COURT RULES ON MOTIONS OF DEFENDANTS

On February 20, 1961, the court denied a motion by Louis Dragna later joined in by Joseph Sica that they be afforded copies of all statements and tape recordings of interviews with victim Jackie Leonard.

In regard to the motion made by Truman Gibson, Jr., through his attorneys, that he had been misled by Government counsel and refused a speedy trial, U. S. District Judge Ernest A. Tolin decided that upon review of law he was convinced this motion was improper and therefore dismissed it.

Special Prosecutor Alvin H. Goldstein has indicated he may ask that the bail of all defendants be revoked at the outset of the trial and there have been some indications that the judge may acquiesce to this request and further order the jury sequestered.

While talking to the Attorney General on another matter, I stated that incidentally there was an adjournment in Los Angeles in the Palermo Case because the Circuit Court of Appeals is hearing the motions on the refusal of bail. The Attorney General inquired how Special Assistant to the Attorney General Alvin Goldstein, who is prosecuting the case, was going. I stated, of course, it had hardly started, but so far as I had heard from our office there, he was doing all right. I stated Goldstein was not appearing in the Circuit Court as an Assistant United States Attorney was appearing, but so far as our office is concerned, Goldstein is all right.

The Attorney General commented that a fellow named [redacted] out in Los Angeles wants to handle the tax case on [redacted] and inquired if I had any report on him, that he is an Assistant United States Attorney. The Attorney General stated they had sent two fellows out from the Tax Division, but this is a young fellow, about [redacted] years of age, and they say he is good and the Attorney General was wondering how he was. I stated I would make a check on him and let him know. The Attorney General stated this is an important case, as I knew. I stated I would find out from our people in Los Angeles what his standing and ability are in the United States Attorney's office. Mr. Evans was instructed to handle this.

PRETRIAL MANUVERING BY DEFENSE

Gibson through his attorneys has filed a motion to dismiss the indictment against him on grounds he has been denied speedy trial and due to the fact of his having alleged to have been misled by the Government counsel into believing that if he gave a statement the indictment would be dismissed. He alleged he gave such statement which prolonged the proceedings and the Government has now refused to dismiss the charge. The motion will be heard February 21, 1961. As a matter of interest, Gibson, on March 17, 1960, requested interview by U. S. Attorney in Chicago, Illinois, concerning this case. After several days of negotiations in which Gibson was the aggressor, an exploratory and inconclusive interview was had with the U. S. Attorney at which time Gibson stated that conditions set by the U. S. Attorney for his becoming a Government witness were too strict.

[redacted] attorney for Louis Dragna, has filed motion to direct Government to produce all statements and tape recordings of statements taken from Leonard. In conversation with Goldstein he argued informally his client should be discharged for lack of evidence of guilt. [redacted] indicated Dragna will take witness stand in his behalf and desires commitments from prosecutor that Leonard's statements would be made available to the defense and if Leonard would take the stand.

Special Prosecutor Goldstein informed him no commitments of any kind would be made outside of court, declined to answer his inquiries concering Leonard's testimony, and indicated when trial begins he will immediately ask court to revoke bail of all defendants. for duration. Since defense has no right to any statement of a witness until after the witness testifies and since Gibson has completely misstated the facts, Goldstein plans to vigorously oppose motions and expressed opinion Government's position will prevail.

It should be noted that [redacted] is a former Special Agent, having served in the Bureau from August 12, 1940, to April 28, 1948, at which time he resigned to practice law in partnership with [redacted] a West Coast criminal lawyer. This is to advise relative to the adjournment of the trial of Palermo and others in the U. S. District Court at Los Angeles, California, on February 28, 1961.

At the outset of this trial, U. S. District Court Judge Tolin ordered revocation of the bail bonds and all five defendants committed to the custody of the Marshal. Truman Gibson was subsequently released on $5,000 bond. Subjects Frank "Blinky" Palermo, Paul John Carbo, Louis Dragna, and Joseph Sica were denied bonds. The four defendants who were denied bonds on February 24, 1961, appealed to the Circuit Court of Appeals at San Francisco* and the hearing was set for February 28, 1961. Arguments were heard on that date on the defense appeal and the court took the matter under consideration and has as yet not rendered a decision.

*Ninth Circuit

The right of the Judge to deny defendants on trial the right to make bond has just been upheld by Justice Harlan of the United States Supreme Court. In the narcotics case involving [redacted] and [redacted] and many others in New York City, the U. S. District Court Judge denied the defendants the right to make bail and has held them in jail during the period of the trial. Four of them, including [redacted] and [redacted] appealed and the Circuit Court of Appeals for the Second Circuit upheld the U. S. District Court Judge. An appeal was made and argument had before Justice Harlan of the Supreme Court last week and on February 27, 1961, he filed a one-man opinion upholding the Circuit Court and the U. S. District Court Judge in his right to deny defendants the right to bond while the case is pending trial.

EX-110 REC- 60 92-4092-225

11 MAR 3 1961

This decision of Justice Harlan upholding the Government was brought to the attention of Government counsel arguing the case in the Ninth Circuit, who in turn brought it to the attention of the court. Advice was received that the Ninth Circuit Court of Appeals would await the printed opinion of Justice Harlan in the New York case before deciding the appeal in this matter.

Trial is expected to resume today.

AND ANSWER STATEMENT MADE BY LEONARD TO LOS ANGELES POLICE DEPARTMENT AT OUTSET OF THEIR INVESTIGATION, WHICH WAS PRIOR TO FBI INQUIRY, AND COPY OF TESTIMONY TRANSCRIPT BEFORE CALIFORNIA STATE ATHLETIC COMMISSION HEARING MAY TWENTY, FIFTY NINE, AT LOS ANGELES. DEFENSE ALLEGED OTHER STATEMENTS WERE IN EXISTENCE, SUCH AS FEDERAL GRAND JURY TRANSCRIPT, WHICH GOVERNMENT DENIED. DEFENSE ASKED COURT TO REVIEW FBI FILE TO MAKE CERTAIN ALL STATEMENTS BY LEONARD HAD BEEN FURNISHED DEFENSE. JUDGE ERNEST A. TOLIN RULED HE WOULD EXAMINE FBI FILE IN CAMERA FOR THIS PURPOSE. I PERSONALLY CONTACTED SPECIAL PROSECUTOR GOLDSTEIN TODAY IN ORDER TO SECURE BUREAUS INTERESTS WITHIN PRESCRIBED PROCEDURES. JUDGE TOLIN WAS INFORMED BY GOLDSTEIN AND ME THAT ALL SIGNED STATEMENTS GIVEN TO THE FBI BY LEONARD WERE CONTAINED IN INVESTIGATIVE REPORTS FURNISHED BY TH FBI TO U.S. ATTORNEY, LOS ANGELES. U.S. ATTORNEY'S ~~USAS~~ COPY OF THESE REPORTS WERE FURNISHED BY GOLDSTEIN TO JUDGE TOLIN. JUDGE TOLIN PERSONALLY ASSURED ME THAT THESE INVESTIGATIVE REPORTS WOULD BE MADE AVAILABLE TO NO ONE. AND WERE SOLELY FOR HIS IN CAMERA INSPECTION FOR PURPOSES STATED ABOVE. JUDGE TOLIN FURTHER ASSURED ME THAT THE ONLY ITEMS HE INTENDED TO FURNISH DEFENSE COUNSEL WERE THE SIGNED STATEMENTS TAKEN FROM WITNESS LEONARD. BERNARD GLICKMAN, CHICAGO, FORMER CO-MANAGER OF VIRGIL AKINS, IS UNDER SUBPOENA BY GOVERNMENT. HE DECLINED ON ADVICE OF COUNSEL TO BE INTERVIEWED BY SPECIAL PROSECUTOR BEFORE TAKING WITNESS STAND, STATING IF CALLED AS WITNESS HE

GOLDSTEIN IF FIRST ASSURED NO FEDERAL PROSECUTION WOULD ENSUE
BECAUSE OF PRIOR FALSE STATEMENTS MADE BY GLICKMAN TO KEFAUVER
COMMITTEE, NEW YORK GRAND JURY OR FBI IN THIS INVESTIGATION STATED HE FELT INCONSISTENCIES COULD BE FOUND BUT THAT THEY WERE EXPLAINABLE. GOLDSTEIN CONTACTED ATTORNEY GENERAL KENNEDY
BY PHONE, WAS ASSURED THAT IF GLICKMAN TOLD TRUTH, NO FEDERAL PROSECUTION FOR FALSE STATEMENT WOULD ENSUE. GOULD THEN GAVE
WHAT INFORMATION HIS CLIENT WOULD GIVE IF QUESTIONED. GOLDSTEIN
CONSIDERED THIS INSUFFICIENT, ADVISED GOULD HE WOULD ASK COURT TO CALL GLICKMAN AS COURTS WITNESS BECAUSE GOVERNMENT DOES NOT

WHEN JORDAN WAS IN BALTIMORE FOR CANDY MC FARLAND FIGHT LAST SPRING HE RECEIVED PHONE CALL FROM [redacted] INQUIRING IF JORDAN WOULD GO ALONG WITH THE PROPOSITION PREVIOUSLY PROPOSED. JORDAN SAID HE TOLD [redacted] ON BOTH OCCASIONS HE DID NOT INTEND TO PARTICIPATE. STATES HE LOST FIGHT AT BALTIMORE BY DECISION BECAUSE FIGHT WAS POSTPONED SEVERAL TIMES AND HE BECAME DISGUSTED. SAID PROPOSED ARRANGEMENT WAS DESIRED BY [redacted] FOR TITLE FIGHT AT LAS VEGAS BETWEEN JORDAN AND BENNY PARET, LIKEWISE REFUSED BY JORDAN, ALTHOUGH PARET WON TITLE THAT FIGHT. JORDAN CLAIMS TO BE MAKING SERIOUS EFFORT AT COMEBACK AS BOXER. JOSEPH SICA APPEARED IN COURT THIS MORNING WITH GAUZE MASK OVER NOSE AND MOUTH, ATTACHED WITH ADHESIVE TAPE. HES ATTORNEY ANNOUNCED THAT COUNTY JAIL MEDICAL EXAMINATION HAD DISCOVERED SICA IS POSSIBLY TUBERCULAR, ASKED FOR MISTRIAL FOR SICA. MOTION WAS DENIED. DEFENSE ATTORNEY [redacted] OBJECTED TO HAVING SICA IN COURT IN THAT PHYSICAL CONDITION. JUDGE RULED HE WOULD HAVE IMPARTIAL PHYSICIAN EXAMINE SICA THOROUGHLY, DIRECTED SICA TO DEPOSIT SEVENTY FIVE DOLLARS WITH COURT CLERK TO PAY FOR EXAMINATION. AT CONCLUSION OF COURT TODAY, COURT WAS ADVISED VIA TELEPHONE FROM SAN FRANCISCO THAT

NINTH CIRCUIT COURT OF APPEALS HAD HANDED DOWN ELEVEN PAGE OPINION ON BAIL MATTER PENDING THERE REGARDING EFFORTS OF THESE DEFENDANTS TO OBTAIN RELEASE ON BAIL. ORDER REPORTEDLY SUSTAINED POWER OF DISTRICT COURT JUDGE TO COMMIT DEFENDANTS BUT HELD THAT COURT HAD INSUFFICIENT REASON AT TIME TO SO RULE. INDICATIONS ARE APPELLATE COURT HAS INDICATED THAT TRIAL COURT MAY ISSUE NEW ORDER IF EVIDENCE NOW SUFFICIENT TO SUSTAIN SUCH RULING. JUDGE TOLIN SET HEARING FOR SATURDAY AFTERNOON, WHEN WRITTEN OPINION OF CIRCUIT COURT WILL BE AVAILABLE FOR EXAMINATION. GOVERNMENT COUNSEL INTENDS AT THAT TIME TO MOVE COURT FOR NEW ORDER THAT DEFENDANTS NOW IN CUSTODY BE HELD WITHOUT BAIL FOR DURATION OF TRIAL, WILL OFFER IN SUPPORT NUMEROUS REFERENCES IN TESTIMONY ALREADY INTRODUCED THAT VIOLENCE HAS BEEN THREATENED THIS MATTER, AND DEFENDANTS HAVE PROPENSITIES TO FLEE. WILL ARGUE THAT PRIMA FACIE CASE HAS BEEN MADE AGAINST ALL DEFENDANTS AND TENDENCY TO FLEE NOW IS GREATER THAN BEFORE SUCH EVIDENCE WAS PRESENTED AGAINST THEM. BUREAU WILL BE ADVISED ALL DEVELOPMENTS. P.

