Enclosed herewith for New York are 2 photographs of ANTHONY MIRRA taken in the U. S. Penitentiary, Atlanta, Georgia, 8/1/73. These are the most current photographs to be located in his file.

On 11/15/74, a review of the inmate file for ANTHONY (TONY) MIRRA, inmate # 89470-131, reflects that MIRRA was sentenced 4/25/58 in the Southern District of New York to 24 years and 20 days for assaulting a U. S. Attorney and violation of narcotic laws. MIRRA was released from the penitentiary on mandatory release 1/11/74. At the time of his release, he showed a home address of 115 Madison Avenue, New York, New York, with his mother, Mrs. MILLIE MIRRA.

MIRRA is described as follows:

MIRRA's record reflects that the narcotic offense for which he received the 20-year sentence involved 28 co-defendants and all were engaged in a massive conspiracy to import heroin into the United States from Canada and then distribute same throughout the United States with the central base of this operation being New York City. During the course of the existence of this conspiracy which included years 1956 through 1960, it is estimated that the conspiracy was responsible for importing into the United States approximately 600 kilograms of heroin annually.

Of the 13 defendants tried and convicted, all of whom were American citizens, the defendants DIPIETRO,

Concerning ALFRED EMBARRATO

In 1953, NY T-1 advised that on March 18, 1952, an Agent of the Bureau of Narcotics purchased two ounces of heroin from ALFRED EMBARRATO and WILLIAM SAMUEL PARADISE for $600 of government-advanced funds.

NY 92-8115

On March 24, 1952, a complaint was drawn up, charging EMBARRATO with the sale of approximately two ounces of heroin in violation of US Code, Title 21, Sections 173 and 174, and a warrant for his arrest was issued the same date. An indictment was filed against EMBARRATO on June 27, 1952, and on July 7, 1952, a fugitive warrant was issued for his apprehension.

An anonymous letter was received by the Bureau of Narcotics, on July 31, 1951, which related that EMBARRATO was in the hospital and intended to make an issue of the beating he received from officers. It continued that his brother, JOSEPH, known as JOE REID, [redacted] are well-known loan sharks, operating out of [redacted]

A review of the files of the FBI reveal that a New York News article, on November 10, 1959, final edition, reads as follows:

"LINK HOODLUM TO STABLE BAR AT STATE QUIZ

"Two witnesses linked jailed hoodlum Anthony (Tony) Mirra to the Stable, a bar at 135 E. 56th Street, in a hearing yesterday conducted by the State Liquor Authority to determine whether the license of the East Side ginmill should be revoked.

"The SLA suspects that Mirra is the real operator of the place, against SLA rules, although the liquor license is in the name of Chick's Showcase Inc., whose president is Pasquale D. Costanzo.

"Cigaret Machine Testifies

"A young cigaret machine installer, whose name was kept secret, testified before SLA Commissioner Alfred De F. Licato that Mirra was the man with whom he dealt in making arrangements to put a cigaret machine in the bar. The installer said he paid Mirra $1,200 for a five-year concession in the ginmill.

"Ernest M. Maier, a contractor, of Rockville Center, L.I., said he also dealt with Mirra and others, including Costanzo, in converting the premises of the bar from a coffee shop in 1958. Maier testified: 'They made it clear they acted as agents, not as owners.'

"Dope Agent Heard

"Howard J. Diller, a federal narcotics agent, said he had often seen Mirra in the Stable and that Chickie James, who acted as hostess in the place, 'dropped whatever she was doing' when Mirra came in."

A review of the files of the FBI reveal that in 1953, NY T-1 advised that the Tiger-Lily Lounge backs up to the La Comedie Bar, 148 East 46th Street, NYC, which according to the New York State Liquor Authority (SLA) is owned by MILLIE MIRRA

Also on August 5, 1953, [redacted]
La Comedie Night Club, 148 East 46th Street, NYC, advised SAs JOHN J. DANAHY and [redacted] that ANTHONY MIRRA is the owner of La Comedie. He advised that about one month ago ANTHONY MIRRA was stabbed in the shoulder and seriously wounded. He did not know the scene of the stabbing or circumstances thereof, but advised that this incident was reported in local newspapers. He stated that following this incident MIRRA was confined in a local hospital for several days, but left same prematurely. He stated he had heard some unrecalled persons state MIRRA might be recovering from this wound at Atlantic City, NJ.

b6
b7C

ANTHONY MIRRA was interviewed by SAs JOHN V. COULTER and JOHN J. DANAHY on August 12, 1953, at La Comedie Bar, 148 East 46th Street, NYC. MIRRA acknowledged that he was the nephew of AL EMBARRATO, then a Federal fugitive, but stated he had not seen the latter in sixteen or seventeen months. When questioned as to whether he would notify the interviewing agents if he learned of EMBARRATO's whereabouts, MIRRA stated he would not and gave as his reason the fact that EMBARRATO was his uncle.

