid) money... (but) nobody knew it was INA money. I had a legitimate receipt for that money having been transferred over (to Ireland), but it wasn't."

This extraordinary remark has angered a number of people in Noraid who are wondering why at this stage Flannery decided to make such an incriminating statement. In the present atmosphere, with the exit of Flannery and a number of others from Noraid, some are suspicious of the intent of this public admission.

INFORMATION FURNISHED BY A SENSITIVE AND RELIABLE SOURCE. b6 b7C

[redacted] OF NORAID IN THE UNITED STATES IN JANUARY OF 1990, [redacted] RECENTLY TRAVELLED TO CINCINNATI, OHIO. [redacted] HAS INDICATED THAT HE SERVED TIME IN NORTHERN IRELAND FOR SOME TYPE OF EXPLOSIVES/BOMBING OFFENSE. HE HAS DISPLAYED A VERY STRONG INTEREST IN PHOTOGRAPHY. [redacted] IS EXPECTED TO TRAVEL TO NORTHERN IRELAND IN DECEMBER AND RETURN TO THE

b6
b7C

UNITED STATES IN JANUARY, 1990 [redacted] PLANS TO SPEND APPROXIMATELY ONE YEAR IN THE UNITED STATES.

ON NOVEMBER 16, 1989, A MEETING WAS HELD AT THE DAY STORE IN POUGHKEEPSIE, NEW YORK, TO DISCUSS PLANS FOR A DUCHESS COUNTY NEW YORK NORAID CHAPTER. ATTENDEES AT THIS MEETING INCLUDED [redacted] FOR NORAID IN THE UNITED STATES), [redacted] THE MEETING HAD APPROXIMATELY 20 ATTENDEES.

[redacted]

b6
b7C

[redacted] DID SOME SPEAKING AT THE MEETING. HE INDICATED THAT HE HAD BEEN IN THE CASTLE REAGH PROGRAM. HE GAVE NO INDICATION OF WHEN HE WOULD RETURN TO NORTHERN IRELAND. [redacted]

[redacted]

[redacted] INDICATED DURING HIS SPEECH THAT HE HAD LIED ON HIS U.S. IMMIGRATION FORM THAT HE WAS REQUIRED TO FILL OUT PRIOR TO TRAVELING TO THE UNITED STATES. HE ADMITTED THAT HE ANSWERED "NO" TO THE QUESTION CONCERNING WHETHER HE HAD A CRIMINAL RECORD.

b6
b7C

[redacted] EXPLAINED THAT HE DID NOT CONSIDER HIS RECORD TO INCLUDE A "CRIMINAL" OFFENSE. INSTEAD [redacted] INDICATED THAT HE WAS IN PRISON FOR POLITICAL REASONS. SOME OF THE COMMENTS MADE BY [redacted] DURING HIS SPEECH LED THE SOURCE TO SPECULATE THAT [redacted] MAY STILL BE PART OF AN ACTIVE SERVICE UNIT.

THE FOCUS OF THE "POW" SPEAKING TOUR IN THE UNITED STATES IN NOVEMBER OF 1989 WAS ON OBTAINING CONTRIBUTIONS FOR PRISONERS. ANY DISCUSSION OF THE "WAR EFFORT" WAS DE-EMPHASIZED.

DURING [redacted] STAY IN THE UNITED STATES, SHE MADE SEVERAL TELEPHONE CALLS TO [redacted]

b6
b7C

[redacted] REPORTEDLY RETURNED TO NORTHERN IRELAND [redacted] THE MEETING/SPEAKING ENGAGEMENT WHICH OCCURRED AT KATIE O'TOOLE'S IN MANHATTAN RAISED APPROXIMATELY $2,000.00 IN CASH. POW SPEAKERS WHO TOURED THE UNITED STATES IN NOVEMBER OF 1989 RETURNED TO NORTHERN IRELAND WITH ANY FUNDS RAISED SEPARATELY; THEY DID NOT "POOL" THE FUNDS. DURING [redacted] STAY IN THE U.S., THE COUNTRY OF HOLLAND WAS MENTIONED AS A POSSIBLE NEW PLACE OF PIRA SUPPORT AND ACTIVITY.

THE SOURCE ALSO INDICATED THAT JOE CAHILL NOT ONLY STILL

b6
b7C

CONTROLS ALL THE MONEY AS THE TREASURER FOR SINN FEIN, HE ALSO MAINTAINS RECORDS OF WHERE ALL THE MONEY CAME FROM.

SOURCE ADVISED THAT MONEY RAISED BY THE FRIENDS OF IRISH FREEDOM NOW GOES TO [redacted] IN ARMAGH, SUPPOSEDLY FOR PRISONERS OF WAR. HOWEVER, IT IS BELIEVED THAT THE MONEY THEN GOES TO JOE CAHILL.

SOURCE ADVISED THAT THE THRUST OF THE RECENT TRIP BY THE POW SPEAKERS TO THE UNITED STATES WAS TO PULL PEOPLE BACK TOWARDS NORAID AND UNIFY SUPPORT.

[redacted]

b6
b7C

[redacted] HAVE SERVED TIME IN NORTHERN IRELAND FOR PIRA RELATED OFFENSES. [redacted] IN COUNTY TYRONE SEARCHED BY BRITISH SOLDIERS DURING THE ~~PAST~~ PRIOR WEEKEND. [redacted] IS BELIEVED TO HAVE KNOWN JOE CAHILL SINCE SOMETIME IN 1981. [redacted] IS NOT FULLY TRUSTED BY PIRA/PSF LEADERS IN NORTHERN IRELAND. IT IS SPECULATED THAT [redacted] WILL MOUNT A PARTICULARLY AGGRESSIVE FUND RAISING CAMPAIGN IN THE UNITED STATES IN 1990 IN AN

b6
b7C

EFFORT TO PROVE HIS WORTHINESS.

SOURCE ALSO ADVISED THAT MOST PIRA OPERATIONS HAVE BEEN CENTERED IN TYRONE SINCE APPROXIMATELY 3 YEARS AGO.

STATEMENTS RECENTLY MADE BY [redacted] INDICATE THAT NORAID SENT $150,000 TO NORTHERN IRELAND LAST YEAR WHICH WAS ABOVE AND BEYOND THE FIGURE REFLECTED IN NORAID'S ACCOUNTING BOOKS. NORAID ROUTINELY FUNCTIONS WITH TWO SETS OF ACCOUNTING BOOKS. IT WAS NOT DETERMINED WHETHER "LAST YEAR" REFERRED TO THE YEAR OF 1988 OR THE PAST YEAR OF 1989.

JOE CAHILL IS VERY CLOSELY ASSOCIATED WITH THE MUSICAL GROUP

b6
b7C

THE WOLFE TONES. CONCERT MONEY RAISED BY THE WOLFE TONES IS DEFINITELY NOT FOR PRISONERS BUT FOR IS FOR IRA PURPOSES. THE WOLFE TONES DO NOT TAKE THIS MONEY BACK TO NORTHERN IRELAND THEMSELVES.