DAILY SUMMARY. U. S. DISTRICT COURT, LOS ANGELES, CONVENED THIS AFTERNOON TO REVIEW OPINION RENDERED BY NINTH CIRCUIT COURT OF APPEALS, WHICH DIRECTED DISTRICT COURT TO FIX BAIL FOR DEFENDANTS CARBO, PALERMO, SICA AND DRAGNA, UNLESS THE COURT HAD ADDITIONAL REASONS THAN THOSE PREVIOUSLY GIVEN BY COURT FOR DENYING BAIL TO THOSE DEFENDANTS FOR DURATION OF TRIAL. COURT ANNOUNCED THAT MANDATE OF CIRCUIT COURT HAD NOT BEEN RECEIVED SO HE HAD NOTHING UPON WHICH TO ACT. DEFENSE STATED THEY WOULD MAKE NEW MOTION FOR BAIL BASED UPON THE COPIES OF CIRCUIT COURT OPINION WHICH THEY HAD OBTAINED AND WERE AVAILABLE TO COURT. The trial of this case continues to proceed and Judge Tolin is retaining a firm hand over the defense attorneys. Victim Jackie Leonard has completed his direct testimony and cross-examination has started. It is anticipated the cross-examination will continue all next week.

Bernard Glickman, former co-manager of fighter Virgil Akins, is under subpoena by the Government as a witness. He previously declined on advice of his own counsel to be interviewed by Special Prosecutor Alvin H. Goldstein, Jr., but has agreed to testify truthfully in court. b7D

[redacted]

Glickman's attorney then gave what information his client would give if questioned. Goldstein considered this insufficient and advised that he would ask the court to call Glickman as the court's witness because the Government does not wish to vouch for Glickman under the circumstances. Glickman may take the Fifth Amendment.

SAC Simon, Los Angeles, telephonically advised that the direct testimony from witness Jackie Leonard had been concluded and that he made a good witness.

At the conclusion of Leonard's testimony, the defense made a motion that four signed statements given by Leonard to the FBI be turned over to the defense attorneys. U. S. District Judge Tolin stated that he desired to make an in camera inspection of the FBI file to determine whether any other statements were available other than the four specifically requested by the defense attorneys.

SAC Simon advised that Alvin H. Goldstein, Special Prosecutor for the Government, is fully aware of the Bureau's interests and has no objections to the signed statements obtained from Leonard being made available to the defense. Goldstein is of the opinion the United States Attorney's file containing the Bureau reports will be sufficient for the Judge's use without calling upon the Bureau for its file.

We have reviewed the statements in question, as has the Los Angeles Office, and there appears to be nothing objectionable in the signed statements.

SAC Simon is following this matter closely and will keep the Bureau fully advised concerning further developments.

SAC Simon, Los Angeles, called with reference to the sumptuous meals being obtained by the defendants in this case. He stated the meals are being brought into the U. S. Marshal's Office when the court is in recess at noon. SAC Simon said that Judge Tolin has said it was all right to have food sent in to the defendants and for their families to visit them at reasonable times while in the U. S. Marshal's custody. He stated the food is inspected by the U. S. Marshal and that there is no indication that food is being sent into the jail where they are incarcerated, only into the U. S. Marshal's Office.

SAC Simon stated that [redacted] furnished the above information and when the food is brought in at the noon recess today [redacted] is going to discreetly endeavor to find out who is responsible for sending it to the defendants.

SAC Simon stated that Mr. and Mrs. Truman Gibson and Gibson's brother, [redacted] one of the defense attorneys); [redacted] defense attorney); and [redacted] a relative of "Blinky," are all staying at the Ambassador Hotel, Los Angeles, and any one of them could be responsible for the food being sent to the Marshal's Office.

SAC Simon stated that Harry Jenkinson, an SAC contact at the Ambassador Hotel, is discreetly trying to ascertain who is responsible for sending the food through a discreet check of the billings.

SAC Simon is to keep the Bureau advised of any other information he develops. He is continuing to discreetly check this matter out.

SUBJECT: FRANK "BLINKY" PALERMO, AKA, ET AL.
JACKIE LEONARD, AKA - VICTIM, ET AL.
EXTORTION, ANTI-RACKETEERING, CONSPIRACY

In line with the Director's inquiry regarding the most recent District Court ruling denying bail to four subjects in this case, there follows a brief summary of the situation.

On 2/21/61, when trial commenced, the Government made a motion that bail for all subjects be revoked. U. S. District Judge Tolin ruled in favor of the Government, remanding Palermo, Carbo, Sica, and Dragna to the custody of the United States Marshal for the duration of the trial, but continued Truman Gibson on $5,000 bail.

Defense immediately appealed to Circuit Court, San Francisco, California, where arguments were heard on 2/28/61. The Appellate Court on 3/3/61, while sustaining the power of the District Court Judge to commit defendants, specifically directed the court to fix bail unless the court had additional reasons other than those previously stated for denying bail.

Judge Tolin continued to deny bail subject to arguments presented by both sides in view of Appellate Court's ruling.

Special Prosecutor Alvin H. Goldstein on March 4, 1961, in District Court contended that evidence presented thus far in the trial by the Government has given the defendants more reason to flee than at outset of trial. In addition, he introduced affidavits and other evidence sustaining the Government's position that subjects continue to be denied bail. Upon conclusion of arguments on March 5, 1961, Judge Tolin ruled again in favor of the Government and denied bail to subjects Palermo, Carbo, Sica, and Dragna.

The defense has indicated it will appeal this second ruling by Judge Tolin.

JACKIE LEONARD has described TOM STANLEY as about 60 years of age, formerly connected with boxing at Cleveland, Ohio. STANLEY has had boxing managers license in California in past, resides 4817 Lennox Avenue, Sherman Oaks, California, telephone ST 9-3413. At one time he held promoters license at San Bernardino, California.

California State Athletic Commission reports STANLEY has not renewed license in 1961. The following has been furnished by LEONARD:

STANLEY once shared an office with [redacted] when both were connected actively in boxing. [redacted] became much more successful in boxing circles in LEONARD's opinion, because [redacted] made connections with FRANKIE CARBO, and ultimately with international boxing club. b6 b7C

LEONARD has been friendly with STANLEY for a number of years, has used some boxers in matches at Hollywood Legion Stadium who were under contract to STANLEY, when LEONARD was matchmaker and promoter. After LEONARD was squeezed out financially at the Hollywood Legion Stadium in September, 1959, he was unemployed for about three months.

Most of his acquaintances seemed to forget him, but STANLEY remained friendly. LEONARD owed STANLEY $1500 arising out of business transaction related to Mexican boxer, of which LEONARD reportedly has repaid all but about $300, and has paid STANLEY $300 interest on the loan. LEONARD has been making about weekly payments of $25 to STANLEY to retire loan.

About January or February, 1960, according to LEONARD, STANLEY suggested LEONARD was big loser in boxing at Los Angeles, as others connected with situation were making money, while LEONARD had lost his boxing club, was heavily in debt and could not predict future, including possibility someone might harm him.

This and other conversations with STANLEY were friendly, with STANLEY acting as a sympathizer. STANLEY once suggested that as he knew defendent JOSEPH SICA, wanted no misfortune to come to SICA and also was friendly with LEONARD, that he might attempt to get SICA to not be mad at LEONARD and suggested he might be able to get some money through SICA, for LEONARD to rehabilitate his financial condition and leave without fear.

STANLEY suggested his efforts would be worth 20% of what he might raise. STANLEY later told LEONARD he, STANLEY, contacted SICA, that SICA expressed desire to be cleared himself, but did not care what happened to the other defendants. LEONARD was served a subpoena to testify in the boxing trial, which had been rescheduled about that time, so informed STANLEY, and refused to participate in arrangement suggested by STANLEY, commenting he did not want to be a fugitive.

LEONARD admits his financial reversals and fear of possible ultimate harm because of his testimony at that time, caused him great concern. He had moments of regret that he had ever gotten into this situatin because of the troubles which later beset him. His ultimate decision was to tell the truth and to withstand the consequences.

STANLEY told LEONARD he does not wish to be called as a witness in this case. STANLEY has previously been interviewed by prosecutors of this case. LEONARD was cross-examined during trial of captioned matter briefly regarding his association with STANLEY. Prosecutors issued subpoena for STANLEY on 3/8/61. Process servers determined on 3/9/61 that STANLEY is now in Mexico and subpoena could not be served.

MR. DE LOACH

While talking to the Attorney General when he called on another matter, I advised him that Jackie Leonard's testimony in the Palermo Case is standing up pretty good on re-cross examination. I stated Leonard was a little mixed up on cross examination, but the Government attorney had gotten that straightened out.

I told the Attorney General I had also sent him a memorandum regarding the defendants buying their own meals, although I did not know what the rules of prisons were. The Attorney General stated he had sent the memorandum to Assistant Attorney General Miller of the Criminal Division and asked Miller for an explanation. I stated it seems a person ought not be allowed such luxury just because he has money while some inmate who is poor has to take the meals served him.

Very truly yours,

I thought you would be interested in knowing that subjects Palermo, Carbo, Dragna and Sica, all of whom have been remanded to the custody of the United States Marshal for the duration of the trial, have been served meals provided by outside caterers. It was the opinion of Chief Deputy United States Marshal [redacted] that these meals were being paid for by either [redacted] Truman Gibson or one of the defense attorneys.

Furthermore, [redacted] recently escorted [redacted] manager of middleweight contender, Sugar Ray Robinson, to the United States Marshal's detention room where [redacted] spoke briefly with Carbo.

