NARRATIVE

On 08/26/2010 around 2044 hours, myself , Whitfield County Sgt. Clay Pangle (badge#352), and Whitfield Co. Deputy Gerald Cooley (badge#34) responded to a disturbance at the offense location. The 911 Center stated that a female had called from the offense location stating a male was inside the residence with a gun and he was going to shoot her. The 911 Center stated shots fired were heard moments later.

I attempted to make contact with a male juvenile at 1747 Rainbow Circle, Dalton, Ga., 30721, who was reported to have been at the offense location when the incident occurred. Upon approaching the residence I saw a female on the ground at the backside of the residence and she states she had been shot in the leg and needed help. The female was moved from her location to Rainbow Circle Road where Whitfield County Fire Department treated for her injuries.

The residence of 1751 Rainbow Circle was cleared and upon entry of the residence, a white male was found in the laundry room with a handgun close to him. A white male was also found at the bottom of the staircase with a handgun in his lap. Both male subject(s) appeared to be deceased at the time. There was also another male found upstairs with gun shot wounds that was transported by Whitfield E.M.S. to Hamilton Medical Center. The residence was made secure and the investigation was turned over to Whitfield County Detective Scott Lance (badge#213).
