Title:
DOMINIC JOSEPH BLASI

Character: ANTI-BOOKKEEPING

Synopsis: BLASI continues to reside at 1133 Park Avenue, River Forest, Illinois. Information obtained indicating the fact that BLASI maybe indicted by FGS in Chicago, in near future has become well known in Chicago area and if true will restrict his activities as "care taker" of interest of SAM GIANCANA, self-called former top leader of organized crime in Chicago. Noted BLASI functions as "eyes and ears" of GIANCANA in Chicago and conduit through which GIANCANA's orders and directives are passed to GIANCANA's associates in organized crime on the leadership level in Chicago.

DETAILS: AT CHICAGO, ILLINOIS

CG T-1 advised that BLASI continues to reside with his wife, CONSTANCE, at 1133 Park Avenue, River Forest, Illinois.

CG T-1 advised that at the present time it is a matter of common knowledge in the Chicago area that there is a good possibility that BLASI is about to be indicted by a Federal Grand Jury (FGJ). CG T-1 advised that as a result his activities will be restricted and his function as the "eyes and ears" of SAM GIANCANA will be necessarily hampered. It is noted that GIANCANA is the self-called former top leader of organized crime in Chicago, who uses the services of BLASI as the conduit through which his orders and directives to his associates on the leadership level of organized crime in Chicago are passed.

ANTI-RACKETEERING

Synopsis:

BLASI continues to reside at 1138 Park Avenue, River Forest, Illinois. Informant advised that BLASI at present time continues to act as "caretaker" of interest of SAM GIANCANA in Chicago. Noted GIANCANA is former top leader of organized crime in Chicago who has been residing outside of the United States since 1966. Informant advised that top leadership of organized crime in Chicago is aware that BLASI may soon be indicted by a Federal Grand Jury in Chicago and are awaiting this development inasmuch as it will affect BLASI's status.

-P-

DETAILS: At Chicago, Illinois.

CG T-1 advised that BLASI continues to reside with his wife, CONNIE, at 1138 Park Avenue, at River Forest, Illinois.

CG T-1 advised that SAM GIANCANA, when he left his position as the top leader of organized crime in Chicago to voluntarily leave the United States in 1966, when he was released from jail, left BLASI in charge of his interest in Chicago. CG T-1 advised that BLASI operates as the "eyes and ears" of GIANCANA in Chicago and all policy matters and other decisions made by GIANCANA are passed on to appropriate leaders in organized crime in Chicago by BLASI.

CG 92-1322

CG T-1 advised that it has become common knowledge in the leadership of organized crime in Chicago that BLASI is about to be indicted by the Federal Grand Jury in Chicago. CG T-1 advised that the leadership of organized crime is awaiting this development due to the fact that GIANCANA may very well decide to replace BLASI as his top representative in Chicago if BLASI is indicted.

CG T-1 advised that in addition to the above function of BLASI in organized crime he also continues to own and operate two or three legitimate businesses including the Park Avenue Equipment Company which owns and leases heavy equipment to Chicago area contractors.

The main building and the repair sheds are surrounded by a ten-foot cyclone fence topped with barbed wire. Outside the fence, but connected to the main building, is a quonset hut painted green..

The Barbouth is played in the main building with entrance being made through the quonset hut. The main gate is not used as during non-business hours five German Shepherd watchdogs roam the grounds. Informant checked out the reaction of the dogs to an intruder by approaching the cyclone fence late at night, and found the dogs react in a vicious manner.

The Barbouth games take place on Friday and Saturday nights starting about midnight and continuing until the early morning hours. The gaming table is a Las Vegas-type professional crap table, covered with a green cloth on which odds have been imprinted. A plain green felt cloth has been placed over the table. A string has been stretched across the middle of the table.

Before being relocated in Melrose Park, the Barbouth game operated at the Mid East Lounge (now called Athens West), 1616 North Mannheim Road, Stone Park, [redacted] lounge, [redacted] ran the game. Informant advised that LES KRUSE has recently been assigned by ALEX [redacted] ALEX and for other leaders of organized crime in Chicago [redacted]. Informant knows that KRUSE has [redacted] on assignment from ALEX [redacted]. However, he is unable to advise as to the specific nature of this assignment although he speculated that it might involve either an investment [redacted] or the contacting by KRUSE [redacted] of individuals there for the purpose of straightening out a particular problem. Informant advised that KRUSE is making a steady recovery from the few heart attacks which he suffered and at the present time although moving at a slower pace he is able to conduct almost normal daily activity.

Informant advised that CHARLES "SPECS" DI CARO is relatively inactive at this time in the affairs of organized crime and is attending on a full time bases to his legitimate employment as a laborer setting up expositions and exhibits at McCormick Place.

Informant advised that it has become common knowledge in the Chicago area among the leaders of organized crime that the federal government is about to indict DOMINIC "BUTCH" BLASI. Informant advised that at the present time BLASI is the "caretaker" of the interest of SAM GIANCANA, the top leader of organized crime in Chicago who has not been in the Chicago area since he left here upon his release from jail in the summer of 1966. Informant advised that the leadership of organized crime at the present time is concerned about the impending indictment of BLASI in that it will obviously curtail and limit his activities on behalf of GIANCANA. Informant advised that he would expect that GIANACANA would replace BLASI with another individual when and if BLASI is indicted.