IN THE SUPREME COURT OF THE UNITED STATES

OCTOBER TERM, 1960

No. 839

PAUL JOHN CARBO, ET AL., PETITIONERS

UNITED STATES OF AMERICA

ON APPLICATION FOR BAIL PENDING PETITION FOR A WRIT OF CERTIORARI TO THE UNITED STATES COURT OF APPEALS FOR THE NINTH CIRCUIT

MEMORANDUM FOR THE UNITED STATES IN OPPOSITION

STATEMENT

Petitioners seek bail pending their application to review the judgment of the Court of Appeals for the Ninth Circuit which affirmed the order of the District Court for the Southern District of California remanding them to custody during trial and denying their motions for readmittance to bail. The trial has been in progress since February 21, and it is anticipated that presentation of the government's case will be completed about March 27, 1961. Although, as noted, there is a petition for a writ of certiorari to the Court (the Court of Appeals deeming the order denying bail appealable under Stack v. Boyle, 342 U.S. 1), it seems evident that the decision on the motion for bail will, as a practical matter, be dispositive of the proceeding since the trial will probably be concluded before there can be action in ordinary course on the petition for a writ of certiorari and before the case could be heard and decided if certiorari were granted. For this reason, the government consents that this memorandum in opposition to bail be considered as also in response to the petition for certiorari, if the Court should so desire.

1. The proceedings in general

Petitioners are on trial under an indictment in ten counts charging them with obstructing interstate commerce by extortion, transmission of threats in interstate commerce, and conspiracy to commit such offenses. At the opening of trial on February 21, counsel for the government orally moved to remand to custody petitioners and a co-defendant Gibson (not involved in the present application) in order to maintain orderly proceedings and assure the presence of the petitioners during the course of the trial. The district court granted that motion, but on March 3, 1961, the Court of Appeals reversed, indicating that the record before it did not show a sufficient foundation for the District Court's action (Pet. App. A). The Court of Appeals understood the District Court to be relying primarily on the danger that some of the defendants would abscond and ruled that a sufficient foundation to establish that fact had not been laid. The court made it clear, however, that it recognized that a district court did have power to order a remand and that it was not precluding the district court from making such an order in this case if a sufficient showing was made.

In the District Court, the petitioners reapplied for admission to bail on March 4. By that time, the government's chief witness, Leonard Blakely, known as Jackie Leonard, had testified on direct examination. In opposing the application for bail the government stated that it would rely on his testimony (Tr. 538)[1/]. The most directly relevant portions are quoted in the affidavit of government counsel Robert Hinerfeld (R. 34-49). The government also submitted several other affidavits, some F.B.I. reports (R. 26-33, 50-52), the criminal records of the petitioners and other persons mentioned in the affidavits (R. 55-67), and as exhibits

1/ "Tr." refers to the transcript of the proceedings at the trial which petitioners have filed with the clerk of the Court in connection with their petition for a writ of certiorari. "R." refers to the record on appeal in the Court of Appeals to review the order of the District Court denying bail after the decision of March 3 by the Court of Appeals.

some newspaper clippings and a lead pipe mentioned in one of the affidavits, the significance of which appears from the facts set forth below.

At a hearing before the District Court on March 6, petitioners were afforded an opportunity to cross-examine the affiants on the subjects covered in their affidavits. Petitoners submitted an affidavit of petitioner Sica (R. 68-73) and a copy of a newspaper story of June 11, 1959, reporting that Los Angeles police believed that the witness Blakely had not been assaulted but had fallen when he sustained injuries in his garage on June 3, 1959.[2/] The District Court denied the motion for bail except as to a defendant, Truman Gibson, who is an attorney. The District Court found:

> Upon the showing made by the Government, including the proceedings of record in this case since it has been called for trial, the court finds that there is reason to believe that the progress of this trial may be disrupted or impeded by the flight of one or more of the defendants or by the activities of one or more of the defendants during the trial, and that the fair administration of justice itself would be thereby jeopardized.

Renewed applications, made after the cross-examination of Blakely, were denied on March 10, 1961.

The Court of Appeals affirmed the orders of the District Court, finding that the testimony and the government's showing "warrant a reasonable fear that the safety of at least one government witness may be endangered if appellants remain at large during the trial." The Court of Appeals found it unnecessary to decide whether there was sufficient evidence to support the finding that defendants would be likely to abscond.

2. The showing made by the government as to danger.

a. Leonard (Blakely) testified at the trial that he and [redacted] manager of a welterweight boxer, Don Jordan, received a telephonic demand from petitioner Palermo for a half interest in Jordan's contract, with the threat of cancellation of Jordan's title fight if the demand was not met (Tr. 267-279). Over [redacted] objection, Leonard agreed to the demand, the fight was held, and Jordan became welterweight champion in December 1958 (Tr. 281-284, 294-297). In January 1959, on repeated requests from Palermo, Leonard flew to Miami, Florida, expecting to meet a member of the International Boxing Club. He was met by Palermo and petitioner Carbo (who was then a fugitive under a New York indictment which had been given wide publicity). The two petitioners renewed their demand for a half interest in Jordan (Tr. 300-324). Leonard testified that on January 27, 1959, after Jordan had engaged in a match on January 22, Palermo called him and demanded their share, that Carbo took the telephone and made threats, saying that, even though Leonard was 2,000 miles away, he could be "taken care of" (Tr. 335-338; see R. 35, quoting the words used). On February 6, 1959, Leonard mailed a $1,725 check to one [redacted] in Philadelphia, pursuant to Palermo's instructions.

2/ As noted in fn. 4 of the opinion of the Court of Appeals in this proceeding (Pet. App. B), an affidavit by Palermo was offered and withdrawn.

After Jordan's flight on April 24, 1959, Leonard received a call from Carbo on April 28 in which Carbo called him a double-crosser and said that he would have some one get Leonard; that "when I mean get you, you are going to be dead" (Tr. 358-359; R. 36). Palermo called some time later and told Leonard he deserved such treatment from Carbo, that he was coming to the coast to see people, and they would see Leonard (Tr. 359-360; R. 39).

A few days later petitioners Palermo and Sica came to see Leonard. Sica told Leonard that he was in serious trouble and could get hurt. Sica suggested that [redacted] could be brought into line by Leonard's beating him up with their help (Tr. 365-369; R. 42-44).

The next day, Palermo appeared at Leonard's office with petitioner Dragna. In Dragna's presence, Palermo berated Leonard. Dragna told Leonard he should keep his word and that, if he did not get the matter straightened out, he could be in serious trouble (Tr. 406-408; R. 46-48).

In May 1959, Leonard had a conversation with one William Daly who had been designated by defendant Gibson to persuade Leonard and [redacted] to accede to the demands. At that conversation (at which Leonard was wearing a Minifon wire recorder), Daly told Leonard that he and [redacted] were in serious trouble. Daly recounted that a fight manager, Ray Arcel, had been bludgeoned nearly to death by hired hoodlums using a regular lead water pipe when he tried to "double cross" Carbo (Tr. 441-442; see Affidavit of United States Attorney as to the contents of the recording, R. 31-33). b6 b7C b7D

b. Leonard testified before the California State Athletic Commission on May 20, 1959 (Tr. 441). On May 30, 1959, Carbo was found in New Jersey and arrested on the New York indictment. (Statement from the F.B.I.) Thereafter, Leonard and [redacted] began receiving brief, untraceable, anonymous telephone calls. According to the affidavit of Leonard and [redacted] in the 21 months prior to February 21, 1961 (the opening of trial in this case), Leonard received over 200 threatening telephone calls at his home and business. He terminated telephone service at his home and took a leave of absence from his employment as an automobile salesman to avoid the calls. [redacted] (R. 26-28).

c. On June 3, 1959, Leonard was injured after dark in his residence garage. His affidavit was to the effect that he had been struck on the head with a chlorine bottle and kicked on both sides by persons he could not identify. [redacted] had seen lights in the garage before he returned and she had not turned them out (R. 26-28). (This is the incident as to which defendants offered a newspaper clipping to the effect that the Los Angeles police believed that Leonard had fallen.)

d. On February 20, 1961, the day before the trial commenced, b6 b7C Los Angeles police observed Di Giovanni and [redacted] two associates of petitioner Sica, who had extensive criminal records, at a restaurant in San Fernando Valley owned by Sica's brother. Later that day, the detectives stopped an automobile owned by Di Giovanni and driven by [redacted] four blocks from the residence of Leonard. Under the front seat of the car, they found a 10-inch length of pipe with a hand grip fashioned from black tape. The pipe was wrapped in newspaper (dated February 19, 1961) secured to the pipe with cellophane tape (R. 50-52; Cf. R. 31-33, as to Daly's account of the murder of Arcel by use of a pipe). 3/

ARGUMENT

1. Petitioners question the power of the District Court to remand them to custody during the pendency of the trial. That issue has recently been before the Court of Appeals for the Second Circuit (United States v. Bentvena, opinion filed on March 6, 1961), and before Mr. Justice Harlan as Circuit Justice in the same case (opinion sub nom. Fernandez v. United States, rendered February 27, 1961). The Ninth Circuit also considered the question in its opinion of March 3, 1961, in the present case. All of these opinions have expressed the view that such action lies within the inherent power of the District Court to control the trial before it.

The source and rationale of the power to remand defendants into custody was explicitly articulated in United States v. Rice, 192 Fed. 720, 721-722 (S.D. N.Y.) as follows:

> * * * It is an inherent power of the court and one to be exercised in its discretion the same as is the discretionary power to keep the jury together in the custody of the marshal during the criminal trial. It is not in the legal sense an imprisonment or a punishment, but a necessary step in the due administration of justice. The jury is placed in the custody of the sheriff in the state courts or of the marshal in the United States courts to insure them against outside and improper interference and influence, and why may not a defendant be placed in actual custody to render fruitless his attempts, if any to interfere with or influence jurors. 4/

3/ Both Di Giovanni and [redacted] were observed as spectators at the trial (R. 53-54).

4/ The practice of remand has been followed for many years in the Second Circuit, in appropriate cases.

Since the government submitted its memorandum on this issue to Mr. Justice Harlan in the Fernandez case, we have discovered that the Court of Appeals for the Eighth Circuit had also recognized that district courts have power to take such action in their sound discretion. Hood v. United States, 22 F. 2d 472, 475 (C.A. 8), certiorari denied, 277 U.S. 588. Accordingly, three circuits are now in accord on this issue, and there is no conflict.

While both the Rice and Hood decisions were rendered before the promulgation of the Rules of Criminal Procedure, there is no indication that the Rules were intended to effect any change. In judging the effect of the Rules, it should be borne in mind that the power to remand during trial was and is generally recognized not only in federal law, but at common law and by the states, despite the fact that the right to bail is guaranteed by state constitutions. See Wharton's Criminal Procedure (Anderson, 1957), Vol. IV, Sec. 1823, p. 666.

The notes to Rule 46(a)(1) of the Rules of Criminal Procedure state that the rule is "substantially a restatement of existing law, 18 U.S.C. former §§ 596, 597." Although the Rule is headed "before conviction," the rule in terms, much like the statute before it, speaks of the right to bail of a "person arrested for an offense", thus indicating that its primary thrust was as to the period between arrest and trial. The provision for surrender by the surety, 18 U.S.C. 3142, reads, as it did at the time of the Rice decision, that the person admitted to bail may "in vacation" be arrested by his surety. As the Rice decision indicates, this too supports the view that surrender during the trial may be ordered by the court, since the surety is not given the power to surrender during the progress of the trial.

