Enclosures (2): Enclosed for receiving offices are one (1) copy each of two (2) Aryan Nations letters from [redacted] were in reference to [redacted] and the possible [redacted] with the Aryan Nations.

Synopsis: Review of material seized during service of search warrant on [redacted] for [redacted]

Details: For the information of receiving offices, the WAL is an anti-government, white supremacist, neo-nazi group based in Langley, Kentucky, that was [redacted] who has been linked to gun trafficking elements in the region. [redacted] openly discussed the commission of criminal activity with sources to fund a WAL plan to wage war with the Federal government.

The WAL claims the United States is currently in a "second revolution" which will restore complete authority into the hands of people of European ancestry and warns that white persons consorting with blacks will be dealt with according to the "Miscegenation Section of the Revolutionary Ethic", which apparently proclaims that "miscegenation is race treason; it will be punished by death, automatic by public hanging...Negroes involved in miscegenation will be shot as they are apprehended". The WAL equates itself with the "Revolutionary Government of the United States". The WAL literature contains swastika and rifle scope cross hairs symbols.

The WAL emphasizes a quasi "leaderless resistance" concept, which stresses the need for cells to be able to carry on the struggle in the event that the commander/headquarters is neutralized by the U.S. Government. However, in normal circumstances, cells are not autonomous in their activities and are typically assigned various activities and/or tasks by their commanders.

FOR FURTHER INFORMATION THE FOLLOWING IS INCLUDED:

THE PATTERN OF RACKETEERING: THE INDICTMENT CHARGES THAT THE DEFENDANTS CONDUCTED THE AFFAIRS OF AN ENTERPRISE IN FACT THROUGH A PATTERN OF RACKETEERING ACTIVITY WHICH AFFECTED INTERSTATE COMMERCE. THE PATTERN OF RACKETEERING ACTIVITY INCLUDES THE MURDER OF ALAN BERG IN DENVER, COLORADO, ON JUNE 18, 1984; THE MURDER OF WALTER EDWARD WEST IN IDAHO IN JUNE OF 1984; A CONSPIRACY TO COMMIT AN ARMORED CAR ROBBERY IN SEATTLE IN NOVEMBER, 1983; THE ROBBERY OF AN ARMORED CAR IN SEATTLE ON MARCH 16, 1984; THE ROBBERY OF AN ARMORED CAR IN SEATTLE ON APRIL 23, 1984; COUNTERFEITING ACTIVITY IN 1983 AND 1984; THE ROBBERY OF AN ARMORED CAR IN UKIAH, CALIFORNIA, ON JULY 19, 1984: AN ARSON ATTEMPT AT THE EMBASSY THEATRE IN SEATTLE ON APRIL 22, 1984; AN ARSON ATTEMPT AT A BOISE SYNAGOGUE ON APRIL 29, 1984; THE ATTEMPTED

IT SHOULD BE NOTED THAT ALTHOUGH THE MURDERS OF ALAN BERG IN COLORADO AND WALTER EDWARD WEST IN IDAHO ARE CHARGED AS PARTS OF THE "PATTERN OF RACKETEERING ACTIVITY," FEDERAL CONVICTION OF VIOLATING THE ANTI-RACKETEERING STATUTES IN NO WAY PRECLUDES THE STATES OF COLORADO AND IDAHO FROM PROSECUTING THE RELEVANT DEFENDANTS FOR MURDER. Supremacists are charged with sedition

LITTLE ROCK, Ark. (AP) — Fifteen white supremacists were indicted in Arkansas and Colorado on charges of murdering a radio talk show host, sedition, attempted murder and committing other crimes, the Justice Department said yesterday.

A federal grand jury in Fort Smith accused 10 men of seditious conspiracy, or trying to topple the federal government, over a 21-month period beginning in July 1983.

Four other men were indicted on other charges by that grand jury, while three of the 14 men indicted in Arkansas plus a woman in prison in California were accused of the murder of Denver talk show host Alan Berg. He was slain in a submachine gun attack outside his home June 18, 1984.

Those named in the indictments had affiliations with such supremacist groups as the Ku Klux Klan; Aryan Nations; and the Covenant, the Sword and the Arm of the Lord, authorities said.

"Basically, they are anti-Semitic, anti-black," said Don Pettus, special agent in charge of the FBI in Arkansas. He said that he considered the supremacists dangerous and that authorities were on alert for the possibility of retaliatory violence this weekend.

Three of the 15 people were still at large late yesterday afternoon, authorities said. Seven were in prison before the indictments were announced, while five others were arrested or surrendered.

The four people indicted in Denver were charged with violating civil rights laws by interfering with Berg's right to work because of his religion.

race or national origin. Berg, who was Jewish, frequently used his show to attack and embarrass white supremacists.

