0. ----- FOREWORD -----

When the news broke i thought it was impossible for a video like this to float around on the web and even more surprised it was supposedly uploaded by the killer himself. My curiosity got the best of me and i found the video and watched, what was (is) one of the most vile things i've ever seen. I had to pause the video three times and take a breathers in between before it finished.

I couldn't (and still can't) fully understand what would drive a person to do something like that and i had to find out why this murder came to be. I had to find a way to make it logical in mind, the events that led to this act.

I started searching for answers and what i found out is a snowballing of events that started as far back as 2005. I thought this would've been an afternoon thing but this killer Luka Magnotta has left (planted) such a shit storm of information online that it quickly came more.

The Luka Magnotta - Timeline of (sick) Events was created. I hope somewhere, someone can use this information to convict, find peace or make sense of the stuff that happened.

Thanks to the people of Animal Beta Project, WebSleuth & For Great Justice for sharing information and not giving up. My heart goes out to everyone directly affected by this murder, Lin's family & loved ones.

This murder could've been prevented. May you find peace.

// Most of the information you are about to read can still be found online, although some accounts have been removed by law enforcement or webmasters.

3. ----- MY FINDINGS & INTERESTING FACTS-----

After doing all this research on Magnotta and going through his various online persona there are a few things i'd like to share:

Firstly, he has put a tremendous amount of man hours into creating all these Facebook, Youtube, Vimeo, BlogSpot and random forum and website accounts. He has interlinked most them, meaning he shared, liked, placed (fake) responses between all of them. Magnotta doesn't strike me as an internet guru, the highest skill he seems to have is the use of TOR and pragmatic evasion techniques. As an (ex) IT security consultant i know howto create bot (fake) accounts on numerous platforms and how to spot and get rid of them. Even if i'd use an automated tool to create the volume of accounts Magnotta has made, it would've taken weeks (without being flagged) and then i'd still have to interlink them all, post different content and upload photos to them all (which would be hard to automate). All this work must've taken years.

Secondly, there clearly is a pattern in his online behavior. One could call it an 'online M.O' even. Weeks before a crime is committed his internet posts peak. He is telling the world something is about to come. We see a peak in August 2010 through January 2011, the lead up to the first kitten killer videos and a month after. We see the same online behavior from August to December 2011, the snake kitten killer video and April to May 2012, Lin's murder.

As of now one can argue whether or not Magnotta is connected to the Hollywood Sign murder and the Torso found in Arizona. However, if we look at his online footprint it puts him in Hollywood and Arizona at the time of the murders, also the there are peaks that lead up to the murder/found body dates. This of course doesn't proof a thing, i am just merely researching his online footprint.

ONLINE FOOTPRINT (including Hollywood Sign and Arizona Torso info), linear events.

-----Pattern 1

2010 - August: starts posting online that he's going back to Russia.

2011 - January: Magnotta interlinks his fake accounts with the '1 boy 2 kittens' videos.

2011 - January: Creates cutelittlenemol tag on BlogSpot.

-----Pattern 2 (Hollywood Sign murder connection is cutelittlenemol)

2011 August: Creates personal website & Twitter account. YouTube user cutelittlenemol is created.

2011 August: Cutelittlenemol joins psychcontrol.com

2011 September: Posts several racist articles on StormFront & BlogSpot. Interlinks them.

(2011 November: Magnotta is in Europe (again), in England.)

2011 November: Facebook pages created named '1 Cat 1 Christmas'. Also posts the same stuff on BlogSpot.

2011 November: BlogSpot 'Luka Magnotta lives in Phoenix Arizona 2012' is created.

2011 November: Fake Wikispaces with bio is created says 'As of 2011, Magnotta lives in Phoenix Arizona'.

(2011 November: Magnotta is in Amsterdam now, a fly over back to the US)

2011 December: Cutelittlenemol joins Rape & Gay forums looking for sex & coprophilia hookups in LA.

2011 December: Cutelittlenemol (via TOR) asks on drug forum 'What is the best type of sedative'

(2011 December: Magnotta is in Phoenix, Arizona according to forum join locations)