STARTING IN FEBRUARY OF 1990, [redacted] WILL BE IMPLEMENTING A MAJOR FUND RAISING EFFORT IN THE UNITED STATES. THIS FUND RAISING WILL BE TERMED A RAFFLE WITH A $10,000 PRIZE. HOWEVER, NO BONA FIDE $10,000 PRIZE WILL EXIST. NORAID CHAPTER$ LEADERS IN THE UNITED STATES WILL BE ASKING A TIGHT KNIT GROUP OF SUPPORTERS TO GIVE $20.00 PER WEEK FOR FIVE WEEKS. EACH PERSON WILL THEREAFTER BE ASKED TO ASK FIVE MORE PEOPLE TO DO THE SAME. IT IS ANTICIPATED

b7C

THAT THIS PARTICULAR FUND RAISING SCHEME WILL OPERATE ONLY FOR A FIVE WEEK PERIOD. HOWEVER, EACH CHAPTER IS EXPECTED TO RAISE APPROXIMATELY $25,000. IT IS NOTED THAT THIS FUND RAISING SCHEME HAS GREAT POTENTIAL TO RAISE LARGE AMOUNTS OF MONEY IF SUCCESSFUL. THERE WILL BE ANOTHER SPEAKER COMING OVER FROM NORTHERN IRELAND IN FEBRUARY OF 1990. IT IS SPECULATED THAT THIS SPEAKER MAY TAKE BACK SOME OF THE MONEY RAISED BY THE AFOREMENTIONED "RAFFLE."

1. Determining whether or not to have all NORAID members pay periodic dues to the organization. These dues would be in the amount of $20.00 and down, according to a sliding scale. It has not yet been determined how frequently these dues would be paid to NORAID.

There was a meeting [redacted] INAC [redacted] in New York City, New York. Members in attendance were: [redacted] Items of importance discussed at the meeting were as follows:

National Mail Campaign - [redacted] reported that a mailing list of over 7,500 names had been given to INAC by several "friendly" organizations and that another very large support group's mailing list may be obtained in the near future. There was a lengthy discussion as to whether or not to go ahead with the mailing as soon as possible or wait until March. It was resolved to go ahead with the National Mail Appeal for the political prisoner's families as soon as possible as there was a need for "a hell of a lot of money." It should be noted that the list of 7,500 names are not those of usual "republicans" but rather that of people with no association with INAC.

The issue of further outreach regarding INAC dissidents who continue to undermine the movement was discussed. It was resolved that [redacted] compose a letter ( to be printed in the Irish People Newspaper), to counter the false allegations and lies in the latest "Friends of Irish Freedom" correspondence by which they hoped to confuse and alienate supporters of the Republican movement in America.

It was also resovled that [redacted] the An Cumann Cabrach Testimonial Journal.

On January 20, 1990, INAC held its annual National Conference at Local 30 of the International Union of Operating Engineers hall located at 115-06 Myrtle Avenue, Richmond Hills, Queens County, New York. The stated objective of the conference was to improve communications between all INAC members, units and the national executive, and to include membership input into the planning and decision making processes of INAC.

Source advised that communication attached to the tentative agenda for the national conference mentioned that there were currently 800 Irish men and women in jail because of their political beliefs. In order to contribute $15.00 per week to each prisoner, INAC would have to raise $12,000 per week or $624,000 per year. Therefore, a major challenge to INAC is to find ways to raise large amounts of money and still mount effective political action and publicity campaigns to counter the massive British propaganda efforts in the United States. It was suggested that an annual dues program and voluntary pledge program could contribute significantly to INAC fund raising objectives with a minimum of effort and would also provide a steady and reliable cash flow throughout the year.

The proposed annual dues program would be a flexible program by which each member of INAC would be billed quarterly from INAC headquarters according to their particular financial position and degree of committment to the movement. It was also suggested that certain members may not want their names on INAC membership lists and could therefore pay their dues to their unit chairperson who would forward same to the national office.

Under the proposed voluntary pledge program, INAC members, supporters and units would be invited to pledge a sum of money each month on a voluntary basis. INAC headquarters will develop a list of possible pledgers through advertising, direct mail solicitations and through their regional units. It is thought that once this program is developed, little further effort will be necessary in order to insure that large sums of steady income will be generated to INAC.

The INAC National General Meeting agenda was as follows:

Welcome: Aggie Brady
Introductory remarks: Paul Murray
Organization and Development: Richard Lawlor
Political Action: Gerry Coleman
Publicity: Martin Galvin
Irish People(Newspaper): Michael Shanley
Financial: Ed Brady
Fund Raising Programs: Kieran Staunton, Maureen McCullagh, Ed Brady
Introduction of Office Staff: Marion Reynolds
Address by Bob Smith - An Cumann Cabhrach

INAC Agenda Continued:

Voting
Dues Proposal
Voluntary Pledge Proposal
Questions and Answers
Membership Remarks and Suggestions
Closing Remarks: Paul Murray

Significant specifics of the items addressed are as follows:

INAC Financial Report - Ed Brady

Remarks were made that INAC's role in the republican struggle is to help provide financial support to the families of Irish political prisoners. INAC accomplishes that goal by sending money to An Cumann Cabhrach, a charitable organization in Ireland. Brady stated that An Cumann Cabhrach is experiencing difficult times. Traditionally, much of their income came from the nationalist areas in Northern Ireland but due to the economic climate in those areas, a more significant amount of money is needed to be raised in the United States. Brady stated that the National Executive of INAC, expressing confidence in the INAC membership, has committed a minimum of $300,000 to An Cumann Cabhrach for the calendar year 1990. INAC fund raising programs are generated at the national, regional and unit level. The 1990 National Program was outlined as follows:

| Dues: | $20,000 |
| Pledge Program: | 15,000 |
| Testimonial Dinner Dance: | 40,000 |
| Unity Dance: | 20,000 |
| Direct Mail Appeals: | 15,000 |
| Merchandise Program: | 10,000 |
| Donations: | 10,000 |
| TOTAL: | $130,000 |

1990 Regional Programs:

|---|---|
| Testimonials: ( Chicago, Pennsylvania,Boston,etc.) | $60,000 |
| Easter Breakfasts, Commerative Journals, etc. | 20,000 |
| TOTAL: | $80,000 |

1990 Unit Programs:

|---|---|
| Socials, Video showings, Donations: | $150,000 |
| GRAND TOTAL: | $360,000 |

In addition to funds destined for An Cumann Cabhrach, INAC's stated goals for 1990 is to raise additional money for organizational and unit development programs, political action programs, publicity programs and funds to cover general and administrative expenses.

INAC Publicity/Media Relations: Martin Galvin - Rich Lawlor

Statement was made that publicity is a vital element of INAC's program to build support for the Irish Republican Movement and Irish national freedom. The basic tool of the publicity program was stated to be the media list. Efforts will be made to gererate a list of individual reporters ( television, radio and newspaper) who are favorably disposed to the republican cause. It was also mentioned that efforts would be directed to having speakers from Ireland and elsewhere available to challenge British propaganda.