Re report of SA WILLIAM F. ROEMER, JR., 7/20/72, entitled, "DOMINIC BLASI, AKA, AR", and Chicago letter to the Bureau, 7/21/72, entitled, "DOMINIC BLASI, ET AL [REDACTED] - VICTIM, ECT".

Contact was made with Assistant United States Attorney (AUSA) [REDACTED] of the Chicago Strike Force, on September 12, 1972, in order to learn of his present intentions concerning the prosecution in the Extortionate Credit Transactions, captioned above.

[REDACTED] advised that at the present time he has plans to present further evidence in the nature of testimony by the Agent assigned this investigation before the Federal Grand Jury (FGJ) in Chicago, during September, 1972. He also intends to subpoena subjects BLASI and LEO MANFREDI before the same grand jury and expects to subpoena [REDACTED], another upper echelon leader of organized crime in Chicago. It is noted that [REDACTED] feels there is insufficient evidence to consider [REDACTED] as a subject of this investigation, but on the other hand he was present at a conference when BLASI and MANFREDI made threats against the person and family of the victim. He therefore feels that [REDACTED] should be subpoenaed before the grand jury and questioned concerning his recollections and involvement in that conference. [REDACTED] also feels that it is likely that immunity will be offered to BLASI.

Grand jury probing mob is legal

ATTORNEYS FOR THREE REPUTED MOB FIGURES attacked the legality of the special federal grand jury investigating crime syndicate activities in narcotics traffic here.

They said the jury was unlawful, arguing that no more than two special grand juries can be in session at the same time. There are now three special juries in session.

The lawyers' clients, currently under subpoena to appear before the jury, are Leonard Gianola, 62, Dominic J. Blasi, 51, and Romeo Nappi.

Asst. U.S. Atty. Douglas Rother argued that a reasonable interpretation of the law would permit more than two special grand juries at the same time if their investigative loads were heavy enough.

After hearing the arguments, Chief Judge Edwin A. Robson of U.S. District Court ordered the three men to appear before the grand jury and added that he had the authority to empanel the special grand jury because government lawyers requested the jury after demonstrating the heavy load of work of the two other special grand juries.

Synopsis: BLASI continues to act as "caretaker" of interests of SAM GIANCANA in Chicago. GIANCANA is former leader of organized crime in Chicago who has left the U.S. and continues to function in Chicago in some criminal activities through BLASI. Subpoena served on [REDACTED] commanding his appearance before FGJ in Chicago on 10/26/72. [REDACTED] appeared before Grand Jury as commanded and later advised Chicago Agents [REDACTED] [REDACTED] BLASI has divested himself of all legitimate interests except his profession as real estate broker doing business from his residence as the Park Avenue Realty Company. However, most of his transactions are closed for him through the De Moon Realty Company, Chicago. Current daily pattern of activities of BLASI reported herein.

DETAILS: AT CHICAGO, ILLINOIS

CG T-1 advised that DOMINIC "BUTCH" BLASI continues to function as the "caretaker" of the interests of SAM GIANCANA in Chicago. This informant noted that until 1966, GIANCANA was the top leader of organized crime in Chicago and BLASI was his appointment secretary, chauffeur and bodyguard. When GIANCANA voluntarily gave up his leadership spot in the Chicago crime syndicate, he left the United States and at the present time BLASI

[REDACTED] on October 20, 1972, by SA WILLIAM F. ROEMER, JR. At that time SA ROEMER conducted spotchecks and surveillances of BLASI which resulted in the following observations:

BLASI, at the present time is 62 years old, 5'6" tall, 160 pounds, close cropped black hair with specks of gray. He resides at 1138 Park Avenue in a luxurious house with a swimming pool and servants quarters with his wife, CONSTANCE, and [REDACTED]. At the present time BLASI is driving three automobiles. One is a black Cadillac Sedan de Ville, four door with current Illinois license WJ 691. He also owns a 1969 green Oldsmobile, AF 7433, which [REDACTED] drives. [REDACTED] generally leaves the BLASI residence shortly after 8:00 a.m., driving this automobile to get to her employment. BLASI also owns a 1969 dark blue Cadillac convertible, license #5043. Whenever CONSTANCE BLASI is observed driving an automobile it is this automobile she drives.

It is the current daily pattern of activity on the part of BLASI to depart his residence around 10:00 a.m. He usually drives north from his driveway to Division Street, east on Division to Lathrop, and north on Lathrop to North Avenue. He then turns east on North Avenue to the vicinity of 7028 North Avenue in Elmwood Park. He usually parks on the street and enters the De Moon Realty Company. It is noted that BLASI, in conversations with SA ROEMER on October 20, and 26, 1972, advised at the present time he has divested himself of all legitimate interests with the exception of the real estate business, which he conducts primarily from his residence, the Park Avenue Realty Company. However, he advised that he spends considerable time at the De Moon Realty Company for the reason he closes practically all of his transactions through the De Moon Realty Company. This company is [REDACTED]. BLASI ordinarily remains at DE MOON's until about 2:00 p.m. and then returns the same way he came to his residence. BLASI's

Assistant United States Attorney (AUSA) [redacted] [redacted] advised in April, 1973, that the United States Attorney's Office in Chicago has made its ultimate decision and has declined prosecution of BLASI for his involvement in the Interstate Transportation in Aid of Racketeering - Extortion case of which [redacted] was the victim.

