MAXIMUM UTILIZATION MEMO

Attached to this memo are photos of KATHERINE BOUDIN, [redacted] and MARILYN BUCK.

On 10/20/81, at approximately 3:55 p.m., at the Nannet Mall Shopping Center, Route 59, Nannet, New York, a Brinks armored car was held up by four to five males, no further description, at gunpoint. Robbers were armed with automatic weapons and shotguns and during course of robbery a Brinks guard was shot and killed and another was wounded. $1,598,000 in US currency was taken from Brinks truck.

The four unsubs then left the scene of the robbery in a red van which had been rented earlier on 10/20/81 in Brooklyn, NY. They drove behind an adjacent shopping center on Route 59 where a closed Korvettes store is located. At this location they abandoned the red van and entered a U-Haul van and a yellow Honda and traveled east on Route 59 towards Nyack, NY.

Reportedly 2 people were in the Honda, 2 people were in the cab of the U-Haul van and an unknown number of unsubs were in the rear section of the van.

At the eastbound entrance to the New York State Thruway in Nyack, NY, the U-Haul van was stopped by two Village of Nyack police officers and the occupants of the cab section were questioned.

During this questioning, reportedly from 3 to 6 unsubs jumped out of the U-Haul van by the back door and opened fire on the 2 officers with automatic weapons. Officer WAVERLY BROWN was killed instantly and Sgt. EDWARD O'GRADY died from his wounds at Nyack Hospital.

Immediately following this gunfight, KATHERINE BOUDIN, a former Weathermen member, was apprehended fleeing the scene. She was using the name BARBARA EDSON at the time. The other unsubs fled this scene by commandeering 2 cars from private citizens and still others remained with the Honda and they drove all three vehicles north on Mountainview Avenue.

During an ensuing police chase in Nyack, the Honda crashed and apprehended were [redacted] b6 b7C using the name [redacted] using the name [redacted] All subjects are in local custody on murder charges. The remaining unsubs escaped in a white Oldsmobile, New Jersey plate. This plate is registered to a CAROLYN DURANT who has been positively identified as MARILYN BUCK, an escaped Federal prisoner from West Virginia and a bench warrant is presently outstanding. BUCK's present whereabouts are unknown. The $1,598,000 was recovered intact from the Honda and the U-Haul van.

Investigation in this matter has reflected that there appears to be an alliance between members of the BLA and the Weathermen and that this group has adopted the method of violent armored car stickups to finance their operations.

All agents are requested to canvas their sources regarding this matter and route only positive information to the writer.

MAXIMUM UTILIZATION MEMO

Attached to this memo are photos of KATHERINE BOUDIN, [redacted] and MARILYN BUCK.

On 10/20/81, at approximately 3:55 p.m., at the Nannet Mall Shopping Center, Route 59, Nannet, New York, a Brinks armored car was held up by four to five males, no further description, at gunpoint. Robbers were armed with automatic weapons and shotguns and during course of robbery a Brinks guard was shot and killed and another was wounded. $1,598,000 in US currency was taken from Brinks truck.

The four unsubs then left the scene of the robbery in a red van which had been rented earlier on 10/20/81 in Brooklyn, NY. They drove behind an adjacent shopping center on Route 59 where a closed Korvettes store is located. At this location they abandoned the red van and entered a U-Haul van and a yellow Honda and traveled east on Route 59 towards Nyack, NY.

Reportedly 2 people were in the Honda, 2 people were in the cab of the U-Haul van and an unknown number of unsubs were in the rear section of the van.

At the eastbound entrance to the New York State Thruway in Nyack, NY, the U-Haul van was stopped by two Village of Nyack police officers and the occupants of the cab section were questioned.

During this questioning, reportedly from 3 to 6 unsubs jumped out of the U-Haul van by the back door and opened fire on the 2 officers with automatic weapons. Officer WAVERLY BROWN was killed instantly and Sgt. EDWARD O'GRADY died from his wounds at Nyack Hospital.

Immediately following this gunfight, KATHERINE BOUDIN, a former Weathermen member, was apprehended fleeing the scene. She was using the name BARBARA EDSON at the time. The other unsubs fled this scene by commandeering 2 cars from private citizens and still others remained with the Honda and they drove all three vehicles north on Mountainview Avenue.

During an ensuing police chase in Nyack, the Honda crashed and apprehended were [redacted] b6 b7C using the name [redacted] using the name [redacted]. All subjects are in local custody on murder charges. The remaining unsubs escaped in a white Oldsmobile, New Jersey plate. This plate is registered to a CAROLYN DURANT who has been positively identified as MARILYN BUCK, an escaped Federal prisoner from West Virginia and a bench warrant is presently outstanding. BUCK's present whereabouts are unknown. The $1,598,000 was recovered intact from the Honda and the U-Haul van.

Investigation in this matter has reflected that there appears to be an alliance between members of the BLA and the Weathermen and that this group has adopted the method of violent armored car stickups to finance their operations.

All agents are requested to canvas their sources regarding this matter and route only positive information to the writer.