Statement was made that INAC receives important news data, republican statements etc., from the Republican Movement via the FAX machine located in the main office. The FAX will be utilized as an immediate vehicle for communicating news releases to the American media, and to other units around the United States. A list of 36 Newspapers, magazine, television and radio stations was destributed as those to contact in connection with the media and publicity campaign.

INAC Political Education: Jerry Coleman

Objective: To take the offensive in the political and propaganda war in the United States on behalf of the republican movement.

Goals: Enactment of legislation on the national, state and local level which would favorably effect the struggle for Irish freedom and self-determination. To match the negative effects of the British Information Service, British agents, and a misinformed U.S. media with timely, usable and professionally produced information vehicles.

Strategies: Exert consistent pressure directed at Policy Making Centers such as the United Nations, Congress, Human and Civil Rights Groups, Economic Resources, Labor and other sectors of political activity in the United States that could impact upon the struggle for justice in Ireland.

Examples of Short Term Goals:

a- Passage of MacBride legislation in Indiana, Pennsylvania, and California and the passage of a National MacBride Bill.
b- Overturn US visa denial policy and censorship.
c- Inhibit the abuses of US foreign assistance to Ireland.
d- Highlight British human rights violations e- Interfere in US politics of British agents including John Hume, Bishop Daly, and others.

Special Political Action Campaign for 1990:

INAC will spearhead an offensive in the United States to expose the erosion of Constitutional Rights due to U.S. collaboration with Britain's military and political occupation of Ireland. This includes the case of Joe Doherty, the US-Britain Extradition Treaty, and the use of FBI and Immigration agents to arrest republicans whose crime it is to represent their side of the story to Americans. Details concerning this campaign will be announced shortly. It will call for an all out commitment at every level.

INAC will organize a nationwide picket and protest regarding the continued British imprisonment of the "Birmingham Six" on Saturday, March 31, 1990. The main focus of the picket will be British Consulates listed below:

Fourteen straight days we lay in hiding and listened as the British searched...

b6
b7C

As hour after hour dragged by, we thought of our families and friends — and of you in America...

Here's why...

[redacted] It was six years ago that I, along with 37 other prisoners of war, broke out of the H-Blocks in Long Kesh. All that day, we dodged the patrols and the roadblocks. Eight of us, desperate and exhausted, approached a house. Luck was with us -- the people took us inside, even though we'd never seen them before that moment.

They led us to a narrow, damp space under the floorboards. We squeezed in and collapsed.

And then the British Army closed in. I still can hear the sounds of the Saracens and the helicopters, the dogs and sirens, doors slamming, shouting, the pounding of boots inches above my head. It went on and on, day after day, night after night. Even the atheists among us started to pray. We expected to be discovered at any second.

I swore then that if I ever got out alive, one thing I would put before me to do -- I would send a message of thanks to you in America... because your support is so important. And I would ask you once again to give what you can, through the Irish Northern Aid Committee.

When we crashed through the outer gate at Long Kesh, I had spent almost 7 years in the H-Blocks -- tried and convicted, like so many others, by a Diplock Court -- no jury, no evidence, no "right to silence", no habeas corpus.

Born in a Nationalist area of occupied Ireland, my arrest was inevitable. I mind always the poverty -- half the people live in poverty. There is work for only a third of the families. Half the young people emigrate, to escape unemployment and almost certain arrest. And thousands of foreign troops try to keep things that way.

Our real crime, of course, is that or not giving up -- of continuing to work for an Ireland that is democratic and free, that provides hope and opportunity for everyone. Our parents were guilty of this crime, as were their parents before them. Generations of men and women have been jailed by the British, just as I had been.

As we lay under the floorboards, we again vowed not to let it go -- we are bound to break the cycle of poverty, unemployment and imprisonment. We will never give up. We've grown stronger. And we are closer than ever to winning.

(KB)

But only with your help.

199F-NY-C269194-117

I am sure that from 3,000 miles away, it's hard to see just how important your support is to us, just how it is you help us.

~~199F-1564-999~~

If you were with us in Long Kesh, you would see. In Long Kesh, Maghaberry, the Crum, Magilligan, Wakefield, and Portlaoise, every pressure -- physical and psychological -- is applied to break us, so that we might admit in front of the world to being criminals. And some do break. At these [redacted], knowing that those outside care and support us [redacted]eans everything. It has carried me -- all of us -- through very difficult times of depression and isolation. Your support empowers us -- you give us hope.

If you were with our families, you would see. We live every day with the risk of sudden arrest and imprisonment, with the financial burden that falls on our wives and children. Each of us knows that, should the worst occur, our loved ones will be looked after. Your contributions wrap them like a protective blanket. They are insulated from the bribes of the R.U.C., and from the attempts to blame us for their hardship. In this way, you fuel our determination.

If you only knew our children, you would see. It is our children who will inherit the hard-won benefits of this struggle, and we are torn because our separation from them adds to the deprivations they will encounter in any case. Your support puts the food on the table, and clothes for school on their backs. It is you standing between our people and despair.

If you traveled with the relatives of the prisoners, you would also see. Your contributions pay the costs of transportation to the prisons for visits. The human contact these visits provide is so necessary to our perseverance. The visits are also the only means for communication to come into and out of the prisons. Your contributions keep alive our only link to the outside world.

These six years now, I am "on the run". One or two steps ahead of the enemy. I am writing to you from yet another "safe house". I don't know the family who lives here. They don't ask me my name or why I need to be here. Yet they have risked everything to shelter me for a few hours or a few days.

You see, it is the support of people who I've never met and can't really know, people like you, that keeps me free. And for this I am deeply grateful. Because we are closer to our goal every day. But we can't do it without you. And I pledge to you, along with thousands of Nationalist men and women, to continue our work towards that day that seems so close now -- when we can again be with our own people at times like Christmas and the new year in an Ireland united and free.

Please let you help us. Go raibh maith agut.

[redacted]

b6
b7C

P.S. Three lads who escaped with me, close friends, are no longer with us. The British Army caught up with Ciaran Fleming, Seamus McElwaine, and Padraig McKearney, and simply shot them dead. Others have been recaptured. There are now eight hundred republican prisoners, and we must help support each of those families. Please put whatever you can aside for them, and send it along. There is hardly a more meaningful gift you can make this year, nor one that will be more appreciated.

Also, on behalf of the prisoners and their families, I will personally acknowledge your contribution. We will never forget you.

~~SECRET~~

REQUEST OF THE BUREAU

FBIHQ IS REQUESTED TO DISSEMINATE THE TEXT OF THIS COMMUNICATION TO [redacted]

FOR THE INFORMATION OF RECIPIENTS, [redacted] A SENSITIVE AND RELIABLE SOURCE, HAS FURNISHED THE FOLLOWING INFORMATION:

IRISH NORTHERN AID IS CURRENTLY IN THE PROCESS OF ATTEMPTING TO OBTAIN A NEW NATIONAL HEADQUARTERS IN NEW YORK CITY. SPECIFICALLY, NORAID IS INVESTIGATING THE POSSIBILITY OF PURCHASING 2967 PERRY AVENUE, BRONX, NEW YORK. THIS LOCATION IS A LARGE, MANSION TYPE BUILDING IN A PREDOMINANTLY IRISH NEIGHBORHOOD. THE CURRENT PRICE

AT WHICH NORAID COULD PURCHASE THIS BUILDING IS $350,000.