CG T1 advised that at the present time BLASI is primarily involved on practically a full time basis in his legitimate pursuits. CG T1 identified these interests as being the owner and sole operator of the Park Avenue Realty Company which BLASI operates from his residence, 1128 Park Avenue in River Forest, Illinois. CG T1 advised that BLASI sells real estate, primarily on the west side and in the western suburbs of Chicago and is a broker associate of the De Moon Realty Company located in Elmwood Park, Illinois. CG T1 advised that BLASI sells real estate sometimes in conjunction with leads from De Moon and sometimes on his own.

DETAILS: AT CHICAGO, ILLINOIS.

DOMINIC BLASI advised Special Agent (SA) WILLIAM F. ROEMER, JR., on July 30, 1973, that he had recently become a stock holder of the corporation LTD Limited, which owns Ben's Beef Stand located at Fifth Avenue and North Avenue in Melrose Park, Illinois, a western suburb of Chicago. BLASI advised that he owns 50 percent of the stock of LTD Limited, and his long-time associate, [REDACTED]

BLASI also advised that he continues to sell real estate in Chicago and in the western suburbs of Chicago. BLASI stated that he owns his own real estate firm, Park Avenue Realty, which he operates from his residence, 1138 Park Avenue, River Forest, Illinois, another western suburb of Chicago, and that he also sells real estate through the firm of De Moon Realty Company, 7028 West North Avenue in Chicago.

CG T-1 advised that he understood that BLASI continues to operate as the "caretaker" of the interests of SAMUEL GIANCANA in Chicago although, to the knowledge of the informant, BLASI has no other active role in organized crime at the present time. It is noted that GIANCANA was the top leader of organized crime in Chicago during the period 1957 to 1966 and that during this time BLASI was GIANCANA's general functionary in that he operated as a bodyguard, chauffeur and appointment secretary.

CG T-1 cited as an example of the "caretaker role" of BLASI at the present time his understanding that [REDACTED] GIANCANA

AT CHICAGO, ILLINOIS. Will continue to follow and report the activities of BLASI.

ADMINISTRATIVE:

The investigative period of this report is lengthy due to the fact that BLASI has recently had an inactive role in the affairs of organized crime and his activities are being covered through the investigation entitled "SAMUEL M. GIANCANA, aka AR," the upper echelon leader of organized crime for whom BLASI serves as a functionary.

BLASI
Synopsis: GIANCANA currently has no active role in the affairs of organized crime except to be the "caretaker" of the interest of SAMUEL GIANCANA, former top boss of organized crime, who currently is maintaining residences outside of the United States. BLASI currently operating as real estate agent with his own real estate firm, Park Avenue Realty. He was a partner in Ben's Beef Stand, 5th Avenue and North Avenue, Melrose Park, Illinois, but this stand was closed during the winter months.

DETAILS:
At Chicago, Illinois.

CG T-1 advised that BLASI continues to reside at 1136 Park Avenue, River Forest, Illinois. It is noted that contact was made by Special Agent (SA) WILLIAM F. ROEMER at this address on three or four occasions during February and March, 1974. Although a automobile was located in the driveway with 1974 Illinois license DB1138, the long time license number assigned to BLASI, no one answered the door bell on any occasion and the next door neighbor advised that the BLASI's apparently have been on vacation recently.

CG T-1 advised that BLASI has no current role in the affairs of organized crime in Chicago, except that he apparently is the "caretaker" of the interest of SAMUEL GIANCANA in Chicago.

It is noted that GIANCANA was the top boss of organized crime in Chicago during the period 1956 through 1966, but that he has been residing in residences outside of the United States since June, 1966. Apparently he retains some interests in Chicago which are maintained for him by instructions passed on by him to BLASI.

CG T1 advised that BLASI continues to operate as a real estate broker with his own real estate firm, Park Avenue Realty, which he operates out of his residence of 1138 Park Avenue, River Forest, Illinois. CG T1 advised that in the Spring or Summer of 1973, BLASI opened up a sandwich shop called Ben's Beef Stand, located at 5th Avenue and North Avenue in Melrose Park, Illinois, but with the advent of the winter season this stand was closed and has remained so as of the middle of March, 1974.

Synopsis: BLASI continues to reside at 1138 Park Avenue, River Forest, Illinois, and to operate the Park Avenue Realty Company, a real estate firm from his residence. Although the long time superior of BLASI in organized crime, SAM GIANCANA, former top boss of organized crime in Chicago, has returned to Chicago he has not been observed in the presence of BLASI. Informants report no activity on part of BLASI in organized crime at present.

-P-

DETAILS:

AT CHICAGO, ILLINOIS.

CG T-1 advised that BLASI continues to reside at 1138 Park Avenue in River Forest, Illinois, and to spend his time operating his real estate firm, the Park Avenue Realty Company, from his residence.

CG 92-1322

CG T-1 advised that although SAM GIANCANA, the former top boss in organized crime in Chicago, returned to the United States following an eight year absence, he has not been observed in the company of BLASI who for many years during the 1940's, 1950's and 1960's operated as the General Functionary of GIANCANA. CG T-1 noted that BLASI was the chauffeur-bodyguard and appointment secretary for GIANCANA during those years and that during the period of GIANCANA's absence from Chicago it was generally understood that BLASI was the "caretaker" of GIANCANA's interest.

