Mr. E. J. Connelley,
Federal Bureau of Investigation,
U. S. Department of Justice,
907 Rush Building,
Tacoma, Washington.

Dear Sir:

This is with further reference to the case of UNKNOWN SUBJECTS; GEORGE WEYERHAEUSER, Victim - KIDNAPING.

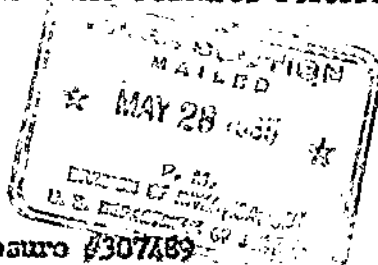

As of possible assistance in locating the typewriter which wrote the extortion letter, the examiner reports that there are certain features which are unusual which may be observed. The typewriter is a Corona portable, No. 3, or one of the other styles of Corona or Smith-Corona, supplied with elite size type. This type is of a form which has been in use since 1915 and is presently supplied with current machines. On the other hand, most of the machines actually found in the typewriter exchanges do not have exactly the same kind of figures. In fact, it has been difficult to secure a machine in the city of Washington with which to duplicate the writing. This being so, it is probable that in Tacoma there will be very few machines with exactly the type which appears in the extortion letter. Undoubtedly such a machine might be so unusual that it would be remembered by a typewriter repairman. Also it might be so old as to make it necessary that it be repaired in order to write as perfectly as the writing in the extortion letter.

Attention is invited to the numeral "one" with which the machine is supplied instead of using the small letter "1". The same figures, however, include a "5" in which the lower curve is an open circle rather than an extension to the bottom as in the case of the "3". The "e" is worn and out of alignment as is indicated in the attached photographic copy of the extortion letter. The "i" slants to the left; the "o" is high; the "a" is low; and it is possible that the paper fingers which hold the paper against the platen are worn and do not hold the paper well as is indicated by the fact that the margin in the extortion letter on the left-hand side of the sheet crept off to the right during the writing. A photographic copy of the envelope which accompanied the extortion letter is transmitted herewith.

For possible assistance in memorizing these features which may assist in locating the machine, there is also enclosed herewith a sheet on which have been typed specimens of the usual No. 3 Corona, elite type, such as is usually found in the exchanges. These specimens illustrate the shape of the extortion figure "5" and some of the other features referred to.

Very truly yours,

John Edgar Hoover,
Director.

or less strange environment.

In this connection, the examiner believes that if the signature on the envelope is genuine the regularity with which the forms are drawn indicates that the writer is not in such a physical condition as might be expected were he mentally brow-beaten or in fear. The forms of the letters are perfectly natural, unhurried, and executed with an attention to detail, which could not be present were a child of this age to be in the physical condition present in the victims of many cases of this kind while in captivity. This means that the child is in the hands of persons known to him or is unaware of any facts which would disturb his mind. Inquiring into his daily life at home will help to determine how far strangers could succeed in an attempt to win his cooperation by a pretext. Few children could remain away from parents, relatives, or known servants in a strange environment over night without developing nervous tendencies, which would affect the handwriting.

The typewriting is that of a Corona Portable, equipped with elite type, such as has been standard equipment on Coronas since 1915, and is supplied at the present time. This type has been compared with that of all extortion letters received in the Laboratory without effecting an identification. Although a Corona typewriter was used in the Bremer case, it was equipped with pica-size type. The same is true of the letters of the Stoll and Hamm cases.

A further report will be forwarded concerning the fingerprint examination.

Very truly yours,

John Edgar Hoover,
Director.

Dear Sir:

Re: UNKNOWN SUBJECTS
George Weyerhaeuser - Victim
Kidnaping.

60-209
CH 5/27
This will refer to several telephone calls and telegrams to the Bureau relative to the disappearance of the above named victim at Tacoma, Washington on May 24, 1935. In connection with which there are enclosed two cellophane envelopes, one bearing the envelope of mailing and the other the ransom note sent to and received by the father of the victim, J. P. Weyerhaeuser Jr., 420 North 4th Street, Tacoma, Washington, at about 6:20 P.M. on May 24th, this communication having been sent by special delivery. There is also enclosed a school notebook of the victim George Weyerhaeuser, who is nine years of age, which contains the handwriting of the victim, together with his known signature, George Weyerhaeuser, which may be compared with the signature "George Weyerhaeuser" appearing on the outside of the envelope in which the ransom letter was transmitted. The notebook was obtained from the Lowell School, which was attended by victim and it appears little doubt but that the signature appearing on the envelope is genuine when compared with the known signature of the victim.

These exhibits are being forwarded to the Bureau for Laboratory examinations, particularly with reference to stains appearing on the envelope and for the detection of fingerprints on the inter portion and sealed flap of the envelope. This letter and envelope were handled by a number of persons, whoses names have been secured and whose fingerprints will be obtained at the earliest possible moment.

Re: UNKNOWN SUBJECTS,
GEORGE WEYERHAEUSER - VICTIM,
KIDNAPING.

Dear Sir:

While at Fort Meade, Md., this morning on other matters, Captain F. J. Gillespie advised Special Agent L. B. Nichols that he had recently completed a tour of duty at Fort Lewis, Wash., which is situated on the outskirts of Tacoma; that while at Fort Lewis he had considerable difficulty with a ring of car thieves and robberies upon the Reservation; that when he had completed his investigation it appeared that one Gambora was the leader of the gang and would enlist as his accomplices men of low character enlisted in the Army. Gambora was sent to McNeil Island but it is the opinion of Captain Gillespie that he has completed his sentence by this time. According to Gillespie, Gambora is supposed to be the Al Capone of Tacoma. Continuing, Captain Gillespie advised that one Douglas McRae, who served in the late World War as a Major and who later was connected with the Prohibition Unit and who was convicted upon a charge of bribery and sentenced to McNeil Island, where he later was paroled and while on parole became affiliated with a ring of counterfeiters and through political manipulations endeavored to be placed in the Veterans Hospital at American Lake, Wash., which is eight miles from Tacoma, is well acquainted with the underworld of Tacoma and if the kidnaping of George Weyerhaeuser was a local job, he feels confident that either Gambora or Douglas McRae might have had something to do with it. McRae while supposedly in the Veterans Hospital was permitted to go at will.

ALL MESSAGES TAKEN BY THIS COMPANY ARE SUBJECT TO THE FOLLOWING TERMS

To guard against mistakes or delays, the sender of a message should order it repeated, that is, telegraphed back to the originating office for comparison. For one-half the unrepeated message rate is charged in addition. Unless otherwise indicated on its face, this is an unrepeated message and paid for as such, in consideration of which it is agreed between the sender of the message and this company as follows:

1. The company shall not be liable for mistakes or delays in the transmission or delivery, or for non-delivery, of any message received for transmission at the unrepeated-message rate beyond the sum of five hundred dollars; nor for mistakes or delays in the transmission or delivery, or for non-delivery, of any message received for transmission at the repeated-message rate beyond the sum of five thousand dollars, unless specially valued; nor in any case for delays arising from unavoidable interruption in the working of its lines; nor for errors in cipher or obscure messages.

2. In any event the company shall not be liable for damages for mistakes or delays in the transmission or delivery, or for the non-delivery, of any message, whether caused by the negligence of its servants or otherwise, beyond the sum of five thousand dollars, at which amount each message is deemed to be valued, unless a greater value is stated in writing by the sender thereof at the time the message is tendered for transmission, and unless the repeated-message rate is paid or agreed to be paid, and an additional charge equal to one-tenth of one percent of the amount by which such valuation shall exceed five thousand dollars.

3. The company is hereby made the agent of the sender, without liability, to forward this message over the lines of any other company when necessary to reach its destination.

4. Domestic messages and incoming cable messages will be delivered free within one-half mile of the company's office in towns of 5,000 population or less, and within one mile of such office in other cities or towns. Beyond these limits the company does not undertake to make delivery, but will, without liability, at the sender's request, as his agent and at his expense, endeavor to contract for him for such delivery at a reasonable price.

5. No responsibility attaches to this company concerning messages until the same are accepted at one of its transmitting offices; and if a message is sent to such office by one of the company's messengers, he acts for that purpose as the agent of the sender.

6. The company will not be liable for damages or statutory penalties in any case where the claim is not presented in writing within sixty days after the message is filed with the company for transmission.

7. It is agreed that in any action by the company to recover the tolls for any message or messages the prompt and correct transmission and delivery thereof shall be presumed, subject to rebuttal by competent evidence.

8. Special terms governing the transmission of messages according to their classes, as enumerated below, shall apply to messages in each of such respective classes in addition to all the foregoing terms.

9. No employee of the company is authorized to vary the foregoing.

I told him to send Agents Criss and Ramsey, and a third Agent to be selected by Special Agent in Charge Newman.

I instructed Mr. Humphrey to see that this is done with all possible haste; that he should telephone me back after checking plane schedules and weather conditions, and advise me when and how the men would leave San Francisco and when they would arrive in Portland; further, that he should inform me as to the identity of the third Agent to accompany the two above named.

Mr. Humphrey said that he would give this his immediate attention.

Mr. Nathan,

N
I thought you might be interested in knowing that the United Press and the Associated Press both called the Bureau this morning and wanted to know if the Department of Justice was interested in or knew anything about the Weyerhauser kidnaping in Tacoma, Wash. Both were rather insistent, but no information was given out, even to the fact that the Department was aware that such a thing had happened. The Associated Press had the victim's name as Meyerheiser and the United Press knew no name at all, merely the fact that such a kidnaping had supposed to have taken place.

Re: UNKNOWN SUBJECT.
GEORGE F. WERNEHARTER - VICTIM.
Kidnaping.

Dear Sir:

This is to verify the facts given to Special Agent Lindquist at 905 Rust Building, Tacoma, Washington, by Special Agent E.J. Gebben of this office, by telephone on May 27, 1935.

Mr. J.A. Muldoon, 1501 Westrand Avenue, Brooklyn, New York, telephone "Buckminster 1-6141", telephoned the New York Bureau Office on May 27, 1935, and informed Special Agent E.J. Gebben that he was formerly a member of the Highway Patrol, State of Washington, and had some information which he believed might be valuable in the handling of the instant case.

While working with Owen McGill on a case near Redondo, Washington, three or four years ago, Muldoon came across a deserted camp which is located on the gravel cut-off road between Redondo and Tacoma, almost directly opposite the old Fox farm on that road, approximately three-quarters of a mile before the gravel road connects with the new paved highway. This deserted camp is concealed among the trees and brush to such an extent that although it is only seventy-five feet from the road, it cannot be seen by a passerby on the road nor would it, in the opinion of Mr. Muldoon, be observed by a passenger in an airplane.

Mr. Muldoon advised that there is a possibility this camp is being used as a "hideout" for the kidnaper of the victim in the instant case. He stated that Owen McGill is now in the employ of either the Sheriff or Coroner of King County, Washington, and would be able to locate this camp if he were reminded of the incident in which he and Muldoon chased a man who had been firing shots at passing automobiles near Redondo, Washington. Chief W.H. Cole of the Washington State Police received a report from Muldoon, and may recall the incident.

This information is being forwarded to the Portland Office for whatever action may be deemed appropriate.

Re: UNKNOWN SUBJECT
GEORGE P. WEYERHAEUSER-Victim
Kidnaping

Dear Sir:

I am transmitting herewith copies of memorandum containing information furnished by Special Agent E. B. Nitschke of this office, concerning interview with one C. Lenzing, 870 Kearny Ave., Arlington, N.J., relative to one Clyde Evans, who is thought to be implicated in the above entitled case.

For your information Mr. Lenzing called the New York Bureau Office, giving the alias of Joe Bush. He stated he gave this alias so as not to become known until he was interviewed by an agent of the Bureau.

This information is merely conjectural on Lenzing's part, but it is being furnished for what it may be worth.

Very truly yours,

R.G. Harvey,
Special Agent in Charge.

Special Agent I.E. Mitschke furnished the following information telephonically:

C. LENZING operates a candy store at 870 Kearny Ave., Arlington, N.J. He states that in 1928 he was out in San Francisco; that he knows a man there named Clyde Evans, whose description is as follows:

6 feet tall
175 lbs
35 years
black curly hair
brown eyes fair complexion
real nice dresser

That Evans, at the time he was there in 1928, was connected with a mob, and making all kinds of big money in any but a legitimate way; that Evans married a girl out of a dance hall and road house, and she was in with him; that regarding the note supposed to have been inserted in the paper, to be signed Percy, this Evans' nick name is Percy; that Evans knows the lumber business because he formerly worked with Pope & Tilbert Lumber Company, San Francisco, and is pretty good on a typewriter, and in 1926 he lived on Folsom Street; that his father is Phil Evans and works for Hein & Rolfe, real estate people.

It seems that when Lenzing read in the paper where a note was to be inserted and signed "Percy" he immediately connected the name with Evans. Lenzing seems like a square shooting fellow. He has been in business there five or six years, and states he did not mind spending 75¢ to inform the authorities inasmuch as he knew Evans was with some mob, which was not legitimate, and thought he would give the authorities the information for what it might be worth; that Clyde Evans was formerly a piano player in a night club and this is how he became acquainted with the mob.

Lenzing stated he has no motive other than to help the authorities; that it is all a hunch inasmuch as the nick name coincided, and he knew Evans had left San Francisco and gone into Tacoma.

MEMORANDUM FOR THE DIRECTOR:

Re: George Weyerhaeuser kidnaping.

I telephoned Spears, in accordance with the attached, and told him to inform all members of the family that unless they and their friends stopped talking, the Bureau would have to drop the case. Spears stated he was confident that the family had not talked since his previous warning. He said, however, he would repeat the warning. I inquired who possessed the information relative to the Seattle newspapers beside the family, and he said some members of the Tacoma police had it. I asked if the leak could not have come from there, and he said it might have.

I inquired whether arrangements had been made to see that further ransom notes would not be divulged to any person other than Bureau representatives, and he replied in the affirmative, saying that further ransom notes will be opened by our people.

Respectfully,

H. Nathan.

RE: GEORGE WEYERHAEUSER,
Victim, KIDNAPING.

I talked to Spears on the telephone and again told him to send in the ransom note via Air Mail, Special Delivery, so it will reach here as soon as possible. I suggested that, inasmuch as probably everyone had handled the ransom note, and the Bureau will immediately ask that he take fingerprints for elimination purposes, he start taking them now of the family or of anybody who may have handled the note and whose latent prints may appear thereon. He said he would do this. I previously suggested to him that he arrange to cover the office of the Seattle Post Intelligence, in order to, if possible, shadow anyone who called there to place an advertisement in response to the family's ad. I suggested that, of course, advertisements can be placed in a newspaper by mail, that is, the advertisement and the money can be mailed in, and that, if the proper arrangements were made ahead of time, a communication of this kind, i.e., one placing the advertisement, would be a very pretty place to get a good latent print, provided, of course, it had not been handled by a large number of people upon opening.

Very truly yours,

H. Nathan.

MEMORANDUM FOR MR. NATHAN

RE: Weyerhaeuser Case.

Special Agent Waters telephoned from Kansas City and advised he talked with Mrs. George E. Powell, wife of George E. Powell who is to be out on the west coast; that he has obtained a picture of Powell as a letter written by Powell to his wife in 1928 on a typewriter.

Mr. Waters inquired whether the Portland office has run down the information that he gave them this morning, that is, whether Powell has been eliminated. I stated that the Portland office is working on that now and will advise the Bureau of the result, but that I did not know what has happened out there.

Mr. Waters requested the telephone number of Mr. Connelley at Tacoma so that he could advise him of the additional information that he has now. I gave Mr. Waters the required information.

Mr. Waters advised that he learned from his conversation with Mrs. Powell, that Powell is undoubtedly a maniac; that he has a small income from what is known as the "Powell Block", that is the rentals from it; that in 1927 or 1928 they built a home at Sunnyside, Washington, which is six or seven miles from Everett; that there is some information that he is engaged in bootlegging at what is known as the Valley in Everett, Washington. Mr. Waters further advised that Mrs. Powell received a telegram yesterday from Mr. Wiley, Powell's guardian, which reads as follows, "Tad alright. Saw him on street yesterday with woman companion. He did not see me. Have seen him several times lately in car with some man not known by me. Looks fine. Do not know what he is doing." Signed, A. W. Wiley. Mr. Waters stated that this was a Postal Telegram, dated May 25 and received at 1:26 P.M. in Kansas City. Mr. Waters advised that "Tad" is a nickname for Powell; that Wiley saw him the day of the kidnaping, that is Friday.

Mr. Waters advised that he is forwarding air mail special delivery to the Bureau tonight, the original typewritten letter received by Mrs. Powell for the Laboratory.

Dear Sir:-

In regard to the Wyerhauser case in Tacoma, Washington, I wonder if your department is aware that Harry Gurguson, the famous fake Russian prince, "Prince Romanoff", knows the Wyerhauser family personally, was entertained by them in the west when he was still masquerading as "Prince Romanoff", and that he was reported at the time of having secured several thousand dollars from Mr. Frederick Edward Wyerhauser of St. Paul, Minn., as a loan or gift on the strength of his alleged royal title. He came to Andover in 1923 or '24 to visit Frederick Wyerhauser, Mr. Frederick E. Wyerhauser's son, while the boy was a student at Phillips Academy, where I am a teacher. The story of the gift from Mr. Wyerhauser, senior, originated from Gurguson himself or from the son.

About a week after his appearance at Andover Gurguson was arrested and was revealed as a former English valet.

Gurguson lives by his wits, is unscrupulous, intelligent, and bold. The last time I read of him in the New York papers he had stated to reporters that he intended going west to live. Undoubtedly he has no connection with the Tacoma case, but I feel that I should bring his name to your attention.

Would you mind acknowledging the receipt of this letter so that I may at my duty in the matter is accomplished.

Very truly yours.

Mr. Tracy
Miss Gandy

Special Agent in Charge Newman telephoned from San Francisco with respect to the above case and advised that Gimperman, Criss and Ramsey are the agents to proceed to Tacoma, Washington; that they are unable to secure accommodations on a regular passenger plane and it will be necessary to charter a plane; that the chartered plane will be able to leave San Francisco at 9:30 P.M. and arrive in Portland at 1:30 A.M. (California Time). Mr. Newman advised that the charge for this plane would be $351.60.

I instructed Mr. Newman to carry out this arrangement; that the Agents, when they reach Portland, hold the plane, and contact Mr. Spears through the Portland office to see if he wants them to proceed to Tacoma or remain in Portland.

I instructed Mr. Newman to see that the Agents take the necessary equipment incident to a kidnaping case.

Respectfully,

MEMORANDUM FOR THE DIRECTOR

8:50 A.M.

RE: GEORGE WEYERHAEUSER,
KIDNAPING.

Spears called this morning from Tacoma, Washington. He was told there were indications of publicity and stated there was no publicity given out there except that the entire countryside was notified that the boy had disappeared and the fact that he had disappeared was circulated far and wide. He said the ransom demand is for $100,000 in twenties, $50 in tens and $50 in fives, Federal Reserve notes. I believe this differs somewhat from the reading of the ransom note, which is quoted as follows:

The envelope is addressed to Mr. J. P. Weyerhaeuser, 420 North Fourth Street, Tacoma, Washington, and postmarked Tacoma, Washington, May 24th, 6 P.M. The letter inside is entitled, "To whom it may concern", and the paragraphs are all numbered and are as follows:

- "1. $2,000 in cash.
- "2. $1,000 in $20 bills.
- "3. $50,000 in $10 bills.
- "4. $50,000 in $5 bills.
- "5. All of this money must be in Federal Reserve notes and unmarked.
- "6. You are not to take the numbers off of these bills. If they are taken and the bills are marked it will be all off.
- "7. You are not to notify the police, Department of Justice, or any private detective agency.
- "8. If you do, it will also be all off.
- "9. Keep it out of the papers.

They have two men in the house and two telephones from the house. Spears has his headquarters in the Old Telephone Company Building. He has two telephones, numbers Main 5833 and Main 5820 and two other phones connected with the men in the house, that is, two other office telephones for checking up on incoming telephone calls into the Weyerhaeuser home. He states that instructions are to run an add in the personal column of the Seattle Post Intelligence within five days or sooner, as soon as they raise the money. An answer will appear, a statement to the effect that they expect to be ready Monday, and requesting an answer from the kidnapers. This is for the purpose of trying to get additional information from the kidnapers. Spears states the father and mother are cooperating in every way; that they have the money and can raise it, but it may take two or three days. The head of the family, the grandfather of the boy, died last week and was buried in the East somewhere. The son is a Jr., he just returned from the East from the funeral of his father. The son's name is J. P. Weyerhaeuser and the boy's name is George. The boy was returning from school yesterday noon. He was accompanied by a companion part of the way. This companion left him for his, the companion's home, and the boy has not been seen since. Spears is having a careful check made of the road to and from the school and also a check in the neighborhood of the school and the Weyerhaeuser home, this check to include cautious inquiries of individuals who may have seen the kidnaping in some form or may have information of value concerning strange cars with license numbers, et cetera. The ransom note was handled, prior to our Agents arrival, by about everybody in the vicinity, so Spears says. Arrangements are being made with Patrol officers and others, without acquainting them with the nature of the case, so as to have them ready for road blocking when or if this can be practically performed. The signature of the boy appeared on the back of the envelope of the ransom note. Spears states the three Agents from San Francisco have arrived and he has sufficient men. Spears was cautioned to secure complete numbers of the ransom bills. The family is not desirous of marking the bills inasmuch as they were particularly cautioned in the ransom letter not to do so.

Very truly yours,

H. Nathan.

RE: UNKNOWN SUBJECTS
GEORGE PHILIP WEYERHAEUSER: VICTIM
KIDNAPING.

Dear Sir:

On this date, James A. De Force, 513 Whittier Street, N. W., an employee of the Mutual Benefit Life Insurance Company, Newark, New Jersey, 925 - 15th Street, N. W., Washington, D. C., called at this office with reference to a possible suspect in the above entitled case by the name of Ernest Marked Ludwig of Seattle, Washington.

Mr. De Force, who stated that he is the son of James L. De Force, retired General Superintendent of the Northern Pacific Railway Company, presently residing at 444 Mission Street, South Pasadena, California, advised that his father had known the older members of the Weyerhaeuser family intimately in the past and he felt considerably interested in the case from that standpoint, as well as from an interest in the possible suspect.