PLANS FOR THE BUILDING INCLUDE: HEADQUARTERS FOR THE IRISH PEOPLE NEWSPAPER, HEADQUARTERS FOR NORAID, APARTMENTS WHICH CAN BE RENTED OUT TO PROVIDE A CONTINUOUS INCOME TO NORAID, AND ROOMS WHICH CAN BE USED FOR "BILLETTING" POW'S THAT VISIT NEW YORK.

NORAID LEADERS IN NEW YORK ARE ATTEMPTING TO SOLICIT INDIVIDUALS/ORGANIZATIONS TO "FRONT" THE OWNERSHIP OF THE ABOVE DESCRIBED BUILDING. NORAID HAS ALREADY OBTAINED AN APPRAISAL/INSPECTION REPORT FOR THE BUILDING.

[redacted] NORAID IN THE UNITED STATES, b6 b7C

RECENTLY COMMENTED THAT NORAID NEEDED A "RESPECTABLE FRONT" TO SHOW AS THE OWNERS ON PAPER OF THE BUILDING. NORAID HAS ALREADY APPROACHED STRUCTURE TONE TO "FRONT" OWNERSHIP OF THE ABOVE DESCRIBED BUILDING. STRUCTURE TONE IS A BUSINESS WHICH IS INVOLVED WITH GENERAL CONTRACTING AND CONSTRUCTION MANAGEMENT, AND IS LOCATED AT 15 EAST 26TH STREET, NEW YORK, NEW YORK, TELEPHONE 212/481-6100. STRUCTURE TONE IS A KNOWN HEAVY SUPPORTER OF NORAID, [redacted] IT IS NOTED THAT [redacted] NORAID IN THE UNITED STATES, MET WITH [redacted] STRUCTURE TONE LAST TUESDAY, FEBRUARY 13, 1990, SPECIFICALLY TO DISCUSS THE

b7C

POSSIBILITY OF STRUCTURE TONE "FRONTING" OWNERSHIP OF 2967 PERRY AVENUE, BRONX, NEW YORK. HOWEVER, SOURCE ADVISED THAT STRUCTURE TONE MAY BE RELUCTANT TO HELP NORAID AT THIS TIME INASMUCH AS STRUCTURE TONE RECENTLY [redacted] TO HELP SUPPORT [redacted] SINN FEIN'S FOREIGN AFFAIRS OFFICE. b6 b7C b7D

SOURCE ADVISED THAT NORAID'S MAIN CONCERN AT THIS POINT REGARDING THE PERRY AVENUE PROPERTY IS TO OBTAIN A "FRONT" FOR THE BUILDING, AND NOT TO RAISE THE DOWN PAYMENT FOR THE BUILDING.

ON FEBRUARY 18, 1990, A MEETING WAS HELD AT KIERAN STAUNTON'S BAR IN BOSTON, MASSACHUSETTS, [redacted]

[redacted] SOURCE b6 b7C

ADVISED THAT ADDITIONAL UNKNOWN INDIVIDUALS ATTENDED THIS MEETING. THE EXACT PURPOSE OF THIS MEETING IS UNKNOWN, BUT IT IS EXPECTED THAT THIS MEETING ALSO CONCERNED OBTAINING A "FRONT" FOR THE OWNERSHIP OF THE PERRY AVENUE PROPERTY.

SOURCE ALSO ADVISED THAT NORAID IS CURRENTLY PUSHING HARD TO CLOSE THE DEAL ON THE PERRY AVENUE PROPERTY BECAUSE THEIR IS ANOTHER BUYER ALSO INTERESTED IN THIS PROPERTY.

WITH RESPECT TO FUNDING OF THE PERRY AVENUE PROPERTY, NORAID IS CONSIDERING HAVING SEVERAL TRUSTED NORAID INDIVIDUALS/GROUPS

CONTRIBUTE SUMS OF MONEY WHICH WOULD FORM THE DOWN PAYMENT FOR THE PROPERTY. THE POSSIBILITY ALSO EXISTS THAT THE CURRENT OWNERS OF THE PROPERTY, REPORTEDLY OLDER INDIVIDUALS [redacted] WOULD HOLD THE MORTGAGE ON THE PROPERTY. LITTLE INFORMATION ABOUT THE CURRENT OWNERS OF THE PROPERTY IS KNOWN AT THIS TIME. HOWEVER, SOURCE ADVISED THAT FROM THE DISCUSSIONS CONCERNING THE PERRY AVENUE PROPERTY AND THE CURRENT OWNERS OF IT, IT DOES NOT APPEAR THAT [redacted] HAVE ANY INVOLVEMENT IN NORAID. [redacted] IS CURRENTLY PUSHING ANOTHER NORAID FUND RAISING EFFORT. THIS INVOLVES A LOTTERY WHICH SUPPOSEDLY BENEFITS THE IRISH

b6

+99

ENVIRONMENTAL IMPROVEMENT SOCIETY. THIS RAFFLE WOULD OFFER A GRAND PRIZE OF $10,000 WITH A DRAWING TO BE HELD AT GILDERNEW'S IRISH HOUSE, 215 NEW HACKENSACK AVENUE, POUGHKEEPSIE, NEW YORK, ON MARCH 31, 1990, AT 9:00 PM. THE TICKETS COST $100 EACH, BUT MAY BE SPLIT INTO FOUR $25 SHARES. [redacted] b6 b7C b7D [redacted] INDICATED THAT THE TICKETS WERE A FUND RAISER WHICH WERE INTENDED TO REPLACE HIS EARLIER IDEA OF A "5-5-5" PROGRAM. THE "5-5-5" PROGRAM, WHICH INVOLVED 5 NORAID FIGURES OBTAINING 5 OTHER INDIVIDUALS WHO WOULD IN TURN OBTAIN 5 OTHER INDIVIDUALS ALL PLEDGING OR DONATING MONEY TO NORAID WAS ABANDONED DUE TO THE COMPLEXITY OF THE PROGRAM.

[redacted]

DISCUSSING THE ABOVE DESCRIBED RAFFLE TICKETS FOR THE IRISH ENVIRONMENTAL IMPOVEMENT SOCIETY AND STATED "THESE TICKETS ARE FOR THE IRA." SOURCE ADVISED THAT THERE IS NO COVER STORY FOR WHAT THE ENVIRONMENTAL IMPROVEMENT SOCIETY IS. NORAID ANTICIPATES THAT MANY INDIVIDUALS WHO SEE AND PURCHASE THESE RAFFLE TICKETS WILL UNDERSTAND THAT THE MONEY IS FOR THE IRA. IT IS NOTED THAT THE [redacted] GILDERNEW'S IRISH HOUSE, WHERE THE DRAWING FOR THE $10,000 GRAND PRIZE WILL BE HELD, [redacted]

b6
b7C
b7D

THE SUBJECT OF AN NYO PIRA INVESTIGATION, AND WHO IS A CONVICTED PIRA FIGURE.