CG T-1 advised that he would expect that GIANCANA and BLASI would be together frequently upon the return of GIANCANA to Chicago. However, he advised that he has not learned that such has taken place and he has no information that BLASI is again serving as the General Functionary of GIANCANA as of this time.

CG T-1 advised that in so far as he is able to ascertain BLASI is completely inactive in the affairs of organized crime as of mid-September, 1974.

Title: DOMINIC JOSEPH BLASI

Character: ANTI-RACKETEERING

Synopsis: Upon the return of SAM GIANCANA, former top leader of organized crime in Chicago, to Chicago after being deported from Mexico in the late summer of 1974, BLASI resumed his role as the general functionary of GIANCANA. Any appointment for a leader or member of organized crime with GIANCANA must currently be made through BLASI. For this reason, BLASI has again assumed his prominent role in the affairs of organized crime in Chicago, which he relinquished when GIANCANA left the Chicago area in 1966.

- P -

b7D

CG T-1 advised that when SAM GIANCANA, the former top "boss" of organized crime returned to the Chicago area following an absence since 1966, [REDACTED] DOMINIC "BUTCH" BLASI [REDACTED] CG T-1 noted that during the period of time from 1957 through 1965, when GIANCANA was the leader of organized crime in Chicago, he utilized the services of BLASI as his appointment secretary, chauffeur, and body guard.

CG T-1 advised that at that time, and again at present, no leader of organized crime or member of organized crime can reach GIANCANA except through BLASI. CG T-1 advised that at the present time, it is generally understood that [redacted] GIANCANA, [redacted]

[redacted] BLASI. BLASI, [redacted]

Through personal observation of Special Agent (SA) WILLIAM F. ROEMER, JR., on January 20, 1975, BLASI was determined to be in residence on that date at his home at 1138 Park Avenue in River Forest, Illinois.

CG T-1 advised that BLASI continues to own and operate the Park Avenue Realty Company out of his residence.

Date of transcription 11/1/74

At 10:10 AM on October 30, 1974, a spot check observation of the residence of SAMUEL GIANCANA, 1147 South Wenonah, Oak Park, Illinois, disclosed that DOMINIC BLASI was walking from the GIANCANA residence to a blue Cadillac convertible automobile bearing 1974 Illinois license 5043. BLASI entered this automobile and departed the area.

Noted parked inside the two-car detached garage at the GIANCANA residence was a late model white Pinto station wagon bearing 1974 Illinois license 902-727.

The records of the Secretary of State, State of Illinois, reveals 1974 Illinois license 5043 is registered to CONSTANCE P. BLASI, 1138 Park Avenue, River Forest, Illinois, for a 1970 Cadillac. These records also disclose that 1974 Illinois license 902-727 registers to JOSEPH DI PERSIO, 1530 South 49th Avenue, Cicero, Illinois, for a 1971 Ford station wagon.

OO: CHICAGO

On 3/24/75, [REDACTED]
[REDACTED], Real Estate Section, Department of Registration and Education, 160 North LaSalle Street, State of Illinois Building, Chicago, Illinois, business telephone [REDACTED], was contacted at her place of employment relative to captioned individual's possession of a current Illinois State License to sell real estate. [REDACTED] produced an index card from their files reflecting that DOMINIC BLASE had his real estate license for the State of Illinois revoked on 1/31/68, by the Illinois Real Estate Board, Department of Registration and Education. She advised that the spelling on this card is incorrect as the last name should be spelled BLASI. She advised that BLASI filed for administrative review of this matter on 3/15/68, and their files reflect BLASI took this matter to the Circuit Court, Cook County with the result that on 5/9/68, Judge HEALY, Circuit Court, reversed the Department of Registration and Education's decision and BLASI was reinstated his license to sell real estate.

b7C

[REDACTED] advised she did not know the reason BLASI'S real estate license had been revoked by the board in the first place, however she recalls the board meeting in 1968 to discuss the matter. She was not in attendance at any of the board meetings.

b7C

[REDACTED] stated that if the FBI wanted to know the details surrounding the board's decision to revoke BLASI'S real estate license a subpoena could be directed to [REDACTED] of the Regulatory Branch, Department of Registration and Education, State of Illinois, 160 N. LaSalle, Chicago.

[redacted] advised that DOMINICK BLASI is currently licensed to sell real estate in the State of Illinois under broker's license 75-57266. She stated this indicates BLASI sells real estate from his residence, 1138 Park Avenue, River Forest, Illinois. She advised BLASI pays $10.00 per year to renew his broker's license.

[redacted] at the request of SA [redacted] telephonically contacted the Department of Registration and Education, Springfield, Illinois, and it was determined that DOMINICK BLASI was first issued a broker's license on 8/1/66. It was further learned that BLASI was issued a salesman's license to sell real estate on 8/31/50.

b7C

[redacted] related that generally an individual will be issued a salesman's license and after a few years will then be issued a broker's license. She advised that an individual qualifies for the license upon successfully passing an examination given by the State of Illinois pertaining to real estate.

b7C

[redacted] advised that by having a broker's license, BLASI can sell real estate on his own, in a partnership, or with others, but that he is not required to register with the State of Illinois other than he is a broker, unless he owns a real estate corporation.

b7CDETAILS:

On February 5, 1975, Special Agents (SAs) [REDACTED] and [REDACTED] noted that the beef stand located at 5th Avenue and North Avenue, Melrose Park, Illinois, had a sign on it stating that this business was under new management. It was noted that the beef stand formerly known as Mr. B's at this location was no longer in operation and that it appeared that it was being remodeled. The business was not operational at this particular time.