Mr. De Force related that about 1924, his sister, Helen De Force, who is presently residing with her father at 444 Mission Street, South Pasadena, California, had met Ludwig, a graduate of the University of Washington, and after a short romance, had married him much to the displeasure of the De Force family. He stated that after approximately two years of marriage and subsequent to the birth of their child, his sister had discovered that Ludwig was unfaithful to her and was keeping company with a number of dissolute women in connection with his work as manager of a Seattle theatre. Mr. De Force advised that shortly thereafter, his sister had obtained a divorce from Ludwig in Los Angeles, with a decree granting her sole custody of their child and substantial alimony payments, which Ludwig has never paid. Shortly after the divorce was granted, Ludwig made several threats to forcibly kidnap the child and it is on the basis of these threats that Mr. De Force believes Ludwig should be considered as a suspect in instant case.

Mr. De Force advised further that in 1930, while in Seattle on personal business, he undertook a personal investigation of Ludwig during which he contacted a Mr. Hindman, Chief Special Agent, Northern Pacific Railway Company, and the Chief of Detectives, Seattle Police Department, who is since deceased. He stated that these men advised him that Ludwig was manager or assistant manager of a small second-class theatre in Seattle and that during spare hours, frequented the waterfront and associated with a number of bad characters. The officers also informed him that in their opinion, Ludwig would come to no good end and ultimately would become involved in some serious crime.

Mr. De Force could furnish no specific instance where Ludwig had violated the law other than to state that he had violated the Mann Act on several occasions and that he was in arrears in payment of his alimony and subject to arrest in the State of California if he appeared in that state, nor could he furnish the names of any associates or criminal characters which might furnish a lead reflecting any criminal career on the part of Ludwig. He merely stated that it had occurred to him that this man is capable of such a crime and that he had threatened to kidnap his own child on several occasions and that he was known to be in dire financial circumstances at the present time.

Mr. De Force stated that he had never seen Ludwig but had viewed a photograph of this man and described him as follows:

Age - About 35 years
Height- 5 ft. 11 in.
Weight- 160 lbs.
Hair- Dark
Eyes- Black
Nice looking

RE: UNKNOWN SUBJECTS
GEORGE WEYERHAEUSER - Victim.
KIDNAPING.

Dear Sir:

Today H. P. Miller, in the Purchasing Department of the F.E.R.A., Third Floor, Exchange Building, residence 339 West Beaver St., Jacksonville, Florida, telephoned the Jacksonville Office that he had some possible information concerning the unknown subjects who kidnapped George Weyerhaeuser at Tacoma, Washington, Friday, May 24, 1935.

Special Agent Roswell E. Smith immediately contacted H. P. Miller, who stated that about 1925 or 1926 his brother, Percy W. Miller, visited him in Cocoa, Florida. That while enroute to Cocoa, via train, Percy W. Miller met a stranger, who introduced himself as Sam Rudder, and who gave the Masonic grip and represented himself to be a Mason; that on the strength of this representation Percy Miller brought Sam Rudder to H. P. Miller's home to spend the night..

The next day Sam Rudder was introduced about Cocoa, Florida, by Percy W. Miller, one of his contacts being Charles Provost, Director of the Brevard County Bank, who was induced by Sam Rudder to cash a $600.00 check drawn on Bank of the Brotherhood of Locomotive Engineers, Birmingham, Alabama. Immediately thereafter Sam Rudder disappeared, and the check was returned marked "No Account".

H. P. Miller stated that on the night Sam Rudder was a guest in his home considerable conversation was had relative to Uncle Percy and Aunt Minnie; that "Minnie" was the maiden name of Percy Miller's wife.

RECORDED & INDEXED

H. P. Miller then stated that he learned later that Sam Rudder adopted the same policies at DeLand, Florida, where, by using Percy Miller's name as a reference, he cashed another $600.00 check.

Director,

According to Miller, Rudder also adopted the same policies shortly thereafter at Savannah, Georgia, where a like sum of money was obtained.

Several months later a Government Agent appeared in Cocoa, Florida, where H. P. Miller identified the photograph which he exhibited as being that of Sam Rudder, and learned that Sam Rudder had been arrested and sentenced in Danville, Virginia, to three years in the Atlanta Penitentiary for impersonating a Federal officer, and further that Sam Rudder had a long criminal record.

H. P. Miller then stated that in reading the newspaper accounts of the Weyerhaeuser kidnaping the use of the signature "Percy Minnie" recalled this occasion to his mind, and he wondered if there was any connection between Sam Rudder and the kidnapper of the Weyerhaeuser child.

The description of Sam Rudder is as follows:

In 1925 he appeared to be 35 or 40 years old; about 5' 6 or 7" tall; weight approximately 160 to 165 pounds; of short stocky build; smooth shaven; round face; light brown hair; blue eyes; American; male.

The indexes of the Jacksonville Office were searched in an effort to locate a file on Sam Rudder, but his name does not appear.

This information was received from H. P. Miller as a voluntary contribution and no statement was made to him relative to what would be done with it, or that anything would be done with it. Same is being transmitted to the Bureau for whatever action it deems appropriate.

MEMORANDUM FOR SPECIAL AGENT IN CHARGE

Re: UNKNOWN SUBJECTS;
GEORGE PHILIP WEYERHAEUSER - Victim.
KIDNAPING.

In accordance with instructions received from Assistant Special Agent in Charge J. H. Hanson, the writer contacted Special Agent J. M. Sullivan of the Intelligence Unit of the Internal Revenue Bureau, who in turn introduced Agent to Mr. Stephen Grace, and stated that Mr. Grace had some information in connection with the Weyerhaeuser case which he thought might be of some value.

Mr. Grace stated that at the present time he resides at the Colburn Hotel, Washington Place, New York City, telephone Gramercy 7-1446; that he was an officer in the Danish Army many years ago; that during the war, he assisted the Military Intelligence Department of the U. S. Army in many ways, and that more recently he was employed as Chief Engineer of the Foundation Company of New York and at the present time he is engaged in writing a book on the lumber industry in the United States.

Mr. Grace advised that in connection with his interest in the lumber industry, he has made numerous trips to Tacoma, Wash., and vicinity, where he has from time to time addressed meetings of lumbermen; that last summer he took a trip to Tacoma to address such a group of men, at which time he stopped at the Tacoma Hotel; that he stayed there for a period of about four days; that one day he was accosted by an attractive woman in the hotel lobby; that she apparently had been under the influence of liquor and spoke quite freely; that when she learned he was connected with the lumber industry, she was very inquisitive and asked a number of questions about the Weyerhaeusers; that during the conversation, Grace learned that she was the wife of a bootlegger and she was in Tacoma to visit a friend of hers and her husband, who had been convicted of violating the National Prohibition Act and was serving a sentence in the vicinity of Camp Lewis, Washington.

Grace further stated that this woman was bitter in her denunciation of the lumber interests, who were at that time apparently conducting a drive against bootleggers, and that she stated that "one of these days they would pay for it with a real crime."

Grass further stated that on one occasion, he saw this woman on a bus while traveling between Tacoma and Seattle, but he did not speak to her. He said that the woman resided at the Tacoma Hotel and that he had seen her there on more than one occasion; that he could not describe her any further than to say that she was good looking, appeared well preserved and was between 38 and 40 years of age. He stated that he could readily identify her photograph if it were presented to him.

Grass further stated that when in Tacoma, Washington, he frequently contacted Ernest Dolgo, a lumberman employed by the Weyerhaeuser interests.

In support of his contention that he had worked with the Military Intelligence during the war, he exhibited two letters on War Department stationery, thanking him for services rendered.

Nathan Frankel,
Special Agent.

Re: UNKNOWN SUBJECT.

KIDNAPING.

Dear Sir:

The following information is being transmitted to the Portland office for the attention of Special Agent in Charge E. J. Connelley.

In response to a telephone call received at the New York Bureau office, Special Agent E. K. Merritt interviewed Mr. Samuel Malkin, 155 Newport Street, Brooklyn, New York, employed as a fish buyer and foreman by Oxenberg Brothers, manufacturers of smoked fish, 280 Metropolitan Avenue, Brooklyn, New York. Mr. Malkin advised Agent Merritt that an item appearing in the Daily Mirror on May 28, 1935, which referred to the signature "Egoist" in the Weyerhaeuser ransom note, had suggested the Eggert family who reside in Seattle, Washington.

Malkin stated that his business had necessitated several trips to Seattle in the past few years and on these occasions he had contacted Mr. Theodore E. Eggert and his partner, H. S. Finch, who owned the Fish Clearing House in Seattle. He stated that the Eggert boys had been in considerable trouble in connection with rum-running activities prior to the repeal of Prohibition and that one of the Eggert boys owned a goat ranch in the mountains somewhere in the State of Washington. He said that when questions were asked concerning the ranch as to its location, etc., evasive answers were always resorted to. Finch finally suggested to Malkin that he discontinue asking questions about the ranch as he, Finch, understood it was used as a hideout by the boys.

Malik further stated that Rogers has a son-in-law named Brown located in Wenatchee, Washington, who owns an apple orchard, and another son-in-law named Foss who is in the ship towing business in or near Seattle.

The above information is being transmitted for whatever value it may have.

A search has been made of the Bureau's nickname file on the following names: *Minnie", *Percy", *Percy Minnie", *Egoist", and the name *Tad", which is an alias used by George Edmond Powell.

The search disclosed that there was no information contained in the nickname file as to the names "Percy Minnie" or "Egoist". There is contained in the file a record of a number of individuals who are known as "Tad", "Minnie" and "Percy". However, none of these individuals has been arrested farther West than Sioux Falls, South Dakota, and none has been arrested for any crime more serious than burglary. It does not appear that their records would be of any interest to this investigation. However, the Identification Division is preparing a memorandum reflecting the names and an abstract of the criminal record of each individual contained in their files under these names.

Gentlemen: Attention Mr. J. Edgar Hoover.

Please accept this letter in the spirit in which it is written, namely a desire on the part of the writer to help in his small way, your men to run down the kidnappers of the Weyerhaeuser boy on the Pacific coast.

The only way to catch and to punish such criminals as these is to out wit them and beat them at their own game thus the following suggestion.

In order to transport the ransom money to these kidnappers it is going to be necessary to pack the money in some kind of a container or containers, either suit cases or boxes. This being the case - would'nt it be possible to arrange these containers with false bottoms in them and conceal some kind of a device ~~that would~~ set off an explosive or hurl acid on them or release some kind of a poisonous gas, either of which would maim or injur one or more of them and compel them to seek medical aid or treatment and thus bring about their identity and trap them.

I would even go so far as to line these false compartments with a heavy fabric to deaden all noise and then conceal a couple of rattle snakes or cobras in them so that one of more of them would be bitten and Ill bet you my hat you would scare them out into the open.

It might even be possible to conceal some kind of an alarm in the containers that could be timed to go off after the money changed hands and the boy was released and trap the go between who undoubtly will be one of the gang or who can naturally tell who they are.

I know you and your department is doing all that you can in this case, but this seems to be too good a chance to let slip by without trying to catch these fellows when the money is passed to them instead of - waiting until they have it in their hands and make tair get away.

Again trusting you will receive this letter in the proper spirit I am,

Yours very truly,

M. H. Caulfield.

Addressing Hoover, Mr. J. Edgar, Chief Div. of Investigation, Dept. of Justice, Washington, D.C.
Subject Weyerhauser Kidnaping. Encl. Whitley carbon.
Date May 28th, 1935. File No. _____

My dear Mr. Hoover:

Knowing the alertness and efficiency to which you have brought your Division, I trust that by the time this reaches you, it will not be "news."

I venture to send you this carbon, in the hope that it will save time in this matter, as my letter to your local Agent in Charge, Mr. Whitley, will itself take some additional time to reach him and more to reach you.

Your trained mind will, I am sure, plus your information in hand, which you doubtless have, see the possibilities of this angle.

Anyhow, with the kidnaper's inevitable arrest at your hands, whether he proves to be a professional member of the "underworld" or not, it will be an interesting thing to know how he came to spell his signature in just this way and not in the customary way. I'll bark on my own
"philology" in this instance...

With all thanks for your every attention and courtesy, and hoping my suggestions prove of some value,
I am,

Sincerely,
Frank Pease (Maj.)

P.S. Please be so good as to let me know you receive this safely.

Weyerhaeuser Kidnaping.

May 28th, 1935.

My dear Mr. Whitley:

Following our telephone conversation just now, I set down for your consideration these further items, as a possible "lead" in the above case.

The spelling of the word "Egoist," as reported by the press, as signed to the ransom note, leads me to feel the case has a special significance stemming into the "red" field generally; and for these reasons. Years ago a German anarchist named Max Stirner wrote a "philosophical" work which has subsequently become a "standard" study in anarchy and atheism. I cannot give you its title in German, but the English translation was "THE EGO AND HIS OWN." As I recall it, there was an explanatory sub-title that included the term "egoist."

Now out of that work, which has been since translated in most languages, I believe, comparing (for anarchists) to Marx's "Das Kapital" as a bible for socialists and communists, has risen, among the "cognoscenti" of anarchism and "revolutionism" generally, the use of the terms "egoism" and "egoist" as distinctly different to the common usage of the words "egotist" and "egotism." In short, nobody but a red familiar with such differentiation, indeed, I would over say, habitually, in his own mind, using such a term, can be considered as even knowing the difference, not to say using it - as used in the ransom note. Nobody but a cockeyed egomaniac, such as anyone who would "snatch" a child must be considered today, especially since the Federal Government with its enormous resources and its successes to date, now enters the field of kidnaper pursuit, - no one but precisely such a self-centered person would consciously burden himself with such a concept in so dangerous a field, to say nothing of "signing" his own death warrant with such a term.

There is the further consideration that it is very possible that the Weyerhaeuser firm has been having trouble with reds of late. The Pacific Northwest is "full" of reds of every brand. Many of them are actual "nuts" who couldn't get past a sanity board; and, at least out there, "anarchists" and "communists" pretty much run together into an indistinguishable gang. Furthermore, some ten to fifteen miles from Tacoma is that notorious anarchist hang-out, "Home Colony," rendezvous during the World War of every breed of anti-American, "get-away" for reds of every description, hide-out for slackers, spies, anti-military agitators among the troops at Camp Lewis, and so on. Two of the reds who murdered twenty or twenty-five people in the dynamiting of the Los Angeles Times Building years ago, used this same "Home Colony" as a hide-out: Schmidt and Kaplan. That old red harridan (probably still on the GPU payroll, for all of her books "against" the Soviet), Emma Goldman, always visited her anarchist friends there. I have myself on numerous occasions been sent out there by the Secret Service and the D. of J., to "look 'em over" pending some contemplated visit of the President. During the World War it was a bootleggers' paradise. In short, it is a really vile red hole; and since the Russian Revolution, has been an active rendezvous for actual bolshevik agents when in that part of the country.

I, therefore, beg to suggest to you that the above spelling of the "signature" on the ransom note be given your close consideration, with these facts in mind. To me it is simply incredible that, under these special circumstances, anyone would so sign a kidnap note without (unconsciously) knowing the difference in the usage of these two words "egotist" and "egotist," and (again unconsciously) revealing himself. And do not criminological studies lead us to conclude that, time and time again, it is precisely these "unconscious" self-revelations which are the undoing of the egocentric, the ego-obsessed, the egomaniacal criminal? Who but an egotistical nut would steal a child anyhow, money or no money; and who but a half-baked red criminal would thus possibly (even if unconsciously) reveal himself?

With all thanks for your every attention and courtesy,
I am,
Sincerely,

Frank Pease (H.A.)

Re: UNKNOWN SUBJECTS
GEORGE P. REYERHAEUSER - VICTIM
Kidnaping

Dear Sir:

This is to confirm the information supplied Special Agent A. Schroeder telephonically by Special Agent E.J. Gebben of this office, May 28, 1935.

Agent Gebben advised that a Mr. Joe Bush, 870 Kearny Street, Arlington, New Jersey, telephoned the New York Bureau Office and stated that he had an idea as to the identity of the kidnapers in the instant case. Mr. Bush in his conversation with Assistant Special Agent in Charge J.H. Hannon of the New York Bureau Office, stated that he suspected Clyde Evans who, he believes, resides in San Francisco at the present time; that his suspicion is based upon a code name "Perry Mimmie", which the victim's family was instructed to use in their newspaper advertisements.

Agent Schroeder informed Agent Gebben that the Philadelphia Bureau Office would handle this matter and would immediately contact their resident agent in Newark, New Jersey, and instruct him to interview Mr. Bush before 6:30 P.M., which was the hour that Mr. Bush stated he would leave the Kearny Street address.

Very truly yours,

H. WHITNEY,
Special Agent in Charge.

Dear Sir:

RE: GEORGE WEYERHAEUSER,
Victim, KIDNAPING.

This will confirm telephonic conversation to the effect that Agent in Charge Purvis at Chicago today advised the Bureau that he had received information from Mr. Clabaugh of Chicago to the effect that a number of years ago Harry Commons, Henry Raepple and R. D. Schroeder were sentenced to the State Reformatory at Pontiac, Illinois for extortion and kidnaping and in writing to the victim they used the term "Egotist" or "Egoist" and boasted of having some education. These boys, according to Mr. Clabaugh, have been released from prison.

The records of the Identification Division of the Bureau on these three individuals are as follows:

As Harry Commons, #A-5837, received State Reformatory, Pontiac, Illinois, December 17, 1925, from Freeport, crime - extortion, sentence - 1 to 10 years. Commons is described as follows:

Occupation	Student
Birthplace	Kansas
Age	20 (1925)
Build	Medium slim
Height	6'3"
Hair	Chestnut dark
Weight	160
Complexion	Medium dark

Dear Sir:

The Bureau this morning telegraphed you as follows:

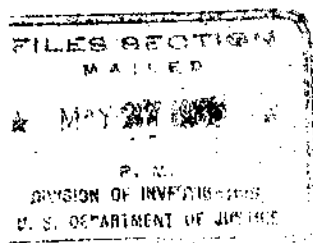

"Bureau desires specifically caution you that no publicity, direct or indirect, expressed or implied, official or unofficial, is to emanate from you or any Agents your jurisdiction relative Weyerhaeuser case."

It is believed that the foregoing is self-explanatory. Information has been noted in the press to the effect that unofficial statements have been reported as emanating from Bureau field offices. This is undesirable and no statements should be made or action taken which would give the representatives of the press any reason for basing any unofficial statement or indirect expression of opinion upon any remark or reply to any inquiry on the part of any representative of the Bureau in the field. This procedure should apply not only to the current case of the kidnaping of George Weyerhaeuser, but also to every major case as it arises, every effort being made to refrain from any statement which will result in any publicity of any kind, except such as may be officially authorized at the proper time.

Very truly yours,

"Bureau desires specifically caution you that no publicity, direct or indirect, expressed or implied, official or unofficial, is to emanate from you or any Agents your jurisdiction relative Weyerhaeuser case."

It is believed that the foregoing is self-explanatory. Information has been noted in the press to the effect that unofficial statements have been reported as emanating from Bureau field offices. This is undesirable and no statements should be made or action taken which would give the representatives of the press any reason for basing any unofficial statement or indirect expression of opinion upon any remark or reply to any inquiry on the part of any representative of the Bureau in the field. This procedure should apply not only to the current case of the kidnaping of George Weyerhaeuser, but also to every major case as it arises, every effort being made to refrain from any statement which will result in any publicity of any kind, except such as may be officially authorized at the proper time.

Write letter of reprimand to Criss.
I telephoned Connelley at Tacoma, Washington and told him to let Criss go back to his headquarters and that he would be replaced; that Criss was being sent back because his name had appeared in the press and the Bureau did not desire the names of any of its Agents to be disclosed in any way. Connelley thought Criss may have been working at Police Headquarters in order to get information there and this may have been the reason. He was told that Criss is to go back to his headquarters and that he will be replaced.

Connelley states that one of the papers called him this morning with reference to the first ransom note, which is appearing in full in the Post Intelligence of Seattle. It appears there was an agreement between the newspapers and the family and the newspapers were to "lay off", with the usual result that one of the newspapers "beat the barrier". This particular newspaper that called Connelley asked whether he could confirm the note as it appeared. Connelley stated he could not talk about anything. The point of this is that the newspapers now have Connelley's name.

I asked Connelley about equipment, particularly automobile equipment. He said they have ten Hudsons from the Portland Office and that this would be sufficient for the present. I inquired whether he might need any other equipment and he said he believed he had sufficient. He suggested that he might hire one or two other cars in view of the fact that Hudson equipment is rather distinctive and I told him to use his own judgment.

Very truly yours,

RECORDED

Letter Agent Criss 6-4-35
H. Nathan.

I told Connelley that it would be a good thing if he could place a man with Luke May in order to cooperate with him and at the same time learn any of his plans. He said this would be done; that May is conferring with us about all matters, and Connelley seemed to think they have Luke May in hand. This may or may not be correct.

Mr. Edgar Hoover,

My Dear Sir.

- you may use this information for which it may do the best good, it may be a lead towards solving the exterior case in Tacoma.

About three ^{weeks} ago, two men stopped me in San Rafael, asked me which Road to take for Washington. I directed them and asked also, what their line was? "that is their work", they said just a Couple of Automobile Salesman gone away. This seemed peculiar to me to make such a statement, they then got into a Car of a tan color, more like Kangul with a touch of Brown mixed with it. I am a Painter naturally I would notice this.

Description of men. Both about 5' - 10 or 11 inches. Wearing Blue Serge Suits. Black Shoes. High. One Grey Wolton Shirt, one Striped White with Purple stripe. Both. Dark Fedora Hats. no Pins, no Chains, no ornaments at all. Well developed men.

Yours Respectfully
- George H. Wright

MEMORANDUM FOR MR. NATHAN

RE: Weyerhaeuser Kidnaping

Colonel Gates telephoned and stated that Mr. Stanley Carroll of the Universal News Service would like to come in to see me. I advised Colonel Gates that I was engaged, and he stated that Mr. Carroll, who was in his office at the time, could make his inquiry by telephone.

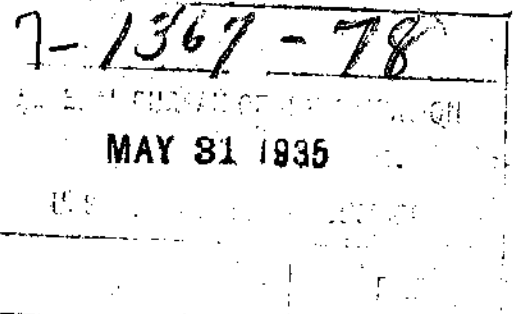

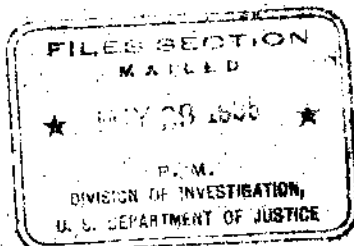

Mr. Carroll telephoned and inquired if it would be possible to write a story to the effect that eventually the Department will get the kidnapers in the Weyerhaeuser Kidnaping because the Department always gets the kidnapers that they go after, and that there is nothing new in the technique here etc. I advised Mr. Carroll that we have adopted the policy that we are not going to say one word other than we are working on the case. Mr. Carroll inquired if I would say that the record indicates that the kidnapers are always caught. I stated that the record speaks for itself.