THE NYO IS CURRENTLY ANALYZING THE FEDERAL/STATE LEGALITY OF OPERATING A LOTTERY AS DESCRIBED ABOVE, WHERE THE BENEFICIARY OF THE LOTTERY, THE IRISH ENVIRONMENTAL IMPROVEMENT SOCIETY, MAY NOT EXIST. THE NYO ALSO NOTES THAT EXAMPLES OF THE TICKETS BEING SOLD FOR THE ABOVE DESCRIBED RAFFLE BEAR NO SERIAL NUMBERS. A LACK OF SERIAL NUMBERS COULD FACILITATE "RIGGING" OF THE RAFFLE, AND IT IS SUSPECTED THAT SUCH A RIGGING OF THE RAFFLE COULD OCCUR.

PRESENT DURING THE ABOVE DESCRIBED [redacted] b7D

IRISH NORTHERN AID UNIT. [redacted]

[redacted]

b6
b7C
b7D

[redacted] HOWEVER, IT IS KNOWN THAT [redacted] HAS BEEN ATTEMPTING TO CONTACT [redacted] TO DETERMINE WHICH OF THE CONTRACTORS WHO TOOK OUT ADS IN THE NORAID JOURNAL SOLD AT THE NORAID TESTIMONIAL, JANUARY 19, 1990 IN NEW YORK CITY WOULD

BE WILLIG TO CONTRIBUTE ADDITIONAL MONEY TO NORAID.

[redacted] ALSO INDICATED THAT [redacted] IRELAND BY NORAID IN JANUARY OF 1990. NORAID IS CURRENTLY [redacted] WHICH HAS RESULTED IN THE [redacted] COMMENTED THAT [redacted] IN THE UNITED STATES.

b6
b7C
b7D

[redacted] ALSO INDICATED THAT NORAID IS CONTEMPLATING ANOTHER LARGE FUND RAISER IN 1990, WHICH WOULD BE TARGETED TOWARDS MORE WEALTHY SUPPORTERS/SYMPATHIZERS TO THE NORAID CAUSE. A $200 A PLATE DINNER

HAS BEEN MENTIONED AS A POSSIBILITY OF THE METHOD BY WHICH WEALTHIER SUPPORTERS/SYMPATHIZERS WOULD BE TARGETED.

SOURCE ADVISED THAT NORAID IS ALSO CONSIDERING POTENTIAL PROBLEMS WHICH WILL ARISE WITH EUROTECH CONSTRUCTION CORPORATION, 211 EAST 43RD STREET, NEW YORK, NEW YORK, TELEPHONE 212/972-3944. EUROTECH IS OWNED AND OPERATED BY A GROUP OF TYRONE INDIVIDUALS, [redacted] b6 b7C [redacted] NORAID FEARS SUPPORT FROM EUROTECH COULD BE HURT SINCE EUROTECH RECENTLY COMPLETED FREE RENOVATIONS ON NORAID'S CURRENT HEADQUARTERS, AND COULD BE OFFENDED

IF NORAID CHOOSES TO MOVE TO THE PERRY AVENUE ADDRESS IN THE BRONX, NEW YORK. NORAID IS CURRENTLY CONSIDERING DEDICATING THE EXISTING, RENOVATED NORAID FACILITIES TO THE DEAD(FNU)WOODS MENTIONED ABOVE.

LEADS

RECEIVING OFFICES ARE REQUESTED TO FURNISH ANY INFORMATION CONCERNING NORAID MEMBERS IN THEIR AREA WHO ARE INVOLVED IN EFFORTS TO "FRONT" OWNERSHIP OF THE PROPOSED PURCHASE OF 2957 PERRY AVENUE, BRONX, NEW YORK.

RECEIVING OFFICES ARE ALSO REQUESTED TO FURNISH NEW YORK WITH ANY INFORMATION IN THEIR POSSESSION CONCERNING THE IRISH

ENVIRONMENTAL IMPROVEMENT SOCIETY, IF SUCH A SOCIETY EXISTS.

Irish Leaders Stand United

On Tuesday, March 6, three members of the Irish Northern Aid Committee Executive were detained at the security entrance to the White House and refused entry to a meeting with high-ranking Presidential liasons to which they, among others, had been invited and their participation confirmed by the President's staff The meeting did not take place.

The meeting, the first of its kind in recent memory, was to be attended by the Council of Presidents of major Irish American organizations which includes American Irish Congress, American Irish Political Education Committee, Ancient Order of Hibernians, Brehon Law Society, Irish American Labor Coalition, Irish American Unity Conference, Knights of Equity and Irish Northern Aid. American Protestants for Truth About Ireland were also to attend. All of the organizations walked out of the meeting when it became clear that INA was being singled out and excluded for their republican views concerning the struggle in Ireland. While each group has quite independent strategies and philosophies, all of the organizations share the common goals of Irish self-determination, freedom, and peace with justice.

Paul Murray

Barred from passing White House security were Paul Murray, INAC National Chairperson, Gerry Coleman, INAC National Director of Political Action, and Mike Cummings, representing the AOH and a member of the INAC National Executive.

Paul Korfunda, presidential liaison, told the three, who had been made to wait in the lobby for over thirty minutes, that they were being denied access to the White House because of "Secret Service policy" and that he had personally tried to call Mr. Murray earlier in the day to explain the situation in order to save the INAC delegation the time and expense of making the trip.

At this point, half of the group had already gone in to the meeting room and those that witnessed the events in the lobby were refusing to go in.

The first of these calls from Mr. Korfunda to Paul Murray was at 1 pm on Tuesday, one hour and fifteen minutes before the scheduled meeting. Mr. Murray lives in Albany, NY. When questioned about what Secret Service policy he was referring to and which "faceless bureaucrat made this decision," Korfunda stated that the Secret Service does not have to talk to anyone and that the three men could not even request an explanation.

Inside observers agree that the meeting would not have come off unless INA were included in the meeting from the beginning. An earlier meeting with the State Department was cancelled because of confusion over INA participation. On January 26, 1989, PEC President John Finucane and Bob Linnon, IAUC President, represented the Council of Presidents at a meeting with representatives of the State Department including Undersecretary of State Robert Kimmett. Linnon and Finucane brought up the issues that concern the member organizations, such as Joe Doherty, the International Fund for Ireland, Visa Denial, MacBride Principles etc., and at that time made it clear that INA fits the criteria for membership in the Council of Presidents, shares all of the common goals, and that future meetings must include all Council members.

It was obvious that the intention was to call the meeting with the entire Council, invite Irish American leaders from around the country at their own expense and then attempt to isolate INA at the last minute in hopes that the solidarity of the organizations would be broken. Kathleen Jeavons, Assistant Director of the Office of Public Liaison, in an attempt either to save face, or follow through with a calculated plan told the group that had gone into the meeting room that "several members of the group have chosen not to come in."

Not only was this not true, but she herself knew it, because she went on to explain when pressed, that "we believe that they (INAC) are foreign agents of the Provisional IRA" and said that even though they were invited, "they couldn't have taken it seriously."