Observation appeared to be noteworthy inasmuch as this location has been previously been reported as being owned by DOMINIC BLASI, and has in the past been utilized as a meeting place for many Chicago area hoodlum figures.

On February 6, 1975, SAs [] and [] went to the above mentioned location in order to attempt to identify the new management. No one was located on the premises, however, adjoining this beef stand is a business known as Dominic's Used Car Lot. Inquiry at Dominic's Used Cars determined that [] the beef stand and that he had telephone number [].

CG 92-1322

On February 14, 1975, CG T-1 advised that since SAM GIANCANA has returned to the Chicago area [REDACTED] have been DOMINIC "BUTCH" BLASI and CHARLES ENGLISH. Source advised that both BLASI and ENGLISH [REDACTED] and that ENGLISH [REDACTED]

On March 6, 1975, CG T-1 advised that DOMINIC BLASI [REDACTED]. Source stated that since BLASI's return he had been with SAM GIANCANA [REDACTED]

CG T-1 stated that BLASI rose to prominence in organized crime during the late 1950's when he became the General Functionary of TONY ACCARDO. BLASI remained with ACCARDO in this capacity for two years until GIANCANA succeeded ACCARDO as the top boss of organized crime in Chicago, at which time BLASI aligned himself with GIANCANA.

b7D

On March 20, 1975, CG T-1 advised that BUTCH BLASI has retired from his real estate interests and the Park Avenue Realty Company which he operated for several years is now defunct. Source advised that at the present time BLASI is living on his investments and on Social Security. Source advised that BLASI has recently sold his second car and now only has one car, a Cadillac, which is ordinarily driven by CONNIE BLASI his wife.

The following investigation was conducted by SA [REDACTED], at Chicago, Illinois:

b7C

On March 24, 1975, [REDACTED], Real Estate Section, Department of Registration and Education, 160 North La Salle Street, State of Illinois Building, Chicago, Illinois, business telephone [REDACTED], was contacted at her place of employment relative to captioned individual's possession of a current Illinois State License to sell real estate. [REDACTED] produced an index card from their files reflecting that DOMINIC BLASE had his real estate license for the State of Illinois Department of Registration and Education. She advised that the spelling on this card is incorrect as the last name should be spelled BLASI. She advised that BLASI filed for administrative review of this matter to the Circuit Court, Cook County with the result that on

CG 92-1322

May 9, 1968, Judge HEALY, Circuit Court, reversed the Department of Registration and Education's decision and BLASI was reinstated his license to sell real estate.

[redacted] advised she did not know the reason BLASI's real estate license had been revoked by the board in the first place, however, she recalls the board meeting in 1968 to discuss the matter. She was not in attendance at any of the board meetings.

b7C

[redacted] stated that if the Federal Bureau of Investigation (FBI) wanted to know the details surrounding the board's decision to revoke BLASI's real estate license a subpoena could be directed to [redacted]

[redacted] Regulatory Branch, Department of Registration and Education, State of Illinois, 160 North La Salle, Chicago.

b7C

[redacted] advised that DOMINICK BLASI is currently licensed to sell real estate in the State of Illinois under broker's license 75-57266. She stated this indicates BLASI sells real estate from his residence, 1138 Park Avenue, River Forest, Illinois. She advised BLASI pays $10.00 per year to renew his broker's license.

[redacted] at the request of SA [redacted] telephonically contacted the Department of Registration and Education, Springfield, Illinois, and it was determined that DOMINICK BLASI was first issued a broker's license on August 1, 1966. It was further learned that BLASI was issued a salesman's license to sell real estate on August 31, 1950.

b7C

[redacted] related that generally an individual will be issued a salesman's license and after a few years will then be issued a broker's license. She advised that an individual qualifies for the license upon successfully passing an examination given by the State of Illinois pertaining to real estate.

b7C

[redacted] advised that by having a broker's license, BLASI can sell real estate on his own, in a partnership, or with others, but that he is not required to register with the State of Illinois other than he is a broker, unless he owns a real estate corporation.

Carey to subpoena hoods at party for Giancana

By James Elsener
and John O'Brien

TOP CRIME SYNDICATE leaders who attended a homecoming party Thursday night for former crime boss Sam Giancana shortly before he was murdered will be called to testify before a Cook County grand jury, State's Atty. Bernard Carey said Saturday.

"We haven't got the names of all the people who were there yet," said Carey, but he said at least two of those to be subpoenaed are Charles [Chuckie] English and Dominick Blasi.

English is known as a jukebox racketeer and gambling kingpin. Blasi has been described as a Giancana bodyguard and general flunky.

CAREY SAID A subpoena also might be issued for Anthony [Big Tuna] Accardo, long time syndicate chieftain, who it is believed that he did not attend the party.

The subpoenas should be issued the first part of this week, Carey added.