The June 16, 1953, issue of the New York Journal American reported that ANTHONY MIRRA had been stabbed on June 15, 1953, in a bar across the street from the Hotel Saint George in Brooklyn, NY. The identity of his assailant, who was accompanied by a woman, was unknown.

V. Organized Crime Status

A review of the files of the FBI reveals that, on November 8, 1962, JOSEPH VALACHI advised that ANTHONY MIRRA, FBI# 393845C, NYCPD B# 233768, was not a member of La Cosa Nostra (LCN).

On September 17, 1971, NY T-7 advised that ANTHONY MIRRA was not a "button".

VI. Past Criminal Activities

On August 2, 1974, the Identification Division of the FBI advised that ANTHONY MIRRA has FBI# 393845C which reflects the following record:

NY 92-8115

B. Narcotics

A review of the files of the FBI reveals that, on March 26, 1958, seventeen men and a woman were convicted in US District Court of conspiracy as members of a $20,000,000-a-year international narcotics ring. The ring was alleged to have distributed heroin, opium and cocaine throughout the United States and Canada. Those convicted were as follows:

MARTIN DE SAVERIO, 310 East 112th Street

ANTHONY MIRRA, 115 Madison Street

FRANK PASQUA, 240 East 72nd Street were formerly United States Customs Inspectors.

The files of the FBI also reveal that, on May 9, 1960, [redacted] Federal Bureau of Narcotics (FBN) advised SA [redacted] that the following 29 individuals were named in an eight count narcotics conspiracy case involving members of the largest narcotics ring currently operating in the United States. These 29 defendants were listed as follows:

b6
b7C

[redacted]
[redacted] CARLIE DI PIETRO, [redacted]
[redacted] CARMINE GALANTE, [redacted]
[redacted] SALVATORE GIGLIO, LOUIS GRECO, [redacted]

b6
b7C

[redacted] advised that the [redacted] in turn, smuggled the narcotics from France.

This narcotics operation was engaged in a massive conspiracy to import heroin into the United States from Canada and then distribute same throughout the United States with the central base of this operation being New York City. During the course of the existence of this conspiracy which included years 1956 through 1960, it is estimated that the conspiracy was responsible for importing into the United States approximately 600 kilograms of heroin annually.

Of the 13 defendants tried and convicted, all of whom were American citizens, the defendants DI PIETRO, [redacted] MIRRA, [redacted] were integral parts of wholesale units within this criminal enterprise. The defendants [redacted] were utilized in this criminal enterprise as couriers for one of the

C. Assault

A review of the files of the FBI also reveal that, on June 4, 1962, at approximately 10:30 AM, ANTHONY MIRRA, defendant, US vs [redacted] ET AL, was under questioning by Assistant United States Attorney (AUSA) JONATHAN ROSNER. When asked about past convictions, MIRRA rose and threw the witness chair in the direction of AUSA ROSNER. The chair hit the Jury Box and struck the floor near ROSNER. Two of the legs of the chair shattered upon impact. MIRRA leaped from the witness box and took two steps toward the door leading to Judge LLOYD F. MAC MAHON's chambers before being subdued by Deputy US Marshals assigned to guard him. [redacted] authorized prosecution and case presented to Federal Grand Jury (FGJ), Southern District of New York (SDNY), on July 12, 1962, True Bill returned.

b6

POLICE DEPARTMENT
NEW YORK, N. Y. 10013

February 6, 1976

From: Commanding Officer, Investigative & Analysis Section, Organized Crime Control Bureau

To: Chief, Organized Crime Control

Subject: INTELLIGENCE REPORT ON ANGELO "MOE" PRESENZANO.