Paul Murray received a letter from Ms. Jeavons dated February 28, 1990, which began: "This letter serves as confirmation of an invitation to attend a White House meeting with the Honorable Robert D. Blackwell, Special Assistant to the President and Senior Director for Europe and Soviet Affairs of the National Security Council." Follow-up phone conversations with Mr. Korfunda by Paul Murray, Gerry Coleman and Mike Cummings were made to make sure of the arrangements. Murray at one point jokingly asked Korfunda, "Do you know who I am? I'm Chairman of Irish Northern Aid and you are inviting me to the White House." He said he understood perfectly. John Finucane made Korfunda go through the list of invitees on the phone to verify INA's inclusion at the meeting.

Mike Coogan, President of the AOH, said: "What we all hoped was a new and more honest attempt by the President to give the conflict in Ireland some priority turned out to be a clumsy attempt to divide and censor Irish-American leaders."

Gerry Coleman urged a letter writing and phone call barrage to the White House and Republican Party leaders. He said: "On Tuesday, Irish America got its St. Patrick's Day message from the President. Irish Americans who are not silent and do not conform to British occupation and tyranny in Ireland are obviously not among Mr. Bush's 'thousand points of light.' We must now give Mr. Bush and his misguided advisors our St. Patrick's Day message in clear and simple language, so that he can read our lips if he has to - we demand access to our government or we will put people into power who will."

Bob Linnon of the IAUC said at a meeting held immediately after the walkout that he was "quite moved at the unity shown today" and added that "a giant step was taken today that would not have been possible five years ago." Paul O'Dwyer told the group that he had enjoyed hours and hours of briefings in the past and wasn't disappointed at having just missed another briefing, but that this walkout "was the best several hundred dollars in plane fare that I have spent in the past several years."

Kathleen Holmes, President of the American Irish Congress, said, "I took a look at the package that they had prepared for us before I left, nothing but a big photo of the President and some 'thousand points of light' nonsense. We came to discuss the conflict in Ireland and American duplicity in it and they have brochures and puff pieces prepared for us. It just shows the contempt they hold for us."

PEC's John Finucane stressed the implications of this insult by the President, not only as it concerns Irish American affairs, but that "American men and women fought and died to preserve our freedoms of speech and association. The patriotism of the men and women of the Council of Presidents is unquestionable." "This is as much, if not more, an American issue than an Irish issue," he added.

AOH President Coogan called upon all Irish to express their outrage "that prejudice and ignorance could keep such a distinguished group of American citizens from a White House briefing," and to make it clear to President Bush that we expect him to "show the courage of so many other world leaders today to meet and talk without fear with their own citizens."

In reaction to the refusal to allow the Irish Northern Aid members to attend the meeting, Martin Galvin, National Publicity Director of Irish Northern Aid said: "It is outrageous that the Bush administration would invite Irish leaders from around the country to engage in an exchange of views about the struggle in Ireland and then to seek to dictate to the Irish community those views which can be heard.

"There has long been a censorship by visa denial policy to exclude prominent republican representatives such as Gerry Adams MP from coming to the United States and advocating the case for Irish national freedom to the American people. The Bush administration is now extending that censorship policy to American citizens who oppose British rule in Ireland.

"Irish Northern Aid commends the other leaders who demonstrated unity by refusing to continue with the meeting from which Irish leaders were excluded. This unity amongst Irish-American organizations which the Bush administration saw at first hand will continue to be a factor promoting Irish reunification."

Captioned subject is involved in selling raffle tickets under the auspices of the IRISH ENVIORMENTAL IMPROVEMENT SOCIETY from [redacted] New York. These raffle tickets cost $ 25.00 each and are sold on a ticket containing four seperate tickets for a total of $ 100.00 for the ticket. This money is allegedly destined for An Cuman Cubrach (ACC) and its collection is sanctioned by [redacted] who authorized subject to start and run this raffle. [redacted] allegedly authorized this when he was in the US in February/March 1990.

The first prize in this raffle is allegedly $ 10,000.00 cash. Source was not in a position to advise if in fact this prize money would be awarded.

Source advised that subject provided NORAID HQ in New York several hundred of these raffle tickets to be dispursed to the various NORAID chapters throughout the country for sale. This has caused some dissension in the NORAID community in that the tickets do not display or identify with NORAID. NORAID/PSF leader has sanctioned the NORAID units sale of these raffle tickets.

The following information is classified ~~SECRET~~ in its entirety. The source of this information is extremely sensitive and reliable and of continuing value. This information is provided for your information and is not to be disseminated outside of your agency without the express approval of the New York office (NYO) of the Federal Bureau of Investigation (FBI).

In February, 1990, the National Executive committee of NORAID met. In attendance at this meeting were [redacted] (sent by Provisional Sinn Fein -PSF) the defacto head of NORAID. The following points of interest were discussed:

1.) The January 1990 annual NORAID dinner's success/shortcomings were noted. As was previously reported, this affair was sold out. While it was viewed as a financial success it was also noted that many complaints were received from attendees due to the over-crowding. It was noted that while the primary purpose of the dinner is fund raising, it should also be the "showcase" for NORAID. Several possibilities were discussed. The use of a larger facility, limiting the number of tables sold if the Astorian Manor is utilized, and charging more money. [redacted] would explore solutions to this question.

2.) [redacted] (An Cuman Cubrach) meetings with representatives of various groups "outside the Irish-interest sphere". [redacted] were known to have met with members of the American Arab Antidiscrimination Leaque, the African National Congress, and the Committee in Support of the People of El Salvador. There was a lengthy debate as to if these meetings should have taken place or not. It was noted that there was negative reactions from some of the NORAID chapters/members who were aware of the meetings. It was pointed out that information about such meetings should not be made known to the general NORAID membership as it would cause "potential problems".

While it was discussed that there was a need to have alliances with various groups/organizations who supported the Republican cause, it was agreed that any contact with other groups should be initiated on a local NORAID chapter basis and not directed from NORAID HQ. NORAID would not seek alliances with these groups unless they publically supported the Republican cause. It was agreed that any alliances that might be entered into with other groups would have to be considered on a "single issue basis".

Local chapters affiliations with other groups/organizations could be made as long as this affiliation did not impact on NORAID's national policy.

3.) [redacted] supra, reported on [redacted] b6 b7C He made the following comments concerning the various units:

San Francisco - beginning to grow and expand their influence....

Chicago - a great spirit of enthusiasm....

Detroit - plenty of activism....

Dayton and Cincinnati, Ohio - a combination of older and younger people new to the movement and anxious to raise money....

California - they complained about their lack of communication with NORAID HQ....

Washington, D.C. - had been diseffective because of lack of communication with NORAID HQ, however, with a new up and coming leadership shows promise....