Giancana was shot seven times in the basement of his home while he was preparing a snack of sausage and spinach. His body was discovered by a caretaker shortly before midnight Thursday.

It is believed that Giancana, a 67-year-old widower, was killed by the syndicate to keep him from revealing mob secrets to a federal grand jury. He had testified before the jury four times and was scheduled to appear once more.

TWO DAYS BEFORE his murder Giancana left a Houston hospital, where he had undergone gall bladder surgery in a manner that police said best described his lifestyle: unpredictable.

After assuring his doctor he would stay until completely recovered, he slipped on a white gown and walked out the back door, posing as a doctor to throw off Houston police who were keeping him under surveillance.

But not before he had paid the medical bill with a son in law's credit card.

BY THE TIME the embarrassed detectives realized Giancana was no longer in intensive care, he had already returned to his room in the Warwick Hotel and checked out. He was waiting in the lobby for a cab when they found him.

There, he convinced two of the detectives there would be no more tricks, and while they waited outside to follow the cab, Giancana disappeared out a back door.

Houston police weren't able to pick up the trail again, and two days later — last Thursday — Giancana returned to his Oak Park home. That night, after a welcome home party, someone put seven slugs into him, ending his career of crime.

Virgil Peterson, at 70 perhaps Giancana's oldest living foe, said he was surprised that the former operating boss of the syndicate here "hadn't been killed earlier."

PETERSON, A former Federal Bureau of Investigation agent, was operating director of the Chicago Crime Commission and had followed Giancana's climb in the crime syndicate for nearly 30 years.

Peterson said the mobster had made so many enemies because of his "unpredictable and often violent nature" that it was only a matter of time before one of them got even.

"All of Sam's escapades, the public pistol whippings and running around with women, got the mob a lot of notoriety it didn't want and only served to put 'heat' on other racketeers, too," said the now-retired Peterson.

"I think somebody figured he wasn't useful anymore."

Services for the slain gangster chief will be private, according to a spokesman for Montclair Funeral Home, 6901 W. Belmont Av. The spokesman, who said the funeral home is handling the arrangements, declined to give details on the funeral mass or wake.

On June 23, 1975, [redacted] River Forest Police Department, River Forest, Illinois, advised SA [redacted] that on the weekend of the wake for SAM GIANCANA he conducted observations at the residence of hoodlum figure DOMINIC BLASI, located at 1138 Park, River Forest, Illinois. [redacted] said that on June 21, 1975, at approximately 1:50 PM he observed a 1965 Chevrolet, Corvair model, bearing 1975 Illinois license [redacted], registered to [redacted], parked at the BLASI residence.

[redacted] advised that on June 23, 1975, at approximately 8:50 AM he observed a 1972 Ford, Mustang, yellow in color, two door bearing 1975 Illinois license CSB 64 registered to DOMINIC J. BLASI, 1138 Park, River Forest, Illinois, parked at the subject's residence. [redacted] said according to the records of the Secretary of State, the above license plate is registered to DOMINIC BLASI under Illinois drivers license number B420-1701-1257 (issued August 29, 1974, and expires September 9, 1977) and describes BLASI as a white male, 5 feet 6 inches, 160 pounds, brown eyes, and brown hair. [redacted] said a further check of the records of the Secretary of State disclosed that the aforementioned license plate is also registered to another individual. He said under Illinois drivers license number 4Q0-1701-1257-2 the aforementioned license plate number is also listed to a DANIEL J. BELLEZZO, 735 Gunderson, Oak Park, Illinois. According to Motor Vehicle Records BELLEZZO is described as a white male, born September 9, 1911, 5 feet, 10 inches, 182 pounds black hair, and brown eyes.

The above is being set forth for information purposes, however, it is interesting to note that the same date of birth

On 7/15/75, TE advised that he had heard a rumor concerning the gang land execution of SAM GIANCANA. TE advised that this rumor indicated the person who killed SAM GIANCANA was "BUTCH"

BLASI. BLASI [REDACTED]

[REDACTED] TONY ACCARDO. Along the same lines, the word on the street was that who ever actually pulled the trigger on SAM GIANCANA would also be "hit."

Apparently, the New York Boss of Bosses, CARLO GAMBINO [REDACTED]

No reason was offered as to why CARLO GAMBINO would attempt to become involved in Chicago's gang land activities.

Source advised that he has learned that BUTCH BLASI, the close confidant of SAM GIANCANA, picked GIANCANA up at the airport on June 18, 1975, at 7:55 P. M. upon his return from Houston accompanied by [redacted]. During the rest of that evening and during most of the next day BLASI apparently was in the company of GIANCANA but was not in his company at the time GIANCANA was executed in gangland style during the late evening of June 19, 1975.

Source advised that he has no specific knowledge of either the motive for the execution of GIANCANA or the identity or identities of the individual or individuals involved. Source speculated at some length concerning his ideas insofar as the motives are concerned but no one of his theories hold much more weight than any other. Source advised that BLASI [redacted]

Bodyguard linked to Giancana slaying

Mob boss Sam Giancana's bodyguard, Dominio Blasi, was seen entering Giancana's home shortly before Giancana was murdered, State's Atty. Bernard Carey's investigators disclosed Monday.

Earlier Blasi, several other hoodlums and one of Giancana's three daughters and her husband attended a "welcome home" party for Giancana in his home the night of the slaying.