Dear Sir:

Relative to the kidnapping of nine year old George
 O Weyerheuser, I would like to offer my opinion.

I believe the kidnapper is a man of about 39 years of age, or less, and of not more than high school education. I believe him to be acting alone, although there may be a woman in the background. I do not think he is a gangster, or even a man with a criminal record, but an intravert.

The child, I believe, will be found within a radius of 15 miles of his home, and not a dime should be paid for his return; rather, the kidnapper should be threatened and given 24 hours to return the boy to his parents. He is a coward and a violent threat will cause him to disgorge the child.

Respectfully,

O. R. Bryant

Oliver R. Bryant, M.D.

ORB:D

P.S. I am encouraged to offer my suggestion because of my forecast in the Lindbergh case, made the day after the kidnapping, that the baby was dead and would be found within seven (7) miles of the Lindbergh home.

POSTAL TELEGRAPH-CABLE COMPANY

TRANSMITS AND DELIVERS THE WITHIN MESSAGE SUBJECT TO THE FOLLOWING TERMS AND CONDITIONS:

To guard against mistakes or delays, the sender of a message should order it REPEATED; that is, telegraphed back to the originating office for comparison. For this, one-half the unrepeatable message rate is charged in addition. Unless otherwise indicated on its face, THIS IS AN UNREPEATED MESSAGE AND PAID FOR AS SUCH, in consideration where it is agreed between the sender of the message and this Company as follows:

1. The Company shall not be liable for mistakes or delays in the transmission or delivery, or for non-delivery, or any message received for transmission at the UN-REPEATED MESSAGE rate, whether caused by the negligence of its servants or otherwise, beyond the sum of FIVE HUNDRED DOLLARS; nor for mistakes or delays in the transmission or delivery, or for non-delivery of any message received for transmission at the REPEATED MESSAGE rate, beyond the sum of FIVE THOUSAND DOLLARS; nor for mistakes or delays in the transmission or delivery, or for non-delivery of any message received for transmission at the SPECIALLY VALUED MESSAGE rate, beyond the sum at which such message shall be valued, in writing, by the sender thereof when tendered for transmission and for which payment is made or agreed to be made of the amount of the repeated message rate and an additional charge equal to one-tenth of one per cent of the amount by which such written valuation shall exceed five thousand dollars; nor in any case for delays arising from unavoidable interruption in the working of its lines, or for errors in cipher or obscure messages.

2. The Company is hereby made the agent of the sender, without liability, to forward this message over the lines of any other company or by any other means of communication when necessary to reach its destination.

3. Domestic messages and incoming cable messages will be delivered free within one-half mile of the Company's office in towns of 5,000 population or less, and within one mile of such office in other cities or towns. Beyond these limits the Company does not undertake to make delivery, but will, without liability, at the sender's request, as his agent and at his expense, endeavor to contract for him for such delivery at a reasonable price.

4. No responsibility attaches to this Company concerning messages until the same are accepted at one of its transmitting offices; and if a message is sent to such office by one of the Company's messengers, he acts for that purpose as the agent of the sender.

5. The Company shall not be liable for damages or statutory penalties in any case where the claim is not presented in writing within sixty days after the message is filed with the Company for transmission.

6. It is agreed that prompt and correct transmission and delivery of this message shall be presumed in any action for recovery of tolls therefor; subject, however, to rebuttal by competent evidence.

7. Special terms governing the transmission of messages under the classes of messages enumerated below shall apply to messages in each of such respective classes in addition to all foregoing terms.

8. NO EMPLOYEE OF THIS COMPANY IS AUTHORIZED TO VARY THE FOREGOING.

CLASSES OF SERVICE

DOMESTIC MESSAGES

FAST TELEGRAMS. A full-rate expedited service.

DAY LETTERS. A deferred day service at rates lower than the fast telegram rate, one and one-half times the Night Letter rate for the transmission of 50 words or less, and one-fifth of the initial rate for each additional 10 words or less.

SPECIAL TERMS APPLYING TO DAY LETTERS. In further consideration of the reduced rate for this special "Day Letter" service, the following special terms in addition to those enumerated above are hereby agreed to:

(a) Day Letters may be forwarded by the Telegraph Company as a deferred service and the transmission and delivery of such Day Letter is, in all respects, subordinate to the priority of transmission and delivery of full rate telegrams.

(b) This Day Letter is received subject to the express understanding and agreement that the Company does not undertake that a Day Letter shall be delivered on the day of its date absolutely and at all events; but that the Company's obligation in this respect is subject to the condition that there shall remain sufficient time for the transmission and delivery of such Day Letter on the day of its date during regular office hours, subject to the priority of the transmission of full rate telegrams under the conditions herein above.

NIGHT MESSAGES. Accepted up to 7:00 a. m. at reduced rates to be sent during the night and delivered not earlier than the morning of the ensuing business day. Night messages may at the option of the Telegraph Company be mailed at destination to the addressee, and the Company shall be deemed to have discharged its obligation in such cases with respect to delivery by mailing such Night Messages at destination, postage prepaid.

NIGHT LETTERS. Accepted up to 2:00 a. m. for delivery on the morning of the ensuing business day. At rates still lower than night messages, as follows: The fast telegram rate for 10 words shall be charged for the transmission of 50 words or less, and one-fifth of such rate for 10 words shall be charged for each additional 10 words or less.

SPECIAL TERMS APPLYING TO NIGHT LETTERS. In further consideration of the reduced rate for this special "Night Letter" service, the following special terms in addition to those enumerated above are hereby agreed to:

(a) Night Letters may at the option of the Telegraph Company be mailed at destination to the addressee, and the Company shall be deemed to have discharged its obligation in such cases with respect to delivery by mailing such Night Letters at destination, postage prepaid.

CABLE MESSAGES

FULL RATE MESSAGES receive regular and prompt service in their order of filing. Code language permitted.

DEFERRED RATE MESSAGES at one-half of the full rate to follow full rate messages. Must be in plain language of country of origin, or of destination, or in French. Full particulars as to countries where this class of service is effective will be furnished upon application to any Postal Telegraph office.

NIGHT CABLE LETTERS at reduced rates. Must be in plain language of country of origin, or of destination, or in French where transmitted by telegraph to destination. Subordinate to the priority of transmission of full and deferred rate messages. May be received, when sender so directs, to countries where this service is not available, at faster rates than from which such messages are posted. Under latter circumstances, messages must contain complete mailing address, including chargeable posting instructions (e.g., "Post London," etc.). Minimum word basis of twenty to twenty-five words applied. Code address may be used except for messages delivered by post. Figures omitted by text admitted. Indicator "NLT" required and charged for as one word. For further particulars apply at any Postal Telegraph office.

WEEK END CABLE LETTERS at exceptionally low rates. Accepted under conditions applicable to Night Cable Letters, excepting that Week End Cable Letters will be accepted during the week up to midnight Saturday for telegraphic delivery on the following Monday morning. Indicator "WLT" required and charged for as one word. For further particulars apply at any Postal Telegraph office.

MEMORANDUM FOR ALL SPECIAL AGENTS
ATTACHED TO MILWAUKEE OFFICE

As you have been informed orally, the Bureau has issued specific instructions that no publicity, direct or indirect, expressed or implied, official or unofficial, is to emanate from any agent relative to the Weyerhaeuser case. Numerous articles in the press have indicated that unofficial statements have been reported as emanating from Bureau field offices. The Bureau specifically instructs that no agent shall make any statement or take any action which will give the representatives of the press any reason for basing unofficial statements or indirect expressions of opinion upon any remark or reply to any inquiry made on the part of any representative of the Bureau in the field.

The Bureau instructions referred to above apply to every major case as it arises and every effort must be made to refrain from any statement which will result in any publicity of any kind. The agents in the Milwaukee Bureau office are instructed to be on the alert against dropping any remark of any kind which might form the basis for an unofficial statement by the press. This also applies in your comments to individuals not connected with the press. It should be borne in mind that frequently casual remarks made to individuals who are not affiliated with the press in any manner are later relayed to the press and unofficial statements are made as a result thereof.

Each agent attached to this office will be held strictly accountable for any comment made which might result in publicity.

Weyerhaeuser Analysis

This morning we asked the Problems Class of the Norfolk High School summer school to analyze the Weyerhaeuser kidnapping note. Here are their conclusions:

"The kidnapers are youthful people, as is indicated by the length of the ransom note. Older persons would have written a note shorter and more to the point and it would have been more of a commanding nature. It would have been more logical and would have given evidence of cool judgment in all statements made.

"The kidnapers show that they are greatly terrified and cover up their fear by making statements which, on the surface, would make them appear to be bold people. When they assert that they are not afraid, "The police cannot catch us, we have spent three years working on this plan," they are advertising their fear, the haste with which they have conceived this plan, and their inexperience.

"The kidnapers are people of fine sensibilities, as is shown by the fact that they use the word "harm" instead of the word "kill", and by the further fact that the language in no place is that of underworld characters.

"The first part of the note had been carefully planned, and the kidnapers apparently have tried to avoid some of the errors made in the Lindberg case. The plan follows the Lindberg plan almost exactly except that there is a warning that the bills shall not be gold certificates, now shall they in any way be marked. There is also the warning that the bills must have been in circulation.

"The remaining part of the note shows that it was hastily written, under the emotion of fear and that as the writer was proceeding, there was from time to time violent disagreement as to what the next statement should be. This is shown in part by the fact that items 15 and 16 are out of logical order and apparently were not thought of when the financial statements were first made.

"The disagreements are probably caused in the main by a woman in the case. This woman undoubtedly is older than the men and probably is more experienced. The whole proceeding has probably been influenced rather greatly by the woman.

"There is no spirit of revenge in this kidnaping act. It is merely the work of youthful adventurers whose confidence in their ability is so great that they believe they can entirely cover up their tracks.

"The errors in the note are not, as newspapers have reported, really intentional. They are due to youthfulness and lack of finish in the education of the writers."

We wish to thank P. D. Seamster, principal, and his staff and pupils for this fine cooperation. It will be interesting, when all the facts are known, to compare them with this analysis which is made from internal evidence only.

Whether the class is right or wrong we think it commendable of Mr. Seamster that he is teaching his pupils how to think. That's a step in the right direction.

RE: UNKNOWN SUBJECTS.
GEORGE PHILIP WEYERHAEUSER - Victim.
KIDNAPING.

Dear Sir:-

This is to confirm telephonic conversation between you and Assistant Special Agent in Charge J. H. Hanson, on May 27, 1935, at which time you were advised that a man giving the name of Warwick, who readily admitted that this was an alias, and that he did not desire to give his real name or address, called at the New York office, advising that he had information that might be of assistance in connection with the kidnaping of George Philip Weyerhaeuser.

This man stated that approximately eight or nine years ago he became acquainted with a girl named Pearl Richard, who also used the alias of Pearl Martin; that he met this woman in San Francisco, where she had been employed by a large banking institution, having been appointed to a very responsible position, paying a salary of approximately $300. per month, but that because of the fact that she was using the alias of Pearl Martin, for some unknown reason, she was unable to procure a bond, which was necessary for that position, with the result that she could not qualify for it. The informant then indicated that this woman lived with him thereafter, during which time he learned that she was involved in criminal enterprises, namely, in making purchases of clothes and other merchandise at various department stores in San Francisco, charging these things to the accounts of wealthy women. The informant stated that the Richard woman would learn at various places that certain wealthy women of San Francisco were away from the city; whereupon she would charge large amounts of merchandise to their accounts, including very expensive clothing. The informant further advised that the Richard woman is a very brilliant and egotistical type of person. He mentioned that she could read travel books and then imagine that she was in the country about which she had been reading, with the result that with her imagination, and forceful and sincere manner of speech, she could make people believe that she had traveled extensively.

The informant also mentioned that the Richard woman had previously been married, and understands that she has a son who is now possibly 12 years of age. He further stated that she had told him that her people had a home in the immediate vicinity of the Weyerhaeuser home in Tacoma; further, that she frequently spoke of the Weyerhaeusers, but did not indicate that they were good friends. He also mentioned that the Richard woman's father, who is now deceased, formerly operated a photography studio in Tacoma, which after his death was operated by his widow. He also stated that the Richard family had a large number of children, including both girls and boys. The informant described the Richard woman as follows:

Age:	32 - 34 (present time)
Height:	Approximately 5 Ft.
Weight:	115 Lbs.
Hair:	Black-brown
Eyes:	Brown
Complexion:	Dark

The informant stated that after reading the newspaper accounts of the kidnaping of the Weyerhaeuser boy, he thought of the above mentioned woman, in view of the fact that she had used the alias Pearl Martin, the first letters of which are also the first letters of the name Percy Minnie, the name used in an effort to contact the kidnapers in this case. He also stated that the criminal tendencies of this woman and the fact that she undoubtedly needs money were additional reasons why he thought of her. He explained that he held no malice towards this woman; that he was reporting this data for simply what it was worth, and that he was particularly anxious that if any inquiry be made in connection with her, that care be taken so that no injustice is done to her, in the event that she is not implicated in the case.

Very truly yours,

R. WHITLEY,
Special Agent in Charge.

with its enormous resources and its successes to date, now enters the field of kidnaper pursuit, - no one but precisely such a self-centered person would unconsciously burden himself with such a concept in so dangerous a field, to say nothing of "signing" his own death warrant with such a term.

There is the further consideration that it is very possible that the Weyerhaeuser firm has been having trouble with reds of late. The Pacific Northwest is "full" of reds of every brand. Many of them are actual "nuts" who couldn't get past a sanity board; and, at least out there, "anarchists" and "communists" pretty much run together into an indistinguishable gang. Furthermore, some ten to fifteen miles from Tacoma is that notorious anarchist hang-out, "Home Colony," rendezvous during the World War of every breed of anti-American, "get-away" for reds of every description, hide-out for slackers, spies, anti-military agitators among the troops at Camp Lewis, and so on. Two of the reds who murdered twenty or twenty-five people in the dynamiting of the Los Angeles Times Building years ago, used this same "Home Colony" as a hide-out; Schmidt and Kaplan. That old red harriidan (probably still on the GPU payroll, for all of her books "against" the Soviet), Emma Goldman, always visited her anarchist friends there. I have myself on numerous occasions been sent out there by the Secret Service and the D. of J., to "look 'em over" pending some contemplated visit of the President. During the World War it was a bootleggers' paradise. In short, it is a really vile red hole; and since the Russian Revolution, has been an active rendezvous for actual bolshevik agents when in that part of the country.

I, therefore, beg to suggest to you that the above spelling of the "signature" on the ransom note be given your close consideration, with these facts in mind. To me it is simply incredible that, under these special circumstances, anyone would so sign a kidnap note without (unconsciously) knowing the difference in the usage of these two words "egoist" and egotist," and (again unconsciously) revealing himself. And do not criminological studies lead us to conclude that, time and time again, it is precisely these "unconscious" self-revelations which are the undoing of the egocentric, the ego-obsessed, the egomaniacal criminal? Who but an egotistical nut would steal a child anyhow, money or no money; and who but a half-baked red criminal would thus possibly (even if unconsciously) reveal himself?

With all thanks for your every attention and courtesy,
I am,

Sincerely,

/s/ FRANK PEASE

My dear Mr. Whitley:

Following our telephone conversation just now, I set down for your consideration these further items, as a possible "lead" in the above case.

The spelling of the word "Egoist," as reported by the press, as signed to the ransom note, leads me to feel the case has a special significance stemming into the "red" field generally; and for these reasons. Years ago a German anarchist named Max Stirner wrote a "philosophical" work which has subsequently become a "standard" study in anarchy and atheism. I cannot give you its title in German, but the English translation was "THE EGO AND HIS OWN." As I recall it, there was an explanatory sub-title that included the term "egoist."

Now out of that work, which has been since translated in most languages, I believe, comparing (for anarchists) to Marx's "Das Kapital" as a bible for socialists and communists, has risen, among the "cognoscenti" of anarchism and "revolutionism" generally, the use of the terms "egoism" and "egoist" as distinctly different to the common usage of the words "egotist" and "egotism." In short, nobody but a red familiar with such differentiation, indeed, I would even say, habitually, in his own mind, using such a term, can be considered as even knowing the difference, not to say using it - as used in the ransom note. Nobody but a cockeyed egomaniac, such as anyone who would "snatch" a child must be considered today, especially since the Federal Government

4/15/35 Dr. E. C. Boyel, 865 Dayton Ave., St. Paul, Minnesota
5/16/35 Frances Hall Apartments, 402 South Eye St., Tacoma, Wash.

Mr. Quirk, who can be reached by calling Rye 2150, advised that he would be glad to furnish this office with any further forwarding addresses of Mr. Kunz upon request. He stated that he had known Mr. Kunz only by reputation, and knows nothing about him other than that he is connected with the American Theosophical Society, which has offices in New York City. He referred Agent to the Rye Trust Company, where he believed Mr. Kunz had a bank account. He further stated that Mr. Kunz is reputed to have converted several of the members of a family in Rye to his religious belief; that prior to their conversion they had been rather prominent socially, but of late, had devoted a considerable amount of their time to their religion, and he was not familiar with their present standing. He referred to J. M. Sellon and Mrs. E. M. Sellon, all of whom give their address as 20 Park Lane, Rye, New York.

At the Rye Trust Company, Agent interviewed Mr. Henderson, the cashier, who produced the ledger sheets of an account in the name of the Anchorite Press, 509 Fifth Avenue, New York City. He advised that this account was subject to checks of Mr. Kunz, and that it is at present, and has always been, a small three figure account which was opened in October, 1933. His record further disclosed that Mr. Kunz is connected with the American and the New York Theosophical Societies, and that John M. Sellon is the treasurer of the New York Theosophical Society. He gave as the address of Mr. Sellon, the American Reinsurance Company, 67 Wall Street, New York City. He also produced a note in the handwriting of Mr. Kunz, dated May 10, 1935, asking that his bank statement be forwarded to him, in care of H. E. Emmons, 407 North Yakima Ave., Tacoma, Washington. Mr. Henderson called in several of the cashiers and employees in the bank, and without disclosing to them the identity of Agent, made inquiries as to their knowledge of Mr. Kunz. One of the employees stated that he left Rye, New York about a month ago to deliver a series of lectures in the vicinity of Puget Sound, Washington, and that he lived in Rye very little. She further described him as follows: Age 35; height 5'-7"; weight 140 pounds; hair black; wears glasses. She did not know whether he was married or had a family. All of the employees knew Mr. Kunz by reputation, but none of them knew him personally. They expressed their opinion to the effect that Mr. Kunz' reputation in Rye, New York was good.

Special Agents E. J. Gebben and George J. Starr interviewed Mr. John M. Sellon at his office, 67 Wall Street, New York City. He advised that he was acquainted with Mr. Kunz, and that the two of them are connected with the New York Theosophical Society, and further, that Mr. Kunz is now conducting a series of lectures and educational training on Orcas Island, Puget Sound, Washington, where he has a summer camp for this purpose. He stated that he regards Mr. Kunz very highly, as a man of character and ability. He further informed Agents that Mr. Kunz is a personal friend of Secretary of Agriculture Wallace.

Special Agent in Charge E. J. Connelley was notified on May 28, 1935 at 907 Rust Building, Tacoma, Washington, by coded telegram as to the results of this investigation.

Sgt. Ball, Village of Rye, New York Police Department, examined the record of arrests made by his department from 1907 to date, and advised Agent that he had no record of any arrest of Kunz. He further stated that he has seen active duty on the Rye Police Force for fifteen years, but has no knowledge of Mr. Kunz.

in the office for some time before he was released; that Coleman is a book-keeper and shorthand reporter and has a long criminal record, and on many occasions he has talked to O'Neil regarding the territory around Seattle and Tacoma, Washington, and is very familiar with all the roads in that vicinity; that Coleman is also a civil engineer and understands all about fingerprints, and that he was involved in altering the books of the McNeil Island Penitentiary before he came to the Idaho State Penitentiary; that Coleman is personally acquainted with many of the Federal Officers on the coast and particularly around Seattle, Washington, and Portland, Oregon.

Mr. O'Neil states that about April 2, 1935, one Remington called at the Penitentiary and requested to see Coleman and the request was granted; that Remington advised Coleman that he had just come from the East and had also been in Miami, Florida, and that things were "tough" and that he wanted to intercede for Coleman and get him out of the Penitentiary. (Coleman was due to be discharged on April 26, 1935). Remington advised Coleman that he had a small orchestra up at Sand Point, Idaho, and wanted Coleman to join him; that the wages were small but that he could do better there than most anywhere. O'Neil stated that Remington seemed to be very anxious to get Coleman out of the Penitentiary, although he knew that Coleman would be out on April 26th, which would be but about three weeks. After Remington went away, the Deputy Warden asked Coleman in what institution he had done time with Remington, and he stated that he had served time in McNeil Island with him and was very much afraid of Remington; that he had also served time with Remington in another Penitentiary, but that he would not tell where the other institution was located. Coleman also stated that he thought Remington wanted him to help him pull some big job and if they got caught he, Coleman, would be the "Fall Guy"; that Remington was a very smart fellow and so much more intelligent than Coleman that he, Coleman, was afraid to be around him.

Mr. O'Neil is of the opinion that Remington was in the Penitentiary at McNeil Island under the alias of Jule Brown but is not certain of this. He, however, is of the opinion that Remington and Coleman are the two individuals who "doctored" the books of the McNeil Island prison and embezzled considerable money, and that Remington might be the person who has engineered the above kidnaping.

This information is being forwarded to the Portland Office for what it may be worth, together with the photographs of Victor Breen and Paul Coleman.

Mr. O'Neil describes Remington as follows:

Age	38
Height	6' or 6' 1"
Hair	Wavy brown hair combed straight back.

Well educated, good penman, good dresser, carries himself very erect. Very good look-

Dear Sir:

UNKNOWN SUBJECTS
GEORGE WEYERHAEUSER-Victim
KIDNAPING

Post Office Inspector Robertson of Denver informed me today that he had in mind a gang which had been engaged in train robberies, and which also had operated both in the State of Washington and in Saint Paul, Minnesota. He stated that he had absolutely no definite information whatsoever in connecting this gang with the Weyerhaeuser kidnaping, but he believed that two members of this gang who are now at large, and whom the Post Office authorities are endeavoring to locate, could have committed this kidnaping.