The purpose of bail is to prevent a person from being deprived of his liberty and to avoid disruption of his normal course of life on the basis merely of charges against him. But a person actually on trial is not in the same position as one awaiting trial. He is required to be before the court for the trial, and his normal activities are necessarily interrupted by the very fact of trial. Custody during trial, therefore, does not have the same effect as if a person were remanded and kept constantly in custody while awaiting trial. As the Rice case points out, it is not essentially different from the situation where the jury is sequestered for the duration of the trial. Certainly, the trial court could remand a defendant during the trial if it became convinced that he was about to flee and thus interrupt the trial; the court would not be limited merely to increasing the bail.

2. As to the validity of the exercise of the power in this case, we submit that there is no occasion to set aside the conclusion of the district court, affirmed by a Court of Appeals, which showed, in its earlier decision in this proceeding, that it recognized that the power should be exercised sparingly and with caution. The overriding purpose of the power recognized in the Bentvena, Rice, Hood, and instant cases is to enable the trial judge to assure the orderly progress of the trial, and its completion after full and fair proceedings. The power is incident to the authority of the judge, as the governor of the trial, to direct the trial in such a way as to bring it to a speedy and proper conclusion and to prevent untoward interruptions.

The evidence at the trial, as well as the additional facts summarized in the Statement, supra, show that there was indeed good reason to believe that at least the witness Leonard-Blakely (who remains subject to call) may be in serious danger. While the testimony at the trial, relating to the events on which the indictment was based, antedate the actual trial, they do show that defendants are men capable of using threats of violence to enforce their ends. This is a factor to be considered in judging the other events immediately preceding the trial--the telephone calls to Blakely-Leonard, the possible assault upon him and the finding of the lead pipe in the car of an associate of one of the petitioners a short distance from Leonard-Blakely's home the day before the trial. While it is true that none of these events were directly tied to the petitioners, the fact remains that pressure on Leonard-Blakely was necessarily on petitioners' behalf. The present application is not a proceeding to determine guilt. This particular proceeding involves only the long-standing right of a trial court to control custody of defendants during an actual trial so that the trial will proceed without undue pressure and without possibility of improper interruption. While the Court of Appeals indicated in its first opinion that it would not rely alone upon the "feel" of a district judge with respect to such a matter, there are elements of atmosphere and tension that a trial judge does "feel" which cannot easily be articulated. The orders of the judge which are now under attack were made after the trial had been under way for some time. When as much basis for the feeling is shown as in this record, we submit that the judgment of the trial judge in a matter of this kind, accepted by the Court of Appeals, should not be overturned.

CONCLUSION

For the reasons stated, it is respectfully submitted that the application for bail should be denied.

ARCHIBALD COX,
Solicitor General

This is to advise that the prosecution completed its case on Friday, March 24, 1961. At this time the court, on its own motion, recessed trial until April 3, 1961, at which time arguments would be made by the defense for dismissal. Trial will resume following the arguments on April 4, 1961.

Judge Tolin indicated in trials of considerable length it is not unusual to have some delay between the presentation of Government and defense cases.

Special Prosecutor Alvin H. Goldstein, Jr., expressed the opinion that the Government had made a solid and adequate presentation of its case against all defendants.

DAILY SUMMARY. DEFENSE ATTORNEYS HAVE FILED WITH ~~USDC~~ U.S. District Court FOR THEIR BRIEFS IN SUPPORT OF MOTIONS AND ARGUMENTS THEY WILL MAKE APRIL THREE ASKING THE DISMISSAL OF CASE AGAINST DEFENDANTS. BRIEFS INDICATE CONSPIRACY COUNT IN INDICTMENT CAUSES DEFENSE CONSIDERABLE TROUBLE AS BY ITS NATURE COURT ALLOWS GOVERNMENT TO INTRODUCE EVIDENCE OF CONSPIRACY AND OVERT ACTS RELATING TO ANY DEFENDANT. SEPARATING THIS EVIDENCE AS IT RELATES TO PARTICULAR DEFENDANTS, WILL REQUIRE SKILLFUL DEFENSE ARGUMENT TO JURY. MEMORANDUM FOR MR. TOLSON
MR. PARSONS
MR. DELOACH

While talking to the Attorney General on another matter I referred to the Samuel M. Giancano matter. I stated that [redacted] was trying to buy [redacted] at Las Vegas and this was contingent upon his securing liquor and gaming licenses which he was seeking. I stated that Frank Sinatra had interceded on his behalf with the Sheriff and the Commissioners. I commented that in back of [redacted] were Murray Humphreys and Frank Ferraro, and no doubt these licenses will be granted. The Attorney General asked if something couldn't be done about this and I told him that I did not know what we could do; that the Commissioners were pretty venal, though we could arrange to call attention to the fact that [redacted] is fronting for hoodlums in Chicago. The Attorney General thought we should do this and stated if we wanted the Department to do anything they would be glad to do that. I told him that we had an office in Las Vegas and we could handle this. The Attorney General indicated we should be sure to indicate that we were speaking on his behalf and explain that he is quite concerned about it. He was advised that this would be handled right away.

I then mentioned that the Palermo case was going very successfully and commented that the testimony of some of the witnesses was contrary to previous statements they had made. I stated that after the trial perhaps consideration could be given to some perjury cases.

Very truly yours,

ESSENCE OF HIS TESTIMONY WAS AN EFFORT TO SHOW HE CAUSED CANCELLATION OF FIGHT PROPOSED FOR PORTERVILLE, CALIF., TELECASTING ON APRIL FIFTEEN, FIFTY NINE, RATHER THAN TRUMAN GIBSON. THIS IS BY WAY OF ATTEMPTING TO SHOW GIBSON SENT EIGHTEEN HUNDRED DOLLAR CHECK TO LEONARD FOR THAT SHOW, WHEN OTHER TESTIMONY REMAINS UNCONTROVERTED IT WAS A COVER FOR PAYMENT TO PALERMO AFTER JORDAN-GUTIERREZ FIGHT, AMOUNTING TO ABOUT FIFTEEN PERCENT OF JORDAN-S PURSE. Re Bureau airtel 5/10/61, referring to Los Angeles airtel 5/3/61, captioned [redacted] aka, AR (Los Angeles file [redacted])

When U. S. District Court Judge ERNEST A. TOLIN ordered defendants PAUL JOHN CARBO, FRANK PALERMO, JOSEPH SICA and LOUIS TOM DRAGNA sequestered without fixing bail for duration of trial which began 2/21/61, he directed that these defendants be afforded ready access to their attorneys, relatives, business associates, in order to properly prepare their defenses. He pointed out defendants had not been convicted, were held not for punishment, but to provide orderly process of trial. Court clearly provided that if these instructions are not followed he will release defendants from custody.

These four defendants are in custody of U. S. Marshal, who has defendants available in security portion of his quarters every week day from 8:00 a.m. to about 5:00 p.m., unless defendants are in court. At other times they are kept in Los Angeles County Jail.

Special Agent in Charge

Chief Deputy U. S. Marshal RAY RANSDELL advised SA [redacted] on 5/12/61, that defendants and associates have been extremely cooperative with Marshal's staff, make no demands, purchase privately own food, which is brought for defendants each day. They are quiet, do not disrupt regular procedures of office unnecessarily, and while this entire transaction does burden Marshal's staff, there is no complaint concerning defendants or associates who visit them. Judge has made periodic inquiry to see that his order is followed. b6 b7C

This treatment of defendants does vary from usual case as these defendants would be on bail if same were allowed, and court has issued specific orders as to their incarceration. These orders would seem to preclude necessity of defendants to solicit particular favors. It is understandable that a stranger to proceedings in trial might gain impression these prisoners receive preferential treatment. That they do is based on the court's order.

Information in referenced teletype is not deemed of significance to captioned trial, thus is not being brought to attention of Special Prosecutor ALVIN H. GOLDSTEIN, JR., who is well aware of court orders in captioned case.

WITKIN complained that [redacted] (PALERMO's accountant, called by prosecution as rebuttal witness) is "no good." [redacted] could have helped PALERMO, but did not, even though WITKIN talked to him before he went to Los Angeles.

WITKIN also discussed PALERMO's testimony. He did not stand up well under cross examination. Admitted he had denied knowing LOUIS DRAGNA when arrested by Los Angeles Police Department for theft $.80 worth magazines. WITKIN felt putting PALERMO on stand was risk that had to be taken because he would surely have been convicted if he failed to do so.

DETAILS:

AT LOS ANGELES, CALIFORNIA

Trial of all subjects in Case No. 27973 CD, United States District Court, Southern District of California, Central Division, before Judge ERNEST A. TOLIN, commenced on February 21, 1961.

At the outset of trial, Government counsel moved that all defendants be sequestered for the duration of the trial in order to assure the orderly progress and completion of the trial. The court ordered all defendants to the custody of the U. S. Marshal. Later on the same day, defendant TRUMAN K. GIBSON, JR., was ordered released upon the posting of $5,000 bond. The bond was posted and GIBSON was released. Defendants PAUL JOHN CARBO, FRANK PALERMO, JOSEPH SICA and LOUIS TOM DRAGNA continued in the custody of the U. S. Marshal for duration of the trial.

The Government was represented by Special Prosecutor ALVIN H. GOLDSTEIN, JR., and by Assistant United States Attorneys [redacted] and [redacted] b6 b7C

Defendants were represented by attorneys as follows:

CARBO - [redacted] and [redacted] of New York City acted as advisor for part of the trial but was not an attorney of record. [redacted] assisted primarily in appellate matters.

PALERMO - [redacted] MORRIS WITKIN, of Philadelphia, acted as an advisor for part of the trial but was not an attorney of record. During latter days of trial arguments, [redacted] was present and indicated he had been engaged to assist in possible appellate matters.

SICA - [redacted] trial handled by [redacted]

DRAGNA - [redacted] trial handled by [redacted]

GIBSON - [redacted] of Chicago, [redacted] of Chicago, and [redacted]

b6
b7C

Motions for release on bail were filed on behalf of defendants CARBO, PALERMO, SICA and DRAGNA, were denied by the Court, and appeals to the Ninth Circuit Court of Appeals, San Francisco, were likewise ultimately rejected. A petition to the U. S. Supreme Court for a writ of certiorari and for an order directing release of defendants on bail were denied. These appellate actions took place as the trial progressed.

Trial was in progress from February 21, 1961, to May 27, 1961, when the case was given to a jury of ten women and two men, for deliberation. On May 30, 1961, the jury returned verdicts of Guilty against all defendants, on all counts of the Indictment as charged. Verdicts as to the defendants are tabulated as follows:

PAUL JOHN CARBO - Count 1 Conspiracy, Anti-Racketeering Statute (18 USC 1951)

Count 3 Anti-Racketeering (18 USC 1951)

Count 5 Conspiracy, Extortion Statute (18 USC 371 and 875 (b))

Count 7 Extortion (18 USC 875 (b))

Count 9 Extortion (18 USC 875 (b))

FRANK PALERMO - Count 1

Count 2 Anti-Racketeering (18 USC 1951)

		Count 4	Anti-Racketeering (18 USC 1951)
		Count 5
		Count 6	Extortion (18 USC 875 (b))
		Count 8	Extortion (18 USC 875 (b))
		Count 10	Extortion (18 USC 875 (b))
JOSEPH SICA	-	Count 1
		Count 4
LOUIS TOM DRAGNA	-	Count 1
TRUMAN GIBSON, JR.	-	Count 1

After the jury was polled on the verdicts, Judge TOLIN discharged the jury and set date for judgment and sentencing of defendants for July 20, 1961, at 9:30 a.m. He directed that a Probation Report be prepared by the U S. Probation Office on all defendants, prior to July 10, 1961.