According to the 25-page indictment in Arkansas, the accused seditious conspirators "agreed that their various organizations should unite in an effort to overthrow, and put down the government of the United States . . . armed revolution."

The federal indictment also alleged that five of the 14 men conspired to murder U.S. District Judge H. Franklin Waters of Fort Smith and FBI agent Jack D. Knox of Fayetteville and that three of the five actually made a murder attempt in December 1983. Waters presided over a trial of members of the Covenant, the Sword and the Arm of the Lord in 1985.

One of the five, Richard Wayne Snell, is in prison under death sentence for the 1983 murder of a Texarkana pawn shop operator and life in prison without parole for the 1984 murder of a state trooper.

The indictment said the conspirators financed their efforts by robberies and counterfeiting and that they targeted members of ethnic groups for bombings.

They also plotted to destroy utilities, pollute water supplies and establish guerrilla warfare training camps, according to the government. In addition, it said, the 10 used false identification, assigned code names to each other and discussed setting up a computer system to maintain contact.

One of the 10 charged with sedition, Robert Edward Miles, 62, former leader of the Ku Klux Klan in Michigan, has said in interviews that his dream was for separatists to migrate to five Northwestern states and live by themselves and create the "New Israel." He was arrested yesterday.

Besides Miles, the others charged with sedition in the Fort Smith indictment were: Richard G. Butler, 69, Hayden Lake, Idaho; Louis Ray Beam Jr., 40, Dallas; Robert Neil Smalley, 31, Fort Smith; and six men now in prison: David Eden Lane, 48; Ardie McBrearty, 59; Bruce Carroll Pierce, 32; Richard Joseph Scutari, 39; Andrew Virgil Barnhill, 30; and Richard Wayne Snell, 56.

Snell and four others were also charged with conspiring to murder the federal judge and the FBI agent. The other four were William H. Wade, 68, and Ivan Ray Wade, 34, both of Smithville, Ark.; Lambert Miller, 36, of Springfield, Mo.; and David Michael McGuire, 24, of St. Louis.

Snell, McGuire and Miller also were charged with attempting to murder the judge and the FBI agent.

The Denver indictment charged Lane, Pierce, Scutari and Jean Margaret Craig with interfering with a federally protected civil right, resulting in death in the Berg case. Ms. Craig is imprisoned in Pleasanton, Calif.

The three men still at large late yesterday were Beam and the two Wades, authorities said.

Synopsis: Document indexing, evaluation and potential exploitation.

Details: For the information of receiving offices, the WAL is an anti-government, white supremacist, neo-nazi group based in Langley, Kentucky, that was [redacted] linked to gun trafficking elements in the region. [redacted] openly discussed the commission of criminal activity with sources to fund a WAL plan to wage war with the Federal government.

The WAL claims the United States is currently in a "second revolution" which will restore complete authority into the hands of people of European ancestry and warns that white persons consorting with blacks will be dealt with according to the "Miscegenation Section of the Revolutionary Ethic", which apparently proclaims that "miscegenation is race treason; it will be punished by death, automatic by public hanging...Negroes involved in miscegenation will be shot as they are apprehended". The WAL equates itself with the "Revolutionary Government of the United States". The WAL literature contains swastika and rifle scope cross hairs symbols.

The WAL emphasizes a quasi "leaderless resistance" concept, which stresses the need for cells to be able to carry on the struggle in the event that the commander/headquarters is neutralized by the U.S. Government. However, in normal circumstances, cells are not autonomous in their activities and are typically assigned various activities and/or tasks by their commanders.

Investigation of WAL indicates that members have been in contact with Aryan Nations (AN) members in Hayden Lake, Idaho and have associated with AN members from New Vienna, Ohio. In addition, WAL members have been in contact with BRUCE CARROLL PIERCE, AN and Order member who is currently incarcerated at FCI, Marion, Illinois.

Criminal investigation by Louisville [redacted] determined that [redacted] and [redacted] where actively involved in criminal activity. CONCLUSION:

During the last several years, Louisville has noticed a change in Klan related philosophies and literature in Kentucky; in particular, that of the IKA and This literature has taken on a National Socialist and/or Aryan Nations tone. IKA has used phrases like "88" and "The Fourteen Words" and "ZOG" (Zionist Occupation Government - Aryan Nation and National Socialist term for the U.S. Government).

Louisville believes that investigation by Cincinnati, Salt Lake City, Springfield and Louisville clearly shows that members of the Aryan Nations, The New Order, National Socialist (White Aryan Legion) and the Ku Klux Klan (Imperial Knights of America - IKA) in this region, have in the past, and continue to conspire to commit violent criminal acts against citizens and the government of the United States, in order to effect social and political change (terrorism).