1. Angelo Presenzano (Little Moe), known to this department under B# 71432, DOB 12/24/08, resides at 7 Stanley Circle, S.I., N.Y. Presenzano is the undisclosed operator of the Paris Bar & Grill at 116 South Street, N.Y.C. Subject operates two autos, a 1975 Chevrolet, Reg. # 306 YMO, and a 1976 Pontiac, Reg. # 627 NY.
2. Presenzano, who is listed as a member of the Bonano crime family, has an arrest record which dates to 1925 and includes arrests for homicide and narcotics violations. In 1965, it was noted that Presenzano was a customer of [redacted] a well documented [redacted] In addition, it is reported that Presenzano is the cousin of Carmine Galante, the reputed "Boss" of the Bonano family, and that individuals wishing to conduct business with Galante must do so through Presenzano. Furthermore, it is alleged that when Galante is out of town for any reason, it is Presenzano who is in charge.
3. Surveillance conducted recently [redacted] revealed that the subject, Moe Presenzano, arrived thereat approximately 1030 hours daily, driving one of the aforementioned autos. At approximately the same time, daily, the [redacted] who resides at [redacted] was observed arriving at the subject location in a [redacted] bearing [redacted] Subsequent to the arrival [redacted] late model autos were observed arriving with their occupants then entering the [redacted] Among these visitors were [redacted]

- k) Anthony Mirra (see para. 5), B# 233768, is listed as a soldier in the Bonano family. In the past he has been involved in gambling and narcotics violations. In addition, a confidential source has alleged that Mirra [redacted] Carmine Galante. Further observations of this subject by members of U.O.S., P.M.D. have documented a meeting between Mirra and Frank "Farbie" Serpico, at the Concorde Cafe, 349 Lexington Avenue. This location is frequented by Martin DeSaverio, M.V. # 98A and other organized crime figures involved in narcotics transactions.
- l) Santo Patti (see para. 4); B# 107664, KG #7444, is listed as a soldier in the Gambino family.
- m) Angelo Presenzano (subject of report) B# 71432, KG #4711 is the reputed underboss of the Bonano family.
- n) [redacted] (see para. 3) [redacted] is the [redacted]
- o) [redacted] (see para. 3) is known to this department under [redacted]
- p) [redacted] (see para. 3) [redacted] Subject is listed as a [redacted] He is [redacted]

5. It became apparent during the observations that Angelo "Moe" Presenzano was a man of prominence in the Galante operation. Most of the people mentioned in this report showed up almost daily at the Paris Bar & Grill to speak to Presenzano. When the subject was tailed to other locations, he was greeted with the respect only accorded high placed organized crime figures. It is the opinion of the investigating officers that "Moe" Presenzano and the people that surround him would make a perfect target for an in-depth investigation by an operational unit of C.C.C.B.

MARCO'S DISCO,
151 EAST 41st STREET
NEW YORK, NEW YORK
TELEPHONE

On 12/22/70, at approximately 7:00 p.m., two bodies were found at the above captioned establishment. NYCTD investigation disclosed that CAROL MENDING, female, white, 30 years of age, residing 766 9th Avenue, New York, New York, was murdered and raped in the basement office of the disco.

JAMES J. JOHNSON, black male, 51 years of age, residing 457 West Street, Brooklyn, New York, was shot in the left eye and the back of the head.

A check of the records of the New York City Police Department failed to locate an identification record for MENDING or JOHNSON.

NYCTD investigation disclosed that the motive for the above killings was robbery.

The above two victims were discovered upon opening the establishment for business that night.

VOLUNTARY APPEARANCE
ADVISE OF RIGHTS FORM

VOLUNTARY APPEARANCE; ADVICE OF RIGHTS
YOUR RIGHTS

Before we ask you any questions, you must understand your rights. You have the right to remain silent. Anything you say can be used against you in court. You have the right to talk to a lawyer for advice before we ask you any questions, and to have him with you during questioning. You have this right to the advice and presence of a lawyer even if you cannot afford to hire one. We have no way of giving you a lawyer, but one will be appointed for you, if you wish, if and when you go to court. If you wish to answer questions now without a lawyer present, you have the right to stop answering questions at any time. You also have the right to stop answering at any time until you talk to a lawyer.

WAIVER

I, ANTHONY MIRRA have come to the New York Office of the Federal Bureau of Investigation (FBI) of my own choice to talk with Special Agents of the FBI about a crime which they are investigating. I know that I am not under arrest and that I can leave this office if I wish to do so.

Prior to any questioning, I was furnished the above statement of my rights at 4:30 PM on 9/5/74 at 201 E 69th St b6
b7C
(time) (date) (place)
by Special Agent of the FBI. I have (read) (had read to me) this statement of my rights. I understand what my rights are. I am willing to answer questions and make a statement. I do not want a lawyer. I understand and know what I am doing. No promises or threats have been made to me and no pressure of any kind has been used against me.

Signed _____

Mirra stated he understands his rights and is willing to answer questions but does not wish to sign the form.