Inspector Robertson related that the persons he has in mind are Elliot Michener, Richard Franzeen, John Knight, Giles with aliases, and Brady D. Morris with aliases. He stated that Giles had committed a murder in Portland, Oregon in 1918, and had spent a considerable portion of his life in penitentiaries, particularly, in the Oregon State Penitentiary; that in the penitentiary Giles became a very close friend of Elliot Michener, and also a friend of Richard Franzeen, and that at the time Giles was serving a term in the Oregon State Penitentiary it was learned that he had singled out three prominent Portland people as possible victims for a kidnaping. In this connection Mr. Robertson stated that the Warden of the Oregon State Penitentiary is familiar with the details. Mr. Robertson stated that he does not have the details of this gang as his only connection was that of investigating a train robbery in Salt Lake City, but that the Warden of the Oregon State Penitentiary would have considerable information concerning Giles, Michener, and Franzeen. Robertson said that Michener, Giles, and he believes Franzeen, escaped from the Oregon State Penitentiary, or that one or two of them was assisted in escaping after one had been released.

He next came in connection with these individuals in the investigation of a train hold-up at Salt Lake City, in February of 1935, at which time it was learned that this gang had probably been the gang which attempted to hold-up a train in Seattle, Washington, in 1935.

U. S. DEPT. OF JUSTICE

Giles and Brady D. Morris were arrested in the early part of 1935 at Saint Paul, Minnesota, while they were engaged in a hold-up of an engraving establishment. Robertson states that he thinks they were arrested by the Secret Service at this time on counterfeiting charges, as it appeared that the engraving establishment was being held-up for the purpose of having counterfeit plates made. Giles and Morris were returned to Salt Lake City, and Giles was sentenced at Salt Lake City on May 11, 1935, to serve twenty-five years in McNeal Island for train robbery. Morris was also sentenced on the same day to serve a term at Chillicothe, Ohio.

Robertson stated that Franzeen and Michener were also indicted for the Salt Lake train robbery, and their present whereabouts are unknown. The Post Office department issued circulars for both Michener and Franzeen, copies of these circulars being furnished by Mr. Robertson, and copies are being transmitted to the Portland and Los Angeles offices for their information. Robertson further stated that the most recent information he has of Michener is to the effect that he returned to Salt Lake City in March of 1935 to visit his mother, who is suppose to reside near Salt Lake City. Michener had become acquainted with a girl by the name of Laura ~~Booke~~^{Booke} of Salt Lake City, and visit Laura Booke at this time. Robertson stated that Laura Booke now resides in Los Angeles, and that Post Office Inspector Kline has conducted investigation there, and probably knows her address. Robertson believes that they will ultimately locate Michener through Laura Booke.

He does not have any recent information concerning Franzeen, but states that Post Office Inspectors Mein and Pinkham of Seattle, Washington, and Mr. Woods, Special Agent of the Union Pacific System at Portland, will have full information concerning the activities of this gang.

Robertson stated that their investigation of this gang revealed information which he believed was obtained from Post Office Inspectors Mein and Pinkham; that this gang had hide-outs at Granite Falls, Washington and Klamath Falls, Oregon. He further stated that the investigation also revealed that this gang had rented cars from the U. Drivit System for both the Seattle and Salt Lake City train hold-ups, and he believes that if this gang were implicated in the Meyerhaeuser kidnaping, that this angle should be checked. He also stated that their investigation revealed that these individuals had been in Denver, Colorado in March of 1935, apparently prior to the time they went to Saint Paul, at which time they had rented a typewriter in Denver to type checks in connection with the scheme they were working to fraudulently cash checks in Denver. At this time Michener and Morris rented one room at the Cosmopolitan Hotel, and Giles rented another room. Michener and Morris transferred their baggage into Giles' room, and left the hotel without paying their bill, Giles later checking out of the hotel, and taking all the baggage with him. The typewriter was left in the hotel room. Inspector Robertson is searching his file on this matter; and, if possible, the typewriter will be located and specimens of the typewriting will be forwarded to the Bureau on the possibility that the ransom notes may have been written at the time these individuals were in Denver.

Robertson stated that Michener is a very neat dresser, very intelligent, and a smooth talker, and that he believes he is fully capable of concocting and carrying out the Weyerhaeuser kidnaping. He has reached this decision principally because of Michener's close friendship and association with Giles, who as previously related always had an idea of pulling some big kidnaping. At the time these individuals were in Denver they were apparently broke, and Robertson believes that the activities of Franzzen and Michener should be closely checked as possible suspects in this kidnaping. He furnished photographs of each of these individuals, and same are herewith being transmitted to the Bureau, with photostatic copy of the signatures of Michener, Giles, and Franzzen, which were obtained at the Oregon State Penitentiary.

The following descriptions appear on the reverse side of the enclosed photographs:

The photograph of Michener showing him wearing a mustache is a better likeness than the Oregon State Penitentiary photograph.

Copies of this letter are being transmitted to the Portland, Salt Lake, and Los Angeles Office for their information at this time only. The information is submitted to the Bureau for any possible value it may have. If the Bureau deems that the activities of the individuals should be checked in connection with the Weyerhaeuser kidnaping, it is suggested the the Portland Office be so advised as detailed information concerning the activities of the aforesaid persons can probably be obtained from Post Office Inspectors Mein and Pinkham at Seattle, as Mr. Robertson stated that he does not remember the details as to their activities clearly.

In connection with the above entitled matter it became necessary to bring to Tacoma stenographer Edward Brekke and night typist Milton Hoffman, who is also a stenographer, for the purpose of handling the clerical and stenographic work in the temporary office at Tacoma, Washington. It is my understanding in cases of this kind that travel authority may be issued to the end that these clerical employees may receive such travel allowances and per diem as may be necessary during the tenure of their absence from headquarters.

If this is correct please transmit the necessary authority, making same retroactive as of May 25th, 1935.

Special Agent in Charge Spears at Portland telephoned and advised that he had just received a telephone call from Chief of Police Harold Bird at Tacoma, Washington to the effect that George Weyerhauser, age nine years, 420 North 4th Street, Tacoma, Washington disappeared this afternoon; that at 6P.M., the parents received a special delivery letter instructing them to have $200,000. ready for further instructions.

Mr. Spears stated that subject to approval, he was chartering a plane and that it would be ready to leave in thirty minutes. Mr. Spears stated that he had five men available. I instructed him to leave at once for Tacoma, taking four of the five Agents with him. I further instructed him to leave two Agents in the house and to convince the parents that we are working with them and that the first thing to be done is to effect the safe return of the boy.

Mr. Spears stated that the telephones have already been tapped and that he could be reached through the Chief of Police at Tacoma.

The Bureau will be advised of further developments.

Respectfully,

H. Nathan.

Dear Sir:

Re: UNKNOWN SUBJECTS
George Weyerhaeuser - Victim
Kidnaping.

This will refer to several telephone calls and telegrams to the Bureau relative to the disappearance of the above named victim at Tacoma, Washington on May 24, 1935. In connection with which there are enclosed two cellophane envelopes, one bearing the envelope of mailing and the other the ransom note sent to and received by the father of the victim, J. P. Weyerhaeuser Jr., 420 North 4th Street, Tacoma, Washington, at about 6:20 P.M. on May 24th, this communication having been sent by special delivery. There is also enclosed a school notebook of the victim George Weyerhaeuser, who is nine years of age, which contains the handwriting of the victim, together with his known signature, George Weyerhaeuser, which may be compared with the signature "George Weyerhaeuser" appearing on the outside of the envelope in which the ransom letter was transmitted. The notebook was obtained from the Lowell School, which was attended by victim and it appears little doubt but that the signature appearing on the envelope is genuine when compared with the known signature of the victim.

RECORDED

These exhibits are being forwarded to the Bureau for laboratory examinations, particularly with reference to stains appearing on the envelope and for the detection of fingerprints on the inter portion and sealed flap of the envelope. This letter and envelope were handled by a number of persons, whose names have been secured and whose fingerprints will be obtained at the earliest possible moment. FILE

MEMORANDUM FOR MR. NATHAN

Re: George Meyerhauser Kidnaping.

I telephoned Mr. Spears at Tacoma, Washington and on inquiring why a teletype report of the developments of the case out there had not been received here, I was informed that the message had not gone through but Mr. Spears had talked to Mr. Nathan about thirty minutes ago. I told him that I had not received the information and had been asked about the case by the Attorney General's office. I instructed Mr. Spears to send me a telegraphic statement of developments twice a day hereafter. I told him I wanted it distinctly understood that no publicity is to emanate from any of our men out there and in response to any request for information by newspapers or others to state that we admit we are working on the case but beyond this will make no comment. I further advised that Mr. Connelley would be there tonight and would take charge of the assignment immediately upon his arrival; however, Mr. Spears was told to remain there on the case.

Upon inquiry Mr. Spears advised that the police were notified a little after five o'clock and they in turn notified him about seven o'clock, the delay being due to the fact that the police had worked on theory that the boy who had been missing since noon, was "playing hooky". He stated the police had made a thorough check of the neighborhood and the school and the matter had become generally known throughout the city.

He stated the information had been given to the newspapers by a relative of the immediate family. I told him to ascertain the name of that person and to impress upon the family that it is imperative that absolute silence be maintained about the case and if this were not done we would withdraw from the case, inasmuch as we are not going to investigate this case through the newspapers. I told him I had learned more about the case from the radio news this morning than I had from him and that I wanted our agents, the police, and the family to maintain absolute silence. Mr. Spears indicated the attitude of the family as to co-operation with the Bureau had been satisfactory.

* I will advise if he had not already done so to rent offices in Tacoma immediately so that he could have a headquarters from which to work, and also for use in interrogating people if necessary. Also, to have telephones put in, notify us of the numbers, and to have a man in the office all the time. He stated they have offices in what is known as the old telephone building and have four lines installed but will need more from, which he will obtain.

I again told Mr. Spears to send in telegrams morning and evening even if there were no developments and if there were special developments to communicate by telephone.

9:55 A.M.

Mr. ~~H~~askinson of the ~~A~~ssociated Press called and inquired about the kidnaping of the son of a wealthy lumber dealer in Tacoma, Washington. I told him that all I could say is that Agents of the Federal Bureau of Investigation are working on the case and beyond this no statements will be made. He asked if he could see me for a minutes and show me what he had on the case. I told Mr. Haskinson I would be glad to see him.

9:57 A.M.

Mr. ~~B~~ell of the ~~U~~nited Press telephoned for a statement on the Meyerhauser case. I told him for obvious reasons we would make no statements other than that we were working on the case and in line with our regular policy on kidnaping cases no comment would be made until the case is concluded.

10:10 A.M.

Mr. Gates of the Department called about the case in Washington state. I told him that in line with our regular policy on kidnaping cases we would say nothing whatsoever about the case other than the fact that we are working on it, as naturally the kidnapers can read the papers.

MEMORANDUM FOR THE DIRECTOR

12:45 P. M.

RE: George Weyerhauser, kidnaping.

I called Mr. Coffey with regard to the above and advised him that the Director wanted Mr. Blackburn to proceed to Tacoma, Washington, the first thing in the morning by plane; that he was to take all his equipment with him and report to either Mr. Spears or Mr. Connelley.

Mr. Coffey advised that he will get in touch with Mr. Blackburn right away and issue the necessary instructions.

Very truly yours,

H. Nathan.

MEMORANDUM FOR THE DIRECTOR

RE: GEORGE WEYERHAEUSER,
Victim, KIDNAPING.

Mr. Peterson of the Nashville Office telephoned me and advised that he was unable to get hold of the Agent whom he had intended to send out; that he had Agent Dawsey available; that he was a good, level headed man. I advised Mr. Peterson that this would be satisfactory.

Mr. Peterson advised that Agent Dawsey would leave there at 2:00 A. M. this morning and arrive there at 8:00 A. M. Tuesday morning.

Very truly yours,

May 26, 1935

Director
Federal Bureau of Investigation
U. S. Department of Justice
Pennsylvania Avenue at 9th Street N.W.
Washington, D. C.

Dear Sir:

RE: UNKNOWN SUBJECTS
GEORGE WEYERHAUSER - VICTIM
KIDNAPING

In the interest of expediency, the information furnished the Bureau and the Portland office today by this office, will not be set forth in detail in this letter inasmuch as it has been transmitted telephonically and action is being taken thereon.

There is forwarded, however, herewith to the Bureau, Special Delivery, Air Mail, the original of a letter written by George E. Powell, whose nickname is "Tad", under date of December 11, 1928, to his wife Minna. It is suggested that a comparison be made of this letter with the typing in the ransom note for the purpose of determining whether the printing therein is identical. This letter is as follows:

R. # 1,
Everett, Wash., Dec. 11, 1928.

Minna,--

I received from Duryee today a check for a small down payment on the vacant lot next the market. It was rather a bolt from a clear sky, though a deal has been hanging fire for the same since mid-summer.

As it will be necessary to execute the instruments for the completion of the transfer, I am forwarding the enclosed power of attorney for you to sign with such dispatch as may not be inconvenient. The signature must be acknowledged before a notary, as indicated by the last paragraph.

RECORDED & INDEXED

I have included a power of attorney for the smaller vacant lot, the one near the school-- on the assumption that a prospective purchaser may drive into view to and preparations made for his welcome.

In confirmation of the information furnished Mr. E. J. Connelley tonight, please be advised that it was ascertained from Mrs. Powell that several years ago George Powell built a home in which they resided at Sunnyside, which is seven miles from Everett. It was also imparted by Mrs. Powell that one Stanley Peterson, the owner of a bus line which runs from Everett to Merryville is quite friendly with Powell, as is one Gladys Parker, a school teacher at Tacoma, Washington, who visits him frequently and who owns a cottage at Steilacomb, as stated previously.

Further details are omitted in this letter to expedite its mailing to the Bureau Laboratory. Mrs. Powell requested that the inclosed specimen of a typewritten letter be preserved so that it may be returned to her. She has likewise requested that under no circumstances should it be revealed to anyone that she has furnished any information in this matter because she naturally fears the consequences should her husband know that she has furnished this information.

Agent Waters telephoned from Kansas City and advised Mr. Tamm that he had just received a telephone call from former Agent Hal Bray who advised that George Edmund Powell was the subject of a kidnaping case of which Portland was the office of origin in January, 1934; that Powell is the husband of the music critic of the Kansas City Star, Minnie Powell; that she claims that he is a paranoiac. Mr. Waters further stated that after this kidnaping in the Northwest in January, 1934, Powell was adjudged insane and was committed to an institution in the State of Washington; that Powell was released about a year ago and that his address is 3008 Hoyt Avenue, Everett, Washington; that Powell's guardian is one A. W. Miley, 2814 Colby Avenue; that Mrs. Powell stated that Powell has been hanging out at Sultan Basin, a bootleg hang-out, near Everett. Mr. Waters further stated that Powell has always had illusions that there was some secret society plotting against him; that Mrs. Powell used to let Powell proof read her column which she writes for the Kansas City Star and invariably he changed the first paragraph and included something about this secret society; that there was always the name "Percy" in it. Mr. Waters stated that since the letter in the Weyerhauser Case asked that the advertisement in the paper be signed "Percy Minnie" he thought that there might be some connection with Powell. The Portland Office was advised by Mr. Waters.

I telephoned Mr. Connelley at Tacoma and advised him of the above and also that I would have some additional Agents sent to Tacoma.

I telephoned Mr. Connelley at Tacoma, Washington, and told him that the Director was somewhat concerned over the matter of publicity out there; that this morning Agent Criss' name appeared in the papers. Mr. Connelley said that this is undoubtedly due to the fact that the reporters checked Criss out of the airport at San Francisco. I told him that it was the desire of the Director that so far as is possible, the names and identity of the men be kept under cover.

Mr. Connelley said that he is doing everything in his power to keep the names of the Agents out of the papers, and will continue to take every possible step to prevent such publicity.

Respectfully,

H. NATHAN.

I telephoned Mr. Newman at the San Francisco Office in regard to the above entitled case, and told him that the papers in the East are carrying stories, accompanied by photographs of Mr. Newman, stating that he, Newman, is in charge of the investigation of the above case at Tacoma, Washington. I told him that while we know, of course, that this is not true, the Director wants the men to be very cautious about disclosing the identity of any of the Agents participating in the case.

I told Mr. Newman that I noticed Agent Griss' name appearing in the papers, and I was wondering whether or not this might have emanated from the airport at San Francisco. Mr. Newman said that he noticed this too, but the papers out there say the information came from the North. However, Mr. Newman said that he personally made arrangements with one Mr. Johnson of the United Air Lines for reservations. Mr. Johnson has worked with the Bureau before in matters of this kind, and understood that the matter was to be held strictly confidential. Mr. Newman said that they have never had the slightest difficulty with Mr. Johnson or with the United Air Lines.

I told him that in any event, the Director wants to caution every employee to be very careful about disclosing any information about this case or any information as to who is working on the same; that no comment should be made by the men to inquiries from newspapers.

Mr. Newman said that the papers in San Francisco show that Mr. Spears is in charge of the investigation, and some of them show that Mr. Ramsey is in charge of the investigation. Mr. Newman further said that the latest papers out there say that some official from the East is coming to assume charge of the investigation; that he has no idea as to where any of this information came from.

During a telephonic conversation with Mr. Connelley at Tacoma, Washington, I suggested the possibility of Luke S. May scooping the Bureau in connection with suspect Powell at Everett, Washington, pointing out to Mr. Connelley that May was fully acquainted with the facts in connection with the previous investigation of Powell for kidnaping undertaken by the Bureau in December of 1933, and that consequently, we must consider the possibility that May might recall Powell and suspect his participation in this case.

Mr. Connelley said that this had occurred to him; that, however, they are keeping close watch on the movements and activities of May, and it appears that this possibility has not as yet occurred to May.

Mr. Connelley said that it has been ascertained that Powell has been out of the insane asylum since January of this year, and they have indications that he was around Tacoma on or about Friday last. He further said that the Agents are at Everett at the present time making inquiries in connection with Powell. Any developments in this connection will be promptly reported to the Bureau by Mr. Connelley.

I telephoned Mr. Purvis at Chicago, calling his attention to the Associated Press dispatch from Chicago dated May 25th, quoting, as the unofficial comment of those at headquarters of the Bureau in Chicago, a statement to the effect that "one guess is as good as another at this stage of the game". I told him it was not desired that he or anybody else at Chicago make any comment, official or unofficial, concerning the Weyerhaeuser case, or for that matter any other major case. He stated no such comment had been made and that the quotation was false. I stated that my comment was, of course, with regard to any statement that had been made and applied to any future condition that might arise, regardless of the truth or falsity of the current report.

KARPIS IS STILL HUNTED.

But Chicago Police Say He Is 'Too Hot' for Weyerhaeuser Case.

CHICAGO, May 25 (AP).—"One guess is as good as another at this stage of the game," was the unofficial comment at headquarters of the Division of Investigation, Department of Justice, tonight when conjecture as to the kidnapers of George Weyerhaeuser was solicited.

Following the usual policy of not talking until they get their man, the suggestion of Alvin Karpis as the possible abductor brought the reply: "Sure, we're looking for him. We've been looking for him for months."

But as to any evidence connecting the decimated Karpis gang with the audacious abduction, there was no official comment, here or elsewhere.

"Karpis is about the only public enemy of magnitude on the loose," said a Chicago police official, "so naturally in the public mind he'll be the first to be mentioned. But he's too hot to be pulling any stuff like that."

Dear Sir:

Reference is made to the letter of the Chicago Office addressed to the Director, dated May 27, 1935, a copy of which was furnished to the Portland Office by air mail, special delivery.

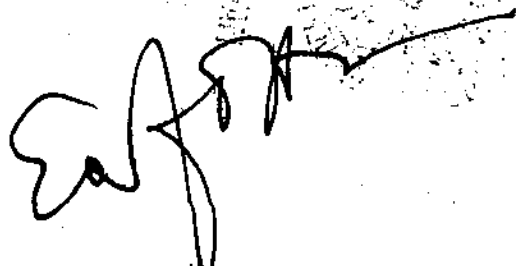

A search of the files of the Identification Division disclosed a file on one Pete Marinoff, who may possibly be identical with Peter Marinoff referred to in the letter of reference. Two copies of the criminal record of this individual are inclosed for your information.

A search of the Bureau files also disclosed that under date of September 21, 1929, a letter was received at the Bureau from the Seattle Office relative to the investigation of alleged irregularities on the part of certain Prohibition enforcement officials. This letter reflects that Pete Marinoff of Tacoma was engaged in illicit liquor traffic.

Re: UNKNOWN SUBJECTS;
GEORGE WEYERHAEUSER - Victim.

Dear Sir:

KIDNAPING.

This morning Charles Haffke, Chicago, telephonically communicated with this office and advised that he believed he had some information that might be of interest in the above entitled case. He was at once interviewed by Special Agent H. L. Scott and advised in substance that he was the superintendent of the Anti Saloon League, State of Illinois, located at Room 706, Boyce Building, 510 North Dearborn Street, Chicago, Illinois. He further stated that he was formerly, from about 1930 to 1933, an attorney in the National Prohibition Unit and stationed at Seattle, Washington and that he had a "hunch" that Peter Marinoff, whom he said had aliases, but which were unknown to him, and who at present is a brewer located at Tacoma, Washington, was probably involved in this matter or that his associates might be.

He stated further to Special Agent Scott that although Marinoff was apparently now a brewer, he was formerly a bootlegger and known to the police in Portland, Tacoma and Seattle but had never been convicted of felony. He also stated that immigration authorities had made some investigation in reference to him as he was an Austrian Pole who apparently had entered the country years ago but on account of the Statute of Limitations or some other technicality, could not be deported.

He further stated that Morris Smith, now a practicing attorney in Spokane, Washington, but who was formerly attached to the Prohibition Unit at Seattle, knew Marinoff and his connections.

He also stated that although Marinoff is apparently rich, he believes he needs money as in 1934, exact date unknown, Marinoff had an option on the Cambrinus Brewery, Portland, but on account, apparently, of his reputation, he could not get a permit to operate it and probably lost a large amount of money on this deal.

He also stated that the United States Attorney's office at Seattle had a file on Marinoff and that he remembered a file entitled "Colasardo"*, violation or other information not recalled, but that Marinoff's name was connected in this file. He stated that Colasardo was supposed to be a collector in some illegal operation.

Mr. Haffke said he had nothing definite to base this matter on but it was simply a "hunch" which he believed might be worth following out. He stated there would be no difficulty in securing the information as to Marinoff because of his being known to the officials as aforesaid out.

A teletype was immediately forwarded you covering, in substance, the above information, and suggesting that the Bureau advise the Portland office of these facts if considered advisable.