Blasi, Giancana's longtime bodyguard and chauffeur, left the party and was seen returning to Giancana's home by Giancana's youngest daughter, Marlene, and her husband, lawyer Jerome DePalma, 36, of Schiller Park, investigators said.

"They rolled down their car window and talked to Blasi as he drove back to Giancana's house," said a top investigator in Carey's office.

"We have other witnesses who saw Blasi enter Giancana's home and saw Blasi's car parked there after that."

DE PALMA testified before the Cook County grand jury in the slaying investigation under a grant of immunity from prosecution last Jan. 14. His wife testified last November under a similar immunity grant.

Investigators said that at the time Blasi was spotted returning to Giancana's fortress-like home at 2147 S. Wenonah, Oak Park, the welcome home party had broken up.

"Blasi came back after everybody had left," the top investigator said.

HOWEVER, BLASI, 54, one of the few persons the jumpy Giancana trusted, has insisted that Giancana was still alive when he left the Giancana home some time later, investigators said.

Blasi told investigators that he has no idea who may have killed the 67-year-old Giancana. Blasi was a pallbearer at Giancana's funeral.

Investigators said that they have zeroed in on Blasi's movements from the time he was spotted driving back to the Giancana home by the De Palmas.

INVESTIGATORS said that they believe Giancana knew his killer and let him into the Giancana home shortly after 1 p.m. last June 19 as Giancana was cooking a snack of sausage and greens.

Giancana's 81-year-old caretaker, Joseph Di Persio, who lived in an attic apartment with his wife, said he discovered Giancana slain at 1:53 p.m. Giancana had been shot once in the mouth and five times in the neck with a .22-caliber pistol.

Two days before his murder, Giancana had left a Houston hospital after having gall bladder surgery. The party at his home was to welcome him back. Mob chieftain Charles (Chuckie) English was among other hoodlums at the affair.

INVESTIGATORS said that they suspect that Giancana was ordered slain by other mob bosses who feared he might blurt out crime syndicate secrets to a federal grand jury to keep from being sent to prison.

The pistol that was used to kill him was found Aug. 19 in a forest preserve across from 135 N. Thatcher in River Forest.

Carey's investigators said last Jan. 27 that they were "very close" to solving the slaying. Carey's top aides said again Friday that they remain convinced that the slaying will be solved.

Enclosed for New York are two copies of a newspaper article appearing in the "Chicago Daily News," Chicago, Illinois, on 4/12/76, captioned "GIANCANA Slain By NY Mobster, Police Told."

As New York aware, GIANCANA was murdered in the basement of his Oak Park, Illinois residence late evening 6/19/76. Investigation relative to the murder by the FBI and by local investigators indicates that GIANCANA's chauffeur and personal body guard, DOMINIC JOSEPH BLASI, was in the GIANCANA residence close to the time GIANCANA was murdered. Investigation to date circumstantially ties BLASI to the murder, however evidence in the way of testimony by individuals who were at the GIANCANA residence the evening GIANCANA was murdered and who left prior to the murder is not sufficient enough at this point to indict BLASI for the crime.

Above referred to enclosure claims that an informer for the New York Police Department has told NYPD homicide investigators that GIANCANA was slain by New York mob figure [redacted]

SAM GIANCANA MURDER INVESTIGATION

On December 1, 1975, [REDACTED], Assistant State's Attorney, Cook County States Attorney's Office, advised that [REDACTED] appeared before the Cook County Grand Jury investigating the murder of SAM GIANCANA. [REDACTED] was uncooperative and his subpoena was continued to December 12, 1975. Also scheduled to appear on December 12, 1975, were [REDACTED]

[REDACTED]
evening GIANCANA was murdered, June 19, 1975. [REDACTED]

On February 18, 1976, [redacted] and [redacted] of the Cook County States Attorney's Office met with Attorney-in-Charge [redacted] Chicago Strike Force, and Special Agents (SAs) [redacted] and [redacted] Federal Bureau of Investigation (FBI), Chicago. Meeting was called by representatives of the Cook County States Attorney's Office for the purpose of discussing the SAM GIANCANA murder. During the course of discussion, it was made known by [redacted] that when [redacted] appeared before the Cook County Grand Jury on December 12, 1975,

[redacted]
b6
b7C
b7D

[redacted] appeared to be in direct contradiction to his interview by Bureau Agents on January 12, 1976. This fact was noted to Attorney-in-Charge [redacted] following the meeting with representatives from the Cook County States Attorney's Office. [redacted] was of the opinion it appeared as if [redacted] and the States Attorney's Office should be made aware of the contents of Bureau Agents interview [redacted].

b6
b7C
b7D

On February 23, 1976, a copy of the interview of [redacted] made available to [redacted] by Attorney-in-Charge [redacted]

On April 5, 1976, an article appeared in the "Chicago Daily News", Chicago, Illinois, captioned "Bodyguard Linked to Giancana Slaying." The article explained that DOMINIC BLASI had visited the GIANCANA residence the evening GIANCANA was murdered.

b7C

On April 14, 1976, [redacted] Assistant Cook County States Attorney's advised SA [redacted] that their investigation relative to the murder of GIANCANA circumstantially links BLASI to the murder, however, their case is far from being at the indictment stage and unless witnesses testify to BLASI's departure from the GIANCANA residence at approximately the same time GIANCANA was murdered, BLASI will not be indicted for the GIANCANA murder.