[redacted] was interviewed by Special Agents [redacted]

[redacted] and [redacted] at which time she advised that her company is currently attempting to collect an account referred by [redacted]

[redacted] The account was referred to [redacted] during July of 1974, with the understanding that [redacted] would receive ten percent of the money collected. She advised that this money is owed to [redacted] by [redacted]

[redacted] Upon initially receiving the account she wrote [redacted] a letter on July 20, 1974, advising him that the matter had been placed with her office for collection and requesting that [redacted] call her and make arrangements for settling the claim. [redacted] called, scheduled an appointment to meet with [redacted] at her office and then never showed up.

[redacted] after numerous unsuccessful attempts was finally able to contact [redacted] over the telephone shortly thereafter and [redacted] suggested that she meet with him at the [redacted] at 10:00 PM in the evening. The appointment was scheduled for sometime around July 25 or 26, 1974, but [redacted] was unable to recall the exact date.

[redacted] and for this reason does not work late in the evening. She told [redacted] that she would attempt to get someone to represent her at the meeting. She stated that she got a friend of the family whom she identified as ANTHONY MIRRE to represent her at this meeting and indicated that MIRRE has had approximately six or seven meetings with [redacted] since July 1974.

MIRRE has attempted to persuade [] to sign a confession of judgement admitting to the debt and stipulating that he would pay so much toward the debt each week. [] has not done this to date.

According to [] has not paid MIRRE any money but indicated that her firm has lost $1800.00 in that when she first received the account from [] she gave [] a number of post dated checks in the amount of $900.00 each which would represent a $1000.00 payment by [] less the ten percent commission due []

[] These checks were issued in such an amount in view of the fact that [] at the time of his original meeting with MIRRE, had agreed to make payments of $1000.00 per week. [] cashed two of the checks but [] has not made any payments.

[] advised that MIRRE is not an employee of [] but merely a friend who she asked to sit down with [] and attempt to collect the money owed. She advised that she has not paid MIRRE any money but hopes to hire him at some future date. She indicated that she met MIRRE during July, 1974, at [] which is located at []

[] She claimed that she did not know where MIRRE resides and indicated that she was unable to find his telephone number in her records.

[] feels that [] has no intention of paying the money and fears that he might try to sell out and leave the country. She has discussed filing a lien against [] business with her attorney []

[] and they are exploring the matter further.

On September 5, 1974, ANTHONY MIRRA, 115 Madison Street, New York, New York, was interviewed at the office of the Federal Bureau of Investigation, 201 East 69th Street, New York, New York, by Special Agents [redacted]

b6
b7C

[redacted] and [redacted] Special Agent [redacted] informed MIRRA of the purpose of the interview after which Special Agents [redacted] and [redacted] furnished MIRRA with the voluntary appearance Advise of Rights Form which MIRRA read and after which MIRRA stated that he understood the contents of the form. MIRRA indicated that he did not wish to sign the form but would be willing to talk with the interviewing agents.

MIRRA advised he is presently on federal parole, having been convicted of a conspiracy violation during 1958. He was released from prison during January or February 1974, and will continue on parole for about ten years.

MIRRA indicated that he is acquainted with [redacted]

[redacted] and with [redacted]

[redacted] His association with these individuals centers around efforts by [redacted] to collect money owed by [redacted] from which [redacted] purchased [redacted]. The debt involved approximately [redacted] and some change. He met [redacted] through [redacted] (Last Name Unknown) (LNU) who manages [redacted] on [redacted] in New York, New York. [redacted] had contacted [redacted] (LNU) asking him for assistance in collecting the money owed by [redacted] had an appointment to meet with [redacted] to discuss the debt sometime during the end of July 1974. [redacted] (LNU) asked MIRRA to accompany him to this meeting. According to MIRRA there was a ten percent commission involved in the collection of this debt and [redacted] asked MIRRA to talk to [redacted] for him and he [redacted] would cut MIRRA in on the commission. MIRRA indicated that he does not know if he is actually on the payroll books of [redacted] but indicated that he has received three checks from [redacted] in the amount of $125.00 each which he never cashed and also $125.00 in cash.

MIRRA attended the meeting at [redacted] during the end of July, 1974. Also present at this meeting were [redacted] girlfriend, [redacted] and two other individuals who [redacted] introduced as his partners and identified as [redacted] (LNU) and [redacted] (LNU). [redacted] indicated that [redacted] and [redacted] initially owned ten percent of the business but put up more money and now hold twenty-five percent of the business. [redacted] and [redacted] were present when [redacted] made the above statement but did not deny or confirm [redacted] remark. [redacted] debt [redacted] was discussed and MIRRA told them if they had any questions they should talk with their own lawyer. [redacted] stated that he would contact his friend [redacted]. MIRRA then recalled that one of the two other individuals [redacted] asked if they could talk with him alone. MIRRA, [redacted] and [redacted] left the table after which they asked MIRRA if they could make some kind of a deal with him concerning [redacted] debt. MIRRA told them to pay the money and if they did not pay the company that he works for would notify the Liquor Board that they were all swindlers. They informed MIRRA that they intended to pay off other small creditors and obtain a liquor license and he could "go whistle" in court for his money.