MEMORANDUM FOR MR NATHAN

RE: Weyerhaeuser Kidnaping

Colonel Gates telephoned and advised that the ~~Seattle Post~~ has published the ransom letter, and telegrams are being received to the effect that the letter has been forwarded to the Bureau. I advised Colonel Gates that I would neither confirm nor deny it.

Colonel Gates stated that there were some photographers in his office waiting to get pictures of the letter. I advised Colonel Gates that no pictures will be made of the letter and no information will be given out concerning the case until it is completed. I advised Colonel Gates that the information that appeared in the Seattle paper did not emanate from us.

Colonel Gates advised that he saw in the paper where we were setting up a laboratory in the West. I stated that it was absolutely untrue because we have the laboratory in Washington and that it will be used for any purposes which may be necessary.

Re: Weyerhaeuser Kidnaping

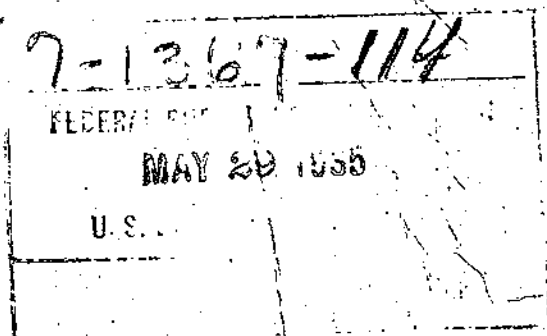

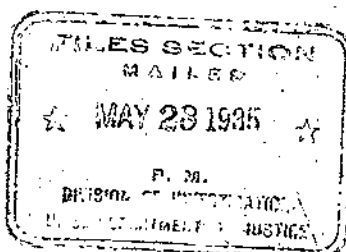

Colonel Gates telephoned and inquired if I had seen the headlines in the Washington Daily News to the effect that similarities in notes may link the Weyerhaeuser and Stoll cases. I advised Colonel Gates that I refuse to make any statement. I further added that we are not going to say anything other than we are working on the case.

Colonel Gates stated that he had a representative of the press making inquiries relative to several kidnappings. I advised Colonel Gates that he should refer them to the newspaperfiles for the information because we have been working day and night and do not have the time to go through the files and furnish them with the desired information.

RE: GEORGE WEYERHAEUSER, Victim, KIDNAPING.

Mr. Connelley called on the telephone and stated that there is nothing particularly new; that there has been press publicity in that vicinity relative to the Oregon State Police who this morning saw some people in a tan colored coach which had a temporary license issued to Guy E. Parks, 1252 Valencia Street, San Francisco, California. Inside the car was a license 9M3859, apparently torn off the car. The car was supposed to contain three or four men. The description of the driver was age 35 to 40, 190 pounds and dark complexion. San Francisco was asked by Connelley to trace a license seen there. The second license was issued to Alma D. Hart, 968 El Paso Drive, Los Angeles, and Los Angeles has been telephoned for a check there. The Oregon State Police apparently gave the information to the Portland, Oregon and Tacoma, Washington Police and they in turn gave it to the newspapers. Little, if anything, is expected from this lead.

With regard to the principal subject, our Agents believe they have located a place where he may be. They have not yet pursued this to a conclusion, however.

Very truly yours,

H. Nathan

In connection with the Laboratory examination of the typewritten ransom note received yesterday in the Laboratory, Mr. Hince interviewed Mr. K. D. McRae of the U. C. Smith and Corona Typewriters, Incorporated, branch office, 1018 - 15th Street, N. W.; National 0411, this morning in order to obtain information of possible value and also to obtain a portable Corona typewriter, model #3, with #2 elite type, for use in preparing a duplicate of the original ransom note. Mr. McRae advised that his branch office had discontinued this model about six months ago, but that they intended to bring it back into stock on account of the demand. No typewriter of this model was available in his agency. However, Mr. McRae contacted Mrs. R. G. Scheaffer at the General Typewriter Company, 740 - 14th Street, N. W.; National 2249, and found that such a model was on hand at that dealer's store.

Mr. Hince interviewed Mrs. Scheaffer and was loaned one Corona portable, No. 172,408-3. This typewriter was similar in all respects, with the exception of the figure 5. However, due to this difference and in view of the fact that no similar typewriter was readily available, I made the oral suggestion that an Agent from the field office be assigned to locate a typewriter similar to the one used to write the original ransom note.

Mr. Hince states that Mr. McRae was very helpful and showed a splendid cooperative attitude. He estimated that approximately ten per cent of the Corona portable typewriters were equipped with elite type. This would narrow considerably the search for any particular portable with elite type.

In order to have available the information necessary for tracing a Corona typewriter, Mr. Hince inquired as to the methods used by distributors and dealers in filing their records of typewriters. Mr. McRae advised that the branch offices of the company which act as distributing agencies maintain cross-indices by the number of each typewriter received in the factory and by the name of the dealer to whom they are sold. He also advised that dealers generally keep a record of machines received by them from the distributing agency, indexed according to the number of the machine and that they also keep records of the persons to whom sold by name. In some cases these records are carelessly kept, but there is a fair chance of running down the person to whom a dealer sold a typewriter, providing the number of the typewriter is known. If the name of the person to whom it is suspected a typewriter was sold is known, every dealer should be able to state definitely the number of the machine sold.

Mr. McRae advised that in the event it is desired to trace a typewriter quickly and the number of the typewriter is known, it would be desirable to telephone or telegraph the factory. The factory would advise the location of the branch or distributing agency to which the typewriter was shipped. Knowing the name of the distributing agency, inquiry could be made either as to the name and location of the dealer and from him information could be sought as to the person to whom the machine was finally sold. Mr. McRae advised that he would be glad to handle such an inquiry personally from his office any time the Bureau wished to make a request. He further stated that he stood ready at all times to make any inquiry the Bureau felt was necessary.

In this interview, Mr. Hince did not indicate the nature of the investigation.

E. P. Coffey.

Dear Sir:

RE: GEORGE WEYERHAEUSER,
Victim, KIDNAPING.

In connection with information furnished telephonically by you on May 28th, relative to possible complicity in the above entitled case on the part of Harry Commons, #A-5837, Henry Raeppe, #A-5836, and R. D. Schroeder, #A-5838, State Reformatory, Pontiac, Illinois, the Bureau is of the opinion that it would be desirable for you to endeavor to ascertain the present location of these suspects, initiating the inquiry at the time of their release from the State Reformatory.

According to the files of the Identification Division of the Bureau, these three individuals were received at the State Reformatory, Pontiac, Illinois, on December 17, 1925, from Freeport, on a charge of extortion, to serve a sentence of 1 to 10 years.

Very truly yours,

The names of these three boys are Harry Commons, #5837 State Reformatory, Pontiac, Illinois, Henry Raepple, #5836, same institution, and R. D. Schroeder, #5838, same institution. He states these boys were gotten out of prison through the usual efforts of sentimental relatives and dishonest attorneys. I will convey this information to Connelley.

Dear Sir,

RE: UNKNOWN SUBJECTS;
GEORGE WEYERHAEUSER, VICTIM;
KIDNAPING

Confirming my conversation with Mr. Nathan of the Bureau this morning; I received a telephone call from Mr. Hinton G. Clabaugh of the Commonwealth Edison Company of Chicago, Illinois, this morning at which time he informed that while on the Parole Board of the State of Illinois about seven years ago, three boys, who were about twenty years of age at that time, were sent to Pontiac Prison on charges of extortion and kidnaping. They were Harry Commons, Pontiac No. 5837, Henry Raeppe, Pontiac No. 5836, and R. D. Schoeder, Pontiac No. 5838.

He states that the case was quite an aggravated one inasmuch as the boys shot into a woman's house, and succeeded in obtaining about a thousand dollars from the Victim. There was a great deal of effort made to get these boys released from the Prison, and it was finally accomplished in a crooked manner, according to Mr. Clabaugh.

He states that the reason he is mentioning this matter at the present time is that he read in the papers where the term "Egoist" was mentioned and he stated also that several newspaper items indicated that the kidnapers of George Weyerhaeuser boasted of "having an education". He stated that the term "Egotist" or "Egoist" also appeared in the letters written by the above named persons and that they also boasted of "having an education", according to his memory.

He states that an attorney by the name of Elwyn R. Shaw of Freeport, Illinois, was a friend of Mr. John Commons, a publisher of a Freeport, Illinois, newspaper, and father of Harry Commons, who was sent to Prison.

Mr. Clabaugh added that the extortion or kidnap letters which were written by these men will undoubtedly be found in the files in the Pontiac, Illinois Prison, inasmuch as it is the custom to keep such letters in the files of the Prison rather than in the files of the States Attorney. He also stated that a Miss Keeler, now in the office of the Secretary of State at Springfield, Illinois, would be of assistance in locating these letters if they are desired and could not be obtained at the Prison.

He stated that it is possible that the letters may not be now in the files inasmuch as there was considerable "shaded dealing" concerning the release of these men from the Prison, and he suggests that considerable discretion be used in obtaining such letters if they are desired in order that they might be obtained before anyone has a chance to destroy them.

It is suggested that in view of the fact that the Pontiac Prison numbers of these men are known, the Bureau fingerprint files might possibly show any subsequent difficulties or their present whereabouts, in which event they might be eliminated.

No action will be taken in Chicago on this matter unless instructions are received from the Bureau.

Dear Mr. Connelley:

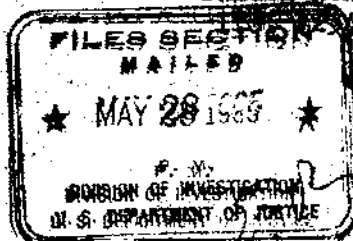

Reference is made to the letter of Special Agent in Charge C. C. Spears, dated at Tacoma, Washington, on May 25, 1935, transmitting the original ransom letter and accompanying envelope postmarked Tacoma, Washington, May 24, 1935, 6 P.M., together with a school notebook of the Victim in the case entitled UNKNOWN SUBJECTS; GEORGE MEYERHAUEN, VICTIM - KIDNAPING.

Confirming and supplementing the Bureau's telegram of even-date, you are advised that six latent fingerprints, three of which provide sufficient characteristic detail to permit search through the single fingerprint file, were developed on the original letter. In addition, two portions of palmar impressions appeared on this specimen. Four latent finger impressions were developed on the envelope and some of these may be searched through the single fingerprint file.

All of the latent fingerprints have been compared with the fingerprints of the individuals whose names are set forth below with negative results:

The three latent impressions of value for search are now being checked against the single fingerprint file and you will be subsequently advised as to the results thereof.

Inasmuch as some of the latent impressions are fragmentary and apparently are impressions of areas on extreme sides or tips of fingers, it is suggested that care be taken in the fingerprinting of persons known to have handled these specimens, or any suspects, to completely roll the fingers. Impressions of the second joints of the fingers should also be included. In addition, palmar impressions should be submitted for elimination purposes.

The notebook has been examined for latent fingerprints and a number of such impressions, which are apparently those of a small child, were developed thereon. These have been compared with the latent fingerprints on the ransom letter and envelope but in no instance were they found to be identical.

Very truly yours,

John Edgar Hoover,
Director.

Weyerhaeuser Kidnaping - F K Butterfield of Western Union Chicago advises that Dan McLeod, Minneapolis Police Photo Number 22018, dated September 17, 1931 and Jack Sweeney, who served four months in House of Correction Milwaukee sent there from Madison on liquor charge, were, he believes, arrested in Tacoma two years ago and he heard Sweeney state "this section could be developed into a diamond mine" to which Jack Sweeney replied "what, do you mean that mountain timber". Charles D Mack is alias of Dan McLeod who is product of Saint Paul and Minneapolis and is a killer. Well known to police of Milwaukee, Madison, Lacrosse, Saint Paul and Minneapolis. Sweeney is said to have had a girl in Minot or Mandan, North Dakota XX Dakota, who ran a disorderly house. Butterfield further states that these two in 1931 were talking about some big deal they were planning. He states further they are not well educated but McLeod is the smarter of the two. Butterfield believes they might have been thinking of the Weyerhaeuser kidnaping two years ago.

Mr. E. J. Connelley,
905 Rust Building,
Tacoma, Washington.

Dear Sir:

RE: GEORGE MEYERHAEUSER,
Victim, KIDNAPING.

Special Agent in Charge Vetterli at St. Louis this morning advised the Bureau that one I. B. Dace, who resides at Rushville, Illinois, received a letter yesterday, May 28th, the envelope of which was postmarked Aurora, Illinois, May 27th, 11 A.M. The letter on the inside, however, was marked Tacoma, Washington. The letter states the recipient will remember the writer as Charlie Hartley when both worked under one Keece. It goes on to say, "Send the following telegram: John P. Meyerhaeuser, Tacoma, Washington. Hold 200 grand ready and deliver to 349 South Congress Street, Rushville, Illinois. Get suitcase to Mr. Dace with cash 200 grand. He is our agent and knows nothing. Signed Hartley".

Dace served time in the Canon City, Colorado Penitentiary from 1901 to 1904 on a forgery charge. While there, there was also incarcerated with him a man by the name of Hartley, and both Dace and Hartley worked under a steward in the kitchen named Keece. Dace has lived at Rushville, Illinois for a number of years. He has advised that he never had any contact with either Hartley or Keece since leaving the penitentiary. The letter was sent to Dace, c/o General Delivery. Specimens of Dace's handwriting have been secured and there are some similarities. The St. Louis Office will pursue this matter further. Hartley is described as follows: RECORDED

Re: UNKNOWN SUBJECT;
George Weyerhaeuser - Victim;
Kidnaping.

Commander Clement of the Naval Intelligence telephoned and stated that he has an informant in New York City who writes to him quite often, and who is very anti-radical. Today, the Commander received a letter from this informant relative to the above case. The informant says that he noted on one of the ransom notes which was printed in the newspapers that the kidnaper signs his name as "Egoist". The word "egoist", according to the informant, is used throughout Max Stern's "The Ego of His Own", which is the bible of anarchism.

The informant goes on to say that it is his opinion that this case is more for terrifying than anything else.

I told Commander Clement that we had noticed that this note was signed "Egoist" instead of "Egotist", and thanked him for his giving us the above information.

Respectfully,

E. A. TAMM.

Re: George Weyerhaeuser - Victim;
Kidnaping.

Mr. Spears telephoned Mr. Newby to report the developments in the investigation concerning the above matter. He said that he is not fully advised as to the activities of Mr. Connelley, but talked with him a short while after midnight last evening. They have been keeping a woman under surveillance, and this woman is now located in a hotel in Seattle, Washington, where she is presently being kept under surveillance. Mr. Spears said that he did not believe it would amount to much, but would know more about ^{it} after Mr. Connelley returns, which will be sometime this afternoon.

Mr. Spears said that he had been contacted by a brother-in-law of the father of the victim, who got the following idea from the newspapers out there. It appears that in the publicity which has come out about this case, there has been an underlying tenor to the effect that the family was not able to raise the money, while in the personal column in the paper, the family had published the cold statement that "We are ready". Mr. Spears said that the family is of the opinion that some statement of some kind should be made in the paper to the effect that the money is as a matter of fact ready.

He said that in view of Bureau instructions as to publicity, he wanted to submit the above facts for the consideration of the Bureau.

RE: GEORGE WEYERHAEUSER,
Victim, KIDNAPING.

I talked to Spears at Tacoma, Washington on the telephone. He says that Mr. Tipton, Weyerhaeuser's brother-in-law, desires to communicate with the newspapers and give information to them to the effect that the family is not having and has not had any trouble in raising the ransom money. He desires to do this in view of the fact that there are rumors current in the newspapers that the family is having trouble raising the money. He also wants to furnish the newspapers with information to the effect that all authorities have withdrawn and that there are no obstacles in the way of contact being made.

I told Spears to tell Mr. Tipton that the family will have to exercise its own judgment in this matter.

Very truly yours,

H. Nathan.

Senator ~~Murphy~~ of Iowa called on the telephone and stated that he had a brother-in-law, one ~~McGuire~~, who was kidnaped some time ago; that his brother-in-law was in the slot machine racket in Dubuque, Iowa, and had just called the Senator on the telephone stating he suspected certain individuals might be connected with the Weyerhaeuser kidnaping. He mentioned the name of one Art ~~O'Leary~~ and also the name of one Tom ~~Reed~~. He said Tom Reed had no criminal record, but was a jury auctioneer. He said his brother-in-law knows Purvis and suggested that Purvis might get in touch with him by telephone at once. The telephone number of the brother-in-law is 2705 Dubuque, Iowa. I told the Senator I would communicate telephonically with his brother-in-law, and I am doing so, although I am not optimistic that anything valuable will be received.

RE: GEORGE WEYERHAEUSER,

In accordance with the call of Senator Murphy of Iowa, as set out in a previous memorandum, I talked with his brother-in-law, one McGuire, at Dubuque, Iowa 2705. McGuire stated we should check very closely the St. Paul and Superior, Wisconsin area, with particular reference to the O'Leary Jones Company. He also referred to the Tom Reed Company. He said Tom Reed is now in Los Angeles and has a large brown car, the make of which is unknown to McGuire. He thinks there is some reason for checking also the Dubuque area. I told him I would look into the matter at once. He asked me if I knew about Tom Reed and I told him I did. I am having the file room check the names. McGuire said he could be reached at the above mentioned telephone in Dubuque, Iowa.

Very truly yours,

Kidnaping.

Referring to telephone call from Mr. Purvis at Chicago today requesting that the records of certain individuals convicted of extortion in 1925 be secured from the Pontiac Reformatory, please find attached hereto a memorandum which outlines the available facts on each individual as reflected from the records at Pontiac, Ill.

For your information the trial of this case was at Freeport, Ill. Mr. Harry Edwards was the trial Judge and L. A. Jayne was the State's Attorney.

According to Mr. Purvis' information Mr. Claybaugh of Chicago, formerly with the Bureau, advised he believed that possibly the subjects mentioned in the memoranda attached hereto are possibly implicated in the instant case.

Weyerhaeuser Kidnaping Refere my prior teletype this date. Informant
 A D. Williams interviewed and states that his wife named Mary J. Williams was sister of Clara Schultz wife of Ben L. Schultz who served time Walla Walla Pen. Discharged from prison summer of 1932 and then came to live with Williams and wife and Clara Schultz at the home of a named White residing on Republic Street Seattle. Williams came East during same year and addressed mail for his wife in care of Ben Schultz Box 816 Seattle Washington using this address up to March of 1934 when wife of Williams died. At time of death wife was living with Schultz and his wife on street believed by Williams to be 16th Ave.
 subsequent to discharge of Schultz from pen. he was employed as salesman selling stock for Medical Earth whose headquarters were at Lewiston Idaho. Schultz came home one night under influence of liquor and stated to Williams, "I'm not making any money doing this but I know of something where I can make some easy money". Williams said, "Something like the Lindbergh case." Schultz replied, "Yes something like that." Williams states he recalled this conversation on reading of instant kidnaping also recalling that Schultz was the owner of a portable typewriter and was furnishing this information as a possible lead.
 Patrick Barry husband Winifred Barry mentioned prior teletype employed by Stone and Webster Company Seattle. Above information may be checked through this party if deemed worthwhile. Reference made to information in prior teletype concerning letter received at secret service that Weyerhaeuser boy was seen at 738 North May Street this city. Discreet neighborhood investigation discloses information unfounded.

Re: UNKNOWN SUBJECTS,

KIDNAPING.

Dear Sir:

Reference is made to the letter from your office to the Chicago Office dated May 29, 1935, relative to the note which had been received by one I. C. Dace of Rushville, Illinois, which note requested that Mr. Dace send a telegram to the father of the victim in this case instructing him where to deliver the ransom money.

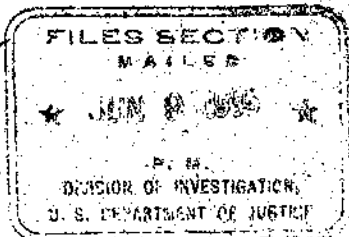

The Bureau desires that you conduct an immediate investigation to ascertain whether there is any Federal violation involved.

It is noted that the writer of the note was purported to be one Charley Hartley, who was formerly incarcerated in the Canon City, Colorado, Penitentiary.

Very truly yours,

John Edgar Hoover,
Director.

May 29, 1935.

Special Agent in Charge,
Chicago, Illinois.

Dear Sir:

The State's Attorney at Rushville, Illinois telephoned this Office late last night to the effect that one I. C. Dace of Rushville, Illinois had received a letter General Delivery, which indicated that it was written from Tacoma, Washington, with no date, but was in reality postmarked at Aurora, Illinois, May 27th at 11:00 A. M., which letter reads as follows:

"You will remember me as Charley Hartley when we worked for Reese. Send the following telegram:

John P. Weyerhseuser, Tacoma, Wash.
Hold 200 thousand grand ready and deliver to 349 South Congress Street, Rushville, Illinois. Give a suit case to Mr. Dace with only 200 thousand grand. He is our agent and knows nothing.

(Signed) Hartley.

This letter was stamped at Rushville, Illinois at 6:00 A. M., May 28th. Mr. Utter is the State's Attorney at Rushville, Illinois.

Dace was thoroughly interviewed by agents of this Office and he advised that he served time from 1901 to 1904 for forgery in the Canon City Penitentiary, Canon City, Colorado, serving two years, six months and two days; that he knew Hartley while in said Penitentiary and that both he and Hartley worked for a man named Reese, who was an employee or steward at the Penitentiary. Dace denies that he wrote the letter in question. The Sheriff has known him for years, owing to the fact that Dace has resided at Rushville since his release from the Canon City Penitentiary. He is unemployed and states he has never had contact with Hartley or Dace and does not know how they secured his address. His Penitentiary number was 5282. Agent Morris secured samples of Dace's handwriting and there are some similarities. Dace described Hartley, as follows:

RE: ^QWeyerhaeuser Case.

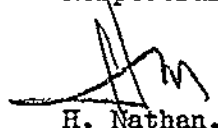

Yes

I talked to Agent Simons at Tacoma, Washington, who advised the State Patrol came to the office and informed them that one of the Bureau cars was found parked on a little used road; that they were wondering what to do with it; that it was reported to them and they contacted the Bureau Agents; that the State Patrol has not touched it.

I ascertained from Agent Simons that Mr. Spears and Mr. Connelley left last night about five o'clock with ten or twelve men and have not been heard from since; that this car was found about 10 or 15 miles south of Seattle.

I instructed Agent Simons to see that the State Patrol does not disturb the car as the Agents may want it for an emergency at any time.

Respectfully,

H. Nathan.

Kidnaping.