Motions for judgment of acquittal made by all defendants were denied, except as to defendant DRAGNA. As regards to DRAGNA, the court directed counsel to prepare in memorandum form citations to all places in the trial transcript where reference is made to DRAGNA so that the court may review the evidence against DRAGNA to determine if it is legally sufficient to support the verdict. The court's decision on DRAGNA's motion for judgment of acquittal will be given on July 20, 1961.

Pending that decision, the court set bail for DRAGNA at $25,000, and directed that DRAGNA be permitted to make one trip to Denver, Colorado, on personal business prior to that date, but otherwise not to leave the Southern Judicial District of California, all contingent upon the posting of above bond. DRAGNA was retained in custody May 30, 1961, in lieu of bond. On May 31, 1961, DRAGNA posted cash and certified checks totaling $25,000 value with U S. Commissioner THEODORE HOCKE, Los Angeles, and was released from custody.

Motions for new trials were set for hearing on June 2, 1961, before Judge TOLIN.

SAC Simon, Los Angeles, advised that the jury ceased deliberation at approximately 6:00 P. M. Saturday night and did not meet for deliberation on Sunday. Instead a tour of Disneyland had been arranged for them. This morning the jury listened to a replay of a recording of a conversation of Jackie Leonard with William Daly in Daly's hotel room on 5/14/59. The jury thereafter deliberated until lunchtime and after lunch resumed deliberation which it is engaged in at the present time.

There is no indication that the jury is close to reaching a verdict nor is there any indication on how the jury feels. The defendants are in the office of the U. S. Marshal and their attorneys are on call.

The Judge has not indicated whether the jury should continue its deliberations on Memorial Day. Departmental prosecutor Goldstein is optimistic, although "nervous."

Re: United States v. Paul John Carbo, et al.
No. 27973-CD

Dear Mr. Hoover:

Now that we have successfully concluded the trial of the above-entitled case I wish to call your attention to the outstanding work of Special Agent [redacted]. Words do not adequately express the tremendous respect I have for [redacted] and I could not hope to communicate to you, by this letter, the contribution which he has made, not only during the investigation, but in the actual trial of the case.

As you know, I was asked to conduct this prosecution less than two weeks before the case went to trial. I was confronted with what seemed to me at the time to be a hopeless morass of facts and physical evidence. [redacted] was with me day and night prior to and throughout the trial. Although it is sometimes said that no man is indispensible, I suspect that he came about as close to that classification as is possible.

I realize that [redacted] reflects the attitude of all of the personnel of the Federal Bureau of Investigation. I think, however, that if all of the details were known, you would agree that [redacted] great performance was in many respects above and beyond the call of duty.

Yours very truly,

Alvin H. Goldstein, Jr.

Attorney General

[redacted] advised today that [redacted] b6 b7C b7D
one of the counsel for defendants in this matter, had expressed the opinion on 6/23/61 that because of the recent death of Judge ERNEST A. TOLIN the entire matter would have to be retried. [redacted] claimed there was a precedent set in Chicago, Illinois, in a similar long, complicated case where the judge had died prior to sentencing. The defense, according to the source, was now prepared to appeal for a new trial on the basis that no judge could possibly read the voluminous volumes of testimony and render a fair verdict.

At the USA's Office at Los Angeles today it was learned that this matter has now been assigned to visiting Federal Judge GEORGE H. BOLDT, who is presently handling the [redacted] tax evasion trial. This latter trial is b6 b7C in its closing phases and will undoubtedly go to the Jury on 6/27/61.

The Bureau will be kept advised.

Immediately after the trial commenced, ALVIN GOLDSTEIN, appointed as Special Prosecutor in captioned matter, made numerous requests for development of information requiring immediate response. Among these was an interview of [redacted] The information desired was complex in nature, required SA [redacted] personal handling outside the NY Division, and resulted in successfully obtaining the complete cooperation of [redacted] who furnished in detail the required information.

On still another occasion, a request was made by the prosecution for the specific identity of public source material reflecting derogatory background and activities of the defendant CARBO, setting a deadline prior to trial the following morning. SA [redacted] located and telephonically furnished the required information within the short time limit allowed.

During the handling of still another request by the prosecution to obtain specific documentary information and a qualified individual to testify to this information, SA [redacted] uncovered an attempt by an individual, acting for the defense, to secure this same evidence. He was successful in thwarting this individual's efforts despite the fact that the government's subpoena for production of this information had not yet been served. It was subsequently developed by the Los Angeles Division that this individual had known underworld connections.

During the entire period of the trial in captioned matter, SA [redacted] was assigned specifically to an intensified investigation of one of the matters under the Criminal Intelligence Program, which necessitated his close and constant supervision in addition to considerable time and effort. SUBJECT: JOHN DE JOHN, - FUGITIVE
MATERIAL WITNESS;
EXTORTION; AR; CONSPIRACY

Re Bureau O-1 Form dated 8/18/61.

The following is a recapitulation of the activity regarding JOHN DE JOHN, 308 Chester Road, Syracuse, New York, in connection with the case titled FRANK "BLINKY" PALERMO, AKA; ET AL; JACKIE LEONARD, AKA - VICTIM; ET AL; EXTORTION; AR; CONSPIRACY, Bufile 92-4092; LA file 92-642.

DE JOHN was subpoenaed as a Government witness for the PALERMO trial, the first subpoena being issued on 3/31/61. DE JOHN reportedly became ill en route to Los Angeles, California, and was unable to appear when originally scheduled.

A new subpoena was issued in May for DE JOHN, as the trial was still in progress and it was desired to use him as a rebuttal witness for the Government. The U. S. Marshal at Syracuse, New York, reported he could not find DE JOHN to serve him with the new subpoena, and there existed the possibility that DE JOHN was evading service as he was a reluctant witness.

On 5/16/61, the U. S. District Court, Los Angeles, issued a bench warrant for the arrest of DE JOHN as a material witness, ordering that he be brought forthwith before the court. A Fugitive Form Letter was sent the Bureau on 5/16/61, reporting issuance of the bench warrant, and the Albany office was advised of the warrant, with a request that DE JOHN be apprehended pursuant to the warrant.

On 5/17/61, Attorney [redacted] Syracuse, New York, telephoned the Government attorneys and requested that the bench warrant not be served on DE JOHN, promising personally that he would have DE JOHN appear in Los Angeles to testify on 5/18/61. The Court, which issued the bench warrant, was consulted and on 5/17/61, the Court ordered the bench warrant for DE JOHN's arrest as a material witness be withdrawn. On 5/17/61, the Albany office was advised the warrant had been withdrawn.

On 5/17/61, by letter, Los Angeles requested the Bureau cancel the fugitive index on DE JOHN because the warrant had been withdrawn that date. DE JOHN appeared at the trial and testified on 5/18/61, as a Government witness.

By letter dated 5/23/61, to the Bureau, the Albany office reported its inquiry as regards to the location of DE JOHN, and requested the Bureau give consideration to crediting Albany for the location of a fugitive because inquiry there caused the witness to appear.

All communications from the Los Angeles office to the Bureau were under the PALERMO case caption as set forth in the first paragraph of this letter.

Under the circumstances, no separate case was opened on JOHN DE JOHN in the Los Angeles office and the Albany office apparently carried the matter in its file on the PALERMO case, Albany file 9-439. As the matter arose during the PALERMO trial, the warrant was withdrawn the day following its issuance, the witness then appeared and testified, no formal report is contemplated as regards to DE JOHN.

The memorandum of T. J. McAndrews to Mr. Evans dated 9/13/61 indicated that Frankie Carbo, FBI #187972, was held by the Norfolk, Virginia, Police Department for questioning concerning a suspected stolen car. Inquiry by our Los Angeles Office indicated that this Frankie Carbo was still in custody in Los Angeles in connection with instant case.

I inquired of SAC Cole, Norfolk, as to the circumstances of checking this matter with the Bureau. Cole advised that the Norfolk Police Department had picked up an individual giving the name of Frankie Carbo in a suspected stolen car. He was not under arrest. A quick check by the Norfolk Police Department of the Norfolk Office was made. Norfolk in checking its files found a reference to a hoodlum Frankie Carbo, FBI #187972, who was from New York. The car in which the individual was picked up belonged to Tony Stassi, a New York hoodlum and gambler.

Norfolk merely inquired of the Bureau whether Frankie Carbo, FBI #187972, was wanted by the Bureau and did not mean to convey the idea that this Carbo had been arrested by the Norfolk Police Department.

I told Cole that under the circumstances it would have been much more desirable to ascertain background concerning the individual arrested and to have checked with the Bureau to see if he was wanted rather than to check to see if the subject of this case might have been wanted by the Bureau. Cole said that he realized it should have been handled in this fashion.

RE: FRANK "BLINKY" PALERMO, aka; ET AL;

EXTORTION; AR; CONSPIRACY

OO: Los Angeles

The following information was received on 9/18/61 from the Office of the U.S. Attorney, Los Angeles:

Formal Motions for release on bail (pending ruling by Judge GEORGE H. BOLDT, U. S. District Court, who is considering Motions for Judgments of Acquittal, or for New Trials, filed by all Defendants in captioned matter after verdict) were filed by Defendants SICA on 7/24/61; by CARBO on 7/25/61; and PALERMO on 7/26/61. (Defendants GIBSON and DRAGNA are on bail). Judge BOLDT did not set the Motions for Bail for hearing.

On 9/18/61, the U.S. Attorney's Office received a copy of an Order by Judge BOLDT denying the applications for bail by SICA, CARBO and PALERMO, commenting, in effect, that after his review of substantial portions of the transcript of trial there appeared substantial reason to believe that if these defendants were released on bail they might flee, and that there is ample reason to suspect that witnesses fear violence as result of their testimony.

The Order adds that there appear substantial possibilities that there may be a necessity to re-try the case as to one or more, or all, of these Defendants, and for that reason the same facts existing prior to trial would obtain at this time.

There is possibility the Court may have added the comment set forth above in an effort to forestall an appeal from his order denying bail, prior to the time he makes his ruling on the Motions for New Trial or Judgment of Acquittal. Indications are that this ruling will not be expected before October 1, 1961. In that event, the bail ruling would just be on a matter which had heretofore received no action because final action on the substantive motions had been anticipated without such an extended delay. There are indications the court is preparing a summary of the transcript in length exceeding 1,000 pages, which is intended as a part of the record for the appellate courts, if appeals are taken, and to show that Judge BOLDT adequately reviewed the trial record as basis for his decisions and sentences.

There are attached six copies of a letterhead memorandum which is self-explanatory, relating to an application of Defendant TRUMAN K. GIBSON, JR., for permission to travel abroad while on bail in this matter and prior to sentencing. The U.S. Attorney is opposing the request for the stated reason that the indictment is not for an extraditable offense. It is suggested that the Bureau may wish to disseminate to the International Cooperation Administration, or other Government agencies, the information contained in the attached memorandum.

TRUMAN K. GIBSON, JR.