2011 December: Cutelittlenemol still looking for men 'wants to be raped in dark locations and left behind'

2012 January: Magnotta offers massages on Facebook profile 'looking for gay men' in the Hollywood area.

2012 January: His 'Hollywood Pimp' & rent-a-boy service confirm Magnotta is in Hollywood.

2012 January: Medellin's boyfriend can't seem to contact Medellin anymore.

2012 January: A dismembered body (torso only) is found in Tucson, Arizona.

2012 January: Hervey Medellin, a (gay) man is reported missing by friends and family.

2012 January: An Eric C. Newman (Magnotta's birthname) got a traffic ticket in Arizona.

2012 January: Dogwalkers find severed head, feet & hands of Hervey Medellin below the Hollywood sign.

-----Pattern 3

2012 April: Starts creating a lot of sockpuppet accounts again.

2012 April: Magnotta uploads a videos named "Cannibal serial Killer - Luka Magnotta".

2012 May: Magnotta stars (aggressively) posting on Craigslist 'seeking men4men for home video'.

2012 May: Posts via fake account 'There is a vid circulating The Deep Web it was shot in San Fransisco'

2012 May: Uploads video via fake account containing a photo of Magnotta holding an ice pick.

2012 May: Magnotta starts mentioning his '1 lunatic 1 ice pick' video on a few of his fake accounts.

2012 May: Magnotta asks neighbor to come to his apartment and talk about film, neighbor declines.

2012 May: Craigslist webmasters post warning not to reply to 'men4men' posts after reported harassment.

2012 May (24th - 25th): The night of the murder of Jun Lin.

2012 May (25th): The '1 lunatic 1 ice pick' is found online.

2012 May: Magnotta starts interlinking his accounts again.

There is no evidence linking Magnotta to any other murders other than killing kittens. All the online information puts him in the same locations (Hollywood & Arizona) where the murders took place. The M.O shares dismemberment, placing of body parts and a gay victim. His online M.O. seeking men is the same as the lead up to Jun Lin's murder. Nothing more.

I believe the following (BELIEVE):

Magnotta is the Kitten Killer.

Magnotta filmed the 'Python Christmas' video in England.

Magnotta sent the taunting e-mail to The Sun reporter Alex West.

Magnotta victim Jun Lin wasn't his first.

Magnotta planned this murder for a long time but the victim was a random factor to him.

Magnotta wanted to use the murder of Jun Lin as his 'claim to fame'.

-Used the song 'True Faith' from the movie American Psycho as background music in his murder video and pre-murder video.

-Had plastic surgery to look like actor James Dean and has done various James Dean themed photo shoots.

-His apartment has a big poster of the movie Casablanca (the only poster in his apartment).

-Written on his apartment wall "If you dont like the reflection. Dont look in the mirror. I dont care"

-He killed Lin with an ice pick a reference to Basic Instinct. In his December 2011 e-mail to the Sun he quotes Basic Instinct by saying "killing is different than smokingâ€¦ with smoking you can actually quit."

-Posted movie reviews of 120 Days of Sodom, The Human Centipede, A Serbian Film & Rocky online. He also 'likes' The Human Centipede movies on most of his Facebook accounts.

-Is fascinated with James Dean, Madonna & Marilyn Monroe.

-His alias reddragon1 is a reference to the Red Dragon novel and film about Hannibal 'The Cannibal' Lector.

-Obsessed with The Moor Murderers and its victims. A few of his fake accounts were named after the Moor victims. 'Lesley Anne Downey' and 'John Kilbride'. He created a YouTube video named 'Luka Magnotta Canada's Most Notorious', it features photo's of him and The Moor murderers. He sent The Sun Newspaper a disturbing e-mail signed 'John Kilbride' and he likes Myra Hindley and The Moor Murders on his YouTube and Facebook accounts. He also called himself 'Myra Hindley of Canada'.

-Magnotta's TOR link kpvz7ki2v5agwt35.onion

4. ----- TIMELINE FROM 2005 to 2012-----

I have to mention that i've collected all this information and sorted it and double checked. However, seeing there is so much information out there i must admit it might be cluttered. If you find anything that doesn't add up or is simply wrong and you want it corrected feel free to let me know.

Also this information is presented as is (typo's included). I simply have no more energy & interest to triple check it at the moment.

Magnotta is convicted under his birth name Eric Clinton Newman for defrauding several retailers and stealing $5,000 and one count of fraudulently impersonating a Toronto-area woman, culminating in a suspended sentence and probation in 2005.

A series of judge imposed conditions reportedly banned him from owning or using a camera or a computer, and from accessing the Internet.

August 12, 2006:

Magnotta, born Eric Newman officially changed his name to Luka Rocco Magnotta.

Dated with Nina. Nina, born a man (now a woman) ended the relationship in March 2006. The following reasons are stated in post May 26 2012 interviews:

- Magnotta stated he had sex with his mentally ill mother when he was a teen.
- Had no emotions, was cold as a fish and did not want to have sex or showed signs of intimacy.
- Talked about serial killers constantly and expressed interest in killing animals and people (jokingly).

Nina held no ties after that.

2007: Magnotta has cosmetic surgery to look more like his idol James Dean.