Philadelphia - very good support and increased activity as evidenced by the formation of a new NORAID chapter in Hudson county, New Jersey....

b6
b7C
b7D

4.) The physial location and condition of NORAID HQ was discussed with the current lack of space and security. The NYO notes that NORAID HQ is housed in a run-down building with poor facilities. NORAID HQ has been burglarized on at least two occassions which resulted in NORAID office equipment, merchandise and supplies being taken on both occassions. It is further noted that [redacted] office in NORAID has been converted to a [redacted] This is in conjunction with other information received that [redacted] and other NORAID leaders are [redacted] and there has been some comments that [redacted] NORAID.

There was also some discussion as to NORAID purchasing a large private home to be utilized as office space for NORAID and the "Irish People"; a place to stay for "visitors" from Ireland; and rental of apartments as a means for fund raising. There was some comments made that this would be "misconstrued" as "too visible a sign of affluence" by the NORAID membership. Serious consideration will be given to attempting to have unidentified wealthy NORAID supporters purchase the building for NORAID.

The NYO has received information that [redacted] Eurotech Construction Company (ECC) have been approached to provide assistance in at least renovating the current NORAID HQ. [redacted] was identified as being [redacted] who had in fact done renovation work at NORAID HQ. Structure Tone Construction Company (STCC) was also considered to be a potential source of funds to purchase this NORAID house. As is well known, STCC has provided employment and funds to numerous PIRA and NORAID individuals.

The above is provided for your information. Your accessment and evaluation of the above is solicited.

Your cooperation and assistance in this and related matters of interest is appreciated.

THE INDIVIDUALS IN THE PHOTOGRAPH IN THE ORDER THAT THEY APPEAR.

LONDON OPINES THAT THE PURPOSE OF THE LHM WAS TO PERMIT THE RECIPIENTS TO COLLATE THE NAMES AND FACES OF THE DEPICTED INDIVIDUALS. WITHOUT THE PHOTOGRAPH, IT SEEMS SUPERFLUOUS TO PROVIDE THE LHM WHEN THE RECIPIENTS ARE ALREADY AWARE OF THE NAMES OF THESE PEOPLE. RENYAIRTEL STATES THAT THE PHOTOGRAPH APPEARED IN "THE IRISH PEOPLE" NEWSPAPER AND LONDON THEREFORE SUGGESTS THAT A COPY OF THE NEWSPAPER PHOTOGRAPH BE FORWARDED TO LONDON FOR DISSEMINATION WITH THE LHM, WHICH WILL HAVE THE DUAL RESULT OF PROVIDING THE RECIPIENTS WITH PHOTOGRAPHS OF THE INDIVIDUALS WHILE SIMULTANEOUSLY PROTECTING THE SOURCE WHICH LONDON BELIEVES WAS NEW YORK'S ORIGINAL PURPOSE.

A convert campaigns against the 'troubles'

Colonie man heads group helping families of Irish nationalists

By Craig Brandon
Staff writer

COLONIE — For the first 36 years of his life, Paul J. Murray was the kind of average, middle-class suburban insurance salesman who would never make headlines.

The story of how Murray, now 50, came to lead a national organization that raises hundreds of thousands of dollars a year for the families of those trying to overthrow British rule in Northern Ireland is a tale as old as the Irish "troubles" themselves.

Murray, a lifelong Colonie resident, was named national chairman of the Irish Northern Aid Committee, known as NORAID, in September.

He is the first native-born American to head the group, which raises $250,000 a year through donations and fund-raisers and says it sends about half of it to an organization in Ireland which supports the families of 800 Irish Republican Army volunteers held in British prisons.

Critics, including the British government and the U.S. Justice Department, claim that NORAID uses some of the money it raises to purchase and to export arms to the IRA illegally. While some NORAID members have been convicted of gun running, the funds to buy the arms have never been traced back to the group.

Murray is not ashamed to admit that his conversion to the cause came late in life.

"My family knew we were Irish, but we weren't close to our Irish heritage. We weren't very aware of what was going on in Ireland. I thought it was just those crazy Protestants and Catholics going at it again," said Murray, seated on the flowered sofa in his split-level house on Campagna Drive not far from where he grew up.

At first glace, it's the home of the insurance agent, not the foreign agent. The pictures on the wall are of his wife, Jean, and five children ranging in age from 4 to 30. School artwork is attached to the refrigerator door. There's a dried flower arrangement on the coffee table.

Only when you look closer can you find evidence of "the cause" — wooden harps that were hand-carved by IRA inmates in Long Kesh Prison and a mock movie poster with former President Ronald Reagan and British Prime Minister Margaret Thatcher in place of Rhett Butler and Scarlett O Hara, respectively, of "Gone With The Wind" movie fame.

The open black suitcase on the couch, Murray explained, belongs to a Sinn Fein party member from Ireland who was recently arrested in Chicago. Sinn Fein is the Irish political party dedicated to unifying Ireland and to removing the British presence from Northern Ireland.

"We didn't know what else to do with the suitcase," he said.

"Our whole social life is based around the Irish community," he said.

He and his family have immersed themselves in Irish-American culture.

"We live, eat and breathe it," explained Jean Murray while her husband was on the phone, talking to a lawyer attempting to free another Sinn Fein member, Richard May of Belfast.

May was arrested at gunpoint Nov. 13 after giving a speech at the Hibernian Hall on Quail Street in Albany. He was jailed on a felony charge in connection with allegedly lying on his visa application to visit the United States.

On Monday, the 31-year-old May was deported after pleading guilty to a federal misdemeanor of lying on a visa form.

"How many other people get a call from the Sinn Fein office in Dublin every morning?" asked Jean Murray.

Paul Murray, a graduate of Colonie High School, dropped out of a business course at the College of Saint Rose in Albany and took a job with the Equitable Insurance Co. in 1966.

He was a partner in a local bar, the Sand Creek Inn, that often played Irish music, but that was about as close to the Auld Sod as he thought he would ever get.

Then, one day in 1974, he walked into a tavern in Rensselaer called Ryan's Starry Plough and his life began to change radically.

The bar was owned by John and Jean Bryce, who were recent emigres from the Belfast shipyards. Although Murray went there to hear a non-political music group called "The Irish Revolution," he listened intently to the owners' tales of British terror.

"The Bryces were such nice people," he said, "that it made the stories they told so much worse. Once you start learning the truth about what's happening, it's difficult not to get involved. If it wasn't for the Bryces I'd still be celebrating St. Patrick's Day in a bar."

It was not his Irish ancestry that got riled up, he said. Rather it was his American sense of civil rights.

"When you hear about vigilante death squads, the highest infant mortality rate in Europe, people who aren't allowed to vote because they don't own a house, those are things that Americans find hard to believe," he said. "To an American, those things are obscene."

The transformation didn't happen overnight. Instead, the stories from Ireland began to take their toll on him slowly, stirring up his passions.

"There were always things in the newspapers about Ireland," he said. "There were always things to talk about."

Murray, who had never joined anything more radical than the local junior Chamber of Commerce and the Democratic Party, joined a series of Irish groups, each more radical than the one before. The first was the Ancient Order of Hibernians in 1976, "an apolitical group," as Murray described it.

He began to read books about the Irish troubles and now has "bookcases and bookcases filled with books about Ireland." He went to hear speakers from Ireland tell of the plight of the Catholics in Belfast and Derry, or as it is also known, Londonderry.