Mr. Truman K. Gibson, Jr., Chicago, Illinois, was convicted in United States District Court, Southern District of California, Los Angeles, California, Case Number 27973-CD, on May 30, 1961, with other defendants, upon an indictment which charged him in one count with violation of Section 1951, Title 18, United States Code, and in one count with violation of Sections 371 and 875(b), Title 18, United States Code. Both charges are felonies. Gibson is at liberty on bail pending disposition of post-trial motions. He has not been sentenced.

Gibson has made application to travel outside the United States for the period September 26, 1961 to October 5, 1961, and to visit in the countries of Liberia and Nigeria on his travel from New York City, New York. In support of his application for permission to depart the United States while at liberty on bail, Gibson has stated that he is Vice President and a member of the Board of Directors of Griffith Construction Company, Posen, Illinois, which company owns the Gold Star Homes, a factory manufacturing pre-fabricated houses at Peoria, Illinois.

Gibson alleges that the Griffith Construction Company has contracted with the International Cooperation Administration to build at least 600 houses in Liberia and Nigeria, and in other places to be agreed upon, and that as the principal Negro officer in the company, it is essential that he travel to Liberia and Nigeria in connection with the preparations of the company to construct houses there.

[redacted] was sought as a material witness for the trial of FRANK "BLINKY" PALERMO, aka; ET AL; JACKIE LEONARD, aka - VICTIM; ET AL; EXTORTION; AR; CONSPIRACY. This case was on trial in the U. S. District Court at Los Angeles, Calif. Efforts of the U. S. Marshal to serve [redacted] with a subpoena were unsuccessful and on 3/30/61, trial judge ERNEST A. TOLIN issued an order directing that [redacted] be brought before the court forthwith. A warrant for her arrest as a material witness was issued by the clerk of the court, based upon the court's order.

A fugitive form letter was forwarded to the Bureau on 3/30/61, in the PALERMO case.

As there were indications that [redacted] normally a resident of Philadelphia, Pa., might be at her residence at the time but refusing the service of a subpoena, the warrant was forwarded to the Philadelphia Office of the FBI with the request that it be served, if possible, upon her.

Subsequent inquiry determined that [redacted] had been secretly married to [redacted] against whom her testimony was desired.

If she could have been located, her testimony was desired on behalf of the government on 4/4/61.

On 5/22/61, Judge TOLIN ordered the bench warrant, described above, to be withdrawn as both parties to the trial in progress had rested their cases. The bench warrant was returned to the clerk of the court on 6/9/61.

As the warrant was ordered withdrawn and CORI was not located prior to the time it could be executed by her arrest, no investigative report will be submitted.

U. S. District Court Judge GEORGE H. BOLDT, by order dated 11/3/61, received 11/6/61 by the U. S. Attorney, Los Angeles, denied motions for bail by Defendants PAUL JOHN CARBO and JOSEPH SICA.

Court stated that SICA's reported illness is not such that he is unable to receive adequate treatment while in custody.

The order further stated that CARBO's suggestion the court will require a considerable amount of additional time to examine the transcript before making a final ruling, is without substance. Court commented that CARBO has never given a business or residence address at which he could be located in the event he were released on bail, and that although the government pointed out this omission, CARBO had not supplied the data.

SICA's motion for bail had been filed 10/11/61, and CARBO's renewed motion had been filed 10/31/61.

Bureau will be kept advised of developments.

The purpose of this memorandum is to set forth substantial prison sentences received by defendants in this case on December 2, 1961, in U. S. District Court, Los Angeles.

BACKGROUND

Captioned subjects along with Truman K. Gibson, Jr., Joseph Sica and Louis Tom Dragna were found guilty after extended jury trial in U. S. District Court, Los Angeles, May 30, 1961, as charged in 10 count indictment returned by Federal Grand Jury in Los Angeles, September 22, 1959, with violations of extortion, anti-racketeering and conspiracy to commit same. Trial Judge E. A. Tolin died shortly after trial and prior to sentencing.

On December 2, 1961, U. S. District Judge George H. Boldt in Los Angeles, California, denied all motions of defendants for new trial holding verdict of guilty was amply supported by trial record which he found free of prejudicial error.

SENTENCES

Judge Boldt sentenced each of the defendants as follows:

Paul John Carbo

20 years and $10,000 fine on count 1, conspiracy to violate anti-racketeering statute. 5 years on count 3, extortion to run consecutive with count 1; 5 years each on counts 5, 7 and 9, extortion and conspiracy to commit same, to run consecutively but concurrently with counts 1 and 3.

Prosecution of captioned matter in Case No. 27973 CD, entitled United States v. PAUL JOHN CARBO, et al, in the United States District Court for the Southern District of California, was under the ultimate direction of Mr. ALVIN H. GOLDSTEIN, Jr., Special Assistant to the Attorney General, who was assigned as Special Prosecutor for the case.

As the Bureau is aware, there are five defendants in the case and the indictment is in ten counts. The defendants utilized approximately twenty lawyers in handling the various phases of the defense, many of them considered to be extremely capable in specialized fields of law. It is estimated the cost of the trial to the defense has been in excess of $100,000 to date.

Some defendants were considered to be extremely dangerous characters, and to provide for an orderly trial Mr. GOLDSTEIN concluded that at least four of the defendants should be held in custody during the trial. This position was strongly urged on the court, and the Government prevailed as to defendants PAUL JOHN CARBO, FRANK PALERMO, JOSEPH SICA and LOUIS TOM DRAGNA. TRUMAN K. GIBSON, Jr., was held in custody of the U.S. Marshal briefly on the first day of trial and then released on bail, primarily because he is an attorney. The other four defendants were held in custody throughout the trial.

After ordering the defendants to custody, Trial Judge E. A. TOLIN said this was the first time in his lengthy career as a judge that he felt it imperative to order defendants held in custody during trial when they were financially able to post bail. The matter of bail was then taken by the defense to the Ninth Circuit Court of Appeals during the trial and ultimately to the U.S. Supreme Court, unsuccessfully. Following conviction the bail matter again was taken to the circuit court, but became moot by the sentencing.

After sentence was pronounced on 12/2/61 by Judge GEORGE H. BOLDT, who succeeded the late Judge TOLIN, the matter of bail was again raised by the defense and the court denied bail to CARBO and SICA, setting bail for the others at $100,000; for PALERMO; $25,000; for DRAGNA who had been released after conviction on the same bail pending sentence; and $5,000 for GIBSON pending appeal. Judge BOLDT said this was only the second time in his lengthy career as judge that he has found it necessary to deny bail.

As the Bureau has been advised, Judge BOLDT imposed very substantial prison terms and fines against the defendants in this extremely significant case.

The aggressive approach to the trial by Mr. GOLDSTEIN shows in the results of the prosecution. It has been an extremely lengthy procedure to date, and probably will involve an appeal from the conviction to the Ninth Circuit Court of Appeals by all defendants, and, if unsuccessful there, will probably be appealed to the Supreme Court. It has, and will continually require resourceful, aggressive and concentrated action by government counsel to resist the highly competent counsel employed by the defense, to whom money in large amounts appears no problem. b6 b7C

Throughout the trial and the post trial matters, Mr. GOLDSTEIN has been assisted by Assistant U.S. Attorney [redacted] who is an exceedingly capable, though youthful attorney. He is a tireless worker, was thoroughly absorbed by the trial of the case which he considered as an unusual opportunity for him, and his detailed analysis of the evidence and the law were especially helpful in the prosecution.

Both Mr. GOLDSTEIN and [redacted] are decidedly complimentary of the Bureau, and have been entirely cooperative. Their performance in this case is considerably beyond the usual experience. It is recognized that the Director wrote a letter of congratulations to Mr. GOLDSTEIN under date of June 8, 1961, upon return of the jury verdict in this case. Because of the large amount of work required of the two attorneys after the verdict, due to the death of the trial judge and the necessity of handling requests of the succeeding judge, appellate matters, bail matters in addition to the conduct of the trial, and in view of the substantial sentences secured against the defendants on 12/2/61, it is suggested the Director may wish to write again to Mr. GOLDSTEIN a very warm letter of appreciation for his untiring efforts against formidable odds in this significant case.

It is also suggested that the Director may wish to write a commendatory letter to [redacted] for his energetic and competent work in connection with the prosecution. A letter to Mr. ALVIN H. GOLDSTEIN, Jr., may be addressed to his office, 351 California Street, San Francisco, California. A letter to [redacted] Assistant United States Attorney, may be addressed to his office, U. S. Post Office and Court House, Los Angeles, California.

RECOMMENDATIONS, GENERAL INVESTIGATIVE DIVISION

All five subjects, Carbo, Palermo, Gibson, Sica and Dragna, were convicted in U. S. District Court, Los Angeles, 5/30/61 after lengthy trial and recently sentenced to substantial prison terms and fines for their attempt to gain control of welterweight boxing title. Prior to sentencing, trial judge died and sentences handed down by new judge after lengthy review of record. During this interim period numerous motions and appeals were submitted by the defense and argued by Special Prosecutor Alvin H. Goldstein along with his assistant, [redacted] AUSA, Los Angeles. The Director wrote Goldstein on 6/8/61 congratulating him on successful prosecution. It is recommended in addition that letters be directed to Goldstein and [redacted] commending them upon the manner in which they so ably handled appellate matters, etc., after the death of the trial judge and before sentencing.

TRUMAN K. GIBSON, JR. of Chicago was at that time President of National Boxing Enterprises, Inc. of Chicago and he had been president of National Boxing Club, Inc., New York City. These two corporations controlled several large arenas, including Madison Square Garden and Chicago Stadium. The corporations contracted to set up boxing matches throughout the country each Wednesday and Friday night for nation-wide television broadcast on the American Broadcasting Company and National Broadcasting Company networks. GIBSON was actively in charge of negotiations with boxing managers and promoters for matches to be televised on behalf of the companies he represented, and because of the advertising funds available for telecasts, his position was paramount in boxing promotions throughout the United States.

Under yearly contract, the companies for which GIBSON was employed were obligated to exhibit boxing matches of sporting significance for the advertising sponsors. GIBSON wanted a championship match on December 5, 1958, as a sales promotion event for a sponsor. Tentative arrangements were made by GIBSON with the managers of VIRGIL AKINS and DON JORDAN that if JORDAN won his match October 22, 1958, against GASPAR ORTEGA, JORDAN would be offered a contract to fight AKINS December 5, 1958, for the Welterweight Championship. JORDAN defeated ORTEGA.

The following day, October 23, 1958, FRANK "BLINKY" PALERMO, formerly a boxing manager in Philadelphia, Pennsylvania, telephoned from Chicago to TRUMAN GIBSON in Los Angeles and also spoke, during the same phone call, to JACKIE LEONARD. PALERMO was known to LEONARD and GIBSON as a close associate of PAUL JOHN CARBO, generally known as FRANK CARBO, who had been connected with boxing for many years but not as a licensed participant. In the phone call, PALERMO demanded, in effect, a half interest in JORDAN's boxing contract with [redacted] or JORDAN would not be permitted to box AKINS for the title. LEONARD took this demand to be on behalf of PALERMO and CARBO and subsequent events proved the accuracy of LEONARD's belief.