I telephoned Mr. MacFarland with reference to his telephone call to Mr. Nathan on May 29, 1935, to the effect that a man and a boy about nine years old were seen in the Union Station in Cleveland, Ohio on Sunday night. I told him that the Director desires that he have an immediate check made of this report through train conductors, Pullman porters, red caps, or other station attendants for the purpose of ascertaining whether this boy was the Weyerhaeuser boy.

Mr. MacFarland said that he would put an Agent on this at once.

Agent Brightman called from Tacoma, Washington relative to Volney Davis, et al. He stated he had talked to Mrs. Robertson and she gave information which we already had, but Special Agent Ryan called on Mr. Reed, the manager of the Lawn Apartments at 818 South 11th Street, Tacoma, Washington for this identification, at which time he took with him a large number of photographs, but Mr. Reed could not identify Davis only as a partial resemblance from his front view and nothing from the side view, which is a very good likeness of Davis. Mr. Reed also stated that the party in question was a very nervous man, about 5'3" in height, age 38 to 40, weight 135-140, complexion dark, which description does not fit Davis' description very well. Reed was very hazy in his identification of anything, and Agent Ryan showed him a photograph of Nelson (Reed was supposed to have identified Baby Face Nelson a short time before he was killed), but he could not even identify that.

Agent Brightman stated they are continuing to work on this angle in an endeavor to identify the individual believed to be Davis.

The letter quoted above was turned over to Sheriff Fred Read of Rushville, Illinois by Dace on May 28, 1935.
Dace stated that he knew Hartley while he and Hartley were inmates of the Colorado State Penitentiary at Canon City, Colorado in 1904 and that Keefe, mentioned in the letter, is John Keefe, who was Steward of the dining rooms at the penitentiary. Dace stated that he has not seen, nor heard from Hartley since 1904, and has not contacted any of the inmates of the Colorado State Penitentiary since his release in 1904. Dace denies that he is the author of the letter and denies having any knowledge of who wrote the letter.

MEMORANDUM FOR MR. NATHAN

RE: Weyerhauser Kidnaping

I telephoned Mr. Connelley at Tacoma, Washington with reference to the Weyerhauser Case. Mr. Connelley stated that our office there is now located in the Rust Building and telephones have been installed; that at the present time, he has nine Agents but one of them has to go away on subpoena; that with the additional ten Agents requested this morning, the set-up will be good. Mr. Connelley stated that the attitude of the family is cordial and cooperative.

With reference to the publicity, Mr. Connelley stated that the police went to the home, accompanied by a newspaper reporter when they were first notified; that he thinks the reporter saw the ransom note at the time of this visit; that everything that appeared in the ransom note has appeared in the papers, not by actual quotations but by giving the substance of the letter. Mr. Connelley stated that we now have full control of the case.

I advised Mr. Connelley that I noticed here that the newspapers and the radio broadcasts have mentioned at some length United States Marshal Chitty. Mr. Connelley stated that Chitty is a former newspaper man and politician, and that he has not appeared on the scene, except to make a statement to the papers wherein he stated that he thought it was some big gang.

Mr. Connelley stated that an add was inserted in the Seattle Post-Intelligencer before he arrived there which he considers to be a little ambiguous and which he thinks the kidnapers will not understand. Mr. Connelley stated that an add was put in the paper last night indicating that they wished to have some other method of communication indicated. Mr. Connelley stated that the first letter is the only communication received so far, and that it only had a special delivery stamp on it. This letter was mailed to the Bureau Saturday afternoon for Laboratory tests.

Mr. Connelley stated that he has been eliminating the situation of Mr. Luke May very diplomatically. I advised Mr. Connelley that Mr. May is President of the Northwest Sheriffs and Police Officers Association, and that he has a great deal of influence there with the local authorities.

I advised Mr. Connelley that I did not want any talking upon the part of our Agents there, and Mr. Connelley stated that he has advised them that there is to be no talking, even among themselves. I stated that we were taking the same position here and that I hesitated in making the statement yesterday that we were working on it; that beyond saying that we are working on the case, no information is to be given out by anybody.

Conversation of Mr. Hoover and
Mr. Connelley, May 26, 1935.

I inquired of Mr. Connelley if anybody saw anything happen to the boy, and he stated that apparently nobody saw the boy; that a partial identification was made on an automobile around the neighborhood; that some of the people have identified Alvin Karpis as being one of the participants in the kidnaping. Mr. Connelley stated that from the general set-up and the tone of the letter, he does not think Karpis had anything to do with it; that from the way the note reads, it looks like an individualistic situation resembling Robinson.

Mr. Connelley stated that the Agents are running down all leads in the Kansas City tip relative to George Edmund Cowell.

I inquired of Mr. Connelley if he was certain that the letter was from the persons who kidnaped the boy. Mr. Connelley stated that the kidnapers had prepared the letter and after they kidnaped the boy, they had him write his full name on the back of the outside of the envelope. Mr. Connelley stated that he has not seen the boy's handwriting, but comparisons there indicate that it is his handwriting.

I advised Mr. Connelley to keep me advised of any further developments and to let me know if he wants any special men in the service. Mr. Connelley was furnished with my home telephone number and instructed to keep me advised day and night of the developments.

Very truly yours,

John Edgar Hoover,

I telephoned Mr. Connelley at Tacoma, Washington and advised him that I had just spoken to Mr. Waters in Kansas City; that Mr. Waters had spoken to Mrs. Powell again; that she read the note and expressed the opinion that the style and method of the note made her feel certain that her husband wrote it.

I advised Mr. Connelley that Mrs. Powell stated that he had a brother by the name of David Powell, living at the Montclair Apartments in Los Angeles, California; that this brother is also a little off; that this mental condition runs in the family. I instructed Mr. Connelley to call the Los Angeles office and have them investigate this man. Mr. Connelley stated that he thought the subject is up in there, and that they would get him through that contact they have and whom they are checking.

I advised Mr. Connelley that three things had come in today, none of which looked promising; that one was from Salt Lake City, but as there was nothing to it, I would mail it to him, however, I read the telegram to Mr. Connelley; that a Captain Gillespie from Camp Meade called at the Washington Field Office and advised that one Gambora is a leader of a gang of car thieves at Fort Lewis, Washington; that the last one was in regard to Peter Maranoff, which information I gave to Mr. Connelley this afternoon.

I inquired of Mr. Connelley if it was alright to send mail to the office there, whereupon Mr. Connelley advised that the Seattle papers carried the story that we had an office in the Rust Building, but did not give any office number.

Mr. Connelley will keep the Bureau advised as to developments in the investigation of David Powell.

Mr. Connelley advised that he mailed from Seattle this afternoon, a complete list of the bills, initialed by the persons who made the list up, and also the persons who checked it.

Respectfully,

I telephoned Mr. Simons at the temporary office in Tacoma, Washington, and told him that the Director desires that steps be taken to preclude the possibility of the subjects in the above case from fleeing from the United States by boat. I told him that this was somewhat of a difficult assignment at this time, principally for the reason that we do not know exactly who we are hunting for; that, however, it was believed that the location of the various steamship companies could be ascertained, and whatever action can be taken to prevent the subjects from leaving the country should be taken.

I told Mr. Simons to suggest the above matter to Mr. Connelley and see what can be worked out along those lines. Investigation in this connection should not be confined to Seattle; in fact, I suggested Vancouver and Victoria. I also told him to suggest appropriate check down the West Coast, into San Francisco and Los Angeles, California.

Mr. Simons said that he would suggest the above to Mr. Connelley, and the matter would be taken care of as well as is possible under the present circumstances.

Respectfully,

Re: UNKNOWN SUBJECTS -
GEORGE WEYERHAEUSER - VICTIM -
KIDNAPING

Dear Sir:

On the morning of May 28, 1935 Mr. Coffey of the Bureau gave to Special Agent H. R. Duffey of this office typewriter typed specimens of a Corona 3 Portable No. 2 Elite and a Smith Corona Portable No. 2 Elite, being Laboratory specimens Nos. 24C and 33C. Agent Duffey was requested to locate a typewriter in Washington or vicinity with similar type as appeared on the card of Corona 3 Portable No. 2 Elite.

Agent Duffey checked practically all of the typewriter concerns in Washington, D. C. but was unable to locate a similar type.

Special Agent H. H. McKee was instructed by Mr. Coffey to proceed to Baltimore, Maryland and check all typewriter companies with the same purpose in mind. On May 29, 1935 Agent McKee located a similar typewriter at the American Writing Machine Company located at 18 Park Avenue, Baltimore, Maryland. This company refused to loan the Bureau this typewriter for a few days, the manager stating he would sell the typewriter for $16.00 or rent it for $7.25 for one month. Mr. Coffey was contacted by phone and advised Agent McKee to rent the typewriter for one month for $7.25, to pay for this rental, obtain a receipt, and place same on his monthly expense account. The typewriter in question was a Corona 3 Portable Serial No. 525493 which Agent McKee obtained and turned over to Mr. Coffey of the Bureau. This typewriter may be kept for one month upon the present rental agreement and at that time should be returned to the American Writing Machine Company, 18 Park Avenue, Baltimore, Maryland.

Re: UNKNOWN SUBJECTS;
GEORGE WEYERHAEUSER - Victim.
Kidnaping.
L. A. File 7-105.

Dear Sir:-

On May 29, 1935, a reporter from the Los Angeles Herald & Express called at this office and informed that Mr. ARTHUR MAREK, City Editor of the Herald & Express, had certain information concerning the Weyerhaeuser kidnaping case. Special Agent F. J. Culberson immediately interviewed Mr. Marek, who stated that on May 28, 1935, he received a telephone call from a man whose identity he does not know but who stated he was a former newspaper man and wondered if Mr. Marek would be interested in a story on the Weyerhaeuser kidnaping. Marek informed him that he would, and he then wanted to know what it would be worth. The conversation continued as follows, as related in Marek's own words to agent:-

"I told him the Herald as a rule did not pay for a story, but that we would be interested. He said, 'Has there been a reward offered?' I said I did not know but I could find out. I asked him where he was and he said, 'I am not very far away, about five blocks away.' He said he would come in in a half hour or would send somebody. I asked what the story was and he said there had been two 'snatches' pulled by the same gang in the last nine days and one of them had been in Portland and one was in the State of Washington. He said there were three women and five men in the gang. He said that they had got $5,000 in each case and never were reported. He said in addition that there were two chauffeurs involved in it and they were friends of the Weyerhaeusers. He said he wanted to get an air-pump and he wanted a reporter to go with him and we would have to fix it up with the Department of Justice, as he wanted to take them into his confidence but he wanted the Herald to go with him, and that he could round up the gang.

"Late in the afternoon a man came in, a rather tall, dark complexioned fellow, very tall, dark hair. He said, 'Lucas talked to you' and I could not place it for a minute and he said 'about the Weyerhaeuser case', and we sat down there and talked and he said Lucas sent him to see me to find out several things--what the Herald would be willing to do in this case. First thing I showed him an answer to a query I had sent to Tacoma on the news wire, and the answer was there had been no reward offered, and I explained to him there was no possibility of money from that source. Also told him that we were not going to lay out any money on the story. So he said his name was Hadley and he said he had been employed by Lucas to help him investigate this kidnaping and he paid him well for what he had done. Hadley said he was a physicist. He said Lucas had a nephew who was kidnaped, I think it was in Portland, and that Lucas paid $5,000 to get the boy back, that Lucas was the contact man in paying off the money to a chauffeur, and that later in Portland he ran across this chauffeur again and recognized him and this chauffeur got drunk and told him about the operation of this kidnap gang. Hadley said that the chauffeur apparently had been double-crossed, or anyway was frightened and wanted to get out from under. Hadley said that Lucas told him that the kidnap gang that kidnaped the Weyerhaeuser boy and pulled the other two jobs were connected with a liquor smuggling ring. Hadley said that the Weyerhaeuser boy was in Vancouver at a place called Shellmound, about 150 miles from Seattle.

"Hadley said that Lucas wanted us to get a reporter and Government man and go to Portland and there get a black LaSalle sedan with California license plates. He said this sedan would be the same appearance as the one that was used in the kidnaping. Lucas' plan, according to Hadley, was to get the chauffeur whom he mentioned in Portland, and drive to Vancouver and eventually raid the kidnap hideout. Hadley said that the place where the Weyerhaeuser boy is supposed to be held is either owned or operated by a man named 'Mauser.' Hadley said that in order to gain admission to the hideout one would first have to pass a picket and that is why the black sedan was necessary. He said the plan was to wait until the kidnapers' car left the hideout and then drive in the place in the black sedan past the picket. He said that was the only way to get past the picket.

"Hadley said that Lucas did not want to make any move until after the Weyerhaeuser boy had been returned safely to his parents because he was afraid the kidnapers might kill him if they raided the place beforehand. Hadley said that Lucas told him the boy would be returned tomorrow, Thursday. He said Lucas had two purposes, one was to get a good story and the other was to get revenge for kidnaping his own nephew. He said Lucas told him he wanted to collect $5,000 from the kidnapers.

"Hadley said that Lucas has money and that he is willing to finance his own way to Portland and would even buy the automobile, but that in the event he got the story he wanted to be reimbursed.

"In speaking about the kidnapers' automobile, I mentioned the fact that news reports said it bore a California license plate, and Hadley said, 'Yes, that is so.' I asked him if he knew where the car was bought and he understood it was bought from Don Lee, but did not say whether it was Los Angeles or San Francisco.

"I asked Hadley why Lucas did not come to see me, and he said Lucas was down at the police station checking fingerprints.

"He said one of the girls in the kidnaping gang used to be a Los Angeles stenographer.

"Hadley explained that Lucas wanted his technical services to procure an air compressor or air pump. He said that the kidnaping gang in its liquor running operations used a steamboat named 'Joker I' (Joker the first) and that the smuggled liquor was transported in a submerged raft towed by a boat, and that the raft was brought to the surface by pumping air into the tanks. He wanted to raise this submerged raft because Lucas said it contained evidence which would incriminate the kidnapers.

"Hadley left with the promise that Lucas would get in touch with me later in the day, and I gave him telephone number at the Biltmore Hotel where I could be found, but he never called and Hadley never came back.

"While I was talking to Lucas on the telephone, we tried to trace the call and it was a Mutual exchange, an Owl Drug Store pay 'phone."

Mr. Marek described Hadley as follows:-

Age	35 to 40 years
Height	Over 6 feet
Weight	190 pounds
Build	Slim
Complexion	Fair; healthy looking.
Hair	Dark, touched with grey.
Mustache	None; smooth shaven.
Features	Thin face, square jaw, straight nose.
Dress	Blue suit.

Mr. Marek also informed agent that Hadley inquired if he (Marek) could put him in touch with one WALLACE P. PHILLIPS, whom he wished to have make a compressor for him.

Mr. Marek stated that inasmuch as he had furnished this information to the Government, he would like to be given a break on the story should the information prove of value.

THE QUICKEST, SUREST AND SAFEST WAY TO SEND MONEY IS BY TELEGRAPH OR CABLE.

ALL MESSAGES TAKEN BY THIS COMPANY ARE SUBJECT TO THE FOLLOWING TERMS:

To guard against mistakes or delays, the sender of a message should order it repeated, that is, telegraphed back to the originating office for comparison. For this, one-half the unrepeat message rate is charged in addition. Unless otherwise indicated on its face, this is an unrepeat message and paid for as such, in consideration whereof it is agreed between the sender of the message and this company as follows:

1. The company shall not be liable for mistakes or delays in the transmission or delivery, or for non-delivery, of any message received for transmission at the unrepeat message rate beyond the sum of five hundred dollars; nor for mistakes or delays in the transmission or delivery, or for non-delivery, of any message received for transmission at the repeat message rate beyond the sum of five thousand dollars, unless specially valued; nor in any case for delays arising from unavoidable interruption in the working of its lines; nor for errors in cipher or obscure messages.
2. In any event the company shall not be liable for damages for mistakes or delays in the transmission or delivery, or for the non-delivery, of any message, whether caused by the negligence of its servants or otherwise, beyond the sum of five thousand dollars, at which amount each message is deemed to be valued, unless a greater value is stated in writing by the sender thereof at the time the message is tendered for transmission, and unless the repeat message rate is paid or agreed to be paid, and an additional charge equal to one-tenth of one percent of the amount by which such valuation shall exceed five thousand dollars.
3. The company is hereby made the agent of the sender, without liability, to forward this message over the lines of any other company when necessary to reach its destination.
4. Domestic messages and incoming cable messages will be delivered free within one-half mile of the company's office in towns of 5,000 population or less, within one mile of such office in other cities or towns. Beyond these limits the company does not undertake to make delivery, but will, without liability, at the sender's request, as his agent and at his expense, endeavor to contract for him for such delivery at a reasonable price.
5. No responsibility attaches to this company concerning messages until the same are accepted at one of its transmitting offices; and if a message is sent to such office by one of the company's messengers, he acts for that purpose as the agent of the sender.
6. The company will not be liable for damages or statutory penalties in any case where the claim is not presented in writing within sixty days after the message is filed with the company for transmission.
7. It is agreed that in any action by the company to recover the tolls for any message or messages the prompt and correct transmission and delivery thereof shall be presumed, subject to rebuttal by competent evidence.
8. Special terms governing the transmission of messages according to their classes, as enumerated below, shall apply to messages in each of such respective classes in addition to all the foregoing terms.

ALL MESSAGES TAKEN BY THIS COMPANY ARE SUBJECT TO THE FOLLOWING TERMS:

To guard against mistakes or delays, the sender of a message should order it repeated, that is, telegraphed back to the originating office for comparison. For this, one-half the unrepeatable message rate is charged in addition. Unless otherwise indicated on its face, this is an unrepeatable message and paid for as such, in consideration whereof it is agreed between the sender of the message and this company as follows:

1. The company shall not be liable for mistakes or delays in the transmission or delivery, or for non-delivery, of any message received for transmission at the unrepeatable message rate beyond the sum of five hundred dollars; nor for mistakes or delays in the transmission or delivery, or for non-delivery, of any message received for transmission at the repeated-message rate beyond the sum of five thousand dollars, unless specially valued; nor in any case for delays arising from unavoidable interruption in the working of its lines; nor for errors in cipher or obscure messages.
2. In any event the company shall not be liable for damages for mistakes or delays in the transmission or delivery, or for the non-delivery, of any message, whether caused by the negligence of its servants or otherwise, beyond the sum of five thousand dollars, at which amount each message is deemed to be valued, unless a greater value is stated in writing by the sender thereof at the time the message is tendered for transmission, and unless the repeated-message rate is paid or agreed to be paid, and an additional charge equal to one-tenth of one percent of the amount by which such valuation shall exceed five thousand dollars.
3. The company is hereby made the agent of the sender, without liability, to forward this message over the lines of any other company when necessary to reach its destination.
4. Domestic messages and incoming cable messages will be delivered free within one-half mile of the company's office in towns of 5,000 population or less, and within one mile of such office in other cities or towns. Beyond these limits the company does not undertake to make delivery, but will, without liability, at the sender's request, as his agent and at his expense, endeavor to contract for him for such delivery at a reasonable price.
5. No responsibility attaches to this company concerning messages until the same are accepted at one of its transmitting offices; and if a message is sent to such office by one of the company's messengers, he acts for that purpose as the agent of the sender.
6. The company will not be liable for damages or statutory penalties in any case where the claim is not presented in writing within sixty days after the message is filed with the company for transmission.
7. It is agreed that in any action by the company to recover the tolls for any message or messages the prompt and correct transmission and delivery thereof shall be presumed, subject to rebuttal by competent evidence.
8. Special terms governing the transmission of messages according to their classes, as enumerated below, shall apply to messages in each of such respective classes in addition to all the foregoing terms.
9. No employee of the company is authorized to vary the foregoing.

Re: GEORGE WEYERHAEUSER, (Victim)
Kidnaping.

Dear Sir:

Chief of Police Ezell of Marshall, Texas, advised this office by telephone this date that on May 27, 1935, about 3:00 o'clock in the afternoon, two women passed through Marshall driving a tan Ford V8 with Florida License #2-108-B. Apparently these women had figured in an accident, after which they appeared very nervous and worried, and hurriedly left. They had with them a boy about 9 years of age, who rode in the rumble seat of the car, and who, Mr. Ezell advised, resembled the young Weyerhaeuser boy. The women were middle age, one claiming to be the mother of the boy; and advised they were on their way to Dallas.

Please advise to whom Florida License #2-108-B was issued.

Very truly yours,

F.J. BLAKE,
Special Agent in Charge.

Re: UNKNOWN SUBJECTS -
GEORGE WEYERHAEUSER, VICTIM -
KIDNAPING

Dear Sir:

This afternoon while Special Agent [redacted] of this office was in Baltimore in response to a Grand Jury subpoena, he interviewed Frederick George Scott, Master of the S/S Hanley, a vessel of the Weyerhaeuser Timber Company which ship is now at Fairfield, Baltimore, Maryland and will remain in Baltimore up until Sunday June 2, 1935. This interview was in the office of Mr. Carl Ross McKerrick, Assistant United States Attorney, on whom Scott first called. Captain Scott stated his residence was at 1111 6th Avenue, North, Seattle, Washington. Captain Scott stated to Agent Traub that he did not want it known that he was an informant in this matter and desired his name be kept confidential.

Captain Scott stated he desired to convey to the Federal Bureau of Investigation information concerning the suspicious activities of the former radio operator of the S/S Hanley whom he thought might be connected in some way with the kidnaping. He stated Bruce E. Hensley, the former radio operator, lives at 5001 Brooklyn Avenue, Seattle, Washington supposedly with his mother Mrs. R. E. Hensley. He states Hensley is a college graduate, a writer, an aviator, and an excellent typist. He states that Hensley can compose a very intelligent letter and in fact acted as his secretary on board the Steamship Hanley for about two years. He stated that Hensley apparently has radical tendencies.

Captain Scott stated on April 12th or 13th, 1935 while the S/S Hanley was at Long View, Washington that Hensley staged a "one man strike" and stopped longshoremen from working and as a consequence tied up the ship until April 17, 1935. It appears that Hensley is a member of the Radio Telegraphers Association whose headquarters are said to be in New York and who have branches in other seaport cities in the United States. The strike was brought about for a raise of pay and according to Captain Scott the strikers contend that the general manager of the Weyerhaeuser Company broke faith with the men. When the strike ended on midnight of April 17, 1935 and the Steamship Hanley was about to sail from Long View, Washington for East Coast Ports, a messenger from the Weyerhaeuser Company attached to the Cargo Department at Tacoma, approached Captain Scott and asked him for a photograph and all pertinent information regarding Bruce E. Hensley and a photograph of Hensley was turned over to Mr. Howard. The nature of the inquiry concerning Hensley by L. Howard was unknown to Captain Scott.

