If Brian Laundrie wasn't white, he'd be in jail already.

Hi Ron DeSantis,

I am sure, you have been following, this incredibly weird missing, person's case, it has gone world wide. The FBI and police are searching, in The Carlton Reserve, my question why are they not using FLIR (Forward Looking Infrared), it would show, body heat, a helicopter can travel much faster, than Brian Laundrie could, then you can arrest him, why get a Lawyer, and why is he, on the run?

Another thought, I believe his parents, know more than they, are letting on, they most likely, took him to this Reserve, so he could go into hiding, or they took him, to the Airport, and now, he could be anywhere. I have noticed mental health, is getting worse in this Country, I have bipolar disorder, I'm on meds, it sounded like Brian Laundrie and Gabby Petito, also have, mental health issues, so provide helicopter's with (FLIR), and Army support, there is something really fishy, about this whole thing, these are my thoughts, I pray they find Gabrielle Petito.

Sincerely. D. Scott Dobbin