LEONARD relayed PALERMO's demand to GIBSON and [redacted] refused to enter such agreement. At the uring of GIBSON, LEONARD telephoned PALERMO the same day informing PALERMO in effect, that PALERMO's demands would be acceptable. This call was made over the objection of [redacted] GIBSON had agreed to hold [redacted] free from financial loss to PALERMO and the situation in actuality involved no funds of LEONARD as he was not a participant in the JORDAN contract.

A championship match between JORDAN and AKINS was fought at Los Angeles on December 5, 1958. JORDAN won. A re-match was scheduled pursuant to the contract. Prior to the re-match, [redacted] arranged for a bout between JORDAN and ALVARO GUITERREZ on January 22, 1959. In January, at PALERMO's insistence, LEONARD traveled alone from Los Angeles to Miami, Florida, where he was confronted with CARBO, PALERMO and others regarding the control of JORDAN's boxing contract and the demands of CARBO and PALERMO that LEONARD control [redacted] sufficiently to enforce the arrangements required by CARBO and PALERMO. This also included control of scheduling matches to be fought by JORDAN.

After the JORDAN - GUITERREZ match, PALERMO and CARBO via telephone calls to LEONARD, demanded 15 percent of the gross purse won by JORDAN rather than one half of the manager's share of JORDAN's contract. LEONARD informed GIBSON and GIBSON instructed LEONARD to pay the money to PALERMO on GIBSON's promise of reimbursement. LEONARD sent a check for $1,725 via registered mail payable to a female in Philadelphia unknown to LEONARD but now known to be the wife of PALERMO. The check was eventually cashed by an acquaintance of PALERMO at Miami, Florida, without PALERMO's endorsement although PALERMO received the currency from the check. PALERMO had told LEONARD where to send the money later berating him for sending it by check and registered mail. GIBSON reimbursed LEONARD with a corporate check for $1,800. JORDAN defeated AKINS in their re-match and St. Louis oon April 24, 1959, and the next day, PALERMO demanded [redacted] give up a share of JORDAN's purse. [redacted] refused.

On April 28, 1959, CARBO and PALERMO spoke via long distance telephone with LEONARD in calls minutes apart in which CARBO threatened LEONARD with death for failure of the scheme of CARBO and PALERMO to obtain control and a share of JORDAN's contract for which they offered no reimbursement. These calls emanated from Philadelphia, Pennsylvania, telephone utilized by PALERMO.

A few days later, PALERMO traveled to Chicago and then to Los Angeles where he sought through GIBSON, LEONARD, [redacted] to enforce his demands. At Los Angeles he solicited and obtained the assistance of JOSEPH SICA and LOUIS TOM DRAGNA in his efforts to force the issue. When [redacted] learned that PALERMO was in Los Angeles he reported the situation to police officers, the State Athletic Commission and he had also reported the situation regarding PALERMO's visit to him in St. Louis to the police department there.

On September 22, 1959, at Los Angeles, California, defendants PAUL JOHN CARBO, FRANK PALERMO, JOSEPH SICA, LOUIS TOM DRAGNA and TRUMAN K. GIBSON, JR. were indicted by the Federal Grand Jury in a ten-count indictment charging them with extortion by threatening communications, violating the anti-racketeering act and conspiracy to violate the acts (18 U.S. Code 371 and 875 (b)). Bench warrants were issued for the arrest of the defendants named in the indictment. Defendant DRAGNA was arrested at Los Angeles, California.

In a trial that commenced February 21, 1961, on May 30, 1961, the jury returned a verdict of guilty against all defendants on all counts in which they were individually named in the indictment.

Defendant LOUIS TOM DRAGNA was convicted on Counts 1 and 5 of the indictment and was sentenced as follows on December 2, 1961:

Count 1	(Hobbs Act; Conspiracy) 5 years
Count 5	(Conspiracy; Extortion) 5 years to run concurrently with sentence in Count 1. Court ordered that sentence in Count 1, under 18 U. S. Code 4208 (a)(2), is to allow defendant release from custody at time to be determined by U. S. Board of Parole; no minimum term set.

AGGRAVATING CIRCUMSTANCES

The trial court refused to set bail for DRAGNA during the period of the trial from February 21, 1961, to May 30, 1961. The trial court set bail at $25,000 for DRAGNA's release following conviction but pending sentence while three other defendants were retained in custody. The stated reason of the trial court for refusing to set bail during the trial was that the court did not believe an orderly trial would result in the event the defendants were at liberty during the trial and apprehension for the safety of government witnesses, and DRAGNA's association with persons who resort to violence.

MITIGATING CIRCUMSTANCES

There are no known mitigating circumstances.

DETAILS:

AT LOS ANGELES, CALIFORNIA

On December 2, 1961, United States District Court Judge GEORGE H. BOLDT of Tacoma, Washington, sitting as a visiting judge in the United States District Court for the Southern District of California at Los Angeles as successor to the trial judge, the late ERNEST A. TOLIN, called Case No. 27973 CD, United States District Court, Southern District of California, for hearing on all pending post-trial motions for judgment of acquittal or for new trial which had been filed by defendants in the case. Judge BOLDT ruled that after careful consideration of all pending motions, the court decided each and every motion then pending on behalf of the defendants was to be denied and asked for any statements on behalf of the defendants prior to sentence.

Attorneys for each defendant made oral requests of the court for leniency on behalf of their clients. Defendants PALERMO, SICA, DRAGNA and GIBSON spoke in their own behalf. Following a statement by government counsel, Judge BOLDT sentenced the defendants as follows:

PAUL JOHN CARBO

Count 1	(Hobbs Act; conspiracy) 20 years in custody of U. S. Attorney General, and fine of $10,000.
Count 3	(Hobbs Act) 5 years, to run consecutive to sentence in Count 1, for total of 25 years in custody.
Count 5	(Conspiracy; Extortion) 5 years.

Count 7	(Extortion by interstate communication) 5 years.
Count 9	(Extortion by interstate communication) 5 years.
	Sentences in Counts 5, 7 and 9 are to run consecutive to each other for a total of 15 years, and are to run concurrently with sentence in Counts 1 and 3.

FRANK PALERMO

Count 1	15 years and fine of $10,000.
Count 2	(Hobbs Act) 5 years.
Count 4	(Hobbs Act) 5 years.
Count 5	5 years.
	Sentences in Counts 2, 4 and 5 are to run consecutively to each other, and concurrently with sentence in Count 1.
Count 6	(Extortion) 5 years.
Count 8	(Extortion) 5 years.
Count 10	(Extortion) 5 years.
	Sentences in Counts 6, 8 and 10 are to run consecutively to each other and concurrently with sentence in Count 1.

JOSEPH SICA

Count 1	20 years and $10,000 fine.
Count 4	5 years.
Count 5	5 years.

Sentences in Counts 4 and 5 are to run concurrently with sentence in Count 1, but consecutive to each other.

LOUIS TOM DRAGNA

Count 1	5 years.
Count 5	5 years, to run concurrently with sentence in Count 1. Court ordered that sentence in Count 1, under 18 USC 4208 (a)(2), is to allow defendant release from custody at time to be determined by U. S. Board of Parole; no minimum term set.

TRUMAN K. GIBSON, JR.

Count 1	5 years and $10,000 fine.
Count 5	5 years, to run concurrently with sentence in Count 1. Imprisonment was suspended and defendant placed on probation for 5 years provided he pays the fine promptly.

(Counts 1 through 4 charged violations of 18 U. S. Code 1951 - Hobbs Act or Anti-Racketeering Statute. Count 5 charged violations of 18 U. S. Code 371 and 875 (b) - Conspiracy and Extortion by Interstate Communication. Counts 6 through 10 charged violations of 18 U. S. Code 875 (b) - Extortion by Interstate Communication).

Judge BOLDT stated in recognition of the time spent in custody by defendants CARBO, PALERMO, SICA and DRAGNA during the trial and by defendants CARBO, PALERMO and SICA after the jury verdict but prior to sentence, he had subtracted one year from each sentence which he would otherwise have imposed against each defendant, as credit for time already spent in jail in this matter.

Oral motions were made by defendants CARBO, PALERMO and SICA for release on bail pending appeal from the conviction.

The court set bail for PALERMO's release pending appeal at $100,000. The court denied to fix bail for defendants CARBO and SICA pending appeal. Bail of defendant DRAGNA was continued at $25,000 pending appeal. Defendant GIBSON's bail of $5,000 was continued, pending appeal.

Immediately, Notice of Appeal from the denial of bail for CARBO and SICA was filed in their behalf, and Assistant United States Attorney [redacted] reported that argument on the question of bail only for defendants CARBO and SICA was heard by the Circuit Court of Appeals, Ninth Circuit in San Francisco, California, on December 13, 1961. Decision by the Court of Appeals on the question of bail is pending.

Defendant CARBO on December 2, 1961, filed Notice of Intention to Appeal, from the conviction and his election not to have the time spent in jail pending a decision on his appeal apply to the sentence imposed. Defendant PALERMO filed a Notice of Intention to Appeal on December 2, 1961. Defendant SICA on December 2, 1961, filed a Notice of Intention to Appeal from the conviction. He made no comment as to whether or not he intended to have time served in jail pending disposition of the appeal apply to the sentence imposed. If no such application is made by SICA, he will be transported to a federal prison to commence serving his sentence upon conclusion of the appellate court consideration of his pending bail matter.

Assistant United States Attorney [redacted] advised that the government has stipulated with defendant GIBSON to the effect that the filing of the appeal will stay the immediate payment of fine in order to comply with the sentence imposed, until the appellate court decisions are received.

Assistant United States Attorney [redacted] further advised that there is a slight discrepancy in the court reporter's transcript of the sentencing and the court order of the sentencing for defendant SICA only. The court order shows SICA was sentenced on Count 1 to serve twenty years and pay a $20,000 fine; on Count 4 to serve five years and on Count 5 to serve five years, the sentence on Counts 4 and 5 to run concurrently to the sentence in Count 1 but consecutive to each other. The court reporter's transcript is not in exact accord with the order as refers to Counts 4 and 5. The transcript shows the reporter did not record the sentence for Count 4. Assistant United States Attorney [redacted] stated he anticipates no particular legal difficulty in connection with this discrepancy as the court order clearly shows the intent of the judge and Count 4 had a sentence identical for that of Count 5 and the two sentences were to run concurrently.

Disposition sheets for defendants CARBO, PALERMO, SICA, DRAGNA and GIBSON are submitted.

In connection with a motion for bail filed by defendant CARBO, he claimed his legal residence as 970 Northeast 111th Street, Miami, Florida. Special Prosecutor ALVIN H. [redacted] said that Mr. CARBO was not referred to her by any other person and that he apparently contacted her as result of a permanent sign 'Miami Shores Villas, Sales and Rentals', which is posted in front of duplex apartment at 970-972 N. E. 111th Street. [redacted] is a real estate broker and uses the sign to solicit business. b6 b7C

[redacted] said that on the initial contact with her, [redacted] was favorably impressed with the apartment except for the fact that the apartment had no telephone service. She said she received the impression from Mr. CARBO's conversation that he did not want a phone listed in his name although he made no direct statement to that effect. She said she arranged for the installation of a telephone in the apartment listed in the name [redacted], telephone PLaza 1-6708. [redacted] is [redacted] maiden name. She said this listing was her own idea and was not suggested by Mr. CARBO. She said that while residing at the apartment from February to April of 1959, he received telephone bills for this telephone and reimbursed [redacted] who paid the bills.