Captain Scott stated when the vessel sailed from Long View, Washington that Hensley was not on board since he had lost out with the company due to his striking activities.

Captain Scott feels that Hensley undoubtedly is connected with a "bad bunch" of seamen. Captain Scott further stated that Hensley at times appears to be a little mentally unbalanced and states that his suspicion was aroused by the peculiar wording of the ransom letter that was received by the parents of the kidnaped child and published in the newspapers. He called particular attention to the following extracts of the ransom letter:

"21. Remember to follow the rules of them. A slip on your part will be just too bad for someone else."

Captain Scott states that "just too bad for someone else" is a stock expression of Hensley. He states in connection with the portion of the letter reading - "So if you just follow the rules as they are lain down by us you will have the one you love back home in a week's time if you care about them $200,000 worth," that "$200,000 worth or ten cents worth, etc." is also a stock expression used by Hensley. He calls attention also to a portion of the ransom letter which reads - "We are educated and pride says we are fairly intelligent." He states that this indication appears to him that it may have been written by Hensley as he always boasted of his education. He states that the general tone of the letter in general causes him to be very suspicious of Hensley whom he states may be acting on his own accord or may have been forced by other persons to edit and write the ransom letter. During the conversation had with Captain Scott he was asked by Agent Traub whether Hensley had a typewriter to which Captain Scott replied that there are two typewriters on board the S/S Hanley which were used by Hensley most of the time. He stated he had considerable specimens of handwriting and typewriting in his possession that were accomplished by Hensley which he would make available for the use of the Bureau in the event the same was desired. He stated he wanted to make it clear that he had no animosity towards Hensley but in the interest of Justice he was referring the matter to the Government instead of transmitting the information to officials of the Weyerhaeuser Company in fear that there might be a leak at the company's offices in the event that he made an official report of the matter to his company. The following description of Bruce E. Hensley was furnished by Captain Scott:

Age:	26
Height:	6 feet
Complexion:	light
Hair:	light
Eyes:	?
Occupation:	radio operator
Nationality:	American, born at Seattle.

It will be noted that Captain Frederick George Scott of the S/S Hanley can be located in care of the Weyerhaeuser Timber Company, Fairfield, Baltimore, Maryland up until Sunday, June 2, 1935 and after that time can be located through Lykes Brothers, Steamship Agents of the company in Baltimore, Maryland.

RE: UNKNOWN SUBJECTS, 1935 M.
GEORGE WEYERHAEUSER - Victim
Kidnaping

Dear Sir:

FILE

This is in confirmation of a telephone call made on the morning of this date by Special Agent K. D. Deaderick of this Office to Agent Ellsworth in the Portland Office relative to information that there is a Mr. and Mrs. Loudon now at Glacier Park, Montana, with a tan La Salle Sedan, either 1934 or 1935 model.

Early on the morning of May 28, 1935, Fred Stone, Deputy Sheriff, called Agent Deaderick from Browning, Montana, and stated that about 2 P.M. on Saturday, May 25, 1935, a man and woman came to Glacier Park in a tan La Salle Sedan, which was either a 1934 or 1935 model; that the car carries 1935 Washington license plates No. EB977; that these parties did not check into the Glacier National Park Hotel, but checked into a small hotel at that point as Mr. and Mrs. Loudon of Yakima, Washington, and that since their arrival there they have done considerable drinking and carousing around, and have had several arguments between themselves; that the woman several times mentioned having a small son, although there was no one with these parties.

Mr. Stone advised that yesterday, May 27, 1935, the woman placed two telephone calls to Yakima, Washington, one to Jack Schroeder at 8551, and the other to Mrs. Burch at Yakima No. 2-1876; that both of these phone calls were charged to Yakima telephone No. 5901.

Deputy Sheriff Stone stated that it is his understanding that this woman was planning on leaving Glacier National Park, presumably for Yakima, Washington, on the train at 10 A.M., this date; that the man is approximately fifty years of age and the woman about thirty years of age.

Very truly yours,

D. H. DICKASON

Denver -	1500

RECORDED & INDEXED

The lists going to Portland, San Francisco and Los Angeles were deposited in the post office at 2 A. M., June 1st. The remainder were deposited at intervals between 2 A.M. and 9 A. M., June 1st. The total number of lists sent out during this period were 15,500.

Lists are being forwarded as rapidly as they are assembled to the remaining field offices in the amounts set opposite them:

St. Paul -	3000	Philadelphia -	1000
Aberdeen -	1000	Pittsburgh -	1000
Cincinnati -	1000	Jacksonville -	500
Cleveland -	1000	Nashville -	800
Detroit -	1000	New York -	6500
Indianapolis -	1500	New Orleans -	800
Milwaukee -	500	Atlanta -	500
Omaha -	1500	Birmingham -	800
Phoenix -	500	Little Rock -	500
Buffalo -	1000	Boston -	1000
St. Louis -	1500	Charlotte -	500
Dallas -	800	Washington Field -	1000

Mr. Renneberger advises me that it will not be possible to mail any more lists until 8 P.M., June 1st as he will not have any additional lists ready until that time. However, a crew will be available in the Supply Room and will continue wrapping these packages as fast as they are assembled until 50,000 lists have been sent out.

COPIES DESTROYED
20 5 MAR 30 1965

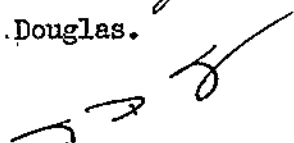

6/1/35

I have furnished Mr. Foxworth with a list of the offices, including the number of lists to be sent to each office and suggested to him that he wire each field office, advising them the number being forwarded and request that they advise the Bureau at the earliest possible date as to the additional number that will be needed. An additional one thousand of the lists are being forwarded to the Portland Office this afternoon.

Respectfully,

Hal C. Douglas

POSTAL TELEGRAPH-CABLE COMPANY

TRANSMITS AND DELIVERS THE WITHIN MESSAGE SUBJECT TO THE FOLLOWING TERMS AND CONDITIONS:

To guard against mistakes or delays, the sender of a message should order it REPEATED; that is, telegraphed back to the originating office for comparison. For this, one-half the un-repeated message rate is charged in addition. Unless otherwise indicated on its face, THIS IS AN UNREPEATED MESSAGE AND PAID FOR AS SUCH, in consideration whereof it is agreed between the sender of this message and this Company as follows:

1. The Company shall not be liable for mistakes or delays in the transmission or delivery, or for non-delivery, of any message received for transmission at the UNREPEATED MESSAGE rate, whether caused by the negligence of its servants or otherwise, beyond the sum of FIVE HUNDRED DOLLARS; nor for mistakes or delays in the transmission or delivery, or for non-delivery of any message received for transmission at the REPEATED MESSAGE rate, beyond the sum of FIVE THOUSAND DOLLARS; nor for mistakes or delays in the transmission or delivery, or for non-delivery of any message received for transmission at the SPECIALLY VALUED MESSAGE rate, beyond the sum at which such message shall be valued, in writing, by the sender thereof when tendered for transmission and for which payment is made or agreed to be made of the amount of the repeated-message rate and an additional charge equal to one-tenth of one per cent of the amount by which such written valuation shall exceed five thousand dollars; nor in any case for delays arising from unavoidable interruption in the working of its lines, or for errors in cipher or obscure messages.

2. The Company is hereby made the agent of the sender, without liability, to forward this message over the lines of any other company or by any other means of communication when necessary to reach its destination.

3. Domestic messages and incoming cable messages will be delivered free within one-half mile of the Company's office in towns of 5,000 population or less, and within one mile of such office in other cities or towns. Beyond these limits the Company does not undertake to make delivery, but will, without liability, at the sender's request, as his agent and at his expense, endeavor to contract for him for such delivery at a reasonable price.

4. No responsibility attaches to this Company concerning messages until the same are accepted at one of its transmitting offices; and if a message is sent to such office by one of the Company's messengers, he acts for that purpose as the agent of the sender.

5. The Company shall not be liable for damages or statutory penalties in any case where the claim is not presented in writing within sixty days after the message is filed with the Company for transmission.

6. It is agreed that prompt and correct transmission and delivery of this message shall be presumed in any action for recovery of tolls thereon; subject, however, to rebuttal by competent evidence.

7. Special terms governing the transmission of messages under the classes of messages enumerated below shall apply to messages in each of such respective classes in addition to all foregoing terms.

8. NO EMPLOYEE OF THIS COMPANY IS AUTHORIZED TO VARY THE FOREGOING.

FAST TELEGRAMS. A full-rate expedited service.

DAY LETTERS. A deferred day service at rates lower than the fast telegram rate. One and one-half times the Night Letter rate for the transmission of 50 words or less, and one-fifth of the initial rate for each additional 10 words or less.

SPECIAL TERMS APPLYING TO DAY LETTERS. In further consideration of the reduced rate for this special "Day Letter" service, the following special terms in addition to those enumerated above are hereby agreed to:

(a) Day Letters may be forwarded by the Telegraph Company as a deferred service, and the transmission and delivery of such Day Letter is, in all respects, subordinate to the priority of transmission and delivery of full rate telegrams.

(b) This Day Letter is received subject to the express understanding and agreement that the Company does not undertake that a Day Letter shall be delivered on the day of its date absolutely and at all events; but that the Company's obligation in this respect is subject to the condition that there shall remain sufficient time for the transmission and delivery of such Day Letter on the day of its date during regular office hours, subject to the priority of the transmission of full rate telegrams under the conditions named above.

NIGHT MESSAGES. Accepted up to 2:00 a. m. at reduced rates to be sent during the night and delivered not earlier than the morning of the ensuing business day. Night messages may at the option of the Telegraph Company be mailed at destination to the addressee, and the Company shall be deemed to have discharged its obligation in such cases with respect to delivery by mailing such Night Messages at destination, postage prepaid.

NIGHT LETTERS. Accepted up to 2:00 a. m. for delivery on the morning of the ensuing business day, at rates still lower than night message rates, as follows: The day telegram rate for 10 words shall be charged for the transmission of 50 words or less, and one-fifth of such rate for 10 words shall be charged for each additional 10 words or less.

SPECIAL TERMS APPLYING TO NIGHT LETTERS. In further consideration of the reduced rate for this special "Night Letter" service, the following special terms in addition to those enumerated above are hereby agreed to:

(a) Night Letters may at the option of the Telegraph Company be mailed at destination to the addressee, and the Company shall be deemed to have discharged its obligation in such cases with respect to delivery by mailing such Night Letters at destination, postage prepaid.

CABLE MESSAGES

FULL RATE MESSAGES receive regular and prompt service in their order of filing. Code language permitted.

DEFERRED RATE MESSAGES at one-half of the full rate to follow full rate messages. Must be in plain language of country of origin, or of destination, or in French. Full particulars as to countries where this class of service is effective will be furnished upon application to any Postal Telegraph office.

NIGHT CABLE LETTERS at reduced rates. Must be in plain language of country of origin, or of destination, or in French where transmitted by telegraph to destination. Subordinated to the priority of transmission of full and deferred rate messages. May be posted, when sender so directs, to countries where this service is not available, at tariffs to countries from which such messages are posted. Under latter circumstances, messages must contain complete mailing address including chargeable posting instructions (i. e., "Post London," etc.). Minimum word basis of twenty to twenty-five words applied. Code addresses may be used except for messages delivered by post. Figures can only be by text transmitted. Indicator "NLT" required and charged for as one word. For further particulars apply to any Postal Telegraph office.

To guard against mistakes or delays, the sender of a message should order it repeated, that is, telegraphed back to the originating office for comparison. For this, one-half the unrepeatable message rate is charged in addition. Unless otherwise indicated on its face, this is an unrepeatable message and paid for as such, in consideration whereof it is agreed between the sender of the message and this company as follows:

1. The company shall not be liable for mistakes or delays in the transmission or delivery, or for non-delivery, of any message received for transmission at the unrepeatable message rate beyond the sum of five hundred dollars; nor for mistakes or delays in the transmission or delivery, or for non-delivery, of any message received for transmission at the repeated-message rate beyond the sum of five thousand dollars, unless specially valued; nor in any case for delays arising from unavoidable interruption in the working of its lines; nor for errors in cipher or obscure messages.
2. In any event the company shall not be liable for damages for mistakes or delays in the transmission or delivery, or for the non-delivery, of any message, whether caused by the negligence of its servants or otherwise, beyond the sum of five thousand dollars, at which amount each message is deemed to be valued, unless a greater value is stated in writing by the sender thereof at the time the message is tendered for transmission, and unless the repeated-message rate is paid or agreed to be paid, and an additional charge equal to one-tenth of one percent of the amount by which such valuation shall exceed five thousand dollars.
3. The company is hereby made the agent of the sender, without liability, to forward this message over the lines of any other company when necessary to reach its destination.
4. Domestic messages and incoming cable messages will be delivered free within one-half mile of the company's office in towns of 5,000 population or less, and within one mile of such office in other cities or towns. Dear Sir:

RE: GEORGE WEYERHAEUSER,
Victim, KIDNAPING.

Special Agent in Charge MacFarland at Cleveland, Ohio telephoned the Bureau this morning to the effect that he had been informed by the Detective Bureau at Cleveland that on Sunday, May 26, 1935, a man described as follows:

Age	45
Height	6'
Weight	175 pounds
Complexion	Light, smooth face
Dress	Dark tan topcoat and light soft hat was observed in the Pennsylvania Railroad station at 3 A.M. with a boy described as 10 or 11 years of age, 4' tall, weight 80 to 90 pounds, light complexion, wearing a tan coat. The boy gave indications that he did not want to accompany the man.

The foregoing is transmitted for such inquiry as may be deemed advisable.

Very truly yours,

John Edgar Hoover,
Director.

ALL MESSAGES TAKEN BY THIS COMPANY ARE SUBJECT TO THE FOLLOWING TERMS:

To guard against mistakes or delays, the sender of a message should order it repeated, that is, telegraphed back to the originating office for comparison. For this, one-half the unrepeatable message rate is charged in addition. Unless otherwise indicated on its face, this is an unrepeatable message and paid for as such, in consideration whereof it is agreed between the sender of the message and this company as follows:

1. The company shall not be liable for mistakes or delays in the transmission or delivery, or for non-delivery, of any message received for transmission at the unrepeatable message rate beyond the sum of five hundred dollars; nor for mistakes or delays in the transmission or delivery, or for non-delivery, of any message received for transmission at the repeated-message rate beyond the sum of five thousand dollars, unless specially raised; nor in any case for delays arising from unavoidable interruption in the working of its lines; nor for errors in cipher or obscure messages.
2. In any event the company shall not be liable for damages for mistakes or delays in the transmission or delivery, or for the non-delivery, of any message, whether caused by the negligence of its servants or otherwise, beyond the sum of five thousand dollars, at which amount each message is deemed to be valued, unless a greater value is stated in writing by the sender thereof at the time the message is tendered for transmission, and unless the repeated-message rate is paid or agreed to be paid, and an additional charge equal to one-tenth of one percent of the amount by which such valuation shall exceed five thousand dollars.
3. The company is hereby made the agent of the sender, without liability, to forward this message over the lines of any other company when necessary to reach its destination.
4. Domestic messages and incoming cable messages will be delivered free within one-half mile of the company's office in towns of 5,000 population or less, and within one mile of such office in other cities or towns. Beyond these limits the company does not undertake to make delivery, but will, without liability, at the sender's request, as his agent and at his expense, endeavor to contract for him for such delivery at a reasonable price.
5. No responsibility attaches to this company concerning messages until the same are accepted at one of its transmitting offices; and if a message is sent to such office by one of the company's messengers, he acts for that purpose as the agent of the sender.
6. The company will not be liable for damages or statutory penalties in any case where the claim is not presented in writing within sixty days after the message filed with the company for transmission.
7. It is agreed that in any action by the company to recover the tolls for any message or messages the prompt and correct transmission and delivery thereof shall be presumed, subject to rebuttal by competent evidence.
8. Special terms governing the transmission of messages according to their classes, as enumerated below, shall apply to messages in each of such respective classes in addition to all the foregoing terms.
9. No employee of the company is authorized to vary the foregoing.

CLASSES OF SERVICE

TELEGRAMS

A full-rate expedited service.

NIGHT MESSAGES

Accepted up to 2:00 A.M. at reduced rates to be sent during the night and delivered not earlier than the morning of the ensuing business day. Night Messages may at the option of the Telegraph Company be mailed at destination to the addressees, and the Company shall be deemed to have discharged its obligation in such cases with respect to delivery by mailing such night messages at destination, postage prepaid.

DAY LETTERS

A deferred day service at rates lower than the standard telegram rates as follows: One and one-half times the standard night letter rate for the transmission of 50 words or less and one-fifth of the initial rates for each additional 10 words or less.

SPECIAL TERMS APPLYING TO DAY LETTERS

In further consideration of the reduced rate for this special Day Letter service, the following special terms in addition to those enumerated above are hereby agreed to:

- a. Day Letters may be forwarded by the Telegraph Company as a deferred service and the transmission and delivery of such Day Letters is, in all respects, subordinate to the priority of transmission and delivery of regular telegrams.
- b. This Day Letter is received subject to the express understanding and agreement that the Company does not undertake that a Day Letter shall be delivered on the day of its date absolutely, and at all events; but that the Company's obligation in this respect is subject to the condition that there shall remain sufficient time for the transmission and delivery of such Day Letter on the day of its date during regular office hours, subject to the priority of the transmission of regular telegrams under the conditions named above.

NIGHT LETTERS

Accepted up to 2:00 A.M. for delivery on the morning of the ensuing business day, at rates still lower than standard night message rates, as follows: The standard telegram rate for 10 words shall be charged for the transmission of 50 words or less, and one-fifth of such standard telegram rate for 10 words shall be charged for each additional 10 words or less.

SPECIAL TERMS APPLYING TO NIGHT LETTERS

In further consideration of the reduced rates for this special Night Letter service, the following special terms in addition to those enumerated above are hereby agreed to:

Night Letters may at the option of the Telegraph Company be mailed at destination to the addressees, and the Company shall be deemed to have discharged its obligation in such cases with respect to delivery by mailing such Night Letters at destination, postage prepaid.

FULL RATE CABLES

An expedited service throughout. Code language permitted.

DEFERRED HALF-RATE CABLES

Half-rate messages are subject to being deferred in favor of full rate messages for not exceeding 24 hours. Must be written in plain language.

Re: UNKNOWN SUBJECT
GEORGE P. REYERHAUSER
Kidnaping

Dear Sir:

Assistant Director Harold Nathan telephoned the Philadelphia office on the afternoon of May 31, 1935, and advised that the Bureau was in receipt of a letter dated May 27, 1935, Lehighton, Pa., over the signature of Harvey M. Hauser, who signed with the notation after his name "Sixty years old and incidentally is still in debt," which letter reads as follows:

"This letter may help you along with the Reyerhauser kidnaping. This party who signs himself as Percy Finnicks is my brother-in-law. This man left the state of Pennsylvania about twenty-five years ago and when my wife died six years ago, we then found out that he was located at Seattle, Washington, and could not get back here for his sister's, my wife's funeral. His real name is Percy Finnicks. Of course he may go by some other name now.

If you arrest him for this kidnaping send me one of his pictures. If it is him I sure will be able to identify him. His height is 5 ft. 7 inches, weight, 150 pounds, chunky build, has a spishy grin on his face at all times; almost closes his eyes when he laughs; easy to identify.

Keep this information confidential."

Mr. Nathan requested that Hauser be interviewed and appropriate investigation made at Lehighton.

Special Agent (A) G.H. Erwin interviewed Hauser on the evening of May 31st. Mr. Hauser is quite feeble and very hard of hearing. He stated that the only reason he had to suspect his brother-in-law, John Finnicks, rather than Percy Finnicks, as referred to in the above quoted letter was that some six years ago when he last heard from Finnicks, he signed the letter "John Finnicks", which Hauser thought was similar to the way the kidnap notes were signed, according to the newspapers.

Hauser further stated he had not seen his brother-in-law Minnick for twenty-five years, and as far as he knows Minnick resides in the slums of Seattle. Hauser could not give a very accurate physical description of Minnick other than that he was short and stocky, and when he smiled he squinted his eyes, which he stated is characteristic of the family. Minnick's hobbies he stated were playing the mouth organ and tap dancing.

No police record could be found for Minnick at Lehighton, but Hauser stated about a year previous to his departure from Pennsylvania, which must have been about twenty-five years ago, he was arrested for stealing coal at the Lehigh Valley Railroad, and was fined $20.00.

The foregoing is furnished for your information and such attention as you deem appropriate.

Very truly yours,

RCH:AG.

Dear Sir:

At 11:30 PM, May 30, 1935, Mr. F. A. Hood of Great Falls, Montana, telephoned the Butte Office and furnished the following information, which is being transmitted herewith for whatever value it may be:

Mr. Hood advised that approximately one year ago, while he and his wife, Margaret Hood, were living at Great Falls, Montana, he was operating an employment office and his wife was operating a beauty parlor, and that they owned a very dark blue Cadillac sedan, which he believes was a 1932 model, but may have been a 1931 model; that one Andrew Hey came to Great Falls and stayed there for a few days and he (Mr. Hood) became acquainted with Hey and sold him the above-mentioned automobile; that Hey had considerable money on him at that time; the exact amount Mr. Hood did not know but did know that it was at least two or three thousand dollars in cash; that Hey stayed in Great Falls a day or two after purchasing this Cadillac car, during which time he kept company with a girl who worked at Mrs. Hood's beauty parlor; that Hey then left Great Falls, presumably for Seattle, Washington, or California, and nothing further was seen or heard of him until about a month ago when he reappeared in Great Falls, at which time he was driving a new Chrysler custom-built sedan, which would be considered a tan or brown in color, and that he mentioned having been in New York State and had New York license tags as well as California license plates for this Chrysler sedan; that he only remained in Great Falls a couple of days during this visit and left again for Susanville, California, where he is supposed to be interested in either chicken raising or tourist cabins.

Mr. Hood stated that the reason he was furnishing this information was that on the evening of May 30, 1935, he noted in a Great Falls newspaper that a man by the name of Campbell, who was wanted at St. Paul, Minnesota, in the Bremer Kidnaping, had been "jumped" at Susanville, California, and he thought possibly Andrew Hey may be in some way connected with Campbell (evidently Subject Harry Campbell), and that this tan Chrysler sedan may be implicated in this kidnaping case.

An investigation of the records at the Auditor's office at Los Angeles revealed the fact that on July 31, 1931, CHARLES ALLEN LAWS by mail filed his application for certificate to practice dentistry in the State of California, in which he stated he was 35 years of age and that his address at that time was 109 1/2 East Yakima Ave., Yakima, Washington. The record also showed that California State License #7336 was issued to DR. LAWS on Sept. 24, 1931, which permitted him to practice dentistry in the State of California.