"The story was always the same," he said. "Innocent people being shot by Loyalist murder gangs, houses being smashed, people being arrested without trial. This was happening in the 20th century."

The real turning point came between 1978 and 1980 when a series of events, personal, local and international brought Murray further from his insurance job and closer to the centuries-long struggle across the Atlantic.

The first was the death of his brother, Larry, on July 25, 1978, during an armed robbery of his house in Albany. While Murray discounts any connection between that crime and his decision to join NORAID that same year, his wife disagrees.

"He told me that it taught him that life is too short," said Jean Murray, who was Murray's companion then and would later become his second wife.

Together, they attended demonstrations outside the British consulate in New York City during the hunger strikes that eventually took the lives of 10 Irish prisoners in Northern Ireland.

"It was a festive thing, a social thing at the beginning," he said of that period when he met many of the leaders of NORAID and Sinn Fein. "But then it became a time when a lot of things struck home. People were actually going to die for this. They believed in it that much. That's when I decided that's it. I'm involved until it's all over. I'm the type of person that when I set my mind to do something, I'm going to do it."

Murray, slightly balding, slightly overweight and sporting a set of suspenders, said he returned to Albany to become local chairman of NORAID, a move that caused most of the more conservative members of the group to resign.

He became Northeast regional coordinator in 1983 and was appointed to the national executive committee in 1986.

He's been to Northern Ireland several times and has stared down the barrel of a British gun while being questioned.

"They love to do that to Americans," he said.

Prime Minister Thatcher and other British officials have charged that NORAID money supports violence. NORAID has never been charged criminally with running guns to Ireland, but some of its members have been convicted in the United States on smuggling charges.

A spokeswoman for the British Consulate in New York, who did not want her name used, said numerous members of NORAID have been convicted of attempting to export arms to Ireland, even though American law enforcement officials have not traced the money directly to the group.

The convictions have included the co-chairman of the 1976 NORAID dinner dance in New York, the head of the Delaware County chapter in Pennsylvania and the founder of the NORAID chapter in Yonkers.

"The position of the British government," said the British spokeswoman, "is that funds raised by NORAID are used to continue the violence and terrorism that goes on in Northern Ireland."

Some American officials have chosen to sever any ties to the group based on the allegations that NORAID supports the IRA and the IRA advocates violence.

Sen. Daniel P. Moynihan, D-N.Y., and then-Gov. Hugh L. Carey boycotted the St. Patrick's Day parade in 1983 when NORAID founder Michael Flannery was the grand marshal.

In July 1988, Cardinal John O'Connor of New York City said before taking a peace pilgrimage to Ireland that he had been unable to determine for sure whether NORAID money is used to arm IRA soldiers.

"It's a very difficult, complicated question," O'Connor told the Associated Press. "I have people tell me NORAID money goes to support the IRA, but they really don't give me any proof. NORAID officials make the opposite claim, but are similarly unable to support it."

O'Connor concluded that it was the federal government's job to determine once and for all what NORAID's ties to the IRA are.

Murray took over the reins of NORAID this year just as it was undergoing a transformation that has resulted in the resignation of some of its national leaders, including Flannery.

Before this year, NORAID's sole stated objective was to raise funds to support the widows and families of IRA volunteers who were killed or in prison. Some members, however, felt the organization should go beyond that role and get involved in lobbying American opinion to put pressure on Britain to withdraw its troops.

Last summer, NORAID's chairman, Jim Maunsell and director Pat O'Connell took the group's books and furniture and set up a new office in New York, saying NORAID was being taken over by "criminal elements" [illegible]

The remaining NORAID members elected Murray as their new chairman and eventually got the boo back from the breakaway group now called Friends of Irish Freedom. Both are now raising money for the dependents of the 800 IR prisoners.

Murray said he thought t schism, though regrettable, will ha little impact on NORAID, which h kept most of its members and its branch offices, including the one Albany.

Since 1981, NORAID has bee required to submit financial disclosures to the U.S. Justice Departmen following a court ruling that NO RAID was an agent of the IRA an therefore subject to Agents Regis tration Act.

Murray said the ruling was i error and should not have bee accepted by NORAID without a lega battle. Murray has not had t register as an agent, but the FBI ha interviewed him "to update it records," he said. He said he didn think the FBI ever spied on him o NORAID.

The reports NORAID filed with the Justice Department show that in the last five years it has sent $626,63 to Ireland while reporting operating expenses of $864,946. The British government has charged that some of that expense money actually may hide money used to buy arms.

But Murray said much of the high operating costs were the result of poor business management, not diverting funds for weaponry. He plans to bring in professional accountants to make the organization run more cost-effectively.

The money, said Murray, comes from individual and group donations and fund-raisers, and one of his goals is to significantly increase fund-raising by reaching out to the broader Irish-American community and to non-Irish Americans who he thinks will respond once the injustices are clearly explained to them.

His biggest obstacle will be the perception by many outsiders that NORAID is really a front organization for the IRA and that its goals are more terrorist than humanitarian.

"A lot of people think we're bomb throwers and that's just not true," he said. "The only terrorism in Ireland is done by the British government."

Murray, however, said he thinks that all the publicity about NORAID is doing more good than harm.

"When Richard May came to Albany very few people knew who he was," said Murray. "Now, because of his arrest, everyone in the Capital District knows about him and how the government won't let him speak. Americans who couldn't care less about Ireland, understand the principle of free speech. All of that creates sympathy for us. We expect a lot of new members."

Murray's new position as a spokesman for the nationalist cause requires him to travel around the country to speak about it.

He no longer has time to pursue his passion for playing golf and has put on a few pounds.

"I played golf four times in the past year. I don't have time to do anything any more," he said. "I'm on the phone all the time."

Despite that, he is still an insurance man and has taken a few precautions, including a brand new life insurance policy of his own.

In between calls to Dublin and Washington, D.C., a medical technician was asking him questions about his medical history and giving him an electrocardiogram, part of the process of applying for insurance.

"With all this travelling we do," Jean Murray said, "I want to know

While source was not in a position to report on the amounts of money being provided by CnG, it was felt that there might have been a slight increase due to the NORAID split wherein NORAID members joined CnG after leaving NORAID.

It was reported that at the "Florida 4" defense fund-raising dinner that FOIF and CnG purchased a table jointly at a total cost of $ 1,000.00. The informant then approached the ents posing as arms dealers, and offered them ral agents convinced the defendants that by : missiles, they could bring the war in Ireland to y prosecuting the case said that the defendants ence to merit an entrapment defense instruction

However, once the defendants have presented some evidence of entrapment, the prosecution must prove beyond a reasonable doubt that the defendants were not entrapped by government agents.

Judge Gonzalez also stated that even if the defendants felt that their lives were in danger, it would not constitute a defense.

By denying the defendants the entrapment, Judge Gonzalez has all but guaranteed a guilty verdict. His gratuitous comment about the defendants' political commitment made it clear to the jury that he believed the defendants to be guilty. Hopefully, the jury will decide for themselves.