[redacted] said that on [redacted] most recent visit about November 2, 1961, [redacted] at [redacted] request, turned over to [redacted] all receipted bills for this telephone for period February 1959 to present. [redacted] has paid all telephone bills and has been reimbursed in cash by the CARBO's. The listing for [redacted] appears in the current Miami telephone directory.

[redacted] said that Mr. & Mrs. CARBO resided in the apartment from February 10, 1959 until the latter part of April of 1959 at which time both departed. She has seen Mr. CARBO only once since that time. This was on August 16, 1959 when Mr. CARBO paid her $800 advance rental and stayed overnight for one or two nights.

With reference to receipt of rent payments, [redacted] said some of these payments have been received by her through the mail and some have been received from [redacted] on her occasional visits to the apartment. All payments have been in currency. When payments received by mail Mrs. REED would hold [redacted] copy of the receipt until the next time [redacted] appeared. At such times, [redacted] would reimburse her for telephone bills paid and also for electric bills for the CARBO apartment.

[redacted] said the rental rate of $150.00 per month included maid service at the apartment.

On August 17, 1961 [redacted] received a one hundred dollar bill in the mail from [redacted] After receiving this payment [redacted] decided that she would reduce the rental rate to $100 per month inasmuch as the apartment was not being used sufficiently to require maid service. On [redacted] most recent visit on about November 2, 1961, [redacted] informed her of the reduced rental. [redacted] said [redacted] was appreciative of the reduced rate. [redacted] said there was no written lease executed by the CARBO's at any time on the apartment although on original contacts Mr. CARBO asked if the apartment would be available for a year and [redacted] agreed. The apartment is fully furnished with furniture, stove, refrigerator and a portable television set. Only utility service other than telephone is electric service by Florida Power and Light. The duplex apartment at 972 N. E. 111th Street is serviced by a seperate electric meter and the monthly charge is billed to [redacted] and has been so billed for a number of years prior to CARBO renting the apartment. In the CARBO's absence the electric bill has averaged about $5.00 per month resulting primarily from the automatic water heater in the apartment. b6 b7C

There is a seperate mail box at the duplex apartment and [redacted] has no knowledge of mail received there by the CARBO's during their continuous residence there in February through April of 1959. Since that time the only mail [redacted] recalls addressed to P. J. CARBO were two letters from the Internal Revenue Service. One letter was received about December 15, 1960 and turned over by [redacted] to [redacted] at some subsequent unrecalled date. The second such letter was received about the last of October or the first of November of 1961, and turned over to [redacted] about November 2, 1961.

[redacted] said that the CARBO's have personal property in the apartment consisting of clothing, luggage and a foot locker. To her knowledge no personal property tax bills have been received at that address for the CARBO's. She said the CARBO's lived quietly at the apartment during February through April of 1959. Several men, identity unknown, called on them at the apartment. She said [redacted] visited the apartment with [redacted] several times during the Spring and Summer of 1959. She learned that [redacted] maiden name was [redacted] when [redacted] gave her a memorial folder from the funeral home after the death of [redacted] mother.

[redacted] said she did not know of P. J. CARBO's fugitive status until his photograph appeared in the Miami Herald newspaper immediately following his arrest at Haddon Township, New Jersey, the last of May of 1959. Up until that time she said she had no knowledge of his alleged past activities. She said she never knew him to use any name other than P. J. CARBO. She said she did not inform any law enforcement officers of his residence because he was in custody at the time she learned that he had been wanted.

[redacted] said she is unable to estimate the total amount of time [redacted] has stayed in the apartment since April of 1959. While CARBO was in custody in

New York, [redacted] would make periodic visits to the apartment and stay for about a week or ten days. Since CARBO has been in California, VIOLA has stayed at the apartment infrequently for periods of two to three days. To [redacted] knowledge, [redacted] did not stay at the apartment from May of 1961 until the first part of November of 1961, her most recent visit. The only visit [redacted] can recall for the period of February 1, 1961 to November 1, 1961 was a stay of three to five days in May of 1961. [redacted] pointed out that she, [redacted] was out of town about the last two weeks in March of 1961 and about the first week in April of 1961 and she did not know whether [redacted] was at the apartment during that period.

b7C

It was pointed out to [redacted] that she informed SA [redacted] on November 16, 1959 that the CARBO's left the apartment in the latter part of April of 1959 and had not been there since that time except for brief visit by P. J. CARBO on August 16, 1959. [redacted] advised SA [redacted] on March 3, 1961 that [redacted] had left the apartment in October of 1960. [redacted] advised SA [redacted] on April 13, 1961 that no one had lived in [redacted] apartment in months. [redacted] states her statements to the foregoing agents on those occasions are true to the best of her knowledge.

[redacted] said that it has been very difficult to rent apartment in her neighborhood and that she wants to retain the CARBO's as tenants. She said she considers them very desirable tenants.

[redacted] said she received a long distance telephone call from [redacted] from California on November 9, 1961. Terms of the bail restrict PALERMO to the Southern Judicial District of California, the Eastern District of Pennsylvania, and the District of New Jersey, where PALERMO claims to have property with relatives at Atlantic City.

PALERMO states he is now represented by Attorney [redacted] of Philadelphia, and attorney [redacted] of Los Angeles. PALERMO has filed a Notice of Appeal from his conviction. b6 b7C Suggest Philadelphia and Newark be alert for information which might indicate PALERMO may be victim of violence because he involved PAUL JOHN CARBO in situation which lead to prosecution.

CARBO's wife, [redacted] was in courtroom at time defendants were sentenced. She tried to converse with PALERMO and he appeared to decline with some disgust. CARBO declined to speak in his own behalf before sentence was pronounced. PALERMO did speak, requested leniency from the court, and mentioned his family interests quite prominently. CARBO's facial expression at the time betrayed his seeming disapproval at PALERMO's action.

On 1/23/62, a copy of opinion of Ninth Circuit Court of Appeals was received by Clerk, USDC, Los Angeles, relating to appeals previously argued in Circuit Court, from order of District Judge GEORGE H. BOLDT who declined to fix bail for PAUL JOHN CARBO and JOSEPH SICA, pending their appeal from conviction in captioned case. Printed opinion has not been received as yet.

Opinion of Circuit Court, in effect, holds that District Court, after sentence of defendant, cannot use as a basis for refusal of bail a possibility of harm to witnesses, but must consider only the likelihood that defendants will appear when ordered by court to do so. Opinion states there is considerable evidence in trial record that CARBO and SICA might not respond to court order for appearance, and Circuit sent matter back to District Court for a determination as to whether an amount of bail can be arrived at which in opinion of District Court would cause appearance of defendants. Appellate Court stated this is decision for District Court, which should not be influenced by opinion of Appellate Court.

Judge BOLDT may or may not require hearing on this matter before entering his final order.

In anticipation of possible hearing, USA, Los Angeles, desires current information as to status of tax matters pending against CARBO, which might be utilized in urging District Court to continue refusal of bail.

Los Angeles files show default judgment was obtained against CARBO in USDC, SDNY, on 2/29/56 in amount of $23,808.06, for failure to pay income tax for years 1945 through 1949. Also, that USA, SDNY, on 8/13/58 filed a complaint against CARBO in amount of $750,719.57 for fraud penalties for failure to report certain income for years 1944 through 1946, and 1949 through 1951. This is a civil matter in which there appears no judgment has been obtained, and perhaps CARBO has not been served as yet with a copy of the summons and complaint, because he has not been in New York except in custody.

New York Office is requested to check with U. S. Attorney, Southern District of New York, to determine exact status of these matters. Advise Los Angeles via airtel as soon as possible.

[redacted] Information received from U. S. Probation Officer [redacted] that Chief U. S. Probation Officer Angus D. McEachen, Southern District of California, insisted upon deletion of descriptive material and instructed that a "watered down" report be made to U. S. District Court, Los Angeles, in connection with presentence investigation of Frankie Carbo, "Blinky" Palermo, Truman K. Gibson, Joseph Sica and Louis Dragna.

Another subordinate, U. S. Probation Officer [redacted] indicated McEachen by innuendo in another case that he desired a favorable presentence report.

BACKGROUND

In the case involving Carbo, Et Al., all were found guilty on 5-30-61 after an extended jury trial in U. S. District Court, Los Angeles, in connection with charges of extortion, anti-racketeering and conspiracy relating to their attempts to maintain control over the welterweight boxing title. On 12-2-61 U. S. District Judge George H. Boldt imposed substantial sentences for each defendant after reviewing lengthy trial transcript and presentence reports prepared by [redacted]

The following unsolicited information was received by our Los Angeles Office subsequent to the sentencing of Carbo, Palermo, Et Al: (INFORMATION RECEIVED IN BUREAU 12-19-61)

[redacted] stated he was appointed to make the presentence investigation of Carbo, Et Al., by the now deceased Trial Judge Ernest A. Tolin over the objections of McEachen. During the preparation of his report he alleged McEachen contacted him daily giving him the impression that McEachen wanted the report "watered down." He alleged McEachen insisted on deleting certain descriptive material regarding individuals and made numerous statements depreciating law enforcement efforts against racketeering stating that the American way of life has racketeering woven through it and it was something you lived with and did not fight.

RE: ANGUS D. MC EACHEN

According to [redacted] McEachen put similar pressure on U. S. Probation Officer [redacted] in another matter to effect a "watered down" report. Upon interview [redacted] substantiated the fact that McEachen had indicated to him that he desired a favorable presentence report in another case involving a Federal Reserve Act violation by [redacted] who was defended by a former U. S. Attorney, Charles H. Carr.

[redacted] stated he furnished this information to Mr. Thomas R. Sheridan, Chief, Criminal Division, U. S. Attorney's Office, Los Angeles, who was to give the information to U. S. Attorney Francis C. Whelan who could then take the matter up with Pierson Hall, Chief U. S. District Court Judge, Los Angeles. [redacted] also furnished this information to Judge George H. [redacted] advised McEachen maintained contacts from his days as an Assistant U. S. Attorney with present members of the Los Angeles bar and bench which [redacted] felt were used to influence presentence matters.

There are enclosed herewith the original and three copies of a letterhead memorandum regarding captioned individual.

The interview with U. S. Probation Officer [redacted] was entirely unsolicited. The interview was conducted at the Los Angeles FBI Office after Mr. GUTMAN telephoned for an appointment with SA [redacted] and without indicating the purpose of his visit. Because of his pre-sentence investigation in the case involving PAUL JOHN CARBO and others, [redacted] was aware that SA [redacted] had conducted considerable investigation on the substantive violations of the various defendants.

The defendants in that case were sentenced on Saturday, December 2, 1961, by U. S. District Court Judge GEORGE H. BOLDT. While the comments of the Judge at the time of the hearing may have had significance, not otherwise understood, the Judge commented that he is not in favor of the practice of making pre-sentence reports available to defense counsel and did so in this case only because the prior Judge had so directed. After sentencing the defendants, the Judge called a recess for the purpose of allowing the court clerk to prepare an order. During the recess, it was observed that the court bailiff called Chief Probation Officer ANGUS D. MC EACHEN from the court-room to the Judge's chambers. Mr. MC EACHEN attended the court session. [redacted] was not observed in the court-room on that occasion.

The interview of Probation Officer [redacted] was unsolicited, was conducted at the Long Beach, California