Agent made inquiry to ascertain something about Dr. Laws and was informed by the representative of the State Dental Department at Los Angeles that the only place where it could be ascertained whether or not Dr. Laws is now practicing dentistry in the State of California would be from the Secretary of the State Dental Board, State Building, San Francisco, California. It was also ascertained that the license to practice dentistry in the State of California, issued to Dr. Laws in 1931, was cancelled in 1932 and that same was restored in 1933. The exact date was not given.

The telephone directory and city directory of Los Angeles City and County were checked in an effort to see whether or not Dr. Laws or Dr. Andrews was listed in same as being in Los Angeles County. No record of either was found.

This information was communicated to Special Agent in Charge C. C. Spears at Tacoma, Washington, by long distance telephone.

REPORT MADE AT: St. Louis, Missouri	DATE WHEN MADE: 6/1/35	PERIOD FOR WHICH MADE: 5/27-28/35	REPORT MADE BY: G. B. MORRIS C.
TITLE: UNKNOWN SUBJECTS GEORGE WEYERHAEUSER - VICTIM.			CHARACTER OF CASE: KIDNAPING.

SYNOPSIS OF FACTS:

I. B. Dace, Rushville, Ill. received letter 5/28/35, postmarked at Aurora, Ill. 5/27/35, requesting him to send telegram to John P. Weyerhaeuser, Tacoma, Wash., demanding delivery of $200,000.00 to Dace at Rushville, Illinois. Letter supposedly written by Charlie Mortley, former inmate of State Penitentiary at Canon City, Colorado and acquaintance of Dace while both were inmates at Canon City. Dace thoroughly interviewed and Bureau advised of results. Letter forwarded to Bureau, together with specimens of handwriting of Dace and fingerprints of persons who handled said letter. Bureau instructed St. Louis Office to hold investigation in abeyance pending further instructions.

DETAILS: At St. Louis, Missouri.

DETAILS:

On May 27, 1935, State's Attorney Ernest G. Utter of Rushville, Illinois called the St. Louis Office by long-distance telephone and stated I. B. Dace of Rushville had received a letter from a former acquaintance, requesting Dace to send a telegram to John P. Weyerhaeuser of Tacoma, Washington, demanding that Mr. Weyerhaeuser deliver $200,000.00 to Dace at Rushville, Illinois. Mr. Utter requested that the St. Louis Office make an immediate investigation of the matter.

 MAY 30 1935

State's Attorney Utter, former State's Attorney O. D. Arnold and Sheriff Fred Read were interviewed and stated that on the morning of May 26, 1935, I. B. Dace of Rushville received a letter through the mail at Rushville, which is postmarked Aurora, Ill., May 27, 1935 at 11 A. M. The letter is quoted, as follows:

"Tacoma, Wash.

"Dear Dace:

You will remember me as Charoly

Thousand grand. He is our Agent and knows nothing

Hartley "

The stationery and envelope is of plain white paper. Mr. Dace's name and address on the envelope is written in ink, whereas, the letter is written with a pencil. The letter was turned over to Sheriff Read by Dace and Sheriff Read and Dace later contacted Messrs. Arnold and Utter. Sheriff Read stated that Dace was born on a farm near Rushville, Illinois and has resided in Rushville and vicinity practically all of his life; that he has served a sentence in the State Penitentiary in Colorado, but has no other criminal record; that he is now unemployed and seldom works and is probably supported by his wife, who is a nurse. Sheriff Read further stated that Dace may have done a little bootlegging at one time. Sheriff Read positively stated that it is his opinion that Dace is not the author of the letter; that he knows that Dace has not been away from Rushville for several weeks and that Dace would have no motive for writing such a letter to himself; that he would have no desire for publicity because of his past record. Sheriff Read stated that Dace always calls for his mail at General Delivery at Rushville, although free delivery is provided.

Dace was interviewed and stated that when he received the letter quoted above on the morning of May 26, 1935, he read it and decided to pay no attention to it and, therefore, tore it up and threw it in the waste basket, but later decided to turn it over to the Sheriff and took the pieces out of the waste basket. When the letter had been turned over to Sheriff Read, it was torn into six pieces and the envelope was torn into three pieces. Dace stated that he is not acquainted with anyone in Aurora, Illinois and Tacoma, Washington; that he last saw Hartley in the State Penitentiary at Canon City, Colorado in 1904 and has had no contact with him of any kind since 1904. Dace stated that John Meefe, referred to in the letter, was Steward in the Penitentiary dining rooms and as such, was an employee of the State of Colorado and not an inmate of the penitentiary.

When first interviewed, Dace stated that he did not know the place of residence of Hartley, however, upon being interviewed the second time Dace stated that Hartley at one time resided at Mt. Sterling, Illinois and was the son of a minister at Mt. Sterling. Dace further stated that he has never had any contact with inmates of the Colorado State Penitentiary since 1904 and has never corresponded with any of them; that he does not know whether Hartley and Koefe are dead or alive and that they knew nothing of Dace's life since Dace left the penitentiary; that Hartley was serving a term for highway robbery and Dace was sentenced on a forgery charge.

Dace furnished a specimen of his handwriting and his fingerprints which are being forwarded to the Bureau for examination. When Dace was requested to furnish a specimen of his handwriting, he became very nervous and when questioned as to whether he was the author of the letter, he made no objection to the fact that he was suspected of being the author. He made inquiry as to what could be done to him if it was learned that he was the author. His demeanor during the interview indicated that he was not truthful in his story about the letter. Dace at first stated that upon receipt of the letter, he regarded it as a very serious matter, however, during the second interview with him he stated that he regarded it as a joke. He promised complete cooperation with the Bureau and stated that he would immediately contact the St. Louis Office through State's Attorney Utter if he received additional communications of this nature; that care would be exercised in order to avoid the handling of the contents of such letters received by him in the future and that the St. Louis Office would be immediately notified of the receipt of such letters. The following description of Dace was obtained by personal observation and interview:

Name	Isaac E. Dace
Age	58
Height	5' 10"
Weight	145 $\frac{1}{2}$
Build	slender
Hair	brown
Eyes	hazel gray
Complexion	fair
Wears rimless glasses
Marital status	married
Residence	349 South Congress St., Nashville, Ill.
Occupation	none
Criminal record by own admission:

Served 2 years 6 months and 2 days in State Pen. at Canon City, Colo., on forgery charge. He stated that at the time of this offense, he was employed on the Rite "B" Ranch by Ed Brown at Holly, Colo., and that he was prosecuted in the State Court at Lamar, Colorado; that he was sentenced on this charge in November, 1901.

Penitentiary No.: Colorado State Pen., #6628.
Fingerprints forwarded to Bureau by St. Louis
Office on 5/31/36.

The following description of Hartley was furnished by Dace:

Name	Charlie Hartley
Age	39
Height	6' 5"
Weight	180
Build	slender
Hair	dark brown
Complexion	medium fair
Appearance	high cheek bones; broad shoulders.
Scars & Marks	dark red birth mark running from forehead to temple. Dace stated that he does not know the side of the face on which this birth mark is located.

Dace could not recall Hartley's Penitentiary number.

The fingerprints of Ernest G. Utter, C. E. Arnold, Fred Head and Dace have been forwarded to the Bureau, as they are the persons who handled the letter addressed to Dace.

No leads are being set out in this report, pending further instructions from the Bureau, however, copies of this report are being furnished to the Chicago, Denver and L. J. Connelley for information only.

Sheriff Head stated that no action would be taken in this matter without the assistance of the St. Louis Office.

MEMORANDUM FOR THE DIRECTOR.

I telephoned Mr. Rex Collier this afternoon concerning that portion of his story in the Weyerhaeuser case which related to the night force employed by the Bureau to prepare lists of the ransom money in the case. Mr. Collier stated that this portion of the story was tacked on to his story at the Star without his knowledge and that it was taken from an Associated Press dispatch emanating from the Washington Bureau. He stated he objected to a change being made in his story and that he knew nothing about the details until he saw it in the paper. He then telephoned Mr. Haakinson of the Associated Press, who stated he prepared the story but said he did not get the details from Mr. Hoover and that he could not disclose the source of his information. Mr. Collier stated that Haakinson visited the Department of Justice Building at 4 A. M., this morning.

I contacted Mr. Finkel, the night telephone operator, who stated that Haakinson came to his office at about 4 A. M., and asked him a number of questions concerning the Weyerhaeuser case which he did not answer. He stated Haakinson did not inquire relative to any force of employees working in the building and did not ask about any ransom lists. He inquired whether Mr. Hoover or Mr. Tolson were in the building and then stated he was returning to his office. Mr. Finkel had other calls which he recorded in a memorandum which was left on Miss Gandy's desk and he states also that he telephoned Mr. Nathan at 5:30 A. M. advising him of Mr. Haakinson's visit and the calls from Mr. Helgerson and also other calls concerning the Weyerhaeuser case.

I have questioned Mr. Wiley, who was in charge of the force at 4 A. M., this morning and he states no one came into the office to his knowledge and no one made any inquiries concerning the work which was being done.

I am advised that the Special Agent trainees went to lunch at 4 A. M., and there is a possibility that one of them talked with Haakinson concerning the ransom notes. I am attempting to secure a list of the trainees and will question them individually in this matter at the earliest opportunity.

Respectfully,

Clyde Tolson.

ALL MESSAGES TAKEN BY THIS COMPANY ARE SUBJECT TO THE FOLLOWING TERMS:

To guard against mistakes or delays, the sender of a message should order it repeated, that is, telegraphed back to the originating office for comparison. For the one-half the unrepeat message rate is charged in addition. Unless otherwise indicated on its face, this is an unrepeat message and paid for as such, in consideration whereof it is agreed between the sender of the message and this company as follows:

1. The company shall not be liable for mistakes or delays in the transmission or delivery, or for non-delivery, of any message received for transmission at the unrepeat-message rate beyond the sum of five hundred dollars; nor for mistakes or delays in the transmission or delivery, or for non-delivery, of any message received for transmission at the repeated-message rate beyond the sum of five thousand dollars, unless specially valued; nor in any case for delays arising from unavoidable interruption in the working of its lines; nor for errors in cipher or obscure messages.

2. In any event the company shall not be liable for damages for mistakes or delays in the transmission or delivery, or for the non-delivery, of any message, whether caused by the negligence of its servants or otherwise, beyond the sum of five thousand dollars, at which amount each message is deemed to be valued, unless a greater value is stated in writing by the sender thereof at the time the message is tendered for transmission, and unless the repeated-message rate is paid or agreed to be paid, and an additional charge equal to one-tenth of one percent of the amount by which such valuation shall exceed five thousand dollars.

3. The company is hereby made the agent of the sender, without liability, to forward this message over the lines of any other company when necessary to reach its destination.

4. Domestic messages and incoming cable messages will be delivered free within one-half mile of the company's office in towns of 5,000 population or less, and within one mile of such office in other cities or towns. Beyond these limits the company does not undertake to make delivery, but will, without liability, at the sender's request, as his agent and at his expense, endeavor to contract for him for such delivery at a reasonable price.

5. No responsibility attaches to this company concerning messages until the same are accepted at one of its transmitting offices; and if a message is sent to such office by one of the company's messengers, he acts for that purpose as the agent of the sender.

6. The company will not be liable for damages or statutory penalties in any case where the claim is not presented in writing within sixty days after the message is filed with the company for transmission.

7. It is agreed that in any action by the company to recover the tolls for any message or messages the prompt and correct transmission and delivery thereof shall be presumed, subject to rebuttal by competent evidence.

8. Special terms governing the transmission of messages according to their classes, as enumerated below, shall apply to messages in each of such respective classes in addition to all the foregoing terms.

9. No employee of the company is authorized to vary the foregoing.

MEMORANDUM FOR MR. EDWARDS

RE: UNKNOWN SUBJECTS;
GEORGE WEYERHAEUSER, Victim -
KIDNAPING

Mr. H. H. McKee, Special Agent, assigned to the Washington Field Office, called from Baltimore at 2:30 p.m., and stated that he had located a typewriter which he believed was of the type desired in connection with the Weyerhaeuser case. Mr. McKee advised that he was departing for Washington, at once, and would be here at 3:30 p.m., and that he was bringing the typewriter with him. He found that it was necessary to rent the typewriter.

I inquired of Mr. Glavin and obtained approval for Mr. McKee's action in renting this typewriter and including it on his expense voucher.

Respectfully,

E. P. Coffey

MEMORANDUM FOR MR TOLSON

With further reference to the preparation and mailing of ransom lists, you are advised that copies for the following offices were forwarded from midnight to 7:00 a.m. today:

Cincinnati	2,000 copies	Arrive tonight
Pittsburgh	1,000 copies	Arrive tonight
Philadelphia	1,000 copies	Arrive this morning
Boston	1,000 copies	Arrive tonight
Charlotte	500 copies	Arrive this afternoon
New York	6,500 copies	Arrive this afternoon

There were also forwarded during the early morning 1,000 additional copies to San Francisco, 2,000 additional copies to Milwaukee, 3,000 additional copies to St. Paul, and 500 additional copies to Little Rock.

It is estimated that the printing of 100,000 copies of the lists will be completed before midnight tonight and that the assembly of the lists will be completed Wednesday noon. I believe that a sufficient number of copies will be completely assembled during the night to supply the additional copies requested by the various field offices that have wired the Bureau in accordance with the telegrams received by them requesting the number of additional copies needed in their offices.

Unless otherwise advised, I will not submit any further memoranda concerning the preparation and mailing of ransom lists until Wednesday evening.

Respectfully,

R. C. Renneberger

Mr. Spears called from Seattle. He said that the search had been conducted of the Madison Street house and had proved futile, nothing being found there.

He said that the search for the "shack" had not been successful; that it was necessary to find someone who had information as to its location; that they had not yet found him, but that he and several Agents were going back to endeavor to do so this evening.

I read to Mr. Spears, Mr. Dunn's report of his conversation over the telephone with Birdwell. I told Mr. Spears that while it is realized this is a difficult matter to handle and while it is impossible to give any information about the case to any newspaper man, yet he should make it a point to see Birdwell as soon as possible and that when any of the press request that we make contacts we are to give them some kind of an answer; that Spears should convey to Birdwell and to others who request it, that while we are making no special contacts with anybody yet, we desire to be courteous to any members of the press; that these press men are not to be ignored; that one of them should see the press individually when the press wants to see somebody. I told him that while they can be told absolutely nothing, yet every effort should be made to keep them in good humor and they should not be ignored.

I told Spears that they should commence to worry about getting to the victim for his story if and when he is returned. Spears said they had made all arrangements with this end in view.

I have just talked with Mr. Birdwell at Tacoma, Washington, and the main purpose of his communication was to re-state his request of Monday last that he be given a contact with the Bureau representative at Tacoma in charge of the case. In this connection he advised me that yesterday he wired Mr. Connelley seeking a conference and has not since been favored with an acknowledgment or reply. Birdwell alleges that the press representatives in Tacoma are entertaining a definitely hostile feeling toward the Bureau and that there is a feeling on the part of some of them that Courtney Ryley Cooper has preferred channels of information. Further in this connection Mr. Birdwell alleges that the local Peace officers both city and State are hostile toward the Bureau and complaining to the Press that Bureau representatives obtain all their information but do not reciprocate. Mr. Birdwell states that he would like to have a definite contact with a Bureau representative, not necessarily for the purpose of asking questions or seeking information but rather that he might be definitely in a position where he could get at the proper time, such information as was to be released. In other words he appears to represent the situation whereby they have to cover innumerable contact points to guard themselves against being "scooped",, by other writers.

Mr. Birdwell requested that I explain his position to you and that he be advised if his request

OFFICE OF DIRECTOR
FEDERAL BUREAU OF INVESTIGATION

can be complied with. He stated that, pending receipt of further word he would do his utmost to prevent any critical articles from the news writers there in Tacoma. He also made the suggestion that it may well develop when the case breaks that the Bureau would need a good Press. His argument in this regard being that inasmuch as the City and County Police as well as the State Police are more or less hostile to the Bureau that if any one of those agencies happened to get a major break on the case the newspaper writers or at least many of them would stress and probably overstress the fact that agencies other than the Bureau were instrumental in solving the case.

All of this is obviously self-serving and you of course have means of knowing just what the local situation is at Tacoma with respect to the attitude of local law enforcement agencies. I gave Mr. Birdwell no information and made no promises, other than that I would convey his information and request to you. Birdwell is a rather decent fellow and I have always found him to be reliable.

ALL MESSAGES TAKEN BY THIS COMPANY ARE SUBJECT TO THE FOLLOWING TERMS:

To guard against mistakes or delays, the sender of a message should order it repeated, that is, telegraphed back to the originating office for comparison. For this, one-half the un-repeated message rate is charged in addition. Unless otherwise indicated on its face, this is an un-repeated message and paid for as such, in consideration whereof it is agreed between the sender of the message and this company as follows:

1. The company shall not be liable for mistakes or delays in the transmission or delivery, or for non-delivery, of any message received for transmission at the un-repeated-message rate beyond the sum of five hundred dollars; nor for mistakes or delays in the transmission or delivery, or for non-delivery, of any message received for transmission at the repeated-message rate beyond the sum of five thousand dollars, unless specially valued; nor in any case for delays arising from unavoidable interruption in the working of its lines; nor for errors in cipher or obscure messages.

2. In any event the company shall not be liable for damages for mistakes or delays in the transmission or delivery, or for the non-delivery, of any message, whether caused by the negligence of its servants or otherwise, beyond the sum of five thousand dollars, at which amount each message is deemed to be valued, unless a greater value is stated in writing by the sender thereof at the time the message is tendered for transmission, and unless the repeated-message rate is paid or agreed to be paid, and an additional charge equal to one-tenth of one percent of the amount by which such valuation shall exceed five thousand dollars.

3. The company is hereby made the agent of the sender, without liability, to forward this message over the lines of any other company when necessary to reach its destination.

4. Domestic messages and incoming cable messages will be delivered free within one-half mile of the company's office in towns of 5,000 population or less, and within one mile of such office in other cities or towns. Beyond these limits the company does not undertake to make delivery, but will, without liability, at the sender's request, as his agent and at his expense, endeavor to contract for him for such delivery at a reasonable price.

5. No responsibility attaches to this company concerning messages until the same are accepted at one of its transmitting offices; and if a message is sent to such office by one of the company's messengers, he acts for that purpose as the agent of the sender.

6. The company will not be liable for damages or statutory penalties in any case where the claim is not presented in writing within sixty days after the message is filed with the company for transmission.

7. It is agreed that in any action by the company to recover the tolls for any message or messages the prompt and correct transmission and delivery thereof shall be presumed, subject to rebuttal by competent evidence.

8. Special terms governing the transmission of messages according to their classes, as enumerated below, shall apply to messages in each of such respective classes in addition to all the foregoing terms.

ALL MESSAGES TAKEN BY THIS COMPANY ARE SUBJECT TO THE FOLLOWING TERMS:

To guard against mistakes or delays, the sender of a message should order it repeated, that is, telegraphed back to the originating office for comparison. For this, half the unrepeatable message rate is charged in addition. Unless otherwise indicated on its face, this is an unrepeatable message and paid for as such, in consideration of which it is agreed between the sender of the message and this company as follows:

1. The company shall not be liable for mistakes or delays in the transmission or delivery, or for non-delivery, of any message received for transmission at the unrepeatable message rate beyond the sum of five hundred dollars; nor for mistakes or delays in the transmission or delivery, or for non-delivery, of any message received for transmission at the repeated-message rate beyond the sum of five thousand dollars, unless specially valued; nor in any case for delays arising from unavoidable interruption in the working of its lines; nor for errors in cipher or obscure messages.
2. In any event the company shall not be liable for damages for mistakes or delays in the transmission or delivery, or for the non-delivery, of any message, whether used by the negligence of its servants or otherwise, beyond the sum of five thousand dollars, at which amount each message is deemed to be valued, unless a greater value is stated in writing by the sender thereof at the time the message is tendered for transmission, and unless the repeated-message rate is paid or agreed to be paid, and an additional charge equal to one-tenth of one percent of the amount by which such valuation shall exceed five thousand dollars.
3. The company is hereby made the agent of the sender, without liability, to forward this message over the lines of any other company when necessary to reach destination.
4. Domestic messages and incoming cable messages will be delivered free within one-half mile of the company's office in towns of 5,000 population or less, and within one mile of such office in other cities or towns. Beyond these limits the company does not undertake to make delivery, but will, without liability, at the sender's request, as his agent and at his expense, endeavor to contract for him for such delivery at a reasonable price.
5. No responsibility attaches to this company concerning messages until the same are accepted at one of its transmitting offices; and if a message is sent to such office by one of the company's messengers, he acts for that purpose as the agent of the sender.
6. The company will not be liable for damages or statutory penalties in any case where the claim is not presented in writing within sixty days after the message is delivered with the company for transmission.
7. It is agreed that in any action by the company to recover the tolls for any message or messages the prompt and correct transmission and delivery thereof shall be presumed, subject to rebuttal by competent evidence.
8. Special terms governing the transmission of messages according to their classes, as enumerated below, shall apply to messages in each of such respective classes in addition to all the foregoing terms.
9. No employee of the company is authorized to vary the foregoing.

MEMORANDUM FOR THE DIRECTOR

RE: Weyerhaeuser Case

Mr. Nathan called from his apartment and advised that he had just talked to Mr. Spears who advised that there was nothing to the Madison Street raid and that it was all "washed up". Mr. Spears has returned to the shack.

Mr. Nathan asked that you be advised that he would be at the office within three quarters of an hour to prepare a memorandum on the above raid and other developments.

Respectfully,

R. L. Moore

LIST OF RANSOM BILLS PAID IN KIDNAPING CASE

George Weyerhaeuser

There is attached hereto a list of currency which constituted the ransom recently paid in a kidnaping case. Unless otherwise indicated, all of the bills making up this ransom are Federal Reserve notes issued by the Federal Reserve Bank of San Francisco. The bills described in the attached list are arranged consecutively in numerical sequence. It is requested that you examine all currency coming into your possession, for the purpose of locating any of the bills which are described in this list. In the event information is obtained concerning the location of any of the ransom money, it is requested that you immediately communicate by telephone or telegraph, collect, with the nearest office of the Federal Bureau of Investigation. There is attached hereto a list showing the location, address and telephone number of the various field offices of the Federal Bureau of Investigation.

Your cooperation and assistance in this matter will be sincerely appreciated.

Very truly yours,

J. E. Hoover

John Edgar Hoover,
Director.