The following day MIRRA met with [redacted] and informed her of what had happened during his meeting with [redacted]. He informed her that he was unable to collect any money and that he did not feel that any money would be forthcoming. According to MIRRA [redacted] then had a letter sent to the State Liquor Board informing the board of [redacted] debt and the fact that he has made no effort to resolve this matter.

MIRRA indicated that during his initial meeting with [redacted] and [redacted] invited him to come back anytime. Approximately five or six days after this initial meeting MIRRA returned to [redacted] with a girlfriend. [redacted] told him that the letter sent to the Liquor Board would stop him from getting a liquor license. [redacted] and [redacted] then came over and asked MIRRA what could be done to get the collection agency to send another "release" letter to the Liquor Board to enable them to get a liquor license for [redacted]. MIRRA later discussed this with [redacted] at which time she agreed to send this letter if [redacted] would sign a Confession of Judgement admitting to the debt. A few days later MIRRA again met with [redacted] and the two other individuals. He brought with him the Confession of Judgement for [redacted] to sign along with a copy of the release letter that [redacted] would send to the State Liquor Board. [redacted] upon seeing the papers, refused to sign the Confession of Judgment as he felt that if he did sign, anyone could come in and take over the business. MIRRA assured [redacted] that this would not happen. MIRRA was at [redacted] approximately eight or nine times and discussed many things with [redacted] concerning the operation of a club. MIRRA claims that he never asked for a concession in the [redacted] or for a percentage of the hat check room. He was never able to ascertain how much money [redacted] and [redacted] had in the [redacted]. However, on one occasion [redacted] told him that they [redacted] and [redacted] had a lot of money tied up in the place and indicated that it was more than [redacted] [redacted] had coming. [redacted] indicated that he and [redacted] were paying off all of [redacted] debits and that creditors keep coming out of the walls.

MIRRA stated that he did not know the last names of [redacted] or [redacted] or their respective addresses. He had a phone number at which to contact these people and he used it on one occasion to set up an appointment. He did not have the telephone number in his possession at the present time. On the one occasion that he called, a female answered the phone and identified the number as [redacted]. He received the impression that [redacted] and [redacted] did not want him to collect the money. They apparently were partners with [redacted] and all other employee's of the [redacted] referred to them as bosses. He described [redacted] and [redacted] as being white males approximately thirty years of age.

The following description of ANTHONY MIRRA was obtained through observation and interview:

The following arrest record was furnished by the Federal Bureau of Investigation Identification Division on 10/2/74 for ANTHONY MIRRA under FBI number 393 845 C:

NY 92-8153

RTT:dbm

1.

On 2/9/75, BARBARA AMBLER, Special Attorney, Strike Force, Southern District of New York, advised that the review of the facts and testimony in captioned matter did not constitute a prosecutable violation of any Federal Statute. Due to the unverifiable allegations made by [redacted] and the lack of credibility on the part of [redacted] successful prosecution is unlikely in this matter. Therefore, prosecution is being declined.

b6
b7c

On 2/10/75, AMBLER advised that she had advised [redacted] that the government did not intend to prosecute.

You shall, unless you have been convicted of a new offense, be given a preliminary interview by an official designated by a Regional Commissioner to determine if there is probable cause to believe that you have violated the conditions of your release, and if so, whether to release you or hold you for a revocation hearing.

At your preliminary interview and any subsequent revocation hearing you may present documentary evidence and voluntary witnesses on your behalf, and, if you deny the charge(s) against you, you may request the presence of those persons who have given information upon which the charges are based. Such witnesses will be made available for questioning unless good cause is found for their non-appearance.

You may be represented by an attorney or other representative of your choice, or, if you are unable to pay for counsel, an attorney will be provided by the U. S. District Court if you fill out and promptly return a Form CJA-22 to a U. S. Probation Officer.

If, after a revocation hearing, you are found to have violated the conditions of your release the Commission may:
(1) restore you to supervision, and, if appropriate, (a) reprimand you; (b) modify your conditions of supervision; or
(c) refer you to a residential community treatment center for the remainder of your sentence; or (2) revoke your parole or mandatory release, in which case the Commission will also decide when to consider you for further release.