ADMINISTRATIVE

As Bureau aware, subject of this captioned matter has been the principal suspect in the murder of SAM GIANCANA on 6/19/75. Investigation relative to the GIANCANA murder conducted by local law enforcement agencies within the Chicago Division indicates that BLASI was circumstantially involved with the murder; however, testimony before the Cook County Grand Jury and evidence gathered to date is not sufficient to indict BLASI for complicity in the murder.

During the period of time that BLASI was considered to be the principal suspect in the murder of GIANCANA, the Chicago Division cooperated with local law enforcement officials investigating the murder, and furnished information deemed valuable to their investigation. Since the murder of GIANCANA, the Chicago Division, in the course of assisting local law enforcement, has not conducted overt investigation relative to BLASI so as not to interfere with substantive investigation being conducted by local law enforcement. This matter has been followed through Chicago sources and investigations peripheral to DOMINIC BLASI.

During June, 1976, SA WILLIAM F. ROEMER, Chicago, contacted [redacted], Cook County States Attorney, and learned the Cook County States Attorney does not have sufficient evidence to indict BLASI for the murder of GIANCANA. [redacted] indicated he does not plan to present evidence to the Grand Jury which would lead to the indictment of BLASI.

Synopsis: On 6/7/76, [REDACTED], Cook County States Attorney, Chicago, Illinois, advised his office will not seek indictment of DOMINIC BLASI on conspiracy to murder, or murder of SAMUEL M. GIANCANA. His office does not possess sufficient evidence to present to the Grand Jury for return of true bill. Additional responsibilities have been given to DOMINIC BLASI by Chicago Organized Crime leaders, as it appears BLASI will not be indicted by Cook County Grand Jury.

DETAILS:

DOMINIC JOSEPH BLASI and his wife, CONSTANCE, continue to reside at 1138 North Park Avenue, River Forest, Illinois.

DOMINIC BLASI, semi-retired as a real estate broker, maintains his Illinois broker's license and acts as a real estate broker on a limited basis. He sells real estate on a referral basis from his residence.

On June 7, 1976, Special Agent (SA) WILLIAM F. ROEMER contacted [REDACTED] Cook County States Attorney, Chicago. [REDACTED] advised he does not believe their office has sufficient evidence to present the entire matter to the Cook County Grand Jury to secure an indictment of DOMINIC JOSEPH BLASI. [REDACTED] does not plan to present this matter to the Cook County Grand Jury.

On September 15, 1976, () Probate Attorney, representing the heirs to the SAMUEL M. GIANCANA estate, advised that the auction of the personal effects of GIANCANA's residence (consisting of a collection of quality porcelain figurines, jewelry, French antique furniture and prints and paintings) grossed the heirs $79,464.00 with a net figure of $63,867.40. The difference between the net and gross figures went for commission on the sale of the items and for repair of some of the porcelain and furniture. The GIANCANA residence was sold for $69,500 and a commission of $4,170.00 was paid to the realtor (DOMINICK BLASI). As of September, 1976, the heirs to the GIANCANA estate still had not sold any of the property comprising the Lawrence River Road Trust as they had not been offered a price commensurate with their desired asking price.

A portion of the Lawrence River Road Trust, property located at the northwest corner of Fifth Avenue and North Avenue, Melrose Park, Illinois, had formerly housed a beef stand and a used car sales yard known as Dominick Motors. During January, 1977, it was noted that Dominick Motors is no longer in business at the former location and the only source of revenue now existing on this property is a beef stand. It should be noted in this regard the combined monthly rental for both businesses located on this property totalled $3,000, $2,000 being the monthly rental for the used car sales lot. Dominick Motors has since moved to Streamwood, Illinois. DOMINICK BLASI had in the past handled aspects of the rental property at the above location, however, investigation to date has not disclosed BLASI had anything to do with the movement of the Dominick Motors Used Car Sales to its new location.

It was mentioned above that DOMINICK BLASI is semi-retired. BLASI draws Social Security and supplements his income through selling real estate.

Criminal History

DOMINIC JOSEPH BLASI, an LCN member, was born on September 9, 1911, in the Taylor-Halsted area of Chicago, Illinois, to SANTO BLASI and SARAH BLASI, Italian immigrants from Celio Cosenza, Italy. He has a long record of arrests, beginning in 1932, with an automobile theft charge, for which he received a probationary sentence, but it appears from a review of his arrest record that the only custodial sentence he has received was a five year Federal sentence in connection with a counterfeiting charge.

As early as 1961, BLASI was identified as the body guard and chauffeur of SAMUEL GIANCANA, the deceased former boss of the outfit in Chicago ([REDACTED] SA HILL). In 1963, information was received that BLASI was associated with practically every known member of the Chicago criminal organization headed by GIANCANA and that when GIANCANA was away from Chicago, BLASI [REDACTED].

On November 4, 1971, information was received indicating that BLASI [REDACTED] GIANCANA's [REDACTED].

In view of the above, it is somewhat ironic that BLASI was designated the primary suspect in the murder of GIANCANA on June 19, 1975. This designation was predicated upon strong circumstantial evidence - BLASI's presence at the GIANCANA residence close to the estimated time of the murder.
